Midland Bank Ltd.

Westminster Branch : Central Buildings, Westminster.

A BRANCH IS NOW OPEN AT CENTRAL BUILDINGS, WESTMINSTER, WITH ACCOMODATION FOR FOREIGN AND COLONIAL VISITORS.

(A) Conference Room. For Trustees' and Directors' Meetings, Arbitrations, Travellers' Appointments, etc.

(B) Ladies' Waiting Room.

(C) Safe Deposit Room. For the Safe Custody (whilst Touring) of Luggage.

MAILS MAY BE RECEIVED AT THE ABOVE ADDRESS.

Special Facilities

Circuit Accounts.

Arrangements will be made for these accounts to be opened at the above Branch. Moneys will be received for the credit of such accounts, and cheques paid, at any of the Branches of the Bank. Special paying-in books have been prepared, which will be supplied to local Treasurers, for each part of a Circuit. Arrangements will be made for Credits to be received by another bank in any district where the Bank has no Branch.

Ministers' Private Accounts.

The Itinerancy system need not necessitate a frequent change of Bankers. A permanent account opened at the Wesleyan Hall Branch may be operated upon through other Branches and Banks by arrangement.

Foreign Missionaries' Accounts.

Special financial facilities are given to Ministers leaving for foreign countries, and instructions accepted for payment of Insurance premiums and other periodical payments. Deed Boxes, Wills, and Documents held for safe custody without charge. Drafts on all places abroad are issued at the finest rates.

The London City and Midland Executor and Trustee Co., Ltd., will act as Executor or Trustee under a Will or Marriage Settlement, or as Manager of an Estate.

For further particulars for opening 'Circuit' accounts on an improved system apply to

The Wesleyan Methodist Trust Assurance Company, Limited.

(FORTY-THIRD YEAR.)

The Attention of Ministers and Laymen is directed to the Position and Aims of this Company.

CONNEXIONAL INSURANCE.

The Company was established in 1872 for the Insurance from Fire of Connexional Trust Property only, and all its profits are held for Connexional Purposes. It now also grants insurances under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, and issues policies indemnifying School Authorities against their liability in respect of accidents to children, etc., etc.

RESERVE FUNDS.

It possesses Reserve Funds amounting to ten times the Annual Premium Income, a position of exceptional strength.

BENEFICENT CONNEXIONAL GRANTS.

It has given £44,900 to the Worn-Out Ministers' Fund, of which more than half has been contributed within the last nine years. The grant at the recent Conference was £2,900.

ADVANTAGES OFFERED.

Losses are dealt with in the most liberal spirit, and the rates of premium are no higher than those of other offices. No other Company can offer greater advantages to Trustees—often less—and all insurances effected with such Companies are a distinct loss to the Connexion at large.

The Directors appeal to Ministers and Trustees for the Insurance of all Trust Properties for which Policies have not yet been effected with the Connexional Office.

HENRY PLUMMER, Secretary.

38, Fountain Street, Manchester, July, 1914.

YOUR PENSION
BEGINS at age 60

if you take out a Deferred Annuity Policy with the

NORWICH UNION MUTUAL LIFE OFFICE.

For a man aged 25 next birthday the yearly cost to provide a Pension of £100 per annum at age 60 works out at only £16 5s. 10d.

A man aged 30 next birthday has to pay £21 0s. 10d. yearly for the same benefits—if his age is 35 next birthday the yearly premium he must pay is £27 16s. 8d.—or if his age is 40 he must pay £38 6s. 8d. per annum. Other amounts pro rata.

NO MEDICAL EXAMINATION IS REQUIRED.

ALL PREMIUMS PAID ARE RETURNED in the event of earlier death, and a CASH OPTION of £1,080 is given in lieu of the Pension should circumstances at age 60 make this more desirable.

For further information apply to—

MONARCH INVESTMENT BUILDING SOCIETY.

ESTABLISHED 1867.

PREFERENCE SHARES of £5 each are now being issued. Interest, 4 per cent. free of Income Tax, repayable (subject to the Rules) at par.

DEPOSITS received at 3½ per cent. Interest, free of Income Tax, payable half-yearly, by warrant, through the post.

ADVANCES made on Leasehold, Freehold, and Copyhold Estate. Survey and Legal fees fixed and moderate.

For Prospectus, Forms, and all information, apply—
14, Finsbury Circus, London. WILLIAM H. MAYERS, Secretary.

Worship in Comfort

See page 31.

The Church Record

is unrivalled as a "Circuit Missionary," and a means of raising profits to funds.

Last year, we promised that each issue should be as good as the January number sent as specimen. Not only have we kept our word, but, as a careful comparison will show, many issues have exceeded in interest the splendid January number.

It would be futile to ask for your loyalty to Methodism's own Inset—The Church Record—did we not know that it is impossible to get any other which is its equal in value, interest, and sheer merit.

Our programme for 1915

As usual, Two Magnificent Coloured Plates with the January issue, and one with the Xmas Number. A New Serial Story, by Felicia Buttz Clark. Thrilling Experiences of an African Explorer, by Claude Camburn. Parliamentary Caricatures, by Spencer Leigh Hughes. Short Stories, by A. B. Cooper, J. Dodd Jackson, etc., etc. Articles, by Saint Nihal Singh, George Jackson, F. W. Boreham, and others. Articles on Christian Life and Work, by the President, Drs. Len Broughton, R. F. Horton, and John Clifford. Social Questions of the Day and the Life of the Home, by well-known and expert writers.

Write now for Specimen Copies of the 16 pp. edition at 3s. 3d. per 100, and the 24 pp. edition at 4s. 3d. per 100.

SUNDERLAND TRAINING COLLEGE

This College was established in 1908 by the Education Authority of the County Borough of Sunderland, and provides Training for Men and Women Students qualified by examination to enter for the Two Years' Course. Certified Teachers are also accepted either for One or Two Years' Training according to qualifications.

The College is at present in temporary premises, shortly to be replaced by permanent buildings, comprising Educational Block and Hostels for both Men and Women Students, the whole standing within their own grounds of 12 acres, amongst attractive surroundings.

The aim of the College is to provide a thorough training in the Theory and Practice of Teaching, and to that end the energies of the Staff are expressly directed.

STUDENTS ARE RECEIVED IN SEPTEMBER.

All enquiries for further information should be addressed to the Principal, who will be especially glad to advise those who have not been Bursars or Pupil-Teachers, as to the course to be taken in order to become a Teacher in a Public Elementary School.

Most Circuits find a Local Magazine to be an absolute necessity. We can tell you how to issue one successfully and profitably.

Assisted by a highly qualified Resident and Visiting Staff.

Farringtons was founded to provide for girls a liberal education under the most favourable conditions. The house, built for the school with all modern conveniences and improvements, stands on a finely-timbered estate of 22½ acres, in the highest part of Chislehurst, at an elevation of 300 feet above the sea. The property adjoins Chislehurst and St. Paul's Cray Commons, which together cover 180 acres of heath land.

The religious instruction is Biblical and Evangelical. A sound and thorough general education is given, together with ample opportunities for specialisation in Literature, Languages, Music, and Art.

Pupils can be prepared for public examinations (London Matriculation, Higher Certificate, University Scholarships).

Games (tennis, cricket, lacrosse, net ball) and physical exercises (gymnastics, riding, swimming) are under the supervision of experienced teachers.

The health of the school is excellent.

An eminent London physician, in a letter dated July 27th, 1914, says : "Chislehurst is one of the healthiest of districts. I regard it as an excellent neighbourhood for a School."

STAINED GLASS WINDOWS

There is abundant evidence that it is not every one who, posing as a maker of such things, succeeds in bringing forth a really satisfactory and good stained glass window; therefore if you are about to place one in a church to the Glory of God and in memory of one dear to you, it will be well to obtain help from somebody who is in a position to give advice worth having.

Remember, what you propose to do may remain for centuries, you will have offered that which will beautify God's House and make it glorious, or you will have erected a permanent eyesore.

Good design, and all the essentials for the making of a stained glass window, imparting a restful, religious, and calm feeling, are placed at the command of Wesleyan Methodists by the Bromsgrove Guild.

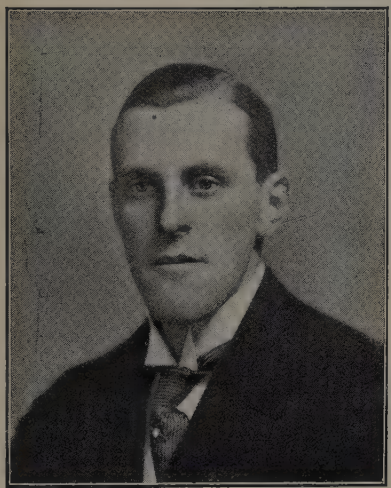
MR. ALEC E. GLASSEY, A.G.S.M.



CLIFF COLLEGE
CALVER

DEAR MR. GLASSEY,

Many thanks for the inspiring time you gave us last evening. Mr. Chadwick and I were deeply impressed with your presentation of Masefield's great poem, and the vivid scene from "Black Rock"; and we are very thankful that those who have come to our Summer School at Cliff should have heard such an excellent exemplification of the sound principles of Elocution which you outlined for them in your morning lecture.

Signed,

W. Fiddian Moulton.

Rev. W. H. Heap writes:

"Mr. Glassey is an elocutionist of quite unusual charm and ability. He is a great favourite with us at the Queen's Hall, and I have pleasure in bearing my personal testimony that it is a real delight to hear him."

Rev. H. M. Nield writes:

"I thank you heartily for your admirable services at our People's Hour. It is not every elocutionist who can so happily adapt himself to an occasion. Alike in tone and technique you left the happiest memories behind you."

Rev. C. Ensor Walters writes:

"Mr. Glassey is an elocutionist of rare ability. He has a fine voice; his recitations—both pathetic and humorous—are of the highest class; added to this he possesses a delightful personality. I heartily recommend him to those anxious to give any kind of audience a real treat."

You will shortly be considering the question of your Circuit Magazine for next year. When doing so remember the following points in favour of Methodism's own inset.

THE CHURCH RECORD

1. Each issue will contain an instalment of a new serial story specially written by an author of repute.
2. It is superior both in illustration and literary merit to any other inset before the public. (Two splendid coloured presentation plates with the January issue and one with the Xmas Number.)
3. It is issued by your own publishing house, and is edited by a Methodist for Methodism.
4. The profits resulting are not for private gain, but are devoted to Connexional purposes.
5. The numerous testimonials (the following one being representative of many) prove beyond doubt that the Methodist inset meets Methodism's needs.

FROM A MIDLAND CIRCUIT.

"We have used the 'Church Record' as an inset for the past six years. We have found it all that can be desired. We take 1,000 copies a month, and use the unsold copies when visiting. After paying all expenses we shall report a profit to the end of the year to Circuit funds of about £40."

NO ADVERTISEMENTS OF ANY KIND APPEAR IN THE METHODIST INSET.

Specimen copies of both editions (16 pages 3s. 3d. per 100 and 24 pages at 4s. 3d. per 100), together with the copyright booklet "How to run a Circuit Magazine," will be sent post free on request.

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-FIRST ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President.
SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary.

THE Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists, in the Connexion established by the late Rev. John Wesley, A.M., assembled in Leeds, on Wednesday, July 15, 1914, and concluded its sittings on Wednesday, July 29, 1914.

The number of the Legal Conference was completed by the election of John Olliffe Price (on the nomination of the Irish Conference), John Baker, M.A., and George Marris, in the place of Wesley Guard, James Chapman, D.D., and Thomas Rippon, deceased.

The following Supernumerary Ministers, John Milton Brown, John T. F. Halligey, Jabez Ingram, J. Maydew Wamsley, John Hugh Morgan, and Henry Ball, were declared to have ceased, by lapse of time, to be members of the Legal Conference. The following Ministers, Amos Burnet, John Ernest Rattenbury, David Arthur Rees, Charles W. Andrews, B.A., B.D., John Elsworth, and (on the nomination of the Irish Conference) William Benjamin Lumley were elected in their place.

The Rev. Dinsdale Thomas Young was elected President of the Conference, and the Rev. Simpson Johnson was elected Secretary.

The Rev. Richard Waddy Moss, D.D., was nominated for election as President of the Conference of 1915; and the Rev. Simpson Johnson was nominated for election as Secretary of the same.

The Representative Session assembled on Wednesday, July 15, and concluded its business on Tuesday, July 21. The Pastoral Session assembled on Wednesday, July 22, and completed its business on Wednesday, July 29. At each Session the Minutes of the Session were read. The several Minutes of both Sessions were adopted by the Legal Conference.

In the following pages, the business which belongs to the Representative Session is placed first; that belonging to the Pastoral Session, second; and then follows that which stands in relation to both.

The Conference in its Representative Session consisted of such Members of the Legal Conference as had declared at the May Meeting of the District Synods their intention to attend, and of such Ministers and Laymen as were duly chosen.

For the names of those so chosen, see Appendix I.

The Conference in its Pastoral Session consisted, in addition to such Members of the Legal Conference as were able to be present, of such other Ministers as had been authorised to attend.

A. 1. The ORDINARY COMMITTEE: which shall have full power to take action on all national occasions, and in all cases affecting the interests, duties, rights, or privileges of our Church, unless in its judgment, or in the judgment of the President of the Conference, it is deemed expedient to refer any case to the Extraordinary Committee named below. The Committee must act in conformity with any existing resolution of the Conference.

2. In all cases where proposed legislation or administration affects the interests of any Department managed by a Special Committee appointed by the Conference, the Committee of Privileges shall act in consultation with the particular Committee in such manner as the President of the Conference may direct; and a joint meeting of the Committee of Privileges and of the Committee of the Department affected may be summoned by the Secretaries of both Committees, if directed by the President of the Conference, in order to determine what action shall be taken.

The Ordinary Committee shall meet whenever it is convened either by direction of the President of the Conference or by its Secretaries.

3. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

4. The Conference instructs the Committee to take all possible steps to secure a remedy for the grievances from which the Methodist Church suffers in regard to the Enfranchisement of Leasehold Property and the Acquisition of Sites for Places of Worship.

5. The Conference directs the Committee to take all possible steps to secure the removal of the electoral disadvantages under which Methodist Ministers are placed in consequence of the Itinerancy.

6. Century of Peace between Great Britain and the United States of America.—The Conference again expresses its thankfulness to Almighty God for the Hundred Years' Peace between Great Britain and the United States of America, and for the cordial relations which now exist between the Governments and Peoples of the two countries, and which afford strong grounds of hope that the peace so long maintained between them will never be broken.

The Conference likewise expresses its deep interest in the Celebration of the Century of Peace, and directs that it be suitably observed in all our Congregations, Sunday Schools, Brotherhoods, and other organisations in connexion with our Church.

The Conference recommends that Thanksgiving Services be held on December 20, 1914, and that wherever practicable our people co-operate with the members of other Churches in holding these Services.

The Conference directs that a suitable communication on this subject, signed by the President, be sent to the Methodist Churches of the United States of America.

Royal Commission on University Education in London.

H. M. Government having announced their intention to lay before Parliament proposals affecting University Education in London, and in view of the important bearing of such legislation on the work of our Theological and Training Colleges, and the education of our Ministers and People, the Conference again remits the question to the Committee of Privileges, as enlarged for this purpose, with power to take such action as in its judgment may be necessary to safeguard the educational interests of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

The Conference associates the following members of the Theological Institution Committee, and of the Education Committee, with the Committee of Privileges, for the consideration of this resolution, and directs them to take such action as may most suitably give effect to it.

MISSIONS.

Q. II. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of our Foreign Missions?

A. 1. The Centenary of the Society.—The Conference records its gratitude to Almighty God for the grace that has rested on the Centenary Movement from its inception to its close, for the deep interest awakened among the Methodist people both at home and abroad, and for the generosity that has resulted in a Centenary Fund of more than £280,000.

In view of unparalleled Missionary opportunity, and remembering that a cardinal aim of the Centenary Movement was to secure a substantial increase in the annual income, the Conference commends this pressing need to the sympathy and generosity of the Methodist people, and earnestly trusts that the good work which they have begun in the raising of the Centenary Fund they will continue in such steady growth of the regular income as will be adequate to the needs of the enterprise which God has entrusted to us, and which is bearing fruit and increasing in every land.

2. The West Indies: Future Administration.—The appointment of a minister from this country, specially chosen on account of his experience, standing, general repute and ability, to reside in Jamaica, but without pastoral charge, as the representative of the Missionary Society for the whole of the West Indies is postponed until next Conference.

3. Retirement of Rev. William Perkins.—The Conference places on record its sincere appreciation of the faithful service rendered to the Society by the Rev. William Perkins, who now retires from the position of General Secretary, which he has filled with ability and devotion during the past sixteen years. Mr. Perkins has the esteem and affection of those with whom he has been associated so long, and is held in much honour for his work's sake. The Conference congratulates him on a notable and successful ministry extending over half a century, and on the vigour of mind and body which show that his retirement is a matter of choice and not of necessity. It assures him of its respect and love, and of its hearty good wishes for his well-being in every sense.

4. Mr. WILLIAMSON LAMPLOUGH and Mr. JAMES VANNER EARLY are re-appointed General Treasurers of the Society for the ensuing year.

(5) The General Committee and the Governors shall meet during the ensuing year on Friday, November 20, at Bath; on Friday, March 12, 1915, in Southport; and on Friday, June 11, in London.

2. Kingswood School.

The Conference directs:

(1) The School Year shall begin in September; but applications for admission at other times will always be considered. Such applications must be sent to the Rev. W. West Holdsworth, M.A., 2, Friary Road, Handsworth, Birmingham, or to the Head Master of the School. Boys are not admitted before the age of ten, except after direct vote of the Governors.

N.B.—In the case of boys admitted by vote of the Governors under the age of ten, or at any other period of the year than September, the parent may be required by the Governors to pay for the portion of that year at the rate of £25.

(2) Entrance Examination. An examination will be set in elementary English subjects suitable to boys of about the age of eleven. A graduated age allowance will be made for younger boys, while older boys will be expected to reach a correspondingly higher standard, and boys above the age of twelve will be expected to show some knowledge of Latin and French. A specimen examination paper will be sent by the Head Master, Mr. Walter P. Workman, M.A., B.Sc., upon receipt of a stamped envelope.

(3) Residence. The ordinary time of residence shall be six years, provided that the Education allowances have either not been received or have been returned (see § 4 (4), p. 21).

(4) Scholarships. The terms of election shall be fixed by the Governors. So far as is consonant with the trusts affecting them, the Scholarships shall be awarded as a general rule to boys in their seventeenth year. Some shall be reserved for those who have already held one Scholarship. The Exhibition upon the Foundation of the late John Fernley shall be tenable at any place of higher education.

(5) Extra Years. The scale of payment shall be as follows :

Sons of Supernumeraries and Widows ...	£22
For all others	£25

Such payments shall be due in three equal instalments, one at the close of each term, and shall be paid to the school direct.

Ministers whose sons hold Scholarships or have secured an extra year shall be entitled to the six guineas from the Maintenance Section; and, unless they have already received for six years, to the £12 for Education.

(6) Notice of Removal from School. Parents having children at the School shall be required to give three months' notice before the removal of such child or children. In the event of parents not giving such notice, the officers of the Fund shall be authorised to withhold three months' allowances, which would otherwise be payable for each such child or children. If a boy to whom an extra year has been granted be withdrawn without the required three months' notice, the parent or guardian shall pay one-fourth of the sum charged for the extra year in lieu of such notice.

(7) The School Year shall be divided into three terms.

(8) The application of the rule respecting the clothing of the sons of necessitous Supernumeraries or Widows shall be left to the discretion of the General Committee.

(9) Travelling expenses shall be paid out of the General Fund; viz. third class fare each way, for all pupils, between Bath station and the railway station nearest their homes as recorded in the Minutes of Conference, or nearest the place where the holiday is to be spent, whichever shall involve the smaller payment.

N.B.—The above Minute is limited to England and Wales, the Isle of Man, and the Channel Isles.

3. Trinity Hall School.

The Conference directs:

(1) Not later than October 15 the name and age of every applicant for admission shall be sent to the Rev. FREDERICK M. PARKINSON, 11, Seafield Road, Lytham. Girls shall not, in general, be admitted before the age of twelve.

(2) Entrance Examination. An examination in November will be set in elementary English subjects suitable to girls of about the age of twelve or thirteen years. A graduated age allowance will be made for the candidates, and older girls will be expected to reach a correspondingly higher standard. A copy of a specimen examination paper will be sent by the Head Mistress, Miss CAROLINE H. PEET, upon receipt of a stamped envelope.

Candidates left over from one year to another shall be entitled to admission without re-examination, provided that 12 per cent. be deducted from their marks obtained in the examination of the previous year. Such Candidates shall be allowed to sit again for examination if this course be preferred.

(3) Residence. The ordinary term of residence shall be four years for girls on whose behalf not more than two educational payments have been made previous to their entrance at School. Every such payment in excess of two shall diminish the time of residence at the School. In special cases, when in the opinion of the Governors and the General Committee it is deemed desirable, the term of residence "on the foundation" may be extended from four to six years.

(4) Extra Years. The scale of payment shall be as follows:

Daughters of Supernumeraries and Widows ... £22
For all others £30

Such payments shall be due in three equal instalments, one at the close of each term, and shall be paid direct to the school.

Ministers whose daughters hold Scholarships or have secured an extra year shall be entitled to the six guineas from the Maintenance Section; and, unless they have already received for six years, to the £12 for Education.

(5) Leaving Scholarships. A sum of £60 per annum shall be available from the General Fund for Leaving Scholarships, to be awarded to necessitous and eligible candidates, in a sum, or sums, of not less than £10; on the recommendation of a small committee composed of the Local Treasurer, Local Secretary, and the Head Mistress. Such Leaving Scholarships to be held at some approved place of Higher Education.

(6) Notice of Removal from School. The Regulation for Kingswood School (§ 2 (6), p. 19) shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to Trinity Hall School.

(7) Vacations. The School Year at Trinity Hall shall be divided into three terms.

(8) Travelling expenses shall be paid out of the General Fund; viz. third-class fare each way, for all pupils between the Southport station and the railway station nearest their homes as recorded in the Minutes of Conference, or nearest the place where the holiday is to be spent, whichever shall involve the smaller payment.

N.B.—The above Minute is limited to England and Wales, the Isle of Man, and the Channel Isles.

4. Educational Allowances for Children not at the Schools.

The Conference directs:

(1) Payments shall be made at Conference for the calendar year then current.

(2) Parents may begin to claim for their children when they are nine, ten, eleven, or twelve years of age on the preceding Christmas Day; but the first claim for a child who is twelve years of age on or before any Christmas Day must be made at the following Conference at the latest.

(3) Parents who have once begun to claim shall receive their payments annually. This regulation shall not apply in the case of a candidate for admission to the Schools who has passed the Entrance Examination, but for whom there is not room at the next following re-opening.

(4) Return of Educational Allowances. Any Educational Allowance may be returned within the calendar year in which it is received. Educational allowances received in previous years may be returned, provided (1) that Simple Interest is paid thereon at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum for such period as they have been held, and (2) that the re-payment is made before the commencement of the term for which it is due.

N.B.—(i) A term's notice of intention to return Educational Allowances must be given, and in the case of a pupil who will be sixteen years of age when due to leave, permission to return the allowance must be obtained from the Governors.

(ii) All applications and payments in respect of the return of Educational Allowances should be made to the Rev. JOHN BAKER, M.A., 3, Oak Road, Newton Park, Leeds.

(5) Circuit Schedules. Not later than March 1 each Superintendent shall send to the Rev. JOHN BAKER, M.A., 3, Oak Road, Newton Park, Leeds, a particular account of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit; specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, together with the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received. Any claims delayed beyond the date of the May Synods are delayed at the risk of the parents. No claim to be entered upon this schedule for children at the Schools.

Memorandum of Agreement.

The Conference directs:

(1) That in view of the fact that, ordinarily, claims upon the Maintenance Section of the Fund do not arise during the first five years of a Minister's term of service; and seeing that the Memorandum of Agreement does not contemplate the case of married men being received into the Wesleyan Methodist Church who may have children born during their probation, the scale of payments be so as to meet the equity of such cases, viz. that for each year of probation in which no claim arises one-fifth of the amount charged for maintenance be remitted.

(2) That the amount charged for maintenance shall be fully paid up before such Probationer is received into Full Connexion, and before his child is admitted as a claimant upon the Fund.

(3) That a written acknowledgment of every such arrangement shall be signed by the father of the child, and be preserved by the General Secretary.

(4) That where desired, payments to the Education Section of the Fund, entitling a child to receive the usual Education Allowances, may be spread over a period of years until the child is nine years of age; simple interest, at 5 per cent., being charged until the full amount has been paid, and until such time no claim for Educational Allowance shall be admitted.

Quinquennial Assessment.

The Conference postpones the appointment of the Revision Committee until 1915.

Remittances, whether Circuit Collections, Subscriptions, or Assessments, to be sent to the Rev. ENOCH SALT, Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W. Other communications are to be addressed to the Secretaries—Rev. JOHN KINNINGS, Wesley Manse, Fareham, Hants.; and Rev. JOHN BAKER, M.A., 3, Oak Road, Newton Park, Leeds.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

Q. V. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to Chapel Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee. (See Appendix VIII.)

2. The Conference authorises the President, during the year, to affix his signature to any consent to the sale of Trust Property which may be certified to him as approved by the Chapel Committee.

3. Irregular Chapel Cases.—The Conference receives the Report.

The Conference directs the Chapel Committee to send to the several District Synods the particulars of those cases in which, in the opinion of the Committee, it is desirable that special inquiry should be made from time to time, until it shall appear that the conditions of erection or enlargement have been fulfilled.

The Conference further directs the District Synods to call the attention of the Trustees to those cases in which the proportion of debt is excessively heavy, or the proceedings wholly irregular, and to communicate the judgment of the District Synod to the Trustees through the Superintendents.

4. Mr. WILLIAM MIDDLEBROOK, M.P., of Morley, and Mr. ALFRED BROOKES, of Manchester, are re-appointed Treasurers of the General Chapel Fund.

5. The Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK is the General Secretary of the Chapel Committee.

HOME MISSION FUND.

Q. VI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the Home Mission Fund, and other Home Mission Affairs?

A. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

I. Financial Statement.

The Conference receives the Treasurers' Account for 1912–1913, and Report of Income and Expenditure to June 27, 1914.

II. Grants.

The estimated liabilities of the Fund for the ensuing year include the following items:

Grants for Home Missionary Ministers in Circuits and for District Missionaries	£11,150	0	0
Grants to Dependent Circuits (not including the Welsh Districts)	2,100	0	0

Cost of Mission Work in Shetland...	800	0	0
Cost of Mission Work in Ireland (terminable annuity)	800	0	0

III. Pledges to provide for Married Ministers.

Ten Circuits in England and one Welsh Circuit are under pledge to provide for married Ministers at this Conference. Of these six make provision forthwith, and one will pay compensation to the Fund for delay at the rate of £40 per annum.

1. Providing this year (6).—London (Ealing and Acton), London (Wandsworth), West Monmouth Mission, Bridgend, Preston (Wesley), Rawtenstall.

2. Paying compensation (1).—Bodmin.

3. Provision for a married Minister due in 1915 will be made at Liverpool Mission this year.

4. Provision for married Ministers will also be made in the following cases previously due: Kingston-on-Thames, Chichester, Bath, Swansea (English), Holyhead (Welsh), Sunderland Mission ; and London (Leysian Mission) resumes the second married Minister, and provides a house.

5. Compensation will be paid according to usage in twenty-five other cases.

IV. Alterations, Amalgamations, or Divisions of Circuits.

1. London (Hackney) Circuit and London (Victoria Park) Circuit to be united, and called the London (Hackney and Victoria Park) Circuit.

2. The name of Croydon (South Norwood) Circuit to be altered to South Norwood, dropping the word " Croydon."

3. Bradley in Wednesbury Circuit to be transferred to the Bilston Circuit.

4. Liverpool (St. John's) Circuit to be united with Liverpool (Wesley) Circuit.

5. Easington Colliery and Easington Village to be transferred from Houghton-le-Spring Circuit to the present Thornley Circuit, which shall be known as East Durham Circuit.

6. Maryport and Wigton Circuits to be united, and called Maryport and Wigton Circuit.

7. Blairgowrie Circuit to be divided into three Circuits as before, and named respectively Blairgowrie, Arbroath, and Montrose.

V. Special Mission Committees.

The Conference authorises the Synods in the cases aftermentioned to appoint Special Committees to advise and assist in the management, and directs the Quarterly Meetings concerned to act in harmony with the Committees so appointed. The last-named direction is to apply also in cases in which the Conference itself appoints Committees for the same purpose :

First London ...	...	...	London (Waltham Abbey and Hertford Mission).

VI. Lay Workers' College, Gospel Cars, Etc.

The Conference receives with satisfaction the report of the Committee (see Appendix XVIII.), and again very cordially commends this important branch of our work to the generous support of the Methodist people.

VII. Prisons Committee.

The Conference receives the report of the Prisons Committee (see Appendix XXII.), approves of the same, and reappoints the Rev. R. W. Allen, M.V.O., as Secretary of the Committee.

VIII. Stoke-on-Trent Mission.

The Conference receives the Report, and again refers this case to the Chapel Committee and the Home Mission Committee, to further advise and assist the local Committee.

IX. Open-Air Work.

The Conference receives with much gratification the Report of the Committee (see Appendix XVIII.) on Open-air Preaching, and the Training Schools for Open-air speakers. The Conference rejoices in the success attending the efforts of the Committee and directs it to continue its operations.

X. Brotherhoods.

The Conference received the Report of the Committee on Brotherhoods, and resolved:

> "This Conference, fully appreciating the value of the Brotherhood Movement, and rejoicing in its success, refers back to the Committee the whole question of the relationship of the movement to our Circuits and Churches."
> N.B.—The Treasurer of the Sunday School Department, Mr. J. Wesley Walker, to be associated with the Committee when this subject is considered.

XI. Status of Lay Evangelists.

The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee on the Status of Lay Evangelists, viz.:

1. The position of Lay Evangelists, whether employed by the Home Mission Committee or by Circuits, is defined in Standing Order 151.

2. For the due discharge of the specific duties they are engaged to fulfil they are responsible to the authority by whom they are employed, under the direction of the Superintendent.

3. The fact of their receiving a stipend does not in any way affect their ecclesiastical status.

4. The Committee further advises the Conference that a scheme for superannuation allowance by insurance is in operation in the case of all Lay Evangelists employed by the Home Mission Committee; but to extend its sphere so as to include persons for whose engagement it is not responsible, and who are not in any way amenable to its authority, is impracticable. The Society, however, in which this insurance is effected by the Committee extends the same advantages on the same terms to any Lay Evangelist or other Christian Worker. The Conference is of opinion that all Circuits employing Lay Evangelists should make arrangements for their insurance similar to that made by the Home Mission Committee for Lay Evangelists under its employ.

XII. Spiritual Advance.

1. The Conference directs that during the coming year a definite effort shall be made in all Churches, by sermons and special meetings :—

(a) To bring home to Adherents, and especially to our Young People, the privileges of Church Fellowship, the responsibility attaching to the hearing of the Word, and the vital importance of a Personal Experience and Confession of Saving Faith, and of personal and united Prayer.

(b) To impress upon all our members the obligation of personal Witness for Christ, the pressing duty of seeking the salvation of their neighbours and of all men, and the duty incumbent upon every Christian to engage in some form of Christian work.

(c) To urge the workers in our Sunday Schools, and other Young People's Movements of our Church, to give themselves to further strenuous effort to win the children and young people for Christ and His Church, and thus to continue the increase reported this year in the Membership of the Junior Society Classes.

2. Further, that an organised effort to win those outside the Churches shall be made, including:

(a) A campaign throughout the entire country, consisting of a thorough and systematic visitation by our members of every house in the neighbourhood of our Churches, with a view to secure the attendance of non-church goers at Divine Worship on the last two Sundays in January next.

(b) Following upon this effort, Special Missions, in every Circuit, to be conducted by the Ministers and Local Preachers of the Circuit.

(c) In a few Selected Centres, where the need or opportunity is especially great, a serious and sustained Evangelistic effort shall be made under the direction of the Home Mission Committee, with the assistance of the Connexional Evangelists and others.

(d) An earnest effort on the part of our Laymen to reach the business men of their locality, and also to combat the evil influence of the new problems of street life affecting the young as illustrated by the Sunday-evening promenade.

3. Special Leaflets and Booklets suitable for Christians engaged in such work shall be prepared, such as:—Reasons for being a Christian; Why join the Church? etc.

4. The whole Campaign shall be under the direction of the Home Mission Committee, which shall have power, in special cases, to bear part of the cost.

(a) That September Synods shall give time for the consideration of the best means of carrying out the programme within their area.

(b) That the Detailed Organisation in each District be referred to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, enlarged for the purpose by the addition of suitable persons, if deemed desirable by the Synod.

(c) That a Report be made to the May Synod by each District Committee as to how the work has been carried out.

5. That the Resolutions now accepted by the Representative

Session be sent to the Pastoral Session, for its consideration, with an earnest recommendation of their adoption.

6. The Conference authorises the Home Mission Committee to appoint four of its members as its Representatives upon the Special Committee of the Free Church Council, to deal with the Come-to-Church Campaign.

XIII. Officers and Committee.

1. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Committee for their services during the past year.

2. The Right Hon. THOMAS ROBINSON FERENS, M.P., and Mr. HENRY HOLLOWAY are re-appointed the Treasurers for the ensuing year; and the Rev. FREDERICK L. WISEMAN, B.A., is appointed Deputy Treasurer.

THE LONDON MISSION AND EXTENSION FUND.

Q. VIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the London Mission and Extension Fund?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee. (See Appendix VII.)

2. The Conference approves of the following alterations in he Rules and Regulations of the Fund, viz. :

Area of Operation.—This Fund shall assist in the acquisition of sites and the erection of commodious Wesleyan Methodist chapels and schools within the City and Metropolitan police districts of London.

N.B.—Wherever large industrial and residential populations are found just outside the Metropolitan area, the Committee may, at its discretion, include these within the scope of the Fund.

School Buildings.—The Committee shall, at its discretion, make Grants towards the erection of school buildings, whether these buildings are erected before the chapel is commenced or after the chapel has been built. The Grants shall be determined after due consideration of the necessities of the case, and shall be reckoned as part of the Grant towards the whole scheme. In cases where the erection of the school is delayed the Grant to the chapel shall be proportionately less.

Reconstruction of Premises.—Grants may be made to assist in the reconstruction or adaptation of existing chapels and school buildings to altered conditions.

Re-organisation of the Work.—Assistance may be given to the re-organisation of our work in circuits, chapels, and missions that exist in those parts of London where populations have changed in such a manner as to require special methods and agencies.

3. Appeal for the New Fund.—The Conference approves that an appeal, in accordance with the directions of the Conference in 1909, be made, to commence during the next Connexional year, for the sum of £150,000, and that a clear statement be issued respecting the objects to which the Funds will be devoted.

4. The Conference again directs the Committee, in conjunction with the Synods that are affected, to take steps for uplifting and strengthening Methodism in North and North-East London by the rectification of Circuit boundaries, by the re-arrangements or amalgamation of Circuits, or by any other methods that may seem desirable, and to present its proposals to the Conference.

5. Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart., and Sir Clarence Smith are re-appointed General Treasurers, and the Rev. Enoch Salt is Deputy Treasurer of the Fund. The Rev. C. Ensor Walters is the Assistant Secretary.

6. The following is the Committee for the ensuing year:

CONNEXIONAL FUND.

Q. IX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the Connexional Fund?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Treasurers' Account for 1912–13, and the Statement of Income and Expenditure to June 27, 1914.

2. The Conference has much satisfaction in finding that the total amount yielded by collections for this Fund again shows a substantial advance on the previous year. And the Conference expresses the earnest hope that every means will be taken to maintain the revenue, not only because this Fund bears the burden of general Connexional expenses, but for the sake of our Brethren who are assisted from it in times of affliction and distress.

3. The Conference urges all Brethren to familiarise themselves with the purposes for which the Fund exists, so that its claims may be effectively presented when the Annual Collections are being made.

4. The following is the Committee: The Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; and the

WORN OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. X. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the affairs of the Auxiliary Fund?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The scale of allowances for the present year shall be, for Supernumeraries, 20*s.* for each year of active service, with a bonus of £18; for Widows, 10*s.* for each year of the husband's service, with the same bonus.

3. The thanks of the Conference are presented to those friends who have made special donations, and to the Executors who have paid sundry legacies.

4. The thanks of the Conference are presented to Supernumeraries and Widows of Ministers who have relinquished or returned their allowances.

5. The Conference re-appoints the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY and Mr. JOHN LEES BARKER as General Treasurers, and the Rev. ENOCH SALT as Secretary.

6. The Conference, while recognising with satisfaction the increase in Collections and Private Subscriptions reported this year, yet in view of the increase in the bonus now made, and to render possible a further advance in the near future, urges upon Ministers, District and Circuit Treasurers, and Collectors the importance of using every effort to secure additional subscriptions, and of increasing, as far as possible, the other sources of income.

7. (1) Allowances are paid half-yearly, in advance; the dates of payment being August 10 and February 10.

(2) Funeral allowances are paid for Supernumerary Ministers and for Widows of Supernumerary Ministers, only in cases of proved necessity.

8. The Conference directs the Committee of the Worn Out Ministers' Fund to increase the Bonus given to Supernumeraries and widows to such amount as may be possible up to £20 per annum.

Methods of Raising the Income and Improving the Grants.

The Conference adopted the following resolutions:

(1) That while an Assessment based upon the number of Ministers employed by the Circuits is probably the only adequate and permanent basis of the Fund, it is felt that in the existing financial condition of many of our Circuits the question of a further assessment could not be proposed with any prospect of its immediate adoption. The Conference, however, would suggest that the idea be kept before our people as containing the fairest and most business-like solution.

(2) That in view of the fact that the income from Collections and Subscriptions is steadily growing, and is now £1,928 more than it was two years ago, the time should not be distant when it will be financially safe to give each Supernumerary and Widow the £20 bonus which the Conference of 1912 sanctioned.

(3) That while warmly thanking all who have helped to bring about an improvement in the contributions of most of our Circuits, the co-operation of all our people, and especially those who are in comfortable circumstances, be earnestly invited in an immediate effort to raise the additional income of at least £4,000 per annum.

(4) That while the smallness of stipends in many Circuits, and the gradually increasing cost of living, render it difficult for Ministers to make provision for sickness and old age, nevertheless young men entering our Ministry should be advised to join the Annuitant Society.

(5) While grateful that it has been found possible to increase the bonus to £18, the Conference urges the Committee to continue its efforts until the ideal is reached. The Conference instructs the Committee to consider whether it can propose to the Conference any scheme of ministerial contributions to the Fund.

9. The following are appointed the Committee of Management: The Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY and Mr. JOHN LEES

Barker, the General Treasurers; Rev. Enoch Salt, Secretary; together with the

Rev. John Bell (B),

N.B.—For the Discipline Committees of the several Branches of the Institution, see Question XLI.

13. The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:

(1) Wherever it is practicable, two Collections shall be made annually in each chapel throughout the Connexion on behalf of the Funds of the Institution; and these Collections shall be made, if possible, in December.

(2) The Conference directs the Superintendents of Circuits to remit all Subscriptions and Collections for the Institution to the General Treasurers early in the year; and instructs the Chairmen of Districts to ascertain, by inquiry at the May Synod, whether such payments have been made.

(3) The Conference directs the President to inform the General Treasurers of the Institution Fund of the resignation of any Probationer, or of any Minister who has not been ten years in the Full Work of the Ministry, in order that a list may be kept and application made to those who have not discharged their obligations in respect of their Institution training.

14. The Conference learns with satisfaction that measures have been taken to provide for the growing demands of the Connexion for a trained Ministry, and recognises the urgent necessity for an increase in the annual income of not less than £1,000. The Conference directs the General Committee to take such steps as may in its judgment meet this increased expenditure. The Conference authorises an appeal to the Connexion for an increase in the Annual Collections and in Private Subscriptions. The Conference also sanctions an appeal for Annual Subscriptions to Trustees of Chapels, and also to Ministers who have been trained in the Institution.

EDUCATION.

Q. XII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Wesleyan Education?

4. Closing of Wesleyan Day Schools.—In the interests of the Methodist Church and of the Education of the Country (especially in rural districts), the Conference deeply deplores the giving up of any Methodist School, and would impress upon all our Managers that before any steps are taken towards transfer or surrender, they should lay the case before the Connexional Education Committee for its counsel and assistance.

5. Temperance Teaching in Wesleyan Day Schools.—The following resolution was adopted by the Conference of 1911 :

> "That the Managers of our Day Schools be requested to adopt the Temperance Syllabus of the Board of Education."

6. Grants to Day Schools.—In applications for grants coming before the Education Committee, the judgment of the District Chapel Committee or District Sunday and Day School Committee of the Synod, from which these applications come, shall be obtained and laid before the members of the Connexional Education Committee when such applications are being considered. This rule shall apply to ordinary applications, and not to those of special urgency.

7. Administrative Resolutions and Resolutions of 1891, 1895, and 1899 (see Minutes, 1905, pp. 64-68).—The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted :

(1) The Conference empowers the Wesleyan Education Committee to make grants towards expenditure incurred by structural and other alterations demanded by the Board of Education in Day-school premises.

(2) Day and Sunday Schools.—The Statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

(3) The Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the District Education Secretary not later than April 10 in each year.

(4) District Sunday-school Committees shall have charge also of the interests of the Day Schools in their respective Districts.

SECONDARY EDUCATION.

BOARD OF MANAGEMENT FOR WESLEYAN SECONDARY SCHOOLS.
(For Scheme, see Minutes, 1903, pp. 515, 516.)

1. The Conference receives the Report of the proceedings of the Board of Management during the year.

2. The Conference enlarges the Board of Management by the addition of two women and two ministers, thus increasing the membership of the Board from twenty-four to twenty-eight, in addition to the ex-officio members.

3. The Conference has referred to the Secondary Education Committee the question of establishing all or any of the Wesleyan Middle-class or other Proprietary Schools on a strictly Connexional basis, either as separate institutions, or by bringing all or any of them under a single Connexional control. (For Scheme, see Minutes, 1903, pp. 516, 517.) A Connexional Trust Deed has been approved by the Conference. (Minutes, 1903, p. 515.)

4. The Conference appoints the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY and Sir ROBERT W. PERKS, Bart., as Treasurers of the Board of Management.

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

Q. XV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee for Promoting the Religious Observance of the Lord's Day?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Lord's Day Observance Committee, and commends its work to the hearty support of the Connexion.

2. The Conference reaffirms the desirability of a measure for the closing of public houses on the Lord's Day, and also for the stoppage of the sale of intoxicating liquors in Clubs on Sunday. It greatly regrets the rejection of Mr. Ferens' Bill, and urges His Majesty's Government to introduce at the earliest opportunity another Bill with this object.

3. The Conference, while recognising many useful provisions in the Weekly Rest Day Bill, is of opinion that it does not sufficiently safeguard the Lord's Day, and instructs the Committee of Privileges to do its utmost to secure its adequate amendment in this direction.

4. Dr. RICHARD T. SMITH is appointed Treasurer; the Rev. THOMAS J. THORPE, J. EDWARD HARLOW, and Mr. WILLIAM E. SKINNER are appointed Secretaries.

(1) Ex-officio Members: Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; the Secretary of the Temperance Committee; the Secretary of the Army and Navy Board; and the Officers of the Committee.

TEMPERANCE.

Q. XVII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Temperance?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee, and directs that an abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes of Conference. (See Appendix VI.)

2. The Conference recommends that, on the second Sunday in November, special reference shall be made in all Wesleyan Methodist places of worship, and in all our Sunday Schools, to the appalling extent and dire results of Intemperance, and to the many advantages and blessings of Total Abstinence. The Conference rejoices to recognise the steady growth of the Wesleyan Methodist League of Abstainers, and recommends that an endeavour should be made on Temperance Sunday to enrol the senior scholars of our Sunday Schools, and the members of our congregations as members of the League; and further, that the annual re-affirmation by the League members of their pledge of total abstinence from alcoholic liquors should ordinarily be associated with the observance of Temperance Sunday.

3. The Conference recommends the appointment of a Circuit Temperance Secretary in every Circuit, and the Superintendents are directed to send the name and address of such Secretary to the Secretary of the Connexional Temperance Committee not later than the end of September. The Conference further recommends that in every Church a Secretary of the League of Abstainers shall be appointed.

4. The Conference directs that the following Resolution, adopted by the Conference of 1904, be printed in the Minutes of Conference :

> "The Conference was never more alive than at the present time to the dire results of the Liquor Traffic. It rejoices in the progress of Temperance sentiment and practice in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and recommends our people to keep from complicity with a traffic the results of which are so injurious to the interests of religion, morality, and social life. The Conference earnestly urges that this shall be borne in mind in the administration of our Circuits, and especially in the appointment of office-bearers."

5. The Conference deplores the frightful havoc which is wrought amongst uncivilised peoples by the introduction of intoxicating liquors, and directs the Temperance Committee, in co-operation with kindred societies, to continue its exertions for the protection of such races from the ravages of the drink scourge.

6. The Conference places on record its intense disappointment at the defeat, on its second reading in the House of Commons, of a Measure of Sunday Closing for England, and further, that no comprehensive Measure of Temperance Reform for England and Wales has been laid before the present Parliament. Recalling the repeated promise of the Prime Minister to introduce such a Measure into the House of Commons, the Conference calls upon the Government to give speedy effect to their declaration and pledges in this matter. The Conference especially urges that the entire closing of licensed houses on the Lord's Day, and the imposition of proper restrictions upon drinking facilities in clubs, should be included among the provisions of the promised Measure of Temperance Reform.

7. The Conference directs that the Temperance Committee, the Lord's Day Observance Committee, and the Social Purity Committee, or any two of them, shall meet for consultation when public questions arise in which they have common interest, and that whenever possible they shall act conjointly; it always being understood that none of these committees surrenders its own responsibility in regard to any matters committed to it by Conference.

8. The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of:

(1) The Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; the Treasurer and Secretary of the Committee; the Connexional Editor and the Book Steward; the Secretary of the Sunday School Department; one of the Secretaries of the Lord's Day Observance Committee; the Secretary of the Social Purity Committee; the Secretary of the Home Mission Committee; the Secretary of the Wesley Guild Council; and the Principal of the National Children's Home and Orphanage.

together with three Representatives each, to be chosen by the Wesley Societies at Oxford, Cambridge, and Edinburgh.

3. Mr. CHARLES E. PARKER is re-appointed Treasurer, and the Rev. K. HARLEY BOYNS is appointed Secretary.

SOCIAL PURITY.

Q. XIX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Social Purity?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference expresses its strong approval of the Criminal Law Amendment Bill introduced into the House of Lords by the Bishop of London on behalf of the London Council for the Promotion of Public Morality, and respectfully urges His Majesty's Government to adopt the Bill and to pass it into law during the present session.

3. The Conference reaffirms its unflinching opposition to every form of State Regulation of Vice, and strenuously withstands any policy for counteracting the effects of vice which involves such regulation. It will also oppose any system of compulsory notification, which can only be made operative by embodying the main principles of the now repealed Contagious Diseases Act.

4. The Conference directs the Committee to watch the operation of the rules and regulations laid down for the Army by the Government of India, and at other military stations, and to take such action as may be desirable to oppose anything in the nature of State Regulation, should it be attempted.

5. In presence of growing laxity of thought and practice in many quarters, the Conference urges upon all Methodists, and especially upon those who have to do with young people in Bible Classes, Guilds, and other Societies, the duty of exercising watchful care over all moral interests, and of exerting an influence which may tend to lessen temptation to evil by the strengthening of sound principles, the discreet communication of necessary information, and the repression of all social customs which are hostile to a high-toned morality.

6. The Conference rejoices in the progress that has been made by the international movement for suppressing the trade in girls for immoral purposes. It commends the efforts that are being made to the support of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and trusts that such help as can be afforded by Wesleyan Methodists to the care of girls, especially in the case of those who come to take up employment in strange towns, will be increasingly given.

7. The Conference is gravely concerned with the injury caused to society, and especially to the young, by the continued publication of various forms of indecent literature. It recognises the necessity for a strong and healthy public opinion on this subject, and calls on parents, Sunday and Day School Teachers, and guardians of the young to cultivate unceasingly in the children the habit of reading good and wholesome literature. It also appeals to the Press, and to the Publishers', Journalists', and Newsagents' Associations to unite in breaking up this unseemly and dangerous traffic.

8. The following are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year:

(1) The ex-officio Members: the Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; Rev. S. F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; the Treasurer and Secretary of the Committee.

Q. XXIV. What Resolutions provisionally adopted by the last Conference in its Representative Session, and sent to the Annual Synods for consideration, are now confirmed?

A. None.

Q. XXV. What Resolutions of the Conference are to be submitted to the Districts in Great Britain, at their Annual Synods, when Ministers and Laymen are present?

A. None.

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

1. Mr. H. Kingsley Wood is appointed, in conjunction with the Ministers appointed during the Pastoral Session, to attend the Representative Session of the Conference in Ireland, to be held in Dublin, on Thursday, June 17, 1915.

2. Sir W. Howell Davies, M.P., is appointed, in conjunction with the Ministers appointed during the Pastoral Session, to attend the Representative Session of the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly, to be held in Abercynon, on Wednesday, June 9, 1915.

3. The Rev. Enoch Salt is appointed to ascertain, and to receive and forward to the respective Treasurers the payments to be made, in accordance with our Rules, to the various Connexional Funds, in the case of married men who are received as Ministers, or of Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches. (See Standing Orders, Nos. 36 and 37.)

4. The Rev. John E. Wakerley and John Elsworth are directed to prepare the volume of Agenda for the Conference of 1915.

N.B.—The Conference directs that the Order of Conference Procedure and Rules of Debate be printed in the volume of Agenda for 1915.

A copy of the Agenda shall be sent to each member of the Representative Session.

5. Mr. William J. Davey is re-appointed Convener of the Scrutineers of votes for the election of Lay Representatives by the Conference.

6. The Rev. David Rycroft is re-appointed Convener of Scrutineers of all votes, other than those for the election of Lay Representatives, in the Representative Session of the next Conference; and, as such, is an ex-officio member of that Session.

7. The Conference re-appoints the Rev. George Marris as Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions.

8. The Rev. Wesley Woolmer is re-appointed to act as Precentor at the Conference of 1915, and as such is an ex-officio member of the Representative Session of that Conference.

9. The Rev. Samuel F. Collier is appointed, in the place of the Rev. F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., as our Representative to the General Conference of the Australasian Methodist Church, to be held in connexion with its Centenary Celebration in 1915.

N.B.—The Conference resolves that the appointment of a Layman to accompany the Rev. Samuel F. Collier should be left with the Committee of Privileges to arrange.

10. The Conference appoints the following Ministers and Laymen as our Representatives to the World Conference on Faith and Order: Revs. William Crawford, M.A., W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D., John H. Ritson, M.A., John S. Simon, D.D., John G. Tasker, D.D., F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.; Messrs. Tilden J. Bisseker, Richard W. Booth, J. Vanner Early, Sir Norval W. Helme, M.P., William Middlebrook, M.P., Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart. The Rev. F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., is the Convener.

Death of the Rev. James Chapman, D.D.—The Conference records the death of the Rev. James Chapman, D.D., with profound sorrow. For eighteen years Dr. Chapman occupied the position of Principal of Southlands College, and discharged its manifold duties with conspicuous ability and absolute devotion. His influence on staff and students alike was of the highest quality, and under his inspiring leadership the College became one of the best equipped and most efficient training institutions of the day. The Board of Education expressed its appreciation of his character and work by giving him a seat on its Consultative Committee, while its official tribute on the occasion of his death was couched in the warmest terms.

Dr. Chapman was a great educationist, possessing an extensive and accurate acquaintance with the principles and history of Education, and with the systems of Collegiate training in this country and in the United States of America.

Of his services to the Wesleyan Methodist Church, outside the sphere of Education, others will speak more at length. The Conference cannot close its record without referring to the gifts of intellect and heart with which he was endowed, the ample stores of knowledge and experience which he accumulated, and the contribution which as teacher and administrator he made to the Church that he loved and adorned. The Conference assures Mrs. Chapman and her sons of its tender sympathy. It shares in some measure their loss and their grief; it also shares with them the memory of a man of God who finished a strenuous course in perfect peace, and whose influence for good will abide for ever.

The Conference resolves that the following appreciation from the Board of Education shall appear in connexion with the above Resolution:

"Board of Education, Whitehall, S.W., December 20, 1913.

"Sir,—I am writing on behalf of the Board of Education to express the great regret with which we received the news of the death of the Rev. James Chapman. Of his many personal qualities, others have a better right to speak than myself; but I know well how much of the success of Southlands Training College, and the place which it now occupies, was due to his efforts. I know, also, from those of my colleagues who were personally in contact with Dr. Chapman, how greatly the relations between the Board and the College were facilitated by his unfailing courtesy and goodwill. As a member of the Consultative Committee during the last few years, he has rendered valuable services to the Board, and the loss of his services during his illness was a matter of great regret to us. Now that this loss is a permanent one, we realise all the more keenly what a loyal and devoted worker has been lost to the service of Education.

"(Signed) L. A. SELBY BIGGE."

Kingswood School Chapel.—The Conference recommends to the favourable consideration of the General Committee, the Governors, and the Trustees of the Kingswood School the suggestion of the "Erection of the Kingswood School Chapel, projected in 1846 and postponed in 1850."

Retirement of the Rev. William Perkins.—The Conference places on record its sincere appreciation of the faithful service rendered to the Missionary Society by the Rev. William Perkins, who now retires from the position of General Secretary, which he has filled with ability and devotion during the past sixteen years. Mr. Perkins has the esteem and affection of those with whom he has been associated so long, and is held in much honour for his work's sake. The Conference congratulates him on a notable and successful ministry extending over half a century, and on the vigour of mind and body which show that his retirement is a matter of choice and not of necessity. It assures him of its respect and love, and of its hearty good wishes for his well-being in every sense.

The Rev. James Lewis and the Cambridge Scheme.—The Conference places on record its high appreciation of the faithful and laborious services rendered by the Rev. James Lewis (B), in connection with the erection of the new premises at Cambridge, and rejoices in the successful completion of this important scheme.

The Methodist Bureau.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee. (See Appendix XVII.)

2. The Conference repeats its former declaration in respect to the work of the Bureau, and requires all ministers on the removal of any member to send to the Bureau Committee full details of the name of the member and the Circuit to which he is removing, and directs the Chairmen of Districts to call attention to this regulation in the September Synods.

Rev. THOMAS KIRKUP is the Convener.

Crowle Bequest.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference re-appoints the Committee and gives it full powers to make arrangements with the Trustees of the above-mentioned estate as the Committee deems advisable, and to take all steps necessary to secure for the appointed Methodist purposes whatever moneys are available for these purposes under the terms of the will of the late John Crowle.

3. The Conference directs the Crowle Bequest Committee to require from the Executors of the late John Crowle a copy of the accounts of the estate from the time of the testator's death.

Rev. William Bradfield, B.A.,	Sir Norval W. Helme, M.P.,

The Rt. Hon. T. R. Ferens, M.P.,	„ Peter F. Wood.

The Rev. HENRY CARTER is the Convener.

The Allan Library.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference resolves:

(1) That consent be given to the sale of such books from the "Allan Library," and the additions thereto, as the Committee of Management may judge it wise to part with; provided that all valuable manuscripts and all early printed books be retained, as also all such books as would help to form a standard Methodist Library, and to preserve the continuity of the "Allan Library."

(2) That the sum of £1,000 be the limit to be realised by the sale of books during the year next ensuing.

(3) That any books which the Committee may decide to sell shall be disposed of through the Public Sale Rooms, as the only way of ascertaining their market value, as required by the Deed.

(4) The following are appointed the Committee of Management for the ensuing year: The Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; J. Alfred Sharp, Book Steward; and

Rev. John Bell,	Mr. James Botteley,
„ Nehemiah Curnock,	„ Edward Crawshaw,
„ Dr. W. Theophilus Davison, M.A.	„ Arthur H. Kelly,
„ Marshall Hartley,	„ Edmund S. Lamplough,
„ John Telford, B.A.,	Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart.,
„ F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.,	Mr. John Shepherd,
Dr. Herbert B. Workman,	„ George Stampe, with power to add to their number.

3. The Rev. JOHN BELL is re-appointed Treasurer; the Rev. NEHEMIAH CURNOCK and JOHN TELFORD, B.A., Honorary Librarians; and the Rev. MARSHALL HARTLEY, Secretary.

Compulsory Supernumeraryship.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference re-appoints the Committee to negotiate with any Ministers whose cases may be referred to it by the Pastoral Session, with a view to their retirement from the Ministry.

3. The Committee is empowered to make financial arrangements to that end.

4. The following is the Committee: The Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; Rev. SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; and

Rev. John Bell,	Mr. J. Lees Barker,
„ James Critchison,	Right Hon. T. R. Ferens, M.P.,
„ Marshall Hartley,	Mr. Henry Holloway,
„ George Marris,	„ Williamson Lamplough,
„ Enoch Salt,	„ George Shrubsall.

The Rev. JAMES CRITCHISON is the Convener.

Financial Appeals by Strangers.—Considering the many abuses to which the Connexion is continually exposed by applications from unauthenticated strangers from abroad to use our Trust

Property for financial ends, the Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the credentials of all such, and to express an opinion as to the advisability or otherwise of allowing the use of our Trust Property for the contemplated appeals: The PRESIDENT of the Conference; the EX-PRESIDENT; the SECRETARY; and

Rev. Josiah Banham,	Mr. E. Lindsay Blee,
„ Marshall Hartley,	„ Isaac C. Griffith,
„ Thomas Kirkup,	„ Alfred Hartley,
„ Allen Rees,	„ Henry Holloway,
„ John E. Wakerley,	„ Ezra T. Wilks.

The Rev. ALLEN REES is the Convener.

The Custody of Connexional Documents.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Custodian and Registrar.

2. The Conference directs that Memorials and Suggestions to the Conference be kept in the safe for two years only, and that all Memorials and Suggestions prior to 1911 be destroyed.

3. The Conference re-appoints the Rev. Enoch Salt Custodian and Registrar.

Common Cash.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report, and directs that it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix X.)

2. The Committee shall consist of the Officers of all the Funds included in the Common Cash arrangement.

3. The Executive Committee shall consist of the Treasurers of the Missionary Society; the Treasurers and Deputy Treasurer of the Home Mission Fund; the Ministerial Treasurer of the Children's Fund; the Secretary of the London Mission and Extension Fund; and the Secretary of the Connexional Funds Office (Convener).

4. The Tables of Profit Distribution and of Interest shall be printed in the Minutes.

Conference Tribune and Platform.—The Conference directs that a small rostrum or tribune shall be placed, when necessary, in front of the platform, from which those who desire to address the Conference may speak. The Conference also directs that the platform be brought within as small a compass as possible.

National Insurance Act.—The Conference recognises the widespread desire, expressed in suggestions from many District Synods, for the formation of an Approved Society in association with Methodism, and whilst unable to assume responsibility for such an undertaking, cordially welcomes any proposals which make it practicable for our people to join a sound and well-managed society in connexion with their own Church or Sunday School.

Rearrangement of Circuit Boundaries in North London.—The Conference refers the whole question of the rearrangement of the Kentish Town and adjacent Circuits to the London Mission and Extension Fund Committee, and directs it to act in conjunction with the Quarterly Meetings and Synods concerned, and to report to the Conference.

Proposed Commission on the Present Position and Prospects of Evangelical Religion in England and Wales.—The Conference re-appoints the following Representatives to co-operate with the other Churches in taking the necessary steps to give effect to this proposed Commission:

Rev. Henry Haigh, D.D.,	Mr. J. Vanner Early,
„ John Hornabrook,	„ Isaac H. Holden,
„ T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A.,	„ Henry Holloway.

Co-operative Training of Methodist Ministers.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the report of the Committee.

2. The Conference expresses its willingness to co-operate with the other Methodist Churches in the establishment of a Methodist Hostel for selected students in Cambridge. It requests the Committee to report to the next Conference the replies which may be received from the other Methodist Churches.

3. The following is the Wesleyan Methodist portion of the Committee: The Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; and

Rev. Dr. Davison, M.A.,
" Dr. George G. Findlay,
" Dr. J. Scott Lidgett,
" Dr. James Moulton,
" William H. Phipps, B.A.,
" Allen Rees,
" J. Alfred Sharp,
" Dr. John S. Simon,
" Dr. Tasker,
" Owen Watkins,
" F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.,
Mr. William J. Back,
Mr. Walter W. Berry,
" Alfred Brookes,
" J. Crowle-Smith,
" William J. Davey,
" Charles W. Early,
Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart.,
Mr. James Rider, Junr.,
" Norman T. C. Sargant,
Sir George Smith, Bart.,
Mr. H. Arthur Smith, M.A.,
" Ezra T. Wilks,
" Peter F. Wood.

The Rev. J. ALFRED SHARP is the Convener.

Labour Unrest.—The Conference, in view of the present labour unrest, is deeply impressed with the duty of the Church to expound the evangelical and social teaching of the Bible as to the brotherhood of humanity, and the responsibilities and perils attaching to the acquisition and possession of wealth. It re-affirms its conviction, expressed in its resolution of 1907, that the adequate supply of the physical needs of the workers must be the first charge upon every industry; and it believes that such provision is necessary, if the moral responsibilities of the workers, men and women, are to be adequately discharged and the spiritual possibilities of their lives realised.

Lord's Day Observance.—The Conference greatly deplores the rapidly increasing number of shops opening on Sundays, threatening as this does the maintenance of Sunday as a day of rest and worship, and offering the greatest hindrance to the effective work of the Christian Churches. The Conference therefore recommends that through the various agencies of our Church, frequent opportunity shall be made to call attention to this great evil, and every effort put forth and assisted to bring about its discontinuance.

Ministers Accepted for Service in Specified Countries Only.—1. The Conference appoints a Special Committee to consider during the year the position of Ministers who have been accepted for service in specified countries only, and to advise the Conference whether, and if so on what terms and conditions, such ministers may be admitted to the ranks of those on whose area of service no limit rests.

Rev. William H. Hart,	Mr. Albert W. Bain,
„ John Hornabrook,	„ J. Rayner Batty,
„ William J. Maund,	„ Alexander H. Davidson,
„ J. Alfred Sharp,	„ Isaac C. Griffiths,
„ C. Ryder Smith, B.A., B.D.,	„ Alfred Hartley,
„ Owen Watkins,	„ William J. Marsh.

The Rev. SIMPSON JOHNSON is the Convener.

The McKitrick Bequest.—1. The Conference has heard with great satisfaction of the generous bequest made by the late Miss McKitrick to her Executors for the benefit of Connexional Funds.

2. The Conference gratefully recognises the courtesy and consideration of the Executors, in affording to the Conference an opportunity of conferring with them as to the best method of distribution, and in accordance with their suggestion, resolves that the amount be allocated as follows:

Foreign Missions	£1,000
Home Missions	500
General Chapel Fund	1,000
Worn-Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund	1,000
National Children's Home and Orphanage (Bramhope Branch)	1,000
Connexional Fund	500
Education Fund	500
Theological Institution Fund	500 and the residue to Home Missions.

National Union of Journalists.—The Conference receives and adopts the following Resolutions:

1. In the judgment of the Committee, the Conference in its Representative Session has in no way encouraged Ministerial reporting, but on the other hand has given full facilities to all authorised representatives of the Press.

2. While recognising that certain advantages from the Methodist standpoint have been secured by the provision of reports of the Conference for daily newspapers by men versed in Connexional procedure and familiar with the intricacies of Methodist administration, and remembering that the Conference has no power to prevent Ministers from contributing to the Press, nevertheless, in view of the serious issues involved, the Conference thinks it undesirable that Ministers should personally compete with professional journalists in reporting the proceedings of Conference for the Daily Press.

(3) The Committee is of the opinion that the remedy lies ultimately in the hands of the Editors of the newspapers themselves.

(4) The Committee further recommends that the appeal of the National Union of Journalists so far as it affects the reporting of matters dealt with in the Pastoral Session of the Conference, should be sent to that Session for its consideration.

Closing of Wesleyan Day Schools.—The Conference resolves: That in the interests of the Methodist Church and of the Education of the country (especially in rural districts), this Conference deeply deplores the giving up of any Methodist School, and would impress upon all our Managers that before any steps are taken towards transfer or surrender, they should lay the case before our Education Committee for its counsel and assistance.

Boxing Contests.—The Conference regards with grave concern the recrudescence of pugilism under the form of boxing contests, of which distressing instances have occurred quite recently.

The Conference especially condemns the presence of women at these contests, and is strongly convinced that all good citizens as well as all worthy Christians should discountenance by all means in their power these demoralising exhibitions, and the attempts that are being made to clothe them with the form of respectability.

Housing Accommodation.—The Conference, impressed by the widespread absence of suitable housing accommodation, both in urban and rural districts, and by the close connexion between this absence of housing accommodation on the one hand, and temptations to immorality and the disappearance of true family life on the other, urges upon the Methodist people to use their influence to secure satisfactory housing conditions.

Increase of Armaments.—The Conference believes that our people would do well to regard with suspicion statements that the nation is in danger through inadequate armaments, and all the more to support by every means in their power efforts that are made to promote international amity and a substantial reduction in armaments. The Conference welcomes the announcement of Sir Edward Grey that an International Committee is being convened to prepare a programme and rules of procedure for the Third Hague Conference, and urges the Government to do its utmost to secure that the Hague Conference shall meet at regular intervals.

Methodist Overlapping.—The Conference deplores the waste of time, energy, and money that is occasioned where duplicated Methodist chapels exist beyond the necessities of the neighbourhood. The Conference, believing that it is possible to remedy this evil to some extent by friendly negotiation, hopes that our ministers and people will initiate such negotiations whenever opportunity serves. The Conference further urges upon all who are interested in schemes of Wesleyan extension to have special regard to the activities of other branches of the Methodist church in the immediate vicinity.

Unification of Young People's Work.—1. The Conference appoints a Special Committee, consisting of the officers of the Sunday School, Wesley Guild, and Temperance Committees, together with ten Ministers and ten Laymen, to consider and report to the next Conference as to what steps should be taken to unify the work amongst the young people in our Circuits and Missions.

2. The following is the Committee: The Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary;

The Officers of the Departments, viz.:

Rev. J. Williams Butcher,
„ Henry Carter,
„ W. Blackburn FitzGerald,
Mr. Alfred Brookes,
Sir Ernest H. Lamb, C.M.G., M.P.,
Mr. John I. Parkes,
„ J. Wesley Walker,

also

Rev. Edward J. Brailsford,
„ Alfred J. Costain, M.A.,
„ Josiah Flew,
„ T. Ferrier Hulme, M.A.,
„ Arthur T. Kinnings,
„ Samuel E. Keeble,
„ Frederick J. Pope,
„ David Rycroft,
„ J. Alfred Sharp,
„ E. Thornton Smith,
Mr. Herbert Barraclough,
„ John Crowle-Smith,
„ George P. Hargreaves,
„ Arthur Henderson, M.P.,
„ William Middlebrook, M.P.
„ Sidney H. Morgan, A.M.I.C.E.,
„ F. George Neave, LL.D.,
Mrs. Peter Thompson,
„ Charles Wenyon,
Miss Lena Wallis.

The Rev. J. WILLIAMS BUTCHER is the Convener.

Representatives from other Conferences and the Arrangements of the Open Session.—1. The Conference resolves that the Open Session be held on the Friday afternoon of the Representative Session.

2. That arrangements be made to secure that representatives from the General Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church South, the Methodist Church in Canada, and the Australasian Methodist Church, which Conferences meet once in four years, shall if possible be so appointed that every year one representative from one of the above-named Conferences shall be present and be heard.

3. That a representative from the French Conference and one from the South African Conference shall be heard on alternate years; a representative from the Irish Conference every year and one from the General Conference of New Zealand when appointed.

4. That representatives sent by this Conference to other Conferences shall be heard at the Conference following their return home.

5. That other accredited visitors, including those from the Annual Conferences of America and Australasia, shall be introduced to the Conference, but no provision can be made for them to address it.

6. The Conference appoints a Correspondent whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the Secretary of the Conference, to see that the various Conferences are advised as to the years when Representatives are looked for, that the names of those appointed are duly known, that our own Conference Arrangements Committees are advised as to hospitality and appointments on the Conference Plan, and that representatives are clearly informed as to the date of the Open Session and of any pulpit appointment, and are personally welcomed on their arrival.

7. The Conference appoints the Rev. William Bradfield, B.A., as the Correspondent referred to in the above Resolution.

Sunday Observance.—The Conference views with deep concern the granting of seven-day licences to places of entertainment, and is strongly of opinion that our protest must be made effective now, or we are within sight of having every place of entertainment and every form of popular sport making Sunday their chief day. The Conference urges our people who are members of County and Urban Councils to exercise all possible vigilance in assisting to prevent the granting of seven-day licences in cases which may lead to further secular entertainments on the Lord's Day. Further, the Conference calls the attention of the Board of Management of Book Affairs to the desirability of issuing some timely and concise publications on the privilege and duty of Sabbath Observance.

The Hamley Bequest.—The Conference repeats the instruction of last year authorising the President and Secretary of the Conference to take all necessary steps, with a view to the transfer of the legacy of the late John Hamley, late of Thruselton, Devonshire, to the Trustees for Wesleyan Methodist Chapel Purposes (Registered) to be administered by the Board in the interests of Methodism.

Supplementary Historic Roll.—The Conference approves the proposal to open a Supplementary Historic Roll, upon which the children and grandchildren of Methodists who signed the Twentieth Century Roll, together with other Methodists, may inscribe their names.

2. The Conference directs that the proceeds of the Fund be divided equally between the Trust of the Westminster Central Hall and Connexional Buildings and the National Children's Home and Orphanage.

3. The Conference authorises the Committee to take into consideration the claims of the Sunday School Department should the state of the Fund permit.

4. The Conference appoints the following Committee, with power to add to their number: Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; and

Rev. J. Williams Butcher,
„ Marshall Hartley,
„ John Hornabrook,
„ J. Herbert Rider,
„ Enoch Salt,
„ W. Hodson Smith,
„ Thomas E. Westerdale,
„ F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.,
Mr. Alfred Barriball, B.A.,
Mr. E. Lindsay Blee,
Lieut.-Col. Charles S. Denniss,
Rt. Hon. Thomas R. Ferens, M.P.,
Sir Norval W. Helme, M.P.,
Mr. Henry Holloway,
„ William Middlebrook, M.P.,
Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart.,
„ Charles C. Wakefield,
Mr. J. Wesley Walker.

The Rev. SIMPSON JOHNSON is the Convener.

Sunday Rifle Practice.—The Conference appoints the following deputation to wait upon the Secretary of State for War and the National Rifle Association on the whole question of Sunday rifle practice: Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; and

Rev. Joseph H. Bateson,
„ J. Williams Butcher,
„ Henry Carter,
„ Richard Hall,
„ Enoch Salt,
„ J. Alfred Sharp,
„ Owen Watkins,
„ F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.,
Mr. Walter W. Berry,
Mr. William J. Davey,
Rt. Hon. Thomas R. Ferens, M.P.,
Mr. Gerald France, M.P.,
„ Henry Holloway,
Sir Henry S. Lunn,
Mr. William Middlebrook, M.P.,
„ Ebenezer Parkes, M.P.,
Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart.,
„ John S. Randles, M.P.

The Rev. JOSEPH H. BATESON is the Convener.

The Conference empowers the Rev. Joseph H. Bateson to make all the arrangements in connexion with the visit of the deputation, and if any of its members cannot attend, to secure suitable substitutes.

Methodist Union.—The Conference, in accepting the Report of the Œcumenical Methodist Commission, expresses its profound gratitude at the increasing desire for Unity among all branches of the Methodist Church; and being convinced that the time has come when a serious effort should be made to unite in one Church organisation the different branches of British Methodism, the Conference appoints a Committee to collect information and report to the next Conference.

An Interim Report was presented to the Conference.

The Committee was re-appointed: Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; and

Rev. John S. Banks, D.D.,
„ John Elsworth,
„ E. Aldom French,
„ J. Herbert Rider,
„ William Wakinshaw,
Mr. Alfred Brookes,
Mr. Charles W. Early,
„ Isaac Foot, Jun.,
„ William Middlebrook, M.P.,
Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart.,
Mr. William H. Smith.

The Rev. E. ALDOM FRENCH is the Convener.

West Indian Affairs.—The Conference resolves that the Foreign Missionary Committee be instructed to consider:

1. What better methods can be adopted—

(a) To regulate the amount of allowances to Ministers according to position, place, and need.

(b) To ascertain how far the present method of raising and disposing of the Circuit funds creates a difficulty in some Circuits for the Superintendents to receive a reasonable and suitable allowance.

2. To consider whether the existing debts, both Connexional and Trust, can be liquidated by a Sinking Fund arranged by the Home Office.

3. To consider what secondary schools are necessary in the various districts, to enable us to meet the growing needs of our Methodist youth, and to maintain the status of our Church in the educational advance in the West Indies.

4. To urgently consider the great need for a Training College, fully equipped and sufficiently staffed, to attract Methodist students in the West Indies to be trained for our Ministry.

Commission on Finance.—The Conference adopts the following Report and Recommendations: The Commission finds on the whole inquiry:—1. That considerable improvement in dealing with Circuit finance has taken place in recent years.

2. While there is no cause for alarm it is evident that there is a widespread and serious strain upon the finances alike of Circuit, Society, and Chapel Trust. This is seen by the variety of expedients for raising money and by the large and distracting number of unauthorised appeals for financial help sent broadcast throughout the Connexion. There is an evident need and a fairly general desire for improved methods and for regular systematic giving on the part of both members and adherents.

3. The financial strain as it affects Circuits is largely due to a demand for more Ministers than the Circuits can maintain.

4. That so large a proportion of the Circuit income is still raised from the Class contributions.

5. That the offertory system is widely adopted. The Commission has, however, learned that in some places a custom obtains of retaining part of the collection for local purposes notwithstanding that it has been asked and given for specific objects. In other places there is no definite announcement of Connexional collections.

6. That while the principle of assessment for Circuit income may be helpful in some Circuits, it leads in some cases to the transference of Circuit obligation to a debt on a particular Society.

The Commission recommends :—1. That whilst recognising the great liberality of our people, an effort be made to create a more general sense of the privilege of proportionate and systematic giving, in order to bring about a more equable distribution of the burden of finance.

2. That the offertories shall be strictly devoted to the purposes for which they are given.

3. That the Conference re-affirms its regulations as to making two collections for Connexional Funds and directs, when the Connexional collections are made, there should be a more adequate and intelligent explanation of the same in the announcement from the pulpit.

4. That the Conference be asked to re-affirm its law concerning unauthorised appeals, as the Commission regards the present system of indiscriminate application for any but special cases sanctioned by the Conference as extremely undesirable and irritating.

5. That the utmost caution should be exercised locally before sending on proposals which involve serious financial liability with regard to large building schemes or the calling out of additional Ministers.

6. That the Conference directs the attention of Circuits to the possibility of economising their finance by improved banking methods, for example, such as collective banking; it is also desirable that inquiry be made throughout the Connexion as to unclaimed balances of our Funds which may be lying at the various banks.

7. Upon a review of the whole question remitted the Commission is of opinion that it is unnecessary to suggest any radical change in the prevailing methods for meeting Circuit finance where the three main sources are found inadequate to meet expenditure, viz. :—(1) Class Contributions, (2) Offertories, (3) Trust Subscriptions.

The Commission is convinced that local considerations must determine the subsidiary methods that are necessary. It would, however, urge that the Circuits should cultivate in all their Societies the incalculable privilege of systematic giving which our Class Meeting provides, and is assured that it only needs a deepening sense of the stewardship of money that our financial obligations may be fully met.

Christian Evidence Mission.—1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Special Committee appointed by the last Conference.

2. The Conference adopts the following recommendations:

(a) That Conference should appoint a Committee to be composed of men and women, representing different types of population, who have knowledge of the forces which are likely to produce intellectual disturbance in regard to the Christian faith, and who have understanding of local conditions; and that this Committee be affiliated to the Home Mission Committee.

(b) That the Committee should seek to secure the co-operation of specially qualified ministers and laymen, in all parts of the country, who would be willing to give lectures or addresses on Christian Evidence topics, or to take part in any carefully organised effort to meet local needs.

(c) That the Committee should be prepared to help local workers amongst young people and in Brotherhoods, and all interested in Christian Evidence work, by giving advice as methods, and assisting to secure suitable lecturers and speakers.

(d) That the Committee should from time to time suggest suitable literature for Christian Evidence workers, and also literature to be put into the hands of the thoughtful young people of our Churches.

(e) That, recognising the superlative importance of the Christian teaching given to boys and girls in their early years, the Committee should seek to suggest how Christian truth can best be presented in both home and school, so that the instruction thus given may remain an adequate and stable foundation for the knowledge gained in later years.

(f) That the cost of the work of the Committee be borne by the Home Mission Fund, either by a grant or in some other way.

3. The Conference appoints the following Committee: The Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; the Officers of the Home Mission Committee;

Rev. Walter H. Armstrong,
„ Frank Ballard, M.A., B.Sc., D.D.,

Q. XXXI. What Ministers have died since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, fifty-eight:

(1) Edward Humphreys: born at Mochnant, Montgomeryshire, December 6, 1846. The influence of a godly mother, the earnest preaching of the Rev. John Pierce in the revival year of 1859, and the guidance of a wise class-leader led to his conversion at the age of thirteen. He began to preach before he was seventeen, and in 1867 was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry and appointed to his first circuit. During forty-one years of active service, the sterling qualities of his character and the effectiveness of his preaching won high esteem. He was well known throughout the Principality as an attractive and powerful preacher. In 1899 he was elected into the Legal Conference, and became the first President of the Welsh Assembly. His genial and strong personality, his wise judgment, his unfailing fairness and Christian courtesy fully justified the confidence reposed in him. While appreciating the approval of his brethren, his constant aim was to present himself approved unto God, a workman that needed not to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth. In 1908, owing to failure of health, he retired from active work, and spent the remaining years in quiet service, exemplifying the grace of God in patient endurance of his affliction. He passed to the heavenly rest on August 3, 1913, in the sixty-seventh year of his age and the forty-sixth of his ministry.

(2) David Young: born near Haverfordwest in 1844. He was appointed to his first circuit in 1868. Twenty years of his ministry were spent in the South Wales District, where he gave evidence of such qualities of character and service that early in his career he was elected to the chair of the District. He had an alert intellect and a bright and pleasing personality. His grasp of affairs, sagacity, and well-balanced judgment qualified him for deliberation and counsel. Preaching Christ was the supreme passion and joy of his life. He possessed the soul of a preacher, and often spoke with glowing eloquence. He was capable and tactful in circuit administration and in organising aggressive work. He contributed frequently to our Welsh literature, and published in English a comprehensive and valuable history of Methodism in Wales. His courteous manner and gift of sympathy won and kept a troop of friends, to whom in days of sorrow he was a son of consolation. The end came suddenly at Margate in the midst of fruitful toil. He attended the Plymouth Conference, but, feeling unwell, he hastened home, and in a few days entered the higher life August 4, 1913.

(3) ANDREW B. HOLLIDAY: born at Wigton, Cumberland, in February 1878. He was brought up in a godly home and had great advantages in physical, moral, and mental strength. His student life at Headingley showed promise and power. His gifts as a preacher were of the highest order. He had an original mind, replenished with the best literature, a voice of peculiar charm, and a deep religious experience. He fed his people with true spiritual food, and won many souls for Christ. As a pastor he was loving and lovable, shrewd and sympathetic, wise and tactful. He was always warmly welcomed, especially by the young, to whom his religion was very attractive, and among whom he gained many trophies for the Master. His life was full of the radiance of a great joy. He was fortunate in the sphere of his labours, and his ministry knew no narrow bounds. He gained great influence in Liverpool and it was hoped that he would serve our Church for many years; but on August 7, 1913, by a sudden illness, at the early age of thirty-five and in the fourteenth year of his ministry, he was called to his Lord.

(4) G. STRINGER ROWE: born at Margate on February 1, 1830; died at Bromley, in Kent, August 18, 1913. On both sides, he came of choice Methodist ancestry, and received an excellent training at Wesley College, Sheffield, then as an architect's pupil, and subsequently at Didsbury. A refined taste and a wide culture enhanced the natural vigour of his understanding and gave charm to his character and his speech. Converted to God in opening manhood, and soon beginning to preach, he offered himself for the Ministry at the age of twenty-one, and in the year 1854 entered upon his first circuit. For half a century he made full proof of his ministry, for sixteen years being House-Governor at Headingley. He showed himself a true shepherd in the flock of Christ, skilful both to teach and to rule. Gentle dignity, tender fidelity, a solicitous affection and a gracious unction, marked his bearing and his dealings with those under his charge. He was a careful and wise administrator; and amongst other connexional offices, held through a long term the treasurership of the Children's Fund. His joys were found in retired meditation and the company of chosen friends; in quietness of spirit he walked with God. His biographical and devotional writings exhibit the quality and bent of his mind and the finish of his workmanship. One of his hymns has gained a permanent place in the Psalmody of our Church. Retiring in 1904, he spent nine years of a tranquil and beautiful old age, his strength gradually declining until, without pain or struggle, and satisfied with fullness of days, he passed to the vision of his Redeemer.

(5) Thomas F. Rawlings: born at Wakefield, August 22, 1852, was the son of the late Rev. Charles Rawlings, and reproduced in his career much of his father's evangelistic passion and energy. He came to a clear consciousness of saving grace when between twelve and thirteen years of age, and at sixteen was already preaching in the Swansea Circuit. Leaving Didsbury College in 1874, he exercised his faithful and fruitful ministry chiefly amidst the population of large industrial towns. From the first his preaching was attended by converting power, and to the last he sought out individual men and women, to win them for Christ. As a pastor he was a counsellor and a burden-bearer, caring for the flock. There was a hopefulness and gaiety in his conversation which was like a tonic to sad hearts. The loneliness of his later years seemed only to bring him into closer fellowship with the Master. Mind and character ripened together to the end. Always a methodical student, he grew noticeably in wisdom and broadmindedness, gaining a fuller intellectual grasp of the gospel of Christ. As a Supernumerary preaching was still his great delight: and in all kinds of pastoral work he endeavoured to serve the little church in the Swansea Circuit which had sent him out into the Ministry. The end came with strange suddenness on September 2, 1913, in the sixty-second year of his age and the fortieth of his ministry. On that day a beautiful life ended, a life of rare self-forgetfulness and faithful, happy service.

(6) Robert Killip: born at Liverpool, March 4, 1853. A quiet, thoughtful boy, he early gave himself to God, and began to preach when not more than sixteen years of age. After a year at Headingley College he began his ministry in 1875, and served Methodism with marked acceptance and ability in many important centres. Of a scientific and philosophical cast of mind, the study of astronomy tested, while it trained, his powers, and in 1896 he was elected a Fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society. This pursuit was not allowed to encroach on his preparation for the pulpit, his care of his people, or the effective administration of circuit affairs. Gifted with unusual grasp and lucidity of intellect, it was natural that in preaching he should deal with cardinal principles and feel a conquering joy in exploring and laying bare to his listeners the very heart of the Living Word in its relation to the needs of modern life. It was the preaching of a strong man waxing stronger through an ever-deepening faith and broadening outlook, and strong men grew stronger under its vivid and urgent enunciations. Yet strength in him linked hands with a modesty that half veiled his attainments, and a geniality that often brightened into playful moods, or as swiftly melted into tenderness when he was called upon to minister to those in sorrow. His sympathies were catholic and his mind eager for the widest culture; for to his faith and vision Jesus Christ was the supreme and constantly enlarging manifestation of the Divine Life through all those avenues by which it is capable of reaching the hearts of men. Ill health necessitated premature retirement in 1912, and he entered quietly into rest on September 3, 1913.

(7) JOHN ARCHER: born at Bridlington Quay, October 5, 1836. Early in life he gave his heart to God, and in 1857 entered upon the active work of the Ministry. His sphere of service was mainly in wide country circuits, but in all he rendered faithful service, doing the work of an evangelist, and winning a good reputation as a vigorous and acceptable preacher, a diligent pastor, and a valued friend. In some circuits especially his work was greatly blessed, conversions were numerous, and in Ashford (Kent) the results of a revival are seen in the godly lives of many who bear office in the Church to-day. He spent forty-four years in the active work of the Ministry; for eleven years more he served as a Supernumerary. In 1912 he settled at Higham Ferrers, where he had already spent seven years of his ministry. A man of unblemished reputation, of earnest piety, and of a profound faith in God, he spent a beautiful eventide. His influence for good was very great, and his whole life was a standing lesson of fidelity and devotion to his Lord. He died on September 5, 1913, in the seventy-eighth year of his age, and the fifty-seventh of his ministry.

(8) JOHN T. MARQUAND: born in Guernsey in 1843. Early in life he made a definite surrender to Christ. After two years at Richmond he entered our Ministry in 1865, and began a life-work of great worth and service. For thirty-seven years he continued in active work, and in all his circuits exercised an acceptable ministry. For three years he was a Supernumerary at Colwyn Bay. To a man of his astonishing vitality and unwearied zeal, however, inactivity proved unendurable. In 1905 he went to Dudley, and spent the last eight years of his life in that circuit. Preaching repeatedly to the same congregations, his sermons were always fresh and powerful. His genial presence was everywhere welcomed, and was made a blessing to many. He died as he would have wished to die, without pain or suffering, and with no sign of failing powers. On September 10, 1913, after assisting at the wedding of a friend, he suddenly passed away.

(9) J. Beedell Chubb: born in Clerkenwell, May 16, 1857, of honoured Methodist parentage. Accepted for the Ministry in 1882, he spent three years at Handsworth College; and for some years exercised a ministry which was appreciated especially by the more thoughtful of those who listened to him. In 1897 failure of health compelled him to become a Supernumerary; and he spent the remainder of his life at Richmond, Surrey, rendering constant service in the pulpit, and entering into all the interests of the College Chapel, where also for a time he took charge as Superintendent of the Sunday school. During the years of retirement he devoted himself with admirable business tact and ability to the interests of the Annuitant Society and the Auxiliary Fund. He lived the life of one who from near at hand had faced the prospects of the other world, and knowing Whom he had believed was persuaded that to depart and to be with Christ was to be at rest and peace. Always courteous, gentle in disposition, and preferring others before himself, his memory will abide with those who were privileged to know him as that of a pure-minded and devoted follower of the Christ his Lord. He passed to rest on September 25, 1913.

(10) Edward Lloyd Jones: born at Penygarnedd in Montgomeryshire, September 18, 1845. As a boy his time was divided between school and work on his father's farm. His gift for public speaking first showed itself in an address which he gave at the Sunday school when about seventeen years of age. Soon after he was urged to preach, and in 1869 offered himself as a Candidate and was sent to Didsbury College. After two years' training he was appointed to Stockton. In 1889 he finally retired from circuit work, but for twenty-four years he continued to preach and lecture throughout the country. His mental endowments were much above the average. He was a wide reader, especially of British theology. Modern in thought and sympathy, interested in public movements, but above all an evangelist and preacher of Christ, it was an illumination to hear him discourse on some great gospel topic. Preaching was his delight, and to it he gave his full powers. In the pulpit he was quite at home, with perfect command of his subject, of himself, and of his audience. A vigorous personality manifested itself in independence of thought and strong convictions, in a masterly grasp of principles, wide range of thought and application, and freshness of statement, which made his utterances brilliant and striking. He was a man of generous instincts, very brotherly, and keenly appreciative of the best in others. To young ministers especially he was stimulating and unsparing in help. He mellowed in spirit as the years advanced, and his ministry grew richer and more effective, until on September 27, 1913, he was called to higher service.

(11) John W. Booth: born at Honley, near Huddersfield, May 2, 1855. The beginnings of his religious life owed much to careful Methodist training. In his earlier life he was engaged in educational work, and was accepted as a Candidate from the Knaresborough Circuit in 1878. He spent three years at Headingley, and received his first appointment to Portessie in Scotland in 1883. Subsequently he became District Missionary in the Devonport District, and both there and in his later circuits had the joy of seeing many conversions. He made excellent use of his gifts. His kindly disposition won him hosts of friends. His preaching gave abundant evidence of thorough preparation and a strong conviction of those evangelical truths which were the staple of his message. Sympathy was its keynote, and this gave him considerable insight into human life and made his pastoral work, in which he was most diligent, a great blessing to his people. He enjoyed a special facility in dealing with the difficulties which class-meeting experiences reveal, and was very tender in visiting the sick and troubled. Prodigal of his strength in the service of Christ, he laboured often to the detriment of his health. Whilst at Bradford (Kirkgate) he had to undergo a serious operation, and died on October 2, 1913, in the fifty-ninth year of his age and the thirty-fourth of his ministry.

(12) Thomas Rippon: born at Gateshead, March 28, 1849, and nurtured in a Christian home. He was drawn to decision for Christ during the ministry of the Rev. Peter Mackenzie. Accepted as a Candidate in 1870, he was sent as a supply to the Sunderland (Fawcett Street) Circuit. For forty-three years he rendered loyal service—often in the face of great physical suffering — and occupied the Chair of several important Districts. As a preacher he was lively and enthusiastic, sensitive to the charms of style, eager to find telling phrases and apposite illustrations, yet ever mindful of the need to reach the conscience and to move the heart. In social work he was keenly interested and rendered valuable aid. During his ministry in the Isle of Man he successfully carried through a campaign on behalf of social purity and temperance, and his efforts produced abiding results. Essentially sympathetic, his affability won the affection and esteem of his congregations and of his brethren in the Ministry, who in 1905 elected him into the Legal Conference. He became a Supernumerary in 1913, hopeful of a long eventide, but at Hoylake on October 2, 1913, in the sixty-fourth year of his age, he died in the faith of the Master he had so devotedly served. He was one of those bright spirits of whom the Methodist Church and Ministry have never lacked happy examples.

(13) WALTER F. MAYER: born at Burslem, June 9, 1864. Influenced by the life of a Christian home, and deeply affected by the death of a younger brother, he was early led to personal consecration to the Lord Jesus. He dedicated himself to the Christian ministry, and was trained at Headingley College. He was a man of unobtrusive and gentle spirit, full of a kindness and courtesy that manifested themselves in his speech and bearing. As a pastor he won the hearts of the flock, as an administrator he was able and careful. To his pulpit ministry he brought his best of thought and utterance, aiming to instruct the mind and lay upon his hearers the easy yoke of his Lord. He was a cheerful colleague, always loyal to the common interest, and responsive to every call of duty. He passed to his reward on October 11, 1913, at Birkenhead, in the fiftieth year of his age and the twenty-sixth of his ministry.

(14) J. LEONARD POSNETT: born at Alford, Lincolnshire, September 8, 1825. He was one of three sons of the Rev. Leonard Posnett who entered the Ministry. At nine years of age he became a scholar at Woodhouse Grove, and was converted during a remarkable revival there. In 1850 he was appointed to Macclesfield. A life-long student, he read his Greek Testament daily. He was a diligent and methodical expositor of the Scriptures, and was remarkably successful in conducting theological classes for young men, from one of which, at Devonport, three members entered the Ministry. He was a great lover of the poor, and all through his life took the keenest interest in questions of temperance reform and social progress; a large working-men's institute was erected through his initiative in North London. He combined a fervent evangelistic spirit with a philosophic mind. He had a special gift in prayer, and was an enthusiast for foreign missions. Twenty years ago he became a Supernumerary at Muswell Hill, and these years were amongst the happiest and most fruitful of his life. He greatly helped in the formation of the Society and in the erection of the church which is looked upon as his true memorial. His unfailing courtesy, unflagging zeal, and saintly devotion won and kept the reverence and affection of all who knew him. The end came with merciful swiftness on October 18, 1913, an hour's illness closing a life of eighty-eight years, of which sixty-three were spent in our Ministry.

(15) Joseph Newton: born at Gwernymynydd, near Mold, in July, 1858. Soon after his conversion he began to preach, and was greatly helped by the sympathy and encouragement of his elder brother, Rev. G. Talalun Newton. In 1879 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and was sent to Didsbury College, being afterwards transferred to Handsworth. He soon won attention by his sermons, which were fresh and thoughtful, carefully prepared, and effectively delivered. In each circuit he sought in a special manner to help the young people under his care, his theological classes being much appreciated. He was diligent, gentle, and sympathetic in all his pastoral duties, and his genial disposition made him many friends. His health began to fail early. In 1909 he became a Supernumerary, residing first at Rhyl and afterwards at Mold. The end came somewhat unexpectedly at Denbigh on October 21, 1913, in the thirty-first year of his ministry.

(16) Benjamin Broadley: born August 15, 1833, at Acworth in the Pontefract Circuit. Brought up in the midst of the best traditions and influences of Yorkshire Methodism, he early yielded his life and service to Christ. After three years' training at Richmond the close of the Indian Mutiny led to his being sent to India as one of our earliest military chaplains. For this work he was well fitted by his manly bearing, practical sense, and clear and warm-hearted presentation of evangelical truth. For eighteen years he rendered efficient service in our garrisons both abroad and at home. In 1876 he was transferred to English circuit work, and for thirty years exercised a most acceptable ministry. Sure of the truth he declared, he invested it with an interest and a breadth and fullness of application that appealed to every class of his hearers. As a pastor his sympathy and invincible cheerfulness made his visits very welcome. In his relations to his brethren and the ministers of other Churches he manifested an old-world courtesy; whilst his genial manner and racy speech invariably brightened the fraternal meetings in which he loved to take part. In 1906 he became a Supernumerary in Nottingham, where up to within a short time of his death it was his joy to preach. In calm and confident expectation of richer, fuller life, he passed away on October 24, 1913, in the eighty-first year of his age and the fifty-fifth of his ministry.

(17) J. Harrop Taylor: born at Runcorn, February 17, 1843. He came of a good Methodist ancestry. At Didsbury College he laid the foundation of a sound scholarship and a love of books which he never lost. In 1865 he went to Bourne, his first circuit, and continued in the active work until 1908. Then he resided for a year at Henley-on-Thames, and afterwards settled in Ilkley. When his health permitted he took work in the circuit. His services were highly appreciated everywhere. He was a man of gentle disposition, of much tact, of clear and strong faith, and sympathetic spirit. He was an able administrator, and in various circuits he carried out successfully schemes of considerable magnitude. Wherever he laboured in the gospel he endeared himself to the people, and in his retirement he was held in the highest esteem, not only by Methodists, but also by the ministers and members of other churches. He took the deepest interest in the affairs of Methodism and loved to talk with his brethren about the progress of Christ's kingdom at home and abroad. He underwent a serious operation, but the cure was not permanent, and he passed away in his seventy-first year on November 1, 1913. He never faltered, but fought a good fight to the end and triumphed in Christ.

(18) William H. Major: born at Bideford, February 26, 1840. Before offering as a Candidate he was engaged in teaching, and when accepted for the Ministry, at the age of twenty-one, he was sent at once into the work. For forty-four years he exercised his ministry, chiefly in country circuits, where his preaching power and business ability were greatly valued. His sermons were a strong, clear call to duty, and he exemplified his teaching by his personal devotion. He was noted for fidelity to appointments in distant villages, and in many of them he built up strong week-evening congregations. A life-long abstainer, the temperance cause had his warm sympathy and active support. He had deep convictions, and was direct and fearless in announcing them. He loved the poor and was loved by them. In 1905 he became a Supernumerary, and settled in Bristol, where he cheerfully served the circuits of the city and neighbourhood, preaching up to the last. After two days' suffering he passed to his eternal rest on November 3, 1913, in the seventy-fourth year of his age and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(19) Edward Jones (c): born at Pwllheli, Carnarvonshire, in February 1850. Surrounded by religious influences from his youth, he became greatly attached to the Methodist Church, and gave evidence of true conversion. He was of a retiring disposition, but won the esteem and love of our people through his diligence as a pastor. He always preached on the great themes of the gospel, and in such a way as to reach the heart. He was mighty in prayer. His preaching was practical and evangelical, and bore much fruit in the winning of souls. Having travelled thirty-seven years with great acceptance, the end came suddenly, and in the course of a few hours he passed away in peace on November 6, 1913, aged sixty-three.

(20) CHARLES M. GREENWAY: born at Coventry in 1847. Educated at the Grammar School in that city, and brought up in the Established Church, he became a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and entered the Ministry in 1873. He was sent to Richmond College, but soon volunteered for work in Spain. He laboured for a time in Barcelona and Port Mahon, but the climate proving injurious to his health, he had to return home; from that time until his retirement in 1902, he travelled in country circuits, little known beyond his own immediate sphere of service, and shrinking from anything which might bring him into undue prominence. A scholarly man, he spent much time in study and private prayer. From his retirement in 1902 until his death he resided in Ilford, and whilst strength allowed, he still delighted to preach. His strength gradually failed, and for the last six or eight months of his life he was unable to attend public worship; but his patience and cheerful submission to the Divine will were an impressive testimony to all about him. He passed away on November 20, 1913.

(21) HENRY MARCHBANK: born at Girvan in 1837. His parents were Methodists, his father being a local preacher. On removing to Glasgow, the family became members at St. Thomas's Church. Here he was converted at the age of twelve years. In 1862 he was appointed to Kendal, and for forty-four years faithfully did the work of a Methodist preacher. In 1907 he became a Supernumerary, and, within a short time of his death, took occasional services, to the great delight of his hearers. He was a man of wide reading, especially of Methodist and devotional literature. Throughout his ministry, he took a deep interest in young men. His sermons were carefully prepared, deeply spiritual, and full of evangelical fervour. He was an untiring visitor, who brought help and abiding comfort to the sick and sorrow-stricken. He was a man of deep tenderness and kindness, clear insight and keen appreciation, quiet humour and courage. His life was transparent in its saintliness. Until four days before his death he was alert and active, then "God's finger touched him," and he passed quietly away on December 6, 1913, in the seventy-sixth year of his age.

(22) STEPHEN COOPER: born on April 7, 1857, of godly Methodist parentage, at Rookery, North Staffordshire. He entered the Ministry from the Tunstall Circuit, and after training at Didsbury commenced active work in 1883. His ministry was mostly exercised in the north of England. He was a man of God whose beautiful modesty, chivalrous spirit, and loyalty to the highest will be long remembered. He fulfilled his ministry with characteristic spirituality and singleness of purpose, doing his work with great seriousness and a deep sense of responsibility. Comparatively early in life he had to become a Supernumerary. His closing days were spent in Glasgow and Edinburgh, and he was called to the higher and wider service on December 14, 1913.

(23) HENRY J. PARKER: born at Burslem, July 21, 1856. When a schoolmaster near Leek, Staffordshire, he was converted during a mission held by the Rev. Edward Smith, and soon after his conversion he began to preach. Accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1882, he was sent to Richmond College. At the end of his first year he left as a missionary to South China, where he laboured for nearly ten years, till his health broke down. Upon his recovery the doctors forbad his return to China, and he entered the home work. In 1903 failing health forced him to become a Supernumerary. For ten years he lived in weakness and pain a blameless and beautiful life, greatly appreciating the services of God's House, and much esteemed by all who were privileged to know him. For years he had waited for death as for a friend, and on December 15, 1913, his gentle spirit returned unto God who gave it.

(24) Joseph Taylor: born at Burton-on-Stather, Lincolnshire, June 16, 1835. Early training in the Established Church issued in pious inclinations, true conversion, and religious habits. A Church of England kinsman set apart a room in his farmhouse for Methodist worship, and here Mr. Taylor received more fully the saving truth and joined the Society. He soon after began to preach. Accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, he was sent from the President's list to fill a vacancy at Weymouth. A man of studious habits, he fulfilled an honourable, faithful, and useful course for the space of thirty-three years, till failing health compelled a relinquishment of the full work. For several years good service was still rendered, as strength and opportunity allowed. His colleagues found in him a willing co-worker and a brother uniformly loyal, generous, and kindly. His preaching was appreciated by all classes, and was characterised by thoughtfulness, fidelity, and earnestness. As a pastor he was laborious and sympathetic, giving careful oversight to remote and scattered village worshippers. A man of exceptional modesty of temperament, he trod a sequestered way. Though not robust, he survived to a ripe age, preaching almost to the end. Life's close brought little suffering, but much peace and radiant hope. He passed to his last rest at Caton, Lancaster, on December 17, 1913, in the seventy-ninth year of his age and the fifty-fourth of his ministry.

(25) James Chapman, D.D.: born at Droylsden, Manchester, May 18, 1849: died at Southlands College, Battersea,

December 18, 1913. His parents were Wesleyan Methodists, and his early training led by the blessing of God to early decision for Christ and dedication to His service. The Conference of 1869 accepted him as a Candidate, and sent him to Didsbury College, where he developed powers of mind and a thirst for knowledge which were the distinguishing features of his whole career. After ten years in circuit work his health, never robust, gave way, and for two years he was a Supernumerary. Those years were spent in Germany, where he devoted himself to the language and literature of the country with avidity and success. The next eleven years were spent in circuit work, in the course of which he occupied with distinction the Chair of the Oxford District. He was an able preacher, a skilful administrator, a sympathetic pastor, a loyal member of the brotherhood of Methodist preachers. To know him was to love him and to respect the office which he held and adorned. During the last eighteen years of his life he rendered inestimable service as Principal of Southlands College. Under his supervision the buildings were extended and greatly improved, while his personal influence, and the efficient staff that he gathered around him, raised the College to a foremost place among the Training Institutions of the day. The Board of Education recognised his work by giving him a seat on its Consultative Committee, and paid a fine tribute to his memory on the occasion of his death. He was a distinguished personality: a life-long student, a teacher of rare ability, a wise counsellor, a steadfast friend. Above all, he was a man of God, living in habitual communion with the unseen. Hence he wielded an influence of the highest quality, and has left an impression, especially on his students, which time will not efface. His vigorous mind was linked to a frail body, and he suffered prostrating affliction through many years, but he carried his heavy load patiently and cheerfully, never doubting the love of God, and always cherishing the Immortal Hope. His final testimony was "I die without a care on my mind or a fear in my heart; my trust is in the enduring Mercies." He was a great gift of God to the Methodist Church. He lived nobly and died triumphantly; and his name is as ointment poured forth.

(26) William Brooks: born at Doncaster, November 15, 1848. He began to preach when about sixteen years of age, became a Candidate for the Ministry in 1869, and entered Didsbury College, where he stayed three years. The friendships then formed had a determining influence on his character and work. In 1872 he was appointed to Welshpool. He took a special interest in temperance work in that town, and in all things proved himself enthusiastic and faithful. His worth soon became known. In Wakefield he travelled for two terms of three years, and in other large towns he fulfilled his ministry as preacher and pastor. In 1911 he became a Supernumerary in Southport. He preached frequently in spite of manifest physical weakness. When in the pulpit he seemed to forget his life-long weakness in the joy that came to him while he magnified the mercy of God. The beauty of his character arose from the fact that he was unconscious that it was beautiful. He was a fine and broad-minded expositor who faced the difficulties of belief, but did not exaggerate or obtrude them. He was a skilful resolver of doubts; and, in addition, he possessed a power of appeal to the conscience which made his hearers feel that doubting is not the highest exercise of the Christian mind. His honest faith commended him, especially, to young men, who heard him gladly. The end came very suddenly and peacefully on December 22, 1913.

(27) David Jones (A): born at Bridgend, March 2, 1839. His conversion, under the ministry of the late Rev. Thomas Osborn, at once became apparent in many-sided Christian work. Beginning to preach when he was seventeen, his gifts and graces soon marked him out for the Ministry, which he entered in 1861. Up to his death he was well abreast of modern thought, especially in ethics and philosophy. His sermons and addresses—always fresh, arrestive and evangelical—were exceedingly helpful to believers and fruitful in leading sinners to Christ. He was a successful pastor, an able Superintendent, and a most brotherly colleague. His personality and conversation were marked by great winsomeness. Becoming a Supernumerary in 1907, he continued active in the work he loved till within a few days before he passed to his reward on December 29, 1913, in the seventy-fifth year of his age and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(28) Robert E. Bambrough: born April 23, 1845, at Kenton in Devonshire. He was the only son of godly Methodist parents. From his father he inherited his innate reserve together with a vigorous intellect and an early bent to religion. His conversion took place early in life. All through his youth the grace of God was upon him. Accepted in his twenty-third year as a Candidate for the Ministry, he was sent to Baldock as a supply, and the following year entered Didsbury College. In all his circuits he laboured with growing acceptance and power as a capable, faithful, and wholehearted servant of Jesus Christ. He was a diligent student, a discreet and wise administrator. As a preacher he was fresh, arrestive, instructive, and evangelical. The eternal verities were handled with deep conviction. His toil was incessant, and he loved to watch over small and distant villages. His heart was in his work. On New Year's Day, 1914, without pain and without a murmur or a doubt, he fell on sleep, in the sixty-ninth year of his age and the forty-fifth of his ministry.

(29) J. Martyn Lobb: born near Liskeard, May 21, 1849. He was the child of godly parents, and early received the impress of the Christian influences amid which he was nurtured. When the time for religious decision came he was not disobedient to the heavenly vision. There was no period of resistance or conflict; he chose the better part, and retained it to the end. In 1874 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and entered as a student at Headingley. In the following year he was appointed to the Leeds (Brunswick) Circuit. The course of his ministry was uniformly happy, honourable, and successful. He was ever the same, a man greatly beloved, a faithful pastor, and true minister of Jesus Christ. His preaching was earnest, persuasive, and eminently spiritual. As the pastor and friend of his people, his kindliness and sympathy, and the sweetness and brightness of his disposition, won for him general affection and esteem, and in particular the confidence of the young. Throughout his whole ministry his personality and character were a main source of his influence in the pulpit and out of it. In the summer of 1904 he met with a serious accident, the beginning of sufferings which, with little intermission, continued to the close of his life. At the Conference of 1909 he retired from active work, and spent the remainder of his days in retirement. No period of his life was richer in spiritual blessings or more beautiful to those who were privileged to know him. The faith that sustained him in more strenuous days sustained him through his long affliction. Notwithstanding much pain and weakness he was happy, hopeful, and thankful; his mind was active and his spirit unclouded; and he lived a full, abundant life, alike in the visible world of human interests and affections, and in the heavenly places where he had fellowship with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. On January 5, 1914, he entered into rest. Few men have been more beloved, and few will be more affectionately remembered.

(30) Peter Jones (B): born at Caerwys, March 4, 1838. Blessed with godly parents, who brought him up in the fear and the admonition of the Lord, he was early led to Christ, and received into Church membership when only twelve years of age. He never had any doubt of the reality of his conversion. He experienced in a signal manner the working of the Spirit of God during the great revival of 1859. In 1862 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. He laboured with great acceptance in North and South Wales for forty-six years. His preaching was characterised by great evangelical fervour, and was the means of many conversions. His unblemished character, never-failing courtesy, and meekness won for him a host of friends. As a Superintendent he was attentive to the details of circuit administration, and was loved and trusted by his colleagues. He discharged the duties of District Chapel Secretary with care and efficiency for twenty-seven years. In 1909 he retired to Cardiff, but continued to preach every Sunday up to the last. The end came suddenly and peacefully on January 23, 1914, in the seventy-sixth year of his age and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(31) JOHN JEFFREYS: born at Liverpool, May 23, 1825. He entered the Ministry in 1849. Fifty-one years were spent without any interruption in the full work, for five years more he was in charge of a church as a Supernumerary minister, and for the remainder of his life he preached with frequency and acceptance in the circuits in which he resided. He had a vigorous and cultured mind, and a healthy though not robust body, and retained an unblemished Christian character. His preaching was marked by great ability and fidelity. The freshness of his thought and his art of putting truth before his hearers made his pulpit utterances exceedingly attractive. While carefully attending to his pastoral duties, he dearly loved to be amongst his books. He was a diligent student of theological and other literature and a wise and safe guide to those who were perplexed. He was a man of steadfast faith, fixed purpose; cheerful, gentle, lovable, full of goodness and geniality. He was an able adminstrator and a delightful colleague. His old age was full of serenity and hopefulness. The end came peacefully at Brighton on January 26, 1914, in his eighty-ninth year.

(32) JOHN W. SILCOX: born at Bristol, September 16, 1832. He began his ministry at Hinckley in 1857. Some years before this he laid down certain rules by which to govern his life, and he adhered to them faithfully through his long career. Though modest and retiring, he was a man of strong character, well read, and fully alive to the thought and activity of the day. His faith was clear, strong, and unwavering. He looked on the brighter side of things, and was most charitable in his judgments. In 1899 he retired to Ben Rhydding in the Ilkley Circuit, where he had formerly been Superintendent. He rendered fine service as an unofficial pastor, and had much to do with the erection of the beautiful new church. He was greatly beloved, and was held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends, in other churches as well as his own. Though advanced in years, he was youthful and buoyant in spirit right up to his last illness. He bore his pain and weariness with splendid fortitude, and passed away in peace on January 28, 1914, in his eighty-second year. "The memory of the just is blessed."

(33) GEORGE ROBINSON: born at Penrith, March 15, 1836. He was the son of godly parents, and decided for Christ in early life chiefly as the result of his mother's influence. When twenty-eight years of age he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry and sent to the Gold Coast District, where he laboured for three years. Returning to England in 1867, he was appointed to the Thetford Circuit, and continued in the active work until 1901, when he became a Supernumerary. During the twelve years of his retirement he rendered helpful service. His preaching was marked by sympathy and simplicity, and was appreciated by his hearers. For some time before his death increasing physical infirmity compelled him to abstain from all active work. As he drew near to the end of his earthly pilgrimage he found special joy in singing our hymns and reading the Word of God. Trusting in Jesus he passed peacefully away on February 2, 1914, in the seventy-eighth year of his age and the fiftieth of his ministry.

(34) Robert Bentley: born at Drax in the Snaith Circuit, June 14, 1839. He received his earliest religious impressions from his godly Methodist parents. His conversion when sixteen years of age was so clear and definite that it influenced his preaching to the end of his life. Two years after his conversion he came on the plan, and from the first had the joy of harvest. Accepted as a Candidate in 1859, he spent two years at Richmond, and began his ministry at Cardiff in 1861. Its leading mark was faithfulness. He preached with great fervour the central doctrines of the New Testament. In his pastoral office and his private life he "adorned the teaching of God in all things," and the simple gladness of his confidence in his Saviour made him, even in old age, specially attractive to the young. In the home and by the wayside he was ever watchful for opportunities of speaking a good word for Jesus Christ. His varied interests made his Supernumerary life at Clapham an eventide full of light and usefulness. He passed into life eternal, after a brief illness, on February 16, 1914.

(35) Simpson Crump: born at Skipton in 1832. Nurtured in a Methodist home which gave three sons to our Ministry, he came as a boy under the saving influence of the Spirit of God. His Christian life began in deep penitence: he earnestly sought and exultantly found a clear sense of pardon. The "witness of the Holy Spirit" was the abiding sunshine of his own spirit to the end. Well educated, endowed with exceptional gifts as a student and preacher, full of zeal, he was early marked out for the work of a minister. After a successful term at Didsbury College, he at once took high rank as a popular and powerful preacher. His graphic sermons, delivered with intense fervour, accompanied by the manifest power of the Holy Ghost, for which he was always supremely solicitous, turned many to righteousness. Having a lofty ideal of our Church and a great love for it, he maintained its discipline with fidelity and defended its doctrines with intelligent loyalty to the close of his life. He was a witness of entire sanctification both in his own happy experience and in his lucid sermons. He retired from the regular work in 1890, and died at Ben Rhydding on February 26, 1914, "holding faith and a good conscience."

(36) THOMAS RATHMELL: born at Horsforth, near Leeds, April 11, 1844. He was brought up under strictly religious influences, but it was not until he was nearly twenty years of age that he definitely and publicly yielded himself to Christ. His conversion was very real, and was the starting-point of a career of devoted Christian service which continued for fifty years. In 1868 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. After three years at Didsbury, he spent thirty-six years in twelve circuits with great acceptance and success. As a preacher he was direct, evangelical, expository, and helpful. A close and diligent student of the Word of God, he also possessed a wide knowledge of modern literature. He had a great aptitude for business, and was methodical, judicious, and faithful in the administration of circuit affairs. A diligent and sympathetic pastor, he was an ever-welcome visitor in the homes of both rich and poor. In 1908 he was compelled by failing health to retire from the active work. He settled at Whitby, where he had just completed three years' successful ministry, and as long as strength permitted continued to render valuable service. The last few months of his life were clouded by extreme suffering, but as the end drew near the cloud lifted, and he said, "Tell the people when I am gone, that I died 'looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.'" On March 4, 1914, he entered into rest, in the seventieth year of his age and the forty-third of his ministry.

(37) J. Wesley Genge: born at Winchester, September 22, 1846. He was a Methodist of the third generation. From a youth his desire was to preach the Gospel, and upon being accepted as a Candidate he entered Richmond College. In 1873 he began his ministry in the James Street Circuit, Bridge Town, Barbados, where his work among the young men received special and official recognition from the Governor of the Island. After four years ill-health compelled him to return, and he entered the home work. In all his circuits he won the esteem and affection of the young people of his congregations. In his ministry, preaching held the foremost place and he attracted large congregations. As a pastor his kindly sympathy won him a welcome in the homes of rich and poor alike. As a platform speaker he was effective, especially in the advocacy of foreign missions. As a Superintendent he was beloved by his colleagues, whom he was always ready to help with words of encouragement and wise suggestion. After thirty-nine years of active work he became a Supernumerary in the Highgate Circuit, still retaining a warm interest in the young people of the Church. The end came suddenly on March 7, 1914, in the sixty-eighth year of his life and the forty-second of his ministry.

(38) Abraham S. White: born at Gillingham, Kent, October 4, 1829. Under the influence of a godly father and a saintly schoolmaster, he decided for Christ in early life, and in 1851 was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. After three years at Richmond College, he was appointed to Gibraltar. In 1858 he went to India, where for eight years he did excellent work, mainly of an educational character. A breakdown in health compelled him to return to England, where he laboured till 1894. He was by nature a student, and brought to bear upon his ministry a mind well stored with knowledge gained from the best theological and other works. He was "a workman that needeth not to be ashamed," and conscientiously discharged the duties of his high office. He was an excellent preacher, and his ministry was most profitable. His pastoral visits were greatly prized, and he tenderly cared for the sick and the aged. He had a childlike faith in the boundless and unchanging love of God, and as he lived, so he died, calmly trusting in the love and merits of Jesus his Saviour. Shortly before the end he said, "I shall soon see the King in His beauty. Yes, and Glory—Glory!" His last audible word was a shout of praise, "Hallelujah!" and he passed peacefully away, at Okehampton, on March 8, 1914, in the eighty-fifth year of his age and the sixtieth of his ministry.

(39) TILNEY RISING: born at Exmouth in 1829. He was brought up in the Church of England, but owing to the influence of Methodist friends joined our Church, and entered the Ministry in 1852. He was originally intended for home work, but hearing of the outbreak of yellow fever in Barbados, he courageously volunteered for the danger zone, where many missionaries had already fallen. After seven years in the West Indies he returned home, completely invalided and not expected to live. His life was spared, however, and he travelled for twenty-eight years in circuit work—wishful always, but never permitted, to return to the foreign field. As a preacher he was thoughtful and evangelical; as a pastor, faithful; as an organiser, highly successful. He retired in 1890, and spent a long eventide amongst those who will cherish his memory as a man of fine spirit, always thoughtful, courteous, and a loyal disciple of the Master he served. After much weakness, he quietly entered into rest on March 9, 1914, in the eighty-fourth year of his age and the sixty-first of his ministry.

(40) WILLIAM D. BARTON: born 1836, was favoured with a godly Methodist home, in which his chief blessing was the influence and prayers of a saintly mother. His conversion took place in 1852, when he became a member at Park Chapel, Sheffield. He at once began to work for Christ, and in 1855 became a local preacher. His labours were blessed with considerable success in winning souls, and he entered our Ministry in 1859. In some of his circuits he witnessed numerous conversions, but his labours were much hindered by affliction, which was frequently so severe as utterly to incapacitate him for his work. In 1891 he became a Supernumerary, and for many years was the Lord's prisoner. Despite intense suffering, he was, by the Grace of God, one of the happiest men on earth; often longing to be called home, yet content to suffer as his Heavenly Father might see good. He entered peacefully "the rest that remaineth" on March 15, 1914.

(41) JAMES GREENLAND: born at Clutton in Somersetshire in 1831. His maternal grandfather was one of John Wesley's earliest converts. His earliest recollection was of being taken by her at the age of six to an early morning prayer meeting on a winter's day. The experience left a vivid impression of the importance of spiritual things. He became a local preacher in 1851, was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1854, and entered Richmond College. His ministry was spent chiefly in the Midlands, and for eighteen years in the Birmingham and Shrewsbury District. His preaching was pre-eminently evangelistic; his greatest delight was to conduct special services in his own circuit, which were signally owned of God in the conversion of souls. It was no unusual thing for him at the close of a Sunday evening service to have the joy of pointing many inquirers to the Cross of Christ. He was a man of beautifully simple faith and fervent piety, and for him life had no greater joy than that of winning souls for the Christ whose he was and whom he served. He retired from active work in 1901, and after a peaceful eventide passed to his reward on March 23, 1914.

(42) William R. Carlyon: born at Mylor, Falmouth; was a great-grandson of William Carvosso. Converted to God in boyhood, he commenced to preach at the age of sixteen, was accepted for the Ministry in 1867, and after training at Didsbury, entered the work in 1869. For nearly forty-five years he proved himself a workman needing not to be ashamed. He prepared carefully for the pulpit and was thorough in all he undertook. His ministry was exercised chiefly in the Midlands, and was highly appreciated. He became a Supernumerary in 1912, and after a rest at Malvern, sought employment at Southborough. He was very devout in spirit and lived near to God. In his last illness he manifested unwavering confidence in his Heavenly Father's wisdom and patiently endured suffering. On the Sunday evening before his decease he seemed to receive a special indication of the divine favour which strengthened his confidence in God. He fell asleep at Southborough on March 25, 1914, in his sixty-eighth year.

(43) D. William Barr: born at Aston, Birmingham, July 30, 1859. In a godly Methodist home he entered early into conscious fellowship with Christ. At the age of sixteen he began to preach, and three years later was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. Educated at Aston Park Collegiate School and Didsbury College, he formed the life-long habit of wide and diligent reading. After six years in the active work he was appointed to Hunstanton. Here he built a commodious church and gathered an entirely new congregation. The neighbouring village causes were also re-vitalised by his ceaseless energy and zeal. Later years brought larger responsibilities, and in every circuit his fidelity, sympathy, and absolute unselfishness won the affection and esteem of his people. His was a singularly winsome personality, cultured, devout, and courteous in every relationship of life. His thought was ever of others, and his loyalty to Christ supreme. A forceful preacher, a wise counsellor, a capable administrator, he gave his strength to the Church which he so passionately loved, and adorned the gospel of God his Saviour in all things. On March 26, 1914, he rose, apparently in his usual health, and was engaged in circuit affairs when he was seized with illness and died, in the fifty-fifth year of his age and the thirty-third of his ministry.

(44) Joseph R. Hewitson: born November 16, 1836, at Allendale. He found peace with God in early manhood. In 1862 he entered our Ministry, and was immediately appointed to the Shetland Isles. He was an earnest and prayerful student of God's Word and of our best theological literature, and his steady industry, simple devotion to all parts of his work, together with his evangelical fervour and high ideals of Christian life, won the respect and trust of the circuits in which he laboured. His preaching was expository and practical, often very effectively illustrated from the works of God in nature, wherein he greatly delighted. He was skilled in botany and ornithology, and his library was enriched by valuable volumes upon these sciences, but the supreme work to which he devoted himself with unstinting energy was that of preaching, pastoral oversight, and care of the churches. For thirty-five years he fulfilled his ministry, beloved, trusted, and held in honour by colleagues and people. In 1897 he became a Supernumerary, and a few years later settled at Eltham Park, where by his happy influence and work he largely aided the development of the new cause. In his latter days his eyesight failed; the malady deepened into blindness; but his faith's vision was undimmed; he exhibited a gentle courage, and his mind was kept in peace. After a short illness he departed this life on April 5, 1914, in the seventy-eighth year of his age and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(45) William Hoare: born January 28, 1877, at Tackley in Oxfordshire. Brought up in a Christian home, he gave himself up to Christ in early life. After serving as a local preacher and a lay evangelist, he was accepted as a Candidate and sent to Handsworth College. He was an able preacher, believing with all his heart in the Christian gospel, which he faithfully and cogently proclaimed. His sermons gave evidence of careful preparation, and contained much fresh and independent thought. He discharged the duties of the pastoral office with fidelity and patience, and was a wise administrator. Unselfish and manly, he was the soul of honour, a true friend and a devoted and loyal colleague. Amid much pain no murmur escaped his lips. His peace was undisturbed and his confidence in the goodness and love of God was strong. The call to the higher service came at Haslingden on Easter Day, April 12, 1914, in the thirty-eighth year of his age and the twelfth of his ministry.

(46) Tom Ivens: born at Wroxton in the Banbury Circuit in 1851. He owed everything to his mother's prayers. In January 1867 he found peace with God, and became at once a devoted worker. While serving as a hired local preacher in the Kineton Circuit in 1875 a blessed revival took place, and seventy professed conversion. This led him to become a Candidate for the Ministry, and he was accepted by the Conference and sent to Richmond. He laboured in several circuits with growing acceptance, but found his proper sphere as District Missionary. Hundreds of conversions in his missions in the Exeter District filled him with great joy, but his health was unequal to the constant excitement and strain of such glorious toil. Returning to circuit work, he proved himself an excellent administrator and a diligent pastor, but his strength was taxed beyond measure, and in 1910 he became a Supernumerary. A farmer in youth, he retained his love of village Methodism to the end of his days. He died at Wellington on April 17, 1914, at the age of sixty-three, full of hope in his Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

(47) Samuel Miles: born at Newbury on January 5, 1845, of Methodist ancestry which reached back to the days of John Wesley. His mother strongly cherished a hope that a son of hers might be a Methodist preacher, and it was largely due to her influence that her firstborn found his way into the Methodist Ministry. At twelve years of age he was converted in the Wesley Sunday School at Salisbury. At seventeen he began to preach. In 1869 he was accepted as a Candidate for our Ministry, and after three years at Headingley was appointed to Petersfield. Here he laboured for three years with that diligence and devotion which characterised his whole ministry. He greatly endeared himself to our people. He was a diligent student, a kindly Superintendent, a loyal colleague, a faithful friend, and an ardent Methodist. As an administrator he was wise and tactful. His preaching, which gave evidence of wide reading and careful preparation, was evangelical, incisive, and forceful. On April 21, 1914, he entered into his well-earned rest.

(48) George Ingman, B.A.: born at Crowland, Lincolnshire, in 1848. He was brought to religious decision at thirteen, and preached his first sermon at fifteen. He was accepted as a Candidate, and during his course at Headingley College was greatly influenced by the preaching of the Rev. John Burton. The early years of his ministry were spent in Scotland, and the remainder chiefly in the large towns of the north of England. Whilst in circuit work he took his B.A. degree, and throughout his career maintained the habits of a scholar. He was an enthusiastic student of great literature, especially English and German; but his sympathies were various. He had an intense religious delight in nature, and a passion for music. He was a man of great originality and insight, as well as of logical power. His views were wide and clear, and his preaching was that of a Christian philosopher who saw all things reconciled in Christ. His sermons, whilst novel in treatment, were truly evangelical:

they were delivered with great conviction, and were often extremely vivid and penetrating, taking fast hold of the conscience of men. He had, moreover, the power of condensing vital truth into a striking sentence or saying, so that his words remained, and revived again and again in the remembrance of his hearers. His unusual intellectual gifts and his devout and gentle nature, together with his cordial behaviour, his care for young men, and little children, whom he loved, made him affectionately esteemed in the circuits where he laboured. The Church was looking for still greater service from him when it pleased God to visit him with heavy affliction, and a shadow fell upon him in the prime of life from which he never completely emerged. He retired from the active work in 1902. At the beginning of the present year, his health suffered further failure; and after many weeks of trial and distress he entered the joy of the Lord on April 23, 1914.

(49) JABEZ IREDALE: born at Holywell Green, Halifax, February 17, 1830. At the age of ten, when a scholar in the old Stainland School, he decided to serve God, and with an independence that characterised his whole future, he went alone and uninvited to a class meeting and avowed his decision. He began to speak in cottage services a few years later. After training at Richmond College, he entered in 1856 upon a ministry of evangelistic preaching and pastoral influence which bears fruit to this day. He has left a lasting impression on the minds of some who were his younger colleagues thirty years ago. They learned that under a somewhat stern exterior there was a heart full of brotherly love. After forty-four years of active service he retired to Lewes. There, for fourteen years, his reverence in worship, his Christian manliness, his habitual kindness, won many hearts. A few weeks before his death his strength failed, and he was sleepless. Asked one morning how he had fared in the night, he replied, "It was a beautiful night—in prayer." So he passed away on April 27, 1914, aged eighty-four years.

(50) ROBERT BURDON: born at Whitby, September 23, 1838. His mother died when he was quite young, and he was cared for by an elder sister, through whose influence he was converted to God. In due course he began to preach. Obeying what he felt to be a call to the Ministry, he became a Candidate, offering himself specially for foreign mission work. He entered Richmond College in 1860, where he spent three happy years, after which he laboured joyfully for ten years in the West Indies, returning to England in 1873. He spent the remaining portion of his active service in English work. He retired from the active ministry in 1897, but for some years rendered valuable and effective service in Leeds. Direct and fervent in his preaching, his ministry was always evangelistic and fruitful in the highest sense. He was a diligent and successful pastor, who brought comfort and encouragement to the sick, the sorrowing, and the bereaved. A man of sympathetic nature, lovable personality, and of unswerving loyalty to Christ and His Church, he passed away to the higher service on May 7, 1914, in the seventy-fifth of his age.

(51) E. WRIGHT ADCOCK: born of godly Methodist parents at Frisby-on-the-Wreak, Leicestershire, March 30, 1862. His conversion, to which he alluded in his last sermon, took place in boyhood, and was thorough and clear. He entered with enthusiasm on work for his Lord, preaching his first sermon when only fifteen. The fruits attending his services led him to offer for the Ministry, and he was sent to Richmond College. Of robust constitution and generous sympathies, he volunteered for West Africa, and was appointed to Sierra Leone. In less than two years his health was shattered, and he was compelled to return. He was a conscientious and faithful pastor whose memory is fragrant in all his circuits.

The sick and poor and aged found the tenderness they craved, and the healthy and strong the response they desired. His preaching was evangelical, aiming at the nurture of the saint and the conviction and deliverance of the sinner. A wise and capable Superintendent, he diligently applied himself to all the points of administration, and watched with jealous eye the life and welfare of the churches. He commanded the affection and confidence of his brethren, and rendered valuable service from time to time as an advocate for Foreign Missions and for the British and Foreign Bible Society. His sunny and buoyant disposition helped him to bear heavy domestic sorrow. Large building and other enterprises made his last year in the Stockport Trinity Circuit exceptionally strenuous. The end came with startling suddenness: he returned home after a long day's service, and in two or three hours passed to God on June 11, 1914, in the thirtieth year of his ministry and the fifty-second of his age.

(52) D. Anwyl Williams: born at Ffynongroew, Flintshire, in 1840. Brought up in a religious home, he was converted in early life, and began to preach when he was seventeen. He was received as a Candidate for our Ministry in 1861, and placed on the President's list of reserve. In 1862 he was appointed to a circuit, and travelled in North Wales for thirty-five years, when his health failed and he was obliged to retire. The last fifteen years of his life were spent at Prestatyn. While health permitted he did good service both as preacher and class leader. His ministry, earnest and evangelical, was honoured of God in the conversion of many sinners. He was a faithful pastor, and took special interest in the young. During the last few years he suffered much without murmuring. He died in great peace on June 16, 1914.

(53) Alfred G. Burrell: born September 23, 1853, at Beechamville, Jamaica, where his father was then a missionary. After some years in business, he entered the Ministry in 1878, and was immediately appointed to Mildenhall. He was an able preacher, his sermons, prepared with much care and thought, being aptly illustrated, well expressed, and eminently evangelical. He was successful in circuit administration, and in the course of his ministry won the esteem and affection of a large circle of friends. In 1912 his health, which was never robust, broke down, and he became a Supernumerary and in 1913 went to reside at Grimsby. The last few months of his life were marked by much pain and suffering, happily giving way to great peace in his last hours. He passed away on June 29, 1914, in the sixty-first year of his age and the thirty-sixth of his ministry.

(54) JOHN WAGSTAFFE: born at Winster, near Matlock, on April 6, 1856. He had the great advantage of a godly home and joined the Methodist Society at the age of nineteen. Two years later he became a fully accredited local preacher. In 1878 he was accepted for the Ministry and spent three years at the Institution. The earlier years of his ministry were marked by an intense evangelism, and scarcely a Sunday passed without visible results to his labours. Children and young people were his especial care. He had a tender heart and evinced great sympathy towards all in suffering and distress. He was well read, had a vivid imagination, a graphic power of description, and the recollection of his sermons and lectures is still treasured by many in the circuits in which he travelled. In 1902 he became a Supernumerary and retired to Winster. He suffered from a distressing nervous complaint and had to live in retirement. To the last he took a keen interest in all that concerned the Methodist Church. His last illness was very painful, but was borne with patience and fortitude. He died at Winster, in the house of his birth, on July 5, 1914, in the fifty-ninth year of his age and the twenty-ninth of his ministry.

(55) John Williams Davies: a native of Llanfair in the Ruthin Circuit. He was born in 1872 of godly parents, and trained in the fear and love of God. He experienced conversion in youth, and entered our ministry in 1900. After spending one year in circuit work, he was sent to Didsbury College, but was called out during his first year as a supply to the late Rev. D. O. Jones, Manchester. He served the Church in all the circuits where he laboured with increasing success. He was a diligent student—he loved to study, especially in preparation for the pulpit. His sermons were well constructed, and rich in evangelical truth, which was clearly expounded and forcibly applied. He had a passion for souls. His distinction as a preacher involved incessant demands on his time. Yet he was a regular visitor of the sick and poor, and his power in prayer was remarkable. His personal life was characterised by sincere humility and holy devotion, and it was his unfailing duty and pleasure to maintain the life of the soul by reading the best devotional literature and by personal communion with God. Never very robust in health, he laboured on bravely in spite of frequent attacks of illness. At the eve of his departure from the Cefn Mawr Circuit he was suddenly taken ill, and passed away peacefully on July 18, 1914, in the forty-second year of his age and the fourteenth of his ministry.

(56) Thomas Rodgers: born at Sheffield on March 19, 1842. Under gracious home influences he gave himself early to Christ. At the age of sixteen years he became a local preacher in the Carver Street Circuit, and three years later, in 1861, was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry. After completing his college course at Didsbury he was sent to Aberdeen, his probationary years being spent in that and other Scottish circuits. Ordination followed in 1868, and thereafter through forty-four years of active ministry he served his Church faithfully and well. He retired at the Conference of 1912, having won the esteem and affection alike of his brethren and of those among whom he laboured. As a preacher, he was more than ordinarily well furnished and persuasive, while as a pastor he was warmly and generally beloved. Towards his colleagues he was kind without effusiveness, and among his people he proved himself a leader without self-assertion. His conversation was bright with informative "reminiscences" and he always knew how to laugh. When the end came, on July 21, 1914, it was evident that his feet were firmly planted upon the Rock of Ages, and that the Gospel which he had preached so attractively and successfully to others was strength and consolation to himself. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."

(57) WILLIAM H. MOSELEY: born at Pontefract in 1844. In 1865 he was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and after spending three happy and successful years at Didsbury College, he entered, in 1868, on his career as a Circuit Minister, which lasted without interruption for forty-four years, spent in seventeen prominent circuits, and was crowned by his appointment to the Chairmanship of the Isle of Man District. He was a faithful and devoted minister, serving the Church with a certain quiet power and with conspicuous ability and success. A great lover of literature and nature, he read carefully and widely, so keeping in touch with the thought of the times. He was a successful writer and lecturer, but his supreme delight was in preaching. He had an attractive presence, an impressive manner in conducting services, and a clear and convincing style as a speaker. He commanded the attention of his hearers, and his ministrations were eminently profitable. His public prayers revealed the humble and devout Christian. In private life he was genial, brotherly, and courteous. His home life was peculiarly happy, and he took great interest and delight in the missionary career of one of his sons. He spent three years of tranquil eventide at Ben Rhydding, Yorkshire, where he rendered valuable service and exerted a gracious influence as a voluntary pastor. He attended some of the sessions of the Leeds Conference, took great interest in the subjects discussed, and rejoiced in the renewal of many old friendships On July 28 he retired to rest apparently in his usual health ; but during the night "God's finger touched him, and he slept." He passed quietly to the Homeland in the seventieth year of his age, having just completed the forty-seventh year of his ministry.

(58) THOMAS W. JAMIESON : whose obituary will appear next year.

2. In Ireland, nine :

(1) WILLIAM Y. NORTHRIDGE : born in Ballineen, co. Cork, in 1858. While engaged in business in Skibbereen, he was led to Christ under the ministry of the Rev. John Scott M'Dade. He threw himself whole-heartedly into Christian service, and speedily showed promise of his future usefulness. Accepted in 1880 as a Candidate for the Ministry, he spent two years in the Methodist College, Belfast. He was a true shepherd of the flock, untiring in pastoral visitation, and gifted with a deeply sympathetic nature which enabled him to enter into the sorrows and afflictions of his people in a way that endeared him to them. He had the joy of witnessing the power of Christ to reach and save the fallen in many notable instances. For seven years he rendered faithful and loving service as Secretary of the Orphan Society. He was a man of true piety and humility. As a preacher he sought to proclaim Christ as Saviour and to win men for Him. He threw himself heartily into work amongst the young, over whom he exercised a great and uplifting influence. After six weeks of ministry at Clontarf he was smitten with serious illness, and fell asleep in Jesus on September 1, 1913, in the fifty-sixth year of his age and the thirtieth of his ministry.

(2) HENRY KENNEDY : born in Lisnaskea, April 19, 1839. He was led to religious decision during the great revival of 1859, and was accepted as a Candidate by the Primitive Wesleyan Conference, receiving his first appointment in 1869. For thirty-one years he discharged the duties of his sacred office with great fidelity. In 1899 he became a Supernumerary, and took charge of the church at Rostrevor, and afterwards of those at Portaferry and Newtownards. In each he did good and earnest work, and many, through the influence of his life and words, were brought into saving contact with the Lord Jesus Christ. To him religion was a life to be lived every day, and his testimony to the saving and keeping power of Christ was simple, natural, and faithful. His genial manner, kind heart, and bright spirit made his testimony both attractive and useful. He had a sincere love for the young, and a special desire to lead them to Christ. In circuit administration he was capable and tactful, and as a preacher was evangelical and practical. He had a good voice, which was consecrated to his Master's service, and his gift of song was greatly owned in winning souls. On November 11, 1913, at Moy, he passed peacefully into the rest and joy of his Lord, in the seventy-fifth year of his age and the forty-fifth of his ministry.

(3) William H. Weir: born in Drumshambo, November 15, 1873. He was a son of the manse, and from earliest childhood his thoughts were turned to God, till about the age of ten years he came to realise that God was, indeed, his Father. Under the inspiring influence of the Rev. William Maguire, he was led to enter upon Christian work, and became a devoted and successful local preacher. He was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry in 1893, and in 1895 was appointed to Abbeyleix. His ministry was one of great fidelity and usefulness. In several of his circuits he witnessed widespread revivals of the work of God. He was a careful student and an able expositor of the Word of God. His ministry to the young was most helpful; he was wise to win them by his well-considered appeals. His sympathetic nature made him a welcome visitor in the homes of our people, and he was most diligent in his attention to the sick and dying in the home or hospital. To the official duties with which he was entrusted, he brought conspicuous fidelity and unwearying, careful labour. He was punctual, methodical, and accurate; his quiet humour and genial brotherly disposition made him a great favourite. He will long be remembered as one of the choicest gifts of God to our Church. His constitution was never robust, and during the last year of his life he suffered a serious breakdown in health. He passed away on November 12, 1913, in the fortieth year of his age and the nineteenth of his ministry.

(4) JOHN OLIVER: born at Derryrusk, near Cootehill, on January 12, 1821. He became the subject of deep religious conviction in early life, and at sixteen years of age was converted to God. He entered the Ministry in 1841 and received his first appointment to the Irvinestown Circuit. He was a thoroughly evangelical preacher. The fire of devotion kindled in his earlier years never died in his heart. To save souls was his great and passionate aim. He had abundant fruit to his ministry, and in many of his circuits there was a gracious revival of religion. His brethren showed their appreciation of his sound judgment and business ability by electing him on various occasions Chairman of his District and a member of the Legal Conference. He was a man of quiet disposition and of unassuming character, a zealous and sympathetic pastor, a loyal and faithful friend. He was noted for his fidelity to Methodism and his warm love for his brethren in the Ministry. He was received into full connexion when Dr. Bunting was President of the Conference. For twenty-nine years he enjoyed peaceful and happy retirement, and lived to become the father of the Conference and the oldest Methodist minister in the world. On November 15, 1913, he entered peacefully into rest, in the ninety-third year of his age and the seventy-second of his ministry.

(5) Samuel Cowdy: born in Portadown in 1839. His parents gave their son the advantage of a liberal education as well as the example of godly living, and in early youth he was led into the way of salvation. At the age of twenty-one he was accepted by the Conference, and for over fifty years enjoyed an honourable place in the Church of his choice. His preaching was practical and convincing, and led to the conversion of many. There was a happy blending of culture and evangelism in his sermons, while his recognised musical abilities added much to the interest of the services he conducted. He was a capable administrator, while his loyalty and brotherliness to colleagues, was true and abiding. Possessing a magnificent physique and commanding presence, which well accorded with his bright, eager, and vivacious spirit, generous and true, he won many friends. His fidelity as a pastor was conspicuous. In 1900 he became a Supernumerary, giving in this capacity thirteen years more of earnest, loving, and faithful work. The closing months of his life were overshadowed by suffering, but his faith in God never wavered. On November 22, 1913, he fell asleep in the seventy-fourth year of his age and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(6) Moses Douglas: born at Kinnego, Lurgan, March 7, 1834. Early in life he was converted to God, and soon afterwards began to work for the salvation of others. He was accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry by the Primitive Wesleyan Conference in 1860, and continued in the full work till 1904. He had the joy of winning souls, and in some of his circuits saw gracious revivals of the work of God. As a pastor he was kind and sympathetic, and his cheerful presence carried sunshine to the homes of his people. On four occasions he returned for a second term to the scene of his former labours. Towards the close of life the burden of years and trouble grew heavy, and his energies visibly declined, till on November 26, 1913, at Millvale, near Bess-brook, he passed within the veil, in the eightieth year of his age and the fifty-fourth of his ministry.

(7) Wesley Guard: born in Limavady in 1839. As a son of the manse he grew amid Christian influences which combined to develop that happy disposition which marked his later career. Receiving the grace of life near the time of the great revival in Ulster, his abilities quickly developed, and in 1860 he was received into the Ministry, and spent two years in Didsbury College. A winning manner and a cheerful temperament, ready speech and the native instincts of a dramatic preacher, made him very popular both in the pulpit and on the platform. The greater part of his ministry was spent in Dublin, Belfast, and Cork. He fulfilled with great acceptance the official duties entrusted to him. He was elected into the Legal Conference in 1891, and enjoyed the unique distinction of filling the office of Vice-President of the Conference for three separate terms. During the later years of his ministry he did much to promote the various causes of public philanthropy. His sincere and genuine brotherliness gave an added lustre to all his public and private relations. He exercised a commanding influence outside his own communion, and his lovable disposition predisposed him to the duty of co-operating with workers in other denominations. For fifty-one years he preached with unabated devotion the doctrines of his Church, moving amongst our people as pastor and friend. He closed his active ministry amid the congratulations of all who knew him, and enjoyed a brief but fully occupied term of retirement. After a short illness he entered into the joy of his Lord on February 10, 1914, in the seventy-fifth year of his life and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(8) R. Crawford Johnson, D.D.: born in the town of Antrim, June 15, 1841. He was educated in the Wesleyan Connexional School, Dublin, and afterwards entered into business. In 1858 he gave his heart to Christ, and soon became a local preacher. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1863, and spent three years at Didsbury College, where his rare goodness, intense spirituality, and impassioned preaching made a profound impression. When he returned to Ireland the work of God most graciously revived under his ministry. He was the instrument of winning large numbers of young people to the Saviour, many of whom fill important offices in the Church, and some of whom are in the Ministry. The Belfast Central Mission is his chief and lasting monument. He was appointed by the Conference of 1890 to organise a forward movement in Belfast, where at first he found himself confronted by apparently insuperable difficulties. By the blessing of God, his magnificent courage and faith were crowned with abundant success. His pity for the sinful, his compassion for the waif, his advocacy of civic righteousness, and his success in reaching the careless and outcast, soon secured the attention and won the respect and esteem of the citizens. He enjoyed the confidence of his brethren in the ministry in an unusual degree, and was Secretary of the Irish Conference and Vice-President. As a preacher he was simple, logical, and direct. His sermons were marked by fullness and freshness of thought, abounded in illustration, were delivered in choice epigrammatic language and were cumulative in their appeal. Throughout his ministry he placed special emphasis on the possibility and privilege of entire sanctification. As a Superintendent he possessed unique organising gifts; as a colleague he was sympathetic, considerate and inspiring. Lavish expenditure of strength and zeal for the rescue of souls told on his health, and in 1905 he was reluctantly compelled to retire from the work which he loved. During the latter months of his life his thoughts were almost altogether occupied with Heaven, and the consolations of Christ abounded toward him. On April 5, 1914, he quietly passed to his eternal home in the seventy-third year of his age and the forty-ninth of his ministry.

(9) Robert Knox: born at Mullinroddy, in the Irvinestown Circuit, April 16, 1859. The influences of his godly home did much to mould his character, and at the age of eleven he was savingly converted to God under the ministry of Rev. John Scott M'Dade. His devotion and zeal as class leader and local preacher early marked him out for higher service. He was received as a Candidate, and appointed in 1884 to the Swanlinbar Circuit, thus entering on a career of earnest, faithful, laborious, and successful work. His personal qualities of mind and heart secured the lasting affection of his people and the love and confidence of his brethren in the ministry. It was a peculiar joy to him to minister to the children and young people in his charge, and few yielded such loving obedience to the Master's words, "Feed my lambs." As a pastor he was greatly beloved, and his happy presence carried sunshine into the homes where sorrow rested. His ministry was marked by evangelistic fervour, and the closing weeks of his life were devoted to missions conducted by himself in his own circuit, in which he had the joy of knowing that many were blessed. He passed away in perfect peace at the residence of his brother, Dr. Thomas Knox, Lisnaskea, on May 8, 1914, in the fifty-sixth year of his age and the thirtieth of his ministry.

3. In our Foreign Missions, fourteen:

(1) Francis I. Nelson: born of non-Christian parents at Donto Krome, in the Winnebah Circuit. Converted in early life, he became a worker in the Church, and had the advantage of theological training at Cape Coast. He was accepted as a Candidate in 1894. In some of his circuits he had the joy of reaping a plentiful harvest of souls. His preaching was for the edification of believers and the conversion of sinners. He was a faithful minister, a loving pastor, and a wise administrator. Towards the close of his life, he endured much suffering with Christian patience. He passed away peacefully in the morning of July 21, 1913, in the nineteenth year of his ministry.

(2) Ebenezer J. Warner: born at Clarkebury, S. Africa, in 1834. After his conversion he offered himself as a Candidate for the Ministry, and in 1872 was appointed to Mount Arthur. His knowledge of the native character and language, combined with an untiring zeal for the extension of God's kingdom, made his ministry very fruitful. Perilous journeys through swollen rivers and heavy rains, long absences from home with lack of ordinary comforts, told upon a constitution never very robust, and he was compelled to retire in 1889. As a Supernumerary he did quiet and effective service in various circuits. He was a pioneer, and a permanent record of his experiences would have furnished a thrilling chapter in the history of our Church in South Africa. He was a deeply spiritual man, a tireless worker, modest almost to a fault. Clear discernment and sound judgment were combined with invincible determination. Many look upon him as their spiritual father. He passed away on July 26, 1913.

(3) John R. F. Tull: born in Barbados, September 30, 1847. He was truly converted in early life, and soon consecrated himself to God's service. Called to the Christian ministry in his twenty-fourth year, he was sent to the island of St. Vincent. He laboured in the various islands of the district for forty years, winning the affection of his people and the confidence of his brethren. His preaching was earnest and practical, and he had a good knowledge of our polity, which made him a wise and reliable administrator. He retired from active service in 1910, and after three years of enfeebled health passed peacefully within the veil on August 19, 1913, in the sixty-sixth year of his age and the forty-third of his ministry.

(4) F. Egyir Assam: born August 16, 1864, at Salt Pond, on the Gold Coast. He was educated in our own schools, and in 1885 entered the Ministry. After ten years' service he severed his connection with our mission, and gave himself with marked success to educational work. Many leading men in the country owe much to his training. In 1911 he re-entered our Ministry, and was able, within a short period, to do great things for the Master. He was a strong man, and his interest in the young was great. He died on September 28, 1913, at Salt Pond, full of assurance and hope, in the forty-ninth year of his age and the twelfth of his ministry.

(5) Robert A. Barnes: born of Saivite parents at Batticaloa, Ceylon, in 1851. He became a Christian in his youth, and, after training, entered the Ministry in 1877. He laboured almost exclusively in the Eastern Province of Ceylon. Some of his best service was done in the opening up of work among the people of Akkaraipattu, Tirukovil, and Comari. After some years of useful service his health broke down, and he became a Supernumerary in 1895. As a Tamil preacher he stood high in the esteem of his colleagues and of the Church. Among all the communities he was much respected. His faith in God was equal to the strain of suffering, which he bore with patience. He died at his home in Segalavadi on October 3, 1913, in his sixty-second year and in the thirty-eighth year of his ministry.

(6) Giacomo Mannocchi: born in Ascoli Piceno, Italy. He received a classical education, and was converted in early life. His family abandoned him on his becoming a Protestant, but with a heart full of enthusiasm he bravely endured much privation. In 1877 he was accepted for the Ministry. He was in labours more abundant, and wandered up and down the mountains of Southern Italy in perils of robbers, and often in hunger and thirst. During his later ministry in Naples, Rome, and Palermo his preaching was much appreciated, and his loving spirit won him the love of all. But his heart seemed ever to have turned to his early spheres of toil, and while on a visit to Calabria the old warrior laid down his arms on October 24, 1913. He was buried with much honour, and rich and poor wept together over a beloved comrade.

(7) WILLIAM GIWU: a brother of a beautiful spirit and fine Christian character. He became known to our ministers in South Africa when a teacher under the Rev. E. J. Barrett. After that he was an evangelist, and was ultimately accepted as a minister. He laboured in many circuits in the Clarkebury District with energy and devotion. For nearly thirty years he was in the active work, and many souls have been won for Christ through his instrumentality. He died in the Osborn Circuit at the ripe age of nearly eighty years on November 11, 1913.

(8) JOSEPH MNGQIBISA: born in 1833 in Gcalekaland, where he saw the worst phases of heathenism, his father being a witch-doctor. On the family removing to Healdtown, he came under the influence of the Rev. John Ayliff, and was converted. Having learned to read in the Sunday school, he soon obeyed the call of God to become a local preacher, and was the means under God of turning many heathen to Christ Making Tsomo his home, he laboured successfully as an evangelist, and ultimately entered the Ministry. More than half his ministry was spent at Cwecweni, where the Word of God mightily grew and prevailed, many new preaching-places being opened and churches built. As Supernumerary for many years at Tsomo he preached with much power. He was a man of prayer, and was never tired of preaching the gospel of work, of which he was a striking example. Risking even life itself in the cause of Christ, this brave and saintly man was beloved by his family and by a large circle of friends. On December 17, 1913, he entered peacefully into the joy of his Lord.

(9) JOHN RUNGASWAMY: born of Hindu parents at Madras in 1859. He gained his first knowledge of Christ in a mission school, and when a youth was baptized by a minister of the United Free Church of Scotland. Shortly after his baptism he came under the influence and teaching of one of our Indian ministers, and by him was led to a clear knowledge of Christ as his Saviour. In 1882 he was received by the Madras District as an evangelist, and three years later as a Minister on Probation. Though in earlier life his educational advantages had been few, he sought by hard study to qualify himself for the work to which he had been called. His knowledge of the Tamil Bible was intimate and accurate, and in his public addresses he used that knowledge with great effect. He had a remarkable acquaintance with Methodist history, and his loyalty to the Church of his choice was a passion. His natural and unaffected manner, his clear voice and chaste and vigorous language, his genius for illustration, and his grasp of the essentials of Christianity made him a most effective preacher. In presenting Christianity to Hindus and in refuting the arguments of opponents he had few equals. His wide knowledge of the Tamil classics was used with great effect. He delighted in visiting his flock, and his lovable disposition made him welcome wherever he went. He passed to his reward on January 10, 1914, in the fifty-fifth year of his age and the twenty-ninth of his ministry.

(10) James William King: born at Kissy, Sierra Leone, in June 1837. He was converted in early life, and at once became an active voluntary worker in the Church. In 1885 he was received by the Conference as a minister on probation. He laboured at Kommbo, Macarthy Island, and Bathurst. In 1897, on account of failing health, he became a Supernumerary, but continued to serve in every possible way. He was a man of genuine piety and sound common sense, whose "meat was to do the will of Him that sent him." His strong personality, his powerful and appealing voice, his patience and resignation to the dispensation of Providence during his affliction, will long be remembered. He was called home on March 1, 1914, in the seventy-seventh of his age and the thirtieth of his ministry.

(11) Job Po Chau: born near Sagaing, in Upper Burma, in 1887. He received his primary education in a Buddhist monastery, of which his uncle was the chief monk; when eleven he became a pupil in the Wesleyan School at Mônywa. Three years later he was converted and baptized. He passed the public examination qualifying him for Government service, but about that time he felt a call to the Christian ministry. At the District Training Institution at Pakokku, his evangelistic zeal and his able and effective preaching were conspicuous. He was fearless in rebuking sin, and the purity of his life and winsomeness of his disposition made him the best possible example to the Church and to the Buddhist world. His was a manly and athletic type of Christianity, and he exercised a great influence over the young men and boys in our schools. In 1913 he became a preacher on trial, and for fifteen months did valuable pioneer work. He made constant journeys on the Chindwin River, preaching and teaching in all the villages, and facing hardships and perils cheerfully and bravely. At Kindat, the headquarters station, he did much to cleanse and edify the infant Methodist Society. His last journey brought him to a fever-haunted district on the northern frontier. He caught the fever, and on his return to Kindat died, on May 24, 1914, after a five days' illness. His last words were concerning the Kingdom.

(12) Solomon Williams: African Minister, died at Freetown, Sierra Leone, May 28, 1914, aged 59 years. The greater part of his life was spent in the service of our Church as a day-school teacher, in which capacity he was diligent and faithful. He entered the Ministry in 1905, and spent seven years in active work, showing great devotion to duty and achieving no small measure of success. At the Conference of 1912, through ill-health, he became a Supernumerary, and bore with meekness and with patient faith a heavy affliction. The Master's call found him ready. He was greatly esteemed, and died in peace.

(13) JOHN KLASSEN: a Kosa by birth, removed in his early youth to the Orange Free State. There he came under the influence of the gospel and was soundly converted. He applied himself diligently to study in his spare time, and became one of the best educated of our early native helpers. At Potchefstroom he became an evangelist, his devotion and zeal being greatly owned of God. He was the first Wesleyan evangelist appointed to the Witwatersrand Native Mission, and amid trying and difficult conditions helped to lay the foundation of that great mission. In 1886 he was received into the ranks of the native ministry, and devoted his best powers to the work he loved so well. A few years ago an affliction which ended in total blindness led to his retirement. Up to the last he continued to preach and meet classes. He had much force of character, was a powerful preacher, and exerted great influence among the native people. He passed away in confidence and peace, in the twenty-eighth year of his ministry.

(14) JOHANNES MAHONGA: whose obituary will appear next year.

Q. XXXII. Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?

A. They were examined, one by one.

Q. XXXIII. Who have ceased to be recognised as Ministers amongst us?

A. 1. In Great Britain,

Their names are recorded in the Journals.

2. In our Foreign Missions,

Their names are recorded in the Journals.

Q. XXXIV. How are our Ministers and Preachers on Trial stationed for the ensuing year?

A. As follows:

[N.B.—1. Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively from 1 to 752, is the head of the Circuit; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent. In the event of his death, resignation, or incapacity, the Minister next named, provided such Minister be in Full Connexion with the Conference, and in full work, is the Superintendent. In case there is no Minister in Full Connexion with the Conference, and in full work, appointed to or remaining in the Circuit, the Chairman of the District is the Superintendent.

2. The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned is and are appointed by the Conference to preach and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline in each and every one of the Wesleyan Methodist chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve calendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to them shall seem proper; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister and to the existing laws and regulations of the Conference.]

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Q. XXXVI. Whom do we appoint to be our Delegate in Ireland?

A. Our PRESIDENT, the Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG; or, in his unavoidable absence, one of the following Ministers: the Rev. SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; the Rev. WILLIAM R. BUDD, and the Rev. SAMUEL T. BOYD, B.A., nominated by the Irish Conference; the Rev. FREDERICK LUKE WISEMAN, B.A., or the Rev. HENRY HAIGH, D.D.

N.B.—1. The PRESIDENT, or other Minister acting as Delegate under the authority of the preceding appointment, who shall preside at the next Conference in Ireland, shall exercise the powers confided to him under and by virtue of the thirteenth clause of Mr. Wesley's Deed Poll, dated February 28, 1784.

2. The Rev. SAMUEL F. COLLIER, the Ex-President, the Rev. ALFRED ROEBUCK, B.D., and the Rev. J. T. WARDLE STAFFORD, D.D., are appointed to accompany the PRESIDENT to the Conference in Ireland, which will commence in Dublin on Tuesday, June 15, 1915.

Q. XXXVII. What other Official Appointments are made?

A. (A) 1. The Rev. ROBERT MATTERSON is appointed the President of the next South African Conference, to be held in the month of April, 1915.

2. The Rev. EMILE ULLERN is appointed the President of the next General French Conference, to be held in Paris, June, 1915.

(B) 1. The PRESIDENT of the Conference will preside at the Annual Meeting of the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly of Wales, to be held at Abercynon, June 8, 1915. The Rev. SAMUEL F. COLLIER, the Ex-President, and the Rev. JOHN H. GOODMAN are appointed to accompany the President. The Rev. JOHN HORNABROOK and the Rev. FREDERICK LUKE WISEMAN, B.A., are ex-officio members of the Assembly. The Rev. OWEN EVANS is appointed President of the Assembly.

2. The Rev. WILLIAM PERKINS is appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the Isle of Man Synod, to be held at Douglas, in May, 1915.

EXAMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR ORDINATION.

Q. XXXVIII. What are the Directions of the Conference respecting the Examinations of Candidates for Ordination?

IN THE SYNOD.

A. (A) 1. Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful oral examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. This oral Examination may be omitted when the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works is satisfactory.

2. Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves of our Discipline.

IN THE CONFERENCE.

(B) 1. Arrangements shall be made for conducting the Examination, in the Conference, of Candidates for Ordination at a time when the President of the Conference can attend, and when a large proportion of the Conference, including its official members, may be expected to be present.

2. An explicit declaration of his belief in the Doctrines of Methodism shall be required of each Candidate.

EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

Q. XXXIX. What is the Report upon the Examination of Preachers on Trial for the past year? And what are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Preachers on Trial for the ensuing year?

A. 1. The following is a summary of the Report:

Two hundred and twenty-four Probationers were due to be examined on April 2 and 3. Eight were unable to sit on account of illness. In each case medical certificates and statements of the work done during the year were obtained. This number is higher than the average, but it is due to several cases of purely temporary indisposition.

One hundred names appear upon the Honours List, whilst eighty-three Probationers sat for one or more of the special subjects. Nine cases of failure in these subjects suggest that the Probationers concerned should confine themselves to the ordinary grade in future. In the ordinary papers there were also nine cases of failure. The serious attention of the District Synods has been called to these failures. As there are now only two Biblical papers required from each man, and as the pass standard is so low, 35 per cent., there is little excuse for such failures. Four failures were in Greek Testament and two in Hebrew.

The Honours List for the year is given on page 337.

2. GENERAL REGULATIONS.—(1) The Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be administered by a Committee consisting of the PRESIDENT of the Conference, the EX-PRESIDENT, the SECRETARY; the Tutors of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; three General Examination Secretaries; the Rev. G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., William H. Findlay, M.A., J. Shaw Banks, D.D., Joseph T. L. Maggs, D.D., Alfred H. Vine, J. Alfred Vanes, B.A., John E. Wakerley, F. L. Wiseman, B.A., and Dr. Workman.

NOTES.

1—The names are arranged in order of merit.

2—1st Class = Average of 80 per cent. and over.
2nd Class = Average of 65 per cent. and over.

a = Both Greek and Hebrew.

b = Greek but not Hebrew.

c = English subjects only.

The Rev. JOHN W. LIGHTLEY, M.A., B.D., is appointed the Secretary of this Committee.

The Rev. JAMES CRITCHISON, Dr. THOMAS STEPHENSON, B.A., and JOHN W. LIGHTLEY, M.A., B.D., are appointed General Examination Secretaries.

(2) A Connexional Board of Examiners shall be appointed yearly to conduct the Examinations.

(3) The Examination shall take place annually near the end of March, or early in April. The date fixed by the Conference for each year shall be kept free from all circuit engagements for the Probationers.

(4) Every Probationer shall upon this day take two papers of three hours each, in Old and New Testament subjects respectively. The subjects shall normally be in Hebrew and Greek for all Probationers who have passed through the Institution, unless they are exempted from Hebrew on the authority of the College staff.

(5) In the Fourth Year every Probationer shall take on the day preceding a paper of two hours on the works of John Wesley, subjects to be chosen from year to year.

(6) The arrangements for the selection of Examiners shall be in the discretion of the General Secretaries. Two Examiners shall be chosen for each subject under section 4 above, who shall jointly set the paper, and jointly report on any Probationer whose marks fall below 35 per cent., as well as in any other case where the General Secretaries specially request it.

(7) The marks for all Examinations shall be returned in percentages, and not in grades. The result for each Probationer shall be determined according to his average percentage in the whole Examination. An average of 80 per cent. or over shall entitle to First Class Honours, one of 65 or over to Second Class; while an average of under 35 shall involve failure in the whole Examination.

(8) The General Secretaries shall send to all Probationers a special list of more advanced Greek and Hebrew subjects which may be substituted for those published in the Minutes of Conference. These subjects shall be chosen generally from those appointed for University Examinations in Divinity, but any Probationer is at liberty to take them. In special cases the Secretaries may accept a subject proposed by the Probationer himself.

(9) An Honours List shall be prepared each year, showing the names of Probationers in their several years who have (a) taken the special subjects and obtained at least a pass mark; or (b) attained Honours in the ordinary subjects.

(10) The September Synod of each District shall appoint a District Secretary, and a centre at which the Examination shall be held under his supervision, care being taken in selecting the centre to reduce as far as possible the travelling expenses involved. When the distances are too great, the Synod shall fix a second centre, under the supervision of an Assistant Secretary.

(11) Every Probationer may claim third-class railway fare to and from the place of Examination. These and other expenses of the Examination, with the exception of local expenses, shall be defrayed from the Connexional Fund and the Theological Institution Fund.

(12) Probationers who are called out of College into the Home work before Christmas Day in any year shall take the regular April Examination of their year. Those who are removed from College after Christmas shall not take the Probationers' Examination, but shall be examined in subjects fixed by their College staff, and the results shall be reported to the Discipline Committee.

(13) Probationers who have not been to the Institution shall be examined according to their attainments at the discretion of the General Secretaries. Those who have not previously studied Greek shall be expected to take a paper in the elements of New Testament Greek grammar, with a few verses of translation. The Secretaries shall have power to exempt from this for sufficient cause, substituting two English Biblical subjects. The marks obtained shall be reported to the Institution Allocation Committee.

(14) The General Secretaries shall send to the May Synod a detailed report of each Probationer's work for the year. This shall show the subjects taken, the marks obtained in each, the average percentage in the whole examination, and the place in Honours, if any, together with any observations made by the Examiners or by the General Secretaries. The District Secretary shall receive these Reports and present them to the Synod, and subsequently transmit to the General Secretaries the Synod's resolution upon them.

(15) The General Secretaries shall prepare a Report to the Conference. This shall contain a brief account of the year's work, with reports on cases of failure and of absence from Examination.

(16) Should any Probationer at the time of the Examination be prevented from attending by illness or other imperative cause, he shall immediately inform one of the General Secretaries, the Rev. Dr. Thomas Stephenson, and must satisfy him that attendance at the Examination was absolutely impossible. The consent of the Chairman of the District and of the Superintendent of the Circuit, as well as that of the General Secretaries, is required for every such case of exemption.

(17) In addition to the Examination subjects, there shall be fixed year by year English theological works for special study. In the case of Probationers working for other theological examinations, or pursuing special courses of reading, the Secretaries may approve substitutes for these. Upon one of these books, or upon a subject suggested by its reading, an essay shall be written (of about 3,000 words in length) and returned to the Secretaries before the end of February. These essays shall rank equally with the written examination papers, and marks shall be awarded for them to count towards a place in the honours list. Each Probationer shall fill in a form describing his method of study of the second prescribed book, which shall be returned to the Secretaries together with the written papers. It shall be open to the Chairman of the District to make inquiry at the Synod with respect to these subjects. Probationers who have not been to the Institution shall write an essay upon a specially chosen book.

(18) Should a Probationer be compelled to be absent from the Examination, he shall send to the General Secretaries a detailed statement of the work done in preparation for it. The Secretaries shall report to the Synod their judgment upon these statements, and those described in section 17.

(19) A record of the whole of the examination work during probation shall be prepared by the General Secretaries and sent to the Synod, in the case of every candidate for ordination, showing the average percentage each year and place, if any, in Honours, together with general comments on the record as a whole. Should this record be deemed by the Secretaries unsatisfactory, they may recommend to the Synod that the candidate's ordination should either be deferred or made conditional upon his passing certain examinations before Conference. The number and character of such examinations shall be determined by the Synod upon the Secretaries' recommendation.

(20) When part of any candidate's probation has been spent upon the foreign field, the report to the Synod shall include a report supplied by the Missionary Secretaries as to his work while abroad.

(21) Should any Probationer have been absent from examination more than once during his probation, on account of health, the General Secretaries shall send to the Designation Committee, after the May Synod, a full report of the case, with medical statements, and the Designation Committee shall report to the Conference on the question of the candidate's ordination.

3. EXAMINATION FOR 1915.

(1) The Examination shall take place on Friday, March 26, 1915. For the Fourth Year there will be a paper on the preceding evening.

(2) The following are the ordinary subjects for the Examination:

4. Book List.—The Examination Committee is instructed to prepare and send to each Probationer, early in October, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the scriptural doctrine of the Church. To the Examination centres in April shall be sent a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year. This form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. The Conference directs that when the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairmen shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list. EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XL. What are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of Candidates for the Ministry?

A. 1. (1) In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the District Synod.

(2) Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his Colleague or Colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary station, the character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District.

(3) It is required that in the written character of the Candidates for the Ministry that the Superintendent shall give information as to whether there has been fruit of the Candidate's preaching.

(4) For fuller particulars of the Examinations and for advice as to preparation for them, reference should be made to the "Manual of Directions for the use of Candidates for the Wesleyan Methodist Ministry."

Preliminary Examination.

2. (1) This Examination shall be conducted before the Session of the District Synod, and include (a) one three hours' paper on the English Bible, requiring a general knowledge of Scripture History, and of the nature and contents of the Old and New Testaments (see "Manual for Candidates," pp. 18-20, 24-26); (b) one three hours' paper including the following subjects:

(i) An Exercise in English Composition. Four alternative subjects shall be set, from which the Candidate shall choose one. Not more than three quarters of an hour shall be spent upon this exercise. The subjects will be varied in character, and will represent topics in which preachers should be interested. In marking, regard will be paid to quality rather than quantity.

(ii) English Grammar and Easy Analysis.

(iii) English History and General Geography.

(iv) Arithmetic up to Decimal Fractions.

The questions will be of an elementary character, to be more precisely described in the syllabus supplied to intending Candidates.

Superintendents of Circuits are instructed to impress upon Candidates for the Ministry the importance of a thorough knowledge of the English Bible.

(2) The two papers of the Preliminary Examination shall be set and marked by Examiners nominated yearly by the Sub-Committee of Studies of the Theological Institution. The Examiners for this year are the Rev. Harry Bisseker, M.A., T. Hardy Banks, B.A., Thomas Naylor, B.A., and G. Percy Lester. Two Examiners shall be appointed for paper (a), and two for paper (b). The questions shall be submitted in proof to three Ministers appointed year by year by the Conference. The following are appointed for this year: Rev. W. Russell Maltby, George Marris, and George F. Rose.

The answers shall be written in the presence of the Superintendents of the Circuits by which the Candidates are recommended, or of one or more other Ministers. This Examination shall be held on Thursday and Friday, April 15 and 16, 1915.

(3) Candidates who have passed an examination qualifying for admission to any British University, or an equivalent examination, are exempt from the preliminary Literary Examination.

(4) The maximum for paper (a) shall be 100, and for (b) 100; the marks to be reported separately. The maximum attainable shall be printed against each question. In paper (b), 25 marks shall be assigned to each of the four sections; viz. (1) English Composition, (2) English Grammar and Analysis, (3) English History and Geography, (4) Arithmetic. The marks gained in paper (b) shall be subject to a deduction, not exceeding 10, for faulty spelling. Exemption from paper (b) shall be granted as heretofore. All Candidates must take paper (a). The marks and exemptions shall be reported to the Synods.

(5) The Conference directed (Minutes, 1905, pp. 368, 369) that the result of the Preliminary Examination be sent to the Synods, to be regarded by them as elements in the data upon which they express judgment on every Candidate's general fitness for the work of the Ministry, and that the average number of marks gained at the Preliminary Examination be also reported to the Synods.

Sermons.

3. (1) Every Preacher who is recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the May District Synod, preach in the presence of, at least, three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidate is proposed; and a special report of the Sermon shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates.

(2) Arrangements shall be made by the May District Synod for the hearing of each Candidate by three Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; such Ministers shall suggest a mark and immediately forward their Report to the Rev. Arthur E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D., 18, Margaret Road, Harborne, Birmingham.

(3) In the case of Candidates from the Zetland District, arrangements shall be made by the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates for the second trial sermon to be preached in England.

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript.

(4) District Synods are empowered to examine by Special Committee those Candidates who, for exceptional reasons, are prevented from being present at the appointed time of Examination; every such case to be specially recorded in the Minutes of the Synod, and reported to the Conference.

July Committee.

4. The Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry who have passed the District Synods shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury, respectively.

This Examination shall be held in the week following Sunday, July 4, 1915.

(1) The two Sections of this Committee shall be constituted as follows :

(i) THE SOUTHERN SECTION, to meet at Richmond, shall consist of the President and Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents living in the London and adjoining Districts; two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Richmond and Handsworth Branches; the Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch; a Representative of the Home Mission Committee; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. John E. Wakerley, together with twenty-one other Ministers of the three London Districts, seven of whom shall be elected by the May Synod in each of the said Districts.

(ii) THE NORTHERN SECTION, to meet at Didsbury, shall consist of the EX-PRESIDENT of the Conference, Ex-Presidents living in the Manchester and adjoining Districts; two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches; the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch; a Representative of the Home Mission Committee; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. John Grimshaw; twenty-one Ministers of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts, seven of whom shall be elected by the May Synod of each of the said Districts; together with one Minister to be appointed by the Welsh Assembly.

N.B.—1. The elections shall in every case be by ballot.

2. The Theological Tutors shall as a rule conduct the Oral Examination of Candidates before the Committee, but the Committee in both Sections is empowered to ask any other member of the Committee to assist if so desired.

(2) Two Sub-Committees, to read and report on the manuscript sermons of the Candidates, shall be annually appointed as follows : one for the Southern Section, consisting of nine Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Synod of each of the three London Districts from among the Ministers elected by it as members of the Examination Committee; and another for the Northern Section, consisting of nine Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Synods of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts respectively, from among the Ministers elected by them as members of the Examination Committee.

Each Manuscript Sermon shall be read by two of the Ministers so appointed, and a meeting of the Sub-Committee thereafter held, when the Reports of the readers shall be considered and the valuation fixed which shall be recommended to the Committee.

July Examination.

5. (1) The Literary Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of each of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; and the Theological Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Theological Tutors of the said four Branches.

(2) The Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Richmond and Handsworth Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Southern Section of the Committee; and the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Northern Section of the Committee.

(3) (i) There are four papers in all, which may bear the following titles:

(A) THEOLOGICAL: Part I. (on the English Bible), taken in April.
Part II. (on Christian Doctrine), taken in July.

(B) LITERARY: Part I. (Composition, Grammar, History and Geography, and Arithmetic), taken in April.
Part II. (General), taken in July.

(ii) The written examination papers at the July Committee shall each be set for three hours, as follows:

(A) THEOLOGICAL, Part II.

The questions set shall test the Candidate's knowledge of the leading doctrines of Evangelical Theology as taught in our Church. Special importance will be attached to accuracy in quoting Scripture; and it will be assumed that Candidates have carefully studied Wesley's Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament.

(B) LITERARY, Part II. The paper will include:

(α) English Language and Literature.

(β) General History.

(γ) Mathematics:

Higher Arithmetic,
Algebra to Simultaneous Equations,
Euclid, Bk. I.

(δ) Elementary Science and Logic.

Alternative questions will be set in various subjects.

(ε) Latin and Greek.

(ζ) French and German.

(iii) The marks in the two sections of the July Examination shall be presented to the July Committee like those of the Preliminary Examination, in percentage and not in grades, and without being combined with the Preliminary marks.

(4) The Examiners of the Papers in Theology, written by the Candidates, shall be appointed as follows: the Three London, the Liverpool, the Manchester, and the Bolton District Synods shall each appoint one Examiner from among the Ministers elected by it as Members of the Examination Committee; thus providing three Examiners for each of the two Sections.

(5) In connexion with each Section of the Committee two Medical Examiners shall be employed.

(6) The Rev. T. GALLAND HARTLEY, General Secretary of the Theological Institution, and the Rev. ARTHUR E. SHARPLEY, B.A., B.D., are appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

(7) All communications relating to Candidates, except the Reports on their sermons heard after the District Synods, must be addressed to the Rev. T. Galland Hartley, 8, Buckingham Avenue, Sefton Park, Liverpool.

(8) The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution and the Rev. John E. Wakerley are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary for the Didsbury Branch and the Rev. John Grimshaw to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

6. System of Marking in Examinations.—In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be adopted: number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest. The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very poor. The marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair).

7. Candidates from the Three London Districts shall appear before the Northern Section of the July Examination Committee, and Candidates from the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts before the Southern Section.

8. Designation of Candidates.

The Conference resolves (1) That the Questions on the Schedules sent to Candidates after the District Synod shall read as follows:

> In offering yourself as a Candidate for the Wesleyan Methodist Ministry you are reminded that the Designation of Accepted Candidates for the Ministry to their sphere of labour is in the hands of the Conference, and takes place normally at the close of the Student's Second Year of residence at College. In offering yourself as a Candidate you are asked at the present stage to give a careful answer to the following questions :

(a) Are you free to offer yourself unreservedly for the service of the Church to work either at Home or Abroad as you may be designated ?

(b) If you have any reserve or special conviction in the matter, explain it fully.

N.B.—The Schedule which has been in recent years placed in the hands of the Students during their second year at College shall be discontinued.

(2) That accepted Candidates who have expressed a preference for Foreign Work shall be sent, if possible, at once to College.

(3) That accepted Candidates, sent to the Theological Institution, shall not be designated for Home or Foreign work till after two years' residence there.

(4) The recommendation of the Local Discipline Committee regarding each man shall be sent to the Designation Committee ; which shall thereupon prepare for Conference lists of men whom it recommends for Home and Foreign work respectively.

(5) In cases where the July Committee recommends a man for immediate service, that Committee shall also advise the Conference as to whether he should be appointed to Home or Foreign work.

9. Candidates from the Welsh Districts.

(1) The Conference directs that Candidates from the First and Second North Wales and South Wales Districts shall be examined alternately by the two Sections of the Examination Committee, and that a Minister be elected to be a Member of this Committee by the Welsh Assembly.

(2) Candidates from the Welsh Districts are required, when the offer is for general work, to preach two sermons in connexion with the Annual District Synod, one in Welsh and one in English, and also to send in MSS. sermons in both English and Welsh.

(3) Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work.

10. Candidates from Ireland for Foreign Mission Work.—(See Minutes, 1907, p. 346.)

11. The names of the Candidates who come before the Candidates' Examination Committee shall be presented to the Conference in four sections: (1) those who are unanimously recommended; (2) those who are recommended by a divided vote (in recording the voting, the number of neutrals shall be given); (3) those who are declined by a divided vote; (4) those who are unanimously declined.

12. Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution.

13. Training of Candidates for the Welsh Ministry.

(1) In cases in which Candidates for the Ministry recommended by the Welsh Synods possess exceptional qualifications, and in which the District Synod and the Examination Committee are of opinion that a course of training at a Welsh University College would be of special advantage to the Candidates and to our work in the Principality, such Candidates may be permitted to spend some time in connexion with a University College, without cost to any Connexional Fund, before they are formally recognised and accepted as Candidates for the Ministry by the Conference.

(2) While pursuing his studies at a University College, every such Candidate shall be placed under the special pastoral care of a Minister resident in the town in which the College is situated, who shall present a special report on his conduct and preaching work during the year to the District Synod and to the Welsh Assembly.

(3) At the close of his term of study at the University College, every such Candidate shall, on the recommendation of the District Synod, and provided the Conference be satisfied as to his continued fitness for our work, be fully accepted as a Candidate for the Ministry, and shall afterwards receive such training in our Institution as the Conference may direct.

DISCIPLINE COMMITTEES.

THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION.

Q. XLI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to the Discipline Committees for the Theological Institution?

A. 1. The General Discipline Committee shall consist of all the Members of the Local Discipline Committees who are also Members of the General Committee of the Theological Institution, and shall meet at the least twice a year; the first Meeting to be in anticipation of the second Meeting of the General Committee of the Theological Institution, and the second to take place before the fourth Meeting of the same General Committee.

2. Each Local Discipline Committee shall meet quarterly, and at every meeting inquiry shall be made whether there is any objection to each Student.

N.B.—This inquiry shall include all questions affecting his moral and religious character, observance of College rules, attention to studies, preaching ability, competency for our work, and health.

3. In any case of discipline, when the Local Discipline Committee shall so decide, a Meeting of the General Discipline Committee shall be called to consider the case; and on receiving notice thereof, the General Secretary shall, in consultation with the President of the Conference, arrange for such meeting. The place and time shall be fixed by the President.

4. Subject to the foregoing provision, the Local Discipline Committees shall retain the power of summary action in urgent cases, and in cases of idleness or incompetence.

5. The Local Discipline Committee, on dismissing a Student from College, shall have power to determine all points concerning his status, employment, and maintenance until the next meeting of the General Discipline Committee, whose decision shall take effect until Conference.

6. All cases of discipline during the year, at any Branch of the Institution, shall be reported to the General Discipline Committee at its meeting immediately before Conference.

7. The Governor of the Institution House, or the Principal, shall answer for the Students to the Conference.

8. All questions affecting the moral conduct, theological soundness, and general behaviour of the Students shall, in accordance with the custom observed from the beginning of the Institution, be referred to the Discipline Committee of the Branch, and the Discipline Committee shall report to the Conference; but in cases where the action of the Discipline Committee affects the residence of a Student, the action so taken shall be final, but shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

9. The Conference shall appoint from year to year for each Branch of the Institution ten Ministers, who, in addition to the Tutors and Secretary of such Branch, shall constitute the Discipline Committee.

The Rev. T. GALLAND HARTLEY is the Secretary of the General Discipline Committee.

10. The following are the members of the Local Discipline Committees:

Richmond Branch.—The President of the Conference; the Secretary of the Conference; the Tutors and Local Secretary; the Rev. James Critchison, Joseph Dixon, Dr. Henry Haigh, Marshall Hartley, Dr. Lidgett, William Perkins, Enoch Salt, and Frederick L. Wiseman, B.A.

Didsbury Branch.—The Ex-President of the Conference; the Tutors and Local Secretary; the Rev. John H. Corson, George Denton, John H. Goodman, John Grimshaw, T. Galland Hartley, John Hornabrook, Isaiah Parker, Francis W. Shirley, and W. Marshman Spencer.

Headingley Branch.—The Tutors and Local Secretary; the Rev. John Baker, M.A., Dr. Banks, William Bradfield, B.A., Samuel Chadwick, John Gould, Henry T. Hooper, Arthur Hoyle, Joseph Robinson, Richard W. Watson, and Silvester Whitehead.

Handsworth Branch.—The Tutors and Local Secretary; the Rev. Frederick H. Benson, B.A., William J. Burrow, George H. Camburn, William R. Dent, George R. Graham, Ebenezer Jolliffe, John G. Pearson, Arthur E. Sharpley, B.A., B.D., Albert Wainwright, and Henry Wostenholm.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

Q. XLII. Who are the Members of the Missionary Society Committee of Discipline?

A. The Ministerial Officers and Members of the Missionary Committee, together with the following Ministers, being three from each of the London Districts: The Rev. John Bell (B), Alfred Bingham, Frank Cox, Thomas Naylor, B.A., G. Leonard Robinson, H. Arnaud Scott, J. Alfred Sharp, Thomas J. Thorpe, G. Edward Young.

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XLIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee on Book Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Board of Management. (See Appendix XXI.)

2. The Conference resolves that the following Grants be paid:

£1,000 to the Annuitant Society.
£1,000 to the Auxiliary Fund.
£300 to the Connexional Fund.

3. The Conference expresses its thanks to Mr. James Botteley for his interesting and valuable gift of Wesley Busts, etc., to the Connexion.

4. The following is the Board of Management for the ensuing year: The Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; John Telford, B.A., Editor; J. Alfred Sharp, Book Steward; Marshall Hartley, Grainger Hargreaves, William Hopper, John Hornabrook, Jabez Parkyn, H. Arnaud Scott, Owen Watkins, Thomas E. Westerdale, F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., and Herbert B. Workman, D.Lit., D.D.

Q. XLIV. What Resolutions provisionally adopted by the last Conference in its Pastoral Session, and sent to the District Synods for consideration, are now confirmed?

A. None.

Q. XLV. What Resolutions of the Conference are to be submitted to the Districts in Great Britain when Ministers only are present?

A. Relation of Children to the Church. (See Minutes, pp. 371, 372.)

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

1. Retirement of Rev. William Perkins.—The Conference congratulates the Rev. William Perkins on having rendered fifty years of strenuous service to the Church of Christ. It records its high and thankful appreciation of his fidelity, ability, and devotion to Methodism, and of his fervent evangelistic preaching from the first year of his probation until the present time. He has worthily filled a front place amongst Circuit Ministers, and has shown himself an able administrator, especially as Chairman of Synods, and in his long years of service at the Mission House. In granting him permission to retire, the Conference assures him of the high esteem and genuine affection in which he is held, and earnestly hopes that he may long be spared to adore the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

2. Retirement of Rev. Frederic W. Macdonald.—The Conference receives with sincere regret the request of the Rev. Frederic W. Macdonald to be placed upon the roll of Supernumeraries. It records with gratitude to God his long and brilliant career as Circuit Minister, Theological Tutor, and Missionary Secretary, and does not forget that for the last nine years he has been content to occupy an honorary position in our ranks, rendering strenuous service to our Church, to the Missionary Society, and to other religious organisations. The Conference assures him of its affection and goodwill, and of its true appreciation of his conspicuously able service during a long and always most acceptable career in the ranks of the Ministry. It trusts that there are yet years of quiet enjoyment in store for him before "the one clear call" comes, and that memory and hope may alike flood the sunset days with brightness.

3. Retirement of Rev. John Rodwell.—The Conference places on record its appreciation of the long and devoted service which Mr. Rodwell has rendered to our Church. For a period of six years he laboured in various spheres in the West Indies. Since his return to England he has rendered, in Circuits of varied types, a most steadfast and efficient service. He has been known as a man of modest and unobtrusive character and of courteous and kindly bearing towards all. His pulpit ministrations have been highly varied, while at the same time he has been a careful and sound administrator of Circuit Affairs.

4. Retirement of Rev. Thomas F. Lockyer, B.A.—The ministry of Mr. Lockyer during forty years has been distinguished by ripeness of biblical scholarship, illuminative preaching, and by the winsome saintliness of his character. His ministry will continue to bear fruit through his books, and he will be followed in his retirement by the esteem and hearty good wishes of his brethren.

5. Retirement of Rev. W. Ripley Winston.—The Conference places on record the great and special service Mr. Winston has rendered during the past forty-two years. For a considerable time his work lay in North Ceylon and Burma, where his name and that of his devoted wife will ever be remembered with the deepest gratitude and affection. To him belongs the high honour of establishing the Home for Lepers—sure proof that he has been following closely the steps of his Divine Master. The names of Winston and Burma are for ever inseparably associated. Since returning home he has laboured faithfully and strenuously in Circuit life, and by his gentleness, kindness, and courtesy he has won the love of all who have been associated with him in Christian work.

6. Retirement of Rev. Daniel A. de Mouilpied.—In permitting the Rev. Daniel A. de Mouilpied to become a Supernumerary the Conference records its appreciation of the spiritual beauty and gracious personal charm that have distinguished a fervent and evangelical ministry at home and abroad during forty-five years. A preacher with the gift of vision, a brilliant missionary, and an eloquent lecturer, Mr. de Mouilpied has freely given the strength of his days to the service of his Master, and kept fresh the inspiration of his youth for his friends. His kindness and quick human sympathies have made him a welcome presence in the home of all his people, while his contagious joyousness has secured the trust and loyalty of the young people of his congregations wherever he has ministered.

7. Retirement of Rev. William Brookes.—The Conference rejoices in the long and honourable life and ministry of the Rev. W. Brookes. Seventeen years of that ministry have been spent in the Macclesfield District, much to the advantage of the District. In all the Circuits where he has travelled he has served our Church with great fidelity and acceptance. His unfailing courtesy, thoughtfulness, and careful attention to all the duties of his office have won him the esteem of those who were associated with him.

Ministers also becoming Supernumeraries.—The names of other honoured brethren who now seek relief from the burdens of the full work will always be held in grateful memory. Thomas Hosking travelled for some years in the West Indies, and afterwards served our Church with ability and fidelity at home. John Thackray, B.A., was for a time engaged in tutorial work at Didsbury College and in the West Indies. When he returned to England his brotherly spirit and his varied abilities won him the confidence of all who were associated with him. John F. Brewer was for fifteen years a pioneer missionary, who endured much hardship in China, and never ceased to pray and labour for the salvation of that vast country. Charles H. Hocken was for twenty-one years a noted vernacular preacher in Mysore, and his charming personality and edifying ministry made him greatly appreciated at home. William H. Booth has led many to Christ by his deeply earnest preaching, and has proved himself a wise and far-seeing administrator. Frederick M. Lowry's unfailing cheerfulness and courage have endeared him to many. He looked on life with a poet's eye, and saw everywhere the hand of our Father. Joshua M. Fairbourn was a gifted preacher, whose work was highly appreciated in all his circuits. William T. Gill united remarkable business ability with fidelity to every duty of his calling. T. Lawry Withington was one of the most intelligent and cultivated of our ministers, and his personal character and influence have left a gracious impression in all places where he laboured. George Hepplewhite's long and devoted ministry has had a cumulative power for good. Samuel Wilkes has rendered admirable service throughout a consecrated ministry. Ebenezer Morgan has done much-valued work both as a preacher and a devotional writer. G. Killick Osborn has worthily sustained the traditions of a name which is highly honoured among us. Adam Hann's high character and ability have made him honoured wherever he has laboured. W. Hargreaves Cooper has shown a true zeal for Home Missions, and his work as Chairman of the Cornish District has crowned his faithful and fruitful ministry. His gracious and tender presence in the homes of the people has been made a great blessing. The Conference prays that the days of comparative retirement which await these busy lives may be enriched with the fulness of grace, and with not a few opportunities of service for the Master whom they have loved and striven to imitate.

Ministers under Discipline, and other Cases.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. In view of the great services rendered by this Fund in helping to secure the withdrawal of unsuitable men from our Ministry, the Conference commends the Fund to the support of all the Ministers.

3. The Conference re-appoints the Committee, to administer the Fund, and to deal with the cases as they arise. (See Minutes, 1893, p. 226.)

4. The following is the Committee: The Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary;

Rev. John Bell,	Rev. Dr. J. Scott Lidgett,
„ James Critchison,	„ Frederic W. Macdonald,
„ Joseph Dixon,	„ Dr. John S. Simon,
„ Marshall Hartley,	„ F. Luke Wiseman, B.A.

The Rev. JAMES CRITCHISON is the Convener.

Convener of Memorials Committee.—1. The Rev. GEORGE MARRIS is appointed Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions for the Conference of 1915.

2. The Convener is instructed to divide the District Suggestions into two lists, according to their Subjects: (1) For the Representative Session, and (2) for the Pastoral Session, of the Conference; and to submit the lists to the President before they are entered in the Agenda: (3) The memorials from Circuits shall be printed and circulated throughout the Conference.

3. The Secretary of the Conference shall furnish the Convener with a list of all matters referred for consideration to the several departmental Committees; and the Convener shall obtain the several decisions of the said Committees thereupon, and present them to the following Conference.

Convener of Scrutineers.—The Rev. DAVID RYCROFT is appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for all offices, at the Conference of 1915; and is an ex-officio member of the Pastoral Session of that Conference.

Conference Precentor.—The Rev. Wesley Woolmer is appointed to act as Precentor at the Conference of 1915, and as such is an ex-officio member of that Conference.

Designation Committee.—1. The Conference appoints a Committee, consisting of the PRESIDENT and SECRETARY of the Conference, the Secretary of the Probationers' Examination Committee, and twenty other Ministers; five of whom shall be chosen by the Home Mission, the Foreign Missionary, and the Theological Institution Committees, respectively; one by the staff of each College from among themselves; and one by the Welsh Wesleyan Methodist Assembly. The Secretary of the Conference is the Convener of the Committee.

2. This Committee shall sit prior to the Sessions of the Conference, to consider and report upon:

(1) The designation of Students for Home or Foreign Work.

(2) All cases in which the Conference has determined that special reports upon Probationers shall be presented to the ensuing Conference.

(3) All cases in which Probationers have been absent more than once during their probation from the Annual Examination, and on the question of the Candidate's Ordination.

(4) All cases in which, owing to pressure of special work, Probationers have failed in their Examination for two successive years.

(5) The health and general fitness for our work of the men on the President's List of Reserve, and the results of the Examination of accepted Candidates on the List of Reserve who have received appointments.

(6) The Reports of Superintendents concerning accepted Candidates resident in their Circuit who have not received an appointment.

(7) The number of Candidates required for the Ministry.

(8) Transfers, not including applications from other Churches.

The Pastoral Address.—The following Committee is appointed to prepare the Pastoral Address for the Conference of 1915: Rev. Edward J. Brailsford, Herbert B. Workman, D.Litt., D.D., Marcus E. R. Brockman.

Oversight of Probationers.—1. The Conference resolves that the attention of the Local Discipline Committee of each College be called to the Regulation in Minutes, 1908, pp. 345, 346, that inquiry be made in respect of each student as to all questions affecting his moral and religious character, the observance of College rules, attention to studies, preaching ability, competence and fitness for our work, including health.

2. That at the last meeting of the Discipline Committee before Conference, specific answers shall be given to these questions, and a report made on every student embodying the conclusions of each Local Discipline Committee.

3. That at the end of his College course no student shall be eligible for appointment who is not recommended by the General Discipline Committee, until his case has been considered by the Pastoral Session of the Conference.

4. That a Committee be appointed to undertake the oversight of Preachers on Trial during the whole course of their probation. The final report of the Local Discipline Committee on each student leaving College shall be furnished to this Committee.

The Committee shall consist of the members of the Committee for the Examination of Preachers on Trial, together with the following: Rev. F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., Charles W. Andrews, B.A., B.D., Joseph T. Gurney, Thomas Kirkup, Isaiah Parker, W. Arthur Labrum, and George Marris.

The Rev. John W. Lightley, M.A., B.D., is the Convener.

5. That the District Synods shall be required to declare their judgment year by year as to the general fitness for our work in all its details of the Preachers on Trial resident in the several Districts. This judgment shall be furnished to the Committee for the oversight of Preachers on Trial.

6. That before a Probationer is recommended to be received into Full Connexion, the several reports on his case from his acceptance as a Candidate, or a summary of them, shall be presented to the Synod together with the judgment upon them of the Committee for the oversight of Preachers on Trial. This Committee shall have power to recommend to the Synod, either that a Probationer's reception into Full Connexion be deferred, or made conditional upon his satisfying further tests.

Inquiry concerning Methodist Union.—The Pastoral Session, having noticed that the Representative Session has appointed a Committee to obtain information relating to the other Methodist Churches, requests that before any communication is made to the other Methodist Churches the results of the Committee's inquiry be communicated to the Pastoral Session of the Conference.

Nominations for Election into the Legal Conference by Seniority. (See Minutes, 1909, p. 361.) The following ministers were nominated:

Rev. Henry Curnow,
„ George Sanderson,
„ J. Crompton Sowerbutts,
„ George W. Sawday,
„ Walter Hawkins,
„ George Charter,
Rev. Jabez Parkyn,
„ E. Lightwood Smith,
„ J. Conder Nattrass, B.A., B.D.,
„ Robert Tebb,
„ Joseph Stringer,
„ Frederick B. Cowl.

Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—The following are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year (see Standing Order 33): The Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary; J. Alfred Sharp, Book Steward; John Telford, B.A., Editor;

Rev. Dr. Davison, M.A.,	Rev. Marshall Hartley,
„ Joseph Dixon,	„ George Lester,
„ George Fletcher,	„ Alfred H. Vine.

The Rev. JOHN TELFORD, B.A., is the Convener.

Manual for Candidates for the Ministry.—The Conference refers the Manual to the Theological Institution Sub-Committee on Studies for revision.

Candidates from Ireland for Foreign Mission Work.—The resolution passed by the Conference in 1907 relating to the above subject shall be altered to read as follows: "Candidates for the Ministry, accepted by the Irish Conference, who offer themselves for Foreign Mission Work, and have been approved by the Wesleyan Missionary Society, and who, at the termination of their service abroad, are intended to return to the work in Ireland, shall not in future be required to appear before the July Committee in England."

Ministerial Resignations.—In the event of any Brother determining to withdraw from the Ministry, he shall be expected in the first instance to intimate his resignation to the President.

Ministers without Pastoral Charge.—The Conference resolves that the following Question be inserted in the Order and Form of Business of the Pastoral Session of the Annual District Synod: "Is there any Minister without Pastoral Charge residing in this District, and, if so, does the Synod recommend that the present arrangement be continued?"

Election of Chairmen and Financial Secretaries of Districts.—The Conference appoints the following Special Committee to consider the whole question of the Election of Chairmen and Finance Secretaries of Districts, and to report to the next Conference :

Rev. J. Cartwright Adlard,
" John Baker, M.A.,
" Ebenezer Bulmer,
" J. Henry Cartwright,
" William Collett,
" W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., D.D.,
" John Gould,
" William H. Hart,
" J. Forster Holdsworth,
" John Hornabrook,
" Thomas Hughes (A),
" William Kelson,
" Charles Lee-Dunham,
" J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., D.D.,
" John H. Maddock,
Rev. Isaiah Parker,
" Allen Rees,
" J. Herbert Rider,
" David Rycroft,
" H. Arnaud Scott,
" J. Alfred Sharp,
" John S. Simon, D.D.,
" J. T. Wardle Stafford, D.D.,
" Joseph Stringer,
" Charles L. Tabraham,
" Thomas A. Turney,
" John E. Wakerley,
" John G. Warrington,
" Owen Watkins,
" Thomas E. Westerdale,
" Frederick Luke Wiseman, B.A.

The Rev. WILLIAM H. HART is the Convener.

National Union of Journalists.—1. The Conference has given full consideration to the suggestion of the Journalists, that, instead of the present method of reporting, an official précis of the proceedings of the Conference should be furnished to Representatives of the Daily Press.

2. The Conference is of opinion that while it would not be impossible to carry out such an arrangement, it would involve the appointment of Official Ministerial Reporters, and would entail heavy expense for which no Funds are available. Therefore, the Conference is not in a position to recommend the adoption of this suggestion.

The Relation of Children to the Church.—The Conference is of opinion that it is not desirable or necessary that any extensive legislative change should be made; but it is convinced that great good would result from more thorough co-ordination of existing work. The Conference is also of opinion that, by the co-operation of the Departments chiefly interested in the care of the young, much needed help may be given to those who are entrusted with the training of children for membership in the Church.

The Conference adopts the following proposals :

1. The Junior Society shall include :

(1) All Junior Society Classes.

(2) Such children and young people as are suitable for Junior Membership from amongst the members of Junior Wesley Guilds, of Preparation Classes for the Primary and Junior Departments of our Sunday Schools, and of Bible Classes associated with Companies of the Boys' Brigade or with the Life Brigades, or similar organisations, provided :

(i) That in each case the Leader, otherwise duly qualified, be appointed as a Junior Class Leader by the Leaders' Meeting.

(ii) That the names of such children and young people bo enrolled upon a Junior Society Class Book.

(iii) That when the quarterly tickets of Junior Membership are distributed, such children and young people shall be met, with other Junior Members, by the Minister.

2. That provision should be made in all these classes for a definite course of instruction in the elements of Christian truth, the principles of Christian life and conduct, and in the story of the Christian Church, and of Methodism in particular.

3. That every year, in addition to the Quarterly Visitation, the Minister shall meet any young people in these classes, and any other young persons, who may be eligible for full membership of the Church, in order that he may explain to them the larger responsibilities of such membership, bring home to their hearts the need for public confession of Christ, and prepare them for their first Communion.

4. Such young people as are prepared to take upon themselves the responsibility of full Church Membership shall then be publicly welcomed into the Church.

5. That a small Commission shall be appointed yearly by Conference, consisting of Representatives nominated by the Sunday School Department, the Wesley Guild, and the Class Leaders' Committee (four from each), such Commission to draw up a syllabus of subjects for each year or for a course of years; to provide help for workers; and to foster and encourage all that may be of benefit to the children of the Church, and report to the Conference.

Methodist Law, and other Matters.—The Conference receives the printed Report of the Committee, and also the written statements read by the Secretary.

1. The question of the meaning of the phrase "the first four volumes" of John Wesley's Sermons for clear determination, especially as to the number of sermons contained in those volumes.

(1) The Conference places on record that the phrase "the first four volumes" of John Wesley's Sermons is to be interpreted in accordance with counsel's opinion, viz.: The phrase in the Model Deed applies to the first four volumes of Wesley's Sermons, published in eight volumes in 1787-8; and the total number of sermons is forty-four.

(2) The "Case for the Opinion of Counsel" and the "Opinion of Counsel" are printed in Appendix XXVII.

2. The communication from the Coventry Circuit is referred back to the Committee for further consideration and report.

3. The bearing of the Law of Libel on the findings and records of our Circuit Courts, such as Leaders' and Local Preachers' Meetings, in cases of disciplinary action.

(1) The Conference received and adopted:

(i) The Case for Opinion of Counsel.

(ii) The Counsel's Opinion.

(iii) The written statement read by the Secretary; and resolved that these be entered in the Journal.

(2) The Conference directs that in all our Circuits separate Minute Books shall be kept for cases of Discipline in Leaders' Meetings, and for such cases in Local Preachers' Meetings as seriously affect the moral character of Local Preachers; and that such Minute Books shall be under the care of the Superintendent Minister of the Circuit for the time being, who shall be responsible for their safe custody.

(3) The Conference resolves that a Statement prepared by the Secretary shall be printed as a "Private and Confidential Document" and supplied to all Ministers in Full Connexion.

4. The custody and record of Disciplinary Cases in the District Minutes at home and abroad.

The Conference directs its Secretary to incorporate the Resolutions of the last Conference (1913) relating to this subject in the circular sent to the Chairmen of Districts, and in the Rules in the Minute Books sent to Financial Secretaries.

5. The whole question of confirming the nomination of a member of the Irish Conference to the Legal Conference. For Report, see Appendix XXVII.

6. The Conference refers to the Committee on Methodist Law and other matters the question of the meaning and use of the phrase "General Superintendent," for consideration and report.

7. The Conference requests the Rev. John S. Simon, D.D., to re-publish the Summary of Methodist Law and Discipline, bringing it up to date.

8. The Conference re-appoints the Committee as follows: The Rev. DINSDALE T. YOUNG, President of the Conference; SAMUEL F. COLLIER, Ex-President; SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary.

Rev. Dr. John S. Banks,
" William Bradfield, B.A.,
" William Collett,
" Dr. W. T. Davison, M.A.,
" John Elsworth,
" Henry Haigh, D.D.,
" Marshall Hartley,
" John Hornabrook,
" William Humphrey,
" Dr. Scott Lidgett,
" George Marris,
" William Perkins,
Rev. J. Herbert Rider,
" Enoch Salt,
" H. Arnaud Scott,
" J. Alfred Sharp,
" Dr. John S. Simon,
" Henry T. Smart,
" W. Henry Thompson,
" John E. Wakerley,
" Owen Watkins,
" Thomas E. Westerdale,
" Silvester Whitehead,
" Luke F. Wiseman, B.A.

The Rev. JOHN S. SIMON, D.D., is the Convener.

SECTION III.

SECTION V.

STANDING ORDERS.

I. Supplies, List of Reserve, Students.

1. Supplies for Ministers.—(1) Any Minister needing a Supply is directed to communicate with the Chairman of the District before applying to the President; and the Chairman is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal inquiry, that an efficient local Supply cannot be obtained.

(2) Any Minister on whose behalf a Supply has been appointed shall retain the Supply for one month after he has given notice to the President that his services will no longer be required,—unless the President has employment for him sooner. And such Minister, when he gives notice to the President that, after a given date, the services of the Supply will be no longer required, shall, at the same time, notify the fact to the Chairman of the District.

(3) The Ex-President shall furnish to the Conference, at the commencement of the Pastoral Session, a list of all Ministers who have had Supplies during any part of the preceding year, with the dates in each case on which the Supply was sent and withdrawn. And on receiving this list, the Conference shall appoint a Committee to inquire whether these Ministers are physically competent to take Circuits.

2. Payment of Supplies.—(1) Every Probationer sent by the President as a Supply shall be paid at the rate of Thirty Guineas a year for the time he is in the Circuit; this allowance being in addition to Board and Lodging.

(2) In regard to Travelling Expenses, a Probationer sent to a Circuit as a Supply is dealt with on the same principle as one who is appointed by the Conference to his first Circuit. Once arrived in a Circuit as a Supply, he receives his travelling expenses from that Circuit to another when removed by the President during the year, or by the Conference at the end of the year.

(3) In respect of payment, the year of a trained man on the President's List of Reserve appointed in connexion with, or immediately after, the Conference, shall reckon from the first day of September to the last day of August.

3. List of Reserve.—(1) The retiring President shall furnish to the Committee on Transfers, etc., a Report as to the health and fitness for our work of those Probationers who have been, during the year, on the List of Reserve; the Committee to report to the Conference.

(2) All applications for the services of Probationers on the List of Reserve shall be forwarded to the President of the Conference not later than July 1 in each year; and a Committee to classify the cases shall meet, when necessary, during the Sessions of each Conference. One of the Missionary Secretaries is authorised to attend the meeting of each Local Discipline Committee of the Theological Institution at which the designation of the students is considered.

(3) Except in special cases, the President's List of Reserve shall consist of men who have been trained in the Theological Institution.

4. Students.—(1) Accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution, unless the Conference otherwise direct.

(2) The term of residence in the Institution shall be, except in special cases, three years.

(3) Every Student who has completed his term of three years in the Theological Institution, and is duly certified by the Local and General Discipline Committees, shall be regarded as commencing his probation at the Conference next ensuing (except in the case in which a Candidate has received an appointment before entering College), and he shall be entitled, after being received into Full Connexion, to the usual allowances of a Minister in Full Connexion.

But if he shall be specially recommended to return to the Institution for a fourth year's course of study, he shall, in the year immediately after he has been received into Full Connexion, be entitled only to the allowances of an unmarried Minister. This Resolution does not carry any disability with regard to any other funds than the Home Mission Fund.

N.B.—These new arrangements shall only take effect in those cases where the probation begins in 1912 or subsequently.

(4) In the case of Students who have not completed their term at the Institution (whether in their first, second, or third year of residence), but are called out by the President to supply before Christmas, the year shall, in accordance with our ancient usage, be reckoned as the first of their probation.

(5) Students who have not completed their term at the Institution, but are called out to meet special emergencies, shall, when their services are no longer required by the President, return to the Institution to complete their term.

(6) Candidates for the Ministry who have obtained a Degree in any University of the United Kingdom, or have passed any equivalent Examination—e.g. the Final Examination of the Incorporated Law Society, or of the Royal College of Surgeons —shall not of necessity spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution; but, on the recommendation of their Tutors and Local and General Discipline Committees, the term of their residence may be shortened. And, in such cases, their probation shall commence at the Conference next ensuing. (See Section (3) N.B.).

(7) When it is decided by the Local and General Discipline Committees that, on the ground of unsatisfactory progress, or for reasons of discipline, the full period of three years' training at the Institution should in the case of any Student be shortened, the ministerial probation of such Student shall not be reckoned as beginning until the Conference at which he would have completed his three years' training.

(8) Before calling out any Student to supply, the President shall consult with the Staff of the College in which the Student resides.

(9) The Representative of each Branch of the Institution to the Stationing Committee shall advise as to the appointment to Circuits of Students who have completed their term in the College he represents, and especially as to the appointment of any Student of the first or second year, should it be found necessary to make such an appointment.

(10) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and were not called out during their third year by the President, and have not received appointments at the Conference, shall be placed on the President's List of Reserve.

(11) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, but were called out during the previous year by the President, yet have not received appointments at the Conference, are under the care and at the cost of the Home Mission Committee.

(12) Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and have been sent by the President as Supplies, shall, when their services are no longer required, be placed by the President under the direction of the Home Mission Committee, which shall be responsible for their maintenance; the Committee shall, however, be entitled to a week's notice from the President before such Student receives another appointment.

(13) The work and fitness of every Student shall be fully reported upon year by year by a Special Committee of each Branch of the Institution, consisting of the Tutors of that Branch, four other Ministers, and eight Laymen, who shall be chosen by the Local Executive Committee, but shall report to the General Discipline Committee. (Minutes, 1910, p. 104.)

II. The Connexion.

5. Title of the Connexion.—Having regard to the terms used in our Trust Deeds and other Legal Documents, it is not possible for the Conference to alter the title of the Connexion as it appears on the front page of the Minutes of the Conference. The Conference declares, however, that the title hitherto used is not, and never has been, inconsistent with the assertion for "the People called Methodists" of a true and proper position as a Church, with all the authorities, privileges, and responsibilities belonging to the New Testament Church ; and in this view of our principles and of the facts of the case, the Conference, so far from discouraging, distinctly approves of the general and popular use of the term, "The Wesleyan Methodist Church." (Minutes, 1891, p. 321.)

6. Nomination Committee.—(1) The Nomination Committee shall consist of five Ministers and five Laymen, in addition to the President and Secretary of the Conference, with two Secretaries (Ministerial and Lay); and shall meet twice in the year—in May, and immediately before the Conference. Some Representative of each Department shall be present at both these meetings, by arrangement in the Committee of such Department.

(2) The Nominations for the ensuing Conference shall be made by the several Connexional Committees not later than April, with the exception of the Local Preachers', Class Leaders', Auxiliary Fund Committee, the Connexional Fund Committee, and the Wesley Deaconess Institute (which shall report not later than July 2); and the Secretaries shall send to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, a full fortnight before its first meeting, at least twenty-five printed lists of members so nominated, on which there shall be a record of the attendances of the members during the past year. The names of new members shall be printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment shall be distinguished by an asterisk.

(3) One-fifth of the Ministers and of the Laymen on each Connexional Committee shall retire annually, and shall not be eligible for re-election, except by a two-thirds majority of those present. The vote shall be taken by ballot after all nominations have been placed before the Committee, first on those who have been proposed for re-nomination, and afterwards on those newly nominated.

(4) The Secretaries of the Nomination Committee shall compile a register of the names of such persons nominated or re-nominated, with a list of all the Connexional Committees on which it is proposed they should serve, and send a copy to each member of the Nomination Committee seven days before its first meeting.

(5) These names shall be considered by the Nomination Committee, which shall have power to make any suggestions they think fit in regard to them. While it is unadvisable to lay down any hard and fast limit, it is, as a general rule, undesirable that any person should be nominated for appointment on another Connexional Committee who is already a member of four such Committees.

(6) The suggestions of the Nomination Committee shall be sent to the Secretaries of the Departments concerned, for consideration by their several Committees, and the decision of these Committees in each case shall be reported to the second Meeting of the Nomination Committee, which shall make such changes as appear desirable and report to the Conference.

(7) Members of Connexional Committees elected by the Synods, other than Chairmen of Districts, shall not be elected for more than three years in succession, except by a two-thirds majority of those present, the vote to be taken by ballot. These elections shall take place at the May Synod, and the names shall be forwarded at once to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee.

(8) The following are the Committees within the scope of the Nomination Committee, Sub-Committees and Committees purely local being excluded :—

Ordinary Committee of Privileges.

(Minutes, 1905, pp. 102-3 ; 1906, p. 212 ; and 1908, p. 110.)

7. Lists of Committees to Appear in the Conference Agenda.—All Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall, as far as possible, be printed in the Agenda for the Conference ; the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a two-thirds majority by ballot being distinguished by an asterisk ; care being taken to give the Christian name and address of each Layman. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292 ; 1905, p. 103.)

8. New Members of Connexional Committees.—The Secretaries of Departments shall inform all new Members, Laymen and Ministers, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees. (Minutes, 1890, p. 292.)

9. Postal addresses of Lay Members of Connexional Committees.—A complete list of the Lay Members of each Connexional Committee, with their postal addresses, shall be handed to the Secretary of the Conference for insertion in the Minutes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 319.)

10. Custody of Connexional Documents.—In addition to the Journals and Daily Records of the Conference, the Reports of Committees meeting during the Conference, and the Resolutions of Conference thereon, and the Minutes of the several District Synods, which are kept at the Conference Office, the following Documents shall also be preserved: (1) The printed Agenda of the Conference; (2) The Minutes of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions for the current and preceding year, with the Documents laid before that Committee, and the Resolutions of the Conference thereon; (3) Any legal opinion obtained by the direction of the Conference; (4) A Record of all Legacies left to Connexional Funds, with any other Documents which the Conference may hereafter direct to be preserved.

N.B.—The Custodian is instructed to report annually to the Conference what Documents have been received and placed in custody during the year.

III. The Conference.

11. Conference Towns.—Subject to local convenience, the rotation of Conferences shall be as follows: London, Burslem, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Manchester, Camborne, Sheffield, Bristol, Nottingham, London, York, Lincoln, Bradford, Cardiff, Liverpool, Plymouth, Leeds, Birmingham, Hull. (Minutes, 1898, p. 354.)

12. Two Sessions Daily.—With a view to the dispatch of business, there shall be two Sessions daily. (Minutes, 1886, p. 297.)

13. Conference Sacramental Service.—The Conference Sacramental Service shall be held on the second morning of the Representative Session, in a Chapel other than the Conference Chapel, in lieu of the ordinary devotional exercises. (Minutes, 1905, p. 113.)

14. Open Session.—(1) An Open Session for the reception of Representatives from other Conferences shall be held on the Friday afternoon of the Representative Session. (Minutes, 1890, p. 422; 1905, p. 113; 1914, p. 106.)

(2) At this Session a Representative from Ireland shall be heard annually, a Representative from the French Conference and one from the South African Conference on alternate years, and a Representative from each of the following General Conferences, viz., the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church South, the Methodist Church in Canada, the Australasian Methodist Church, and the Methodist Church in New Zealand when they are appointed.

(3) Representatives appointed by the Conference to visit other Conferences shall be heard at the Conference following their return home.

(4) Other accredited visitors, including those from the Annual Conferences of America and Australasia, shall be introduced to the Conference, but no provision can be made for them to address it.

(5) The Conference appoints a Correspondent whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the Secretary of the Conference, to see that the various Conferences are advised as to the years when Representatives are looked for, that the names of those appointed are duly known, that our own Conference arrangements Committees are advised as to hospitality and appointments on the Conference Plan, and that Representatives are clearly informed as to the date of the Open Session and of any pulpit appointment, and are personally welcomed on their arrival.

15. Conference Arrangements.—(1) In order to afford sufficient time for the proper discharge of the business of the Conference, an Evening Session shall be held on each day of the Representative week, if necessary.

(2) Deputations to the Conference shall be received on such days as the Conference itself shall direct. It is recommended that such Deputations shall be received at 11 o'clock during the morning Session, and that the time occupied shall not exceed forty minutes. (Minutes, 1911, p. 92 (5).)

16. Scrutineers of Votes.—(1) At each Conference, in the Pastoral Session, a Convener of Scrutineers shall be appointed to take charge of the voting for the Legal Conference, and for the offices of President and Secretary, at the succeeding Conference; and such Convener shall be an ex-officio member of the Pastoral Session of the Conference for which he is elected.

(2) The Committee of Scrutineers, annually appointed, shall consist of not less than twenty, and shall make all arrangements for the collecting and counting of votes. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

17. Chairman of Memorials Committee.—The Ex-President, year by year, shall be, ex officio, the Chairman of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions. (Minutes, 1895, p. 216.)

18. Character of Ministers and Preachers on Trial.—In response to the inquiry in the Conference, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" the names of the Districts only shall be called, the Chairman of each District then giving the required information. The right to challenge any name, or bring a charge against any Minister, shall not be affected by this Regulation. (Minutes, 1887, p. 289.)

19. Disciplinary Inquiries.—The Conference re-affirms its decision that subjects discussed in Conference in answer to the question, "Is there any objection to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?" are to be regarded as strictly private and confidential. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

20. Ministers who have ceased to be Recognised by the Conference.—No Preacher, excluded for immorality, or who resigns his connexion with the Conference while under charges which affect his moral character, shall at any subsequent period be allowed to be a Local Preacher, Class-leader, or even a private Member of Society, without the consent of the Conference, previously obtained. (Minutes, 1897, p. 243.)

21. Ministers becoming Supernumeraries.—The Conference records its judgment that since the accuracy of the forecast made by the Committee of the Auxiliary Fund depends on the assumption that the average duration of Active Service and of Supernumeraryship remain as at present (thirty-eight years in the one case and eleven years in the other), no claim for grant should ordinarily arise until thirty-four years after ordination unless the claimant is medically certified as unable to continue to discharge his work efficiently, or unless the Conference shall in any particular case otherwise direct. The number of years each minister has travelled who applies to become a Supernumerary shall be presented in the Conference Agenda. (Journal, 1912, 1913.)

22. Supernumeraries and District Synods.—Supernumerary Ministers, with the exception of those who have received permission to reside abroad, shall be considered to belong to the Districts in which their names appear in the Minutes of the Conference. They shall attend the annual Synods of their own Districts, unless they receive a dispensation allowing them to be absent. They shall be subject to their own Synods in all matters of discipline. In case of unavoidable absence from the annual Synod, they shall send to the Chairman, in due time, a statement concerning their continued belief in our doctrines. A Supernumerary who removes into another District after the publication of the Minutes of Conference may, by arrangement with his own Chairman, attend the Synod of the District in which he resides. In that case he must give notice to the Chairman of the District in which he is resident of his intention to be present at the Synod. Such attendance, however, shall not, in any degree, remove him from the jurisdiction of his own Synod, to which he is responsible in all matters of doctrine and discipline. (Minutes, 1900, p. 230.)

The expenses incurred by Supernumeraries in attending the May Synod shall be paid by the Financial Secretary, and included in the Synod Assessment on the Circuits for District Expenses. (Minutes, 1911, p. 348.)

23. English Supernumeraries in Ireland.—Supernumeraries of the British Conference resident in Ireland shall report to the Synods in the area of which they reside, and Supernumeraries of the Irish Conference resident in England shall similarly report to the English Synods. (Minutes, 1908, p. 353.)

24. Junior Ministers becoming Supernumeraries for One Year.—Ministers who have travelled not more than twenty-one years, and have lost their health, may be allowed to retire for one year. In addition to the Allowances payable from the Annuitant Society and the Connexional Funds, such Ministers may, if in necessitous circumstances, receive for that year a sum not exceeding £80; of which one half shall be provided by the Connexional Fund, the other half being paid by the Auxiliary Fund. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 233, 234.)

Each case shall be examined by a Mixed Committee of seven Members, who shall be appointed by the Conference; namely, the Ex-President, three Ministers, and three Laymen.

Should the Conference deem it indispensable, the Grant may be allowed for a second year. (Minutes, 1878, p. 234.)

25. Temporary Supernumeraryship in Relation to the Legal Conference.—In the case of a member of the Legal Conference who has been permitted to retire for one or for two years, he shall not thereby cease to be a member of the Legal Conference provided he then (that is to say, at the end of the first or second year) returns to the full work; and he shall remain a member of the Legal Conference for two years after becoming a Supernumerary permanently. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212; revised, 1895.)

26. Compulsory Supernumeraryship: Financial Arrangements.—(1) When the Conference has decided that a Minister shall not be appointed to a Circuit for any other reason than physical incompetence, his case shall be considered by a Special Committee, to be appointed by the Conference in its Representative Session. This Committee shall determine whether any, and if any what, annual allowances shall be paid to him; or whether any, and if any what, sums shall be offered to him on condition of his retirement from the Ministry. The Committee shall further advise the Conference as to the sources whence such payments shall be made in each case.

(2) Representatives of the following Funds shall be among the persons appointed on the Committee: The Auxiliary Fund, Connexional Fund, and Children's Fund in both its branches.

(3) The Members of the Annuitant Society shall be asked to treat Ministers who may retire from the Ministry under these arrangements, in the matter of compensation, as though they had resigned. (Minutes, 1896, p. 321.)

27. Compulsory Supernumeraryship in Relation to the District Synod.—In the case of any Minister who has been made a Supernumerary on the ground of either (a) discipline or (b) difficulty in finding him a Circuit, no District Synod shall recommend his re-appointment unless some Circuit in that District is willing to receive him, or he shall have received an invitation to a Circuit in another District; and no such Minister shall be re-appointed to a Circuit unless recommended by the District Synod to which he belongs. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218; 1899, p. 246.)

28. Supernumeraries returning to the Full Work.—The Conference resolves that in all cases where it is recommended that Supernumerary Ministers shall return to the full work, inquiry and report shall be made by the Committee appointed at Conference to examine the cases of those Ministers who have had Supplies during the year. (Minutes, 1897, p. 244.) See Standing Order 1 (3).

29. Ministers without Pastoral Charge.—(1) Any Minister wishing to maintain his ministerial status whilst holding no definite appointment to a Circuit or a Department, and without becoming a Supernumerary, shall apply for permission through the District Synod to the Conference, which shall decide the case after a full examination by a Special Committee.

(2) Such Minister shall continue to be in every way subject to our discipline, including the usual inquiries as to character and doctrine.

(3) No such Minister shall receive any payment from the Auxiliary Fund during, or on account of, the years in which he shall occupy the position herein described; and he shall pay the yearly assessments to the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children on the same scale as Ministers appointed to Departments; and he shall then continue to receive the benefit of those Funds in the ordinary course.

(4) The name of every such Minister shall stand upon the Minutes in connexion with some Circuit, and following his name shall be these words: "resides in this Circuit without Pastoral Charge." Nevertheless, he shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting or of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit. (Minutes, 1888, p. 215.)

(5) In the case of a Member of the Legal Conference having been entered on the Minutes as without Pastoral Charge, in conformity with the Resolutions of the Conference of 1888, the Conference resolves that, at the expiration of four years from the commencement of such an arrangement, he shall cease to be a member of the Legal Conference.

The effect of this Resolution shall not be retrospective. (Minutes, 1890, p. 212.)

30. Supernumeraries or other Ministers Resident Abroad.—(1) No Minister is allowed to be absent from the country during a great part of the year without the consent of the Yearly Conference, or, in case of emergency, of the President, who shall report the case to the ensuing Conference.

(2) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall have such permission annually renewed.

(3) If any Minister remain abroad for more than one year, he shall be required either to make arrangements with the officers of our Connexional Funds, with a view to retiring from the English Work, or to furnish the Conference annually with a satisfactory Report from some other Methodist Conference in recognised relation with this Conference.

(4) If, during his residence abroad, any Minister shall enter into business, or shall accept office of emolument of any kind, he is required, without delay, to notify the fact to the Chairman of the District where his name appears on the Stations.

(5) In all such cases, the existing Rule which requires the presence of a Minister at the Annual District Synod shall be held to be binding, unless his absence has been expressly sanctioned in accordance with the foregoing Resolutions; and even in that case he is required to furnish a statement in due time containing an answer to the question in the Order and Form of Business in District Synods as to his continued belief of our doctrines.

(6) Supernumerary Ministers connected with the British Conference, residing in Ireland, shall report to the Irish Synod to which the circuit in which they reside belongs; and Supernumerary Ministers connected with the Irish Conference, residing in England, shall report to the English Synod to which the Circuit in which they reside belongs. (Minutes, 1908, p. 353.)

(7) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall furnish a Report as to his ministerial conduct from the proper authority, as defined in the above, or in the letter from the President giving the required permission.

(8) A list of all such Ministers shall be annually printed in the Minutes of Conference at the end of the Stations. (Minutes, 1888, p. 215; 1893, p. 362.)

31. Ministers serving Abroad.—If in the case of a Minister stationed under a Foreign Synod, disciplinary inquiry is called for in regard to conduct alleged to have occurred in Great Britain or Ireland, the Missionary Committee of Discipline shall be empowered to institute such inquiry and report to the Conference. (Minutes, 1908, p. 350.)

32. Transfers from Welsh to English Work.—In cases of application for such transfer the Conference requires (1) The opinion of the Welsh District Synod concerned and of the Welsh Assembly as to the advisability of the transfer, both upon the ground of personal fitness and also in view of the needs of Welsh Methodism; (2) The recommendation of a Conference Committee after a personal interview with the applicant for transfer, and also after examination and test of preaching in English. The Committee on such cases shall be known as "The Designation Committee"—(Minutes, 1904, pp. 358, 359). No transfer of a Minister from the Welsh to the English Districts shall be made until the Home Missionary Committee has had the opportunity of considering the case in its financial bearings and has approved the same. (Minutes, 1902, pp. 113, 114.)

33. Obituaries of Deceased Ministers.—(1) Secretaries of District Synods are directed to forward copies of the Obituaries of Deceased Ministers to the Convener of the Committee on Obituaries, immediately after the Annual Meeting of the Synod. (Minutes, 1892, p. 217.)

(2) The Obituaries of deceased Ministers received by the District Synods shall be revised by a Special Committee, to be appointed at the preceding Conference.

(3) The Obituaries thus revised shall be printed for the use of the Conference, under the direction of the Special Committee.

(4) The Obituaries of Ministers who have died since the May District Synods shall be revised by the Special Committee; and, if possible, be printed and presented to the Conference at the same time as those which have been submitted to the District Synods. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

34. Memorial Service for Deceased Ministers.—(1) The official reading of Obituaries in the Conference shall be discontinued; and the list of the names of deceased Ministers shall be read by the Secretary of the Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

(2) The consideration of Obituaries shall be regarded and observed as a strictly religious service; and, whilst this solemn business is being transacted, no Committees shall meet.

(3) The Conference shall, as a rule, hold the Memorial Service on the Tuesday evening of the third week of its Sessions.

35. Vice-President of the Irish Conference.—To avoid the difficulty that might arise in the signing of the Journal of the Irish Conference, in the event of the death of the Vice-President of the Irish Conference and the absence of all the Delegates from the British Conference, the name of the surviving Ex-Vice-President shall be added to the other names in the delegation. (Minutes, 1908, p. 353)

36. Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Churches.—The Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other Conferences and Churches shall apply in all particulars to married men who are accepted in the ordinary way as Candidates for the Ministry; and the payments required therein shall be made, and the privileges described therein shall begin to be enjoyed, in both cases, at the time of their admission into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Minutes, 1882, p. 289.)

37. Memorandum of Agreement.—The following is the revised scale of payments to be made to the Connexional Funds by Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches, and married men received as Candidates:

1. To the Home Mission Fund ...	£160.
2. To the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children	£80 for each child.
3. To the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund ...	£7 for each year counted, upon admission by the Conference.

N.B.—(1) In view of the fact that, ordinarily, claims upon the Maintenance Section of the Fund do not arise during the first five years of a Minister's term of service; and seeing that the Memorandum of Agreement does not contemplate the case of married men being received into the Wesleyan Methodist Church who may have children born during their probation, the scale of payments is revised so as to meet the equity of such cases, viz. that for each year of probation in which no claim arises one-fifth of the amount charged for maintenance shall be remitted.

(2) The amount charged for maintenance shall be fully paid up before such Probationer is received into full Connexion, and before his child is admitted as a claimant upon the Fund.

(3) A written acknowledgment of every such arrangement shall be signed by the father of the child, and be preserved by the General Secretary.

(4) Where desired, payments to the Education Section of the Fund, entitling a child to receive the usual Education Allowances, may be spread over a period of years until the child is nine years of age; simple interest, at 5 per cent., being charged until the full amount has been paid, and until such time no claim for Educational Allowance shall be admitted. (Minutes, 1906, p. 27.)

38. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, complete and print, not later than June 24 in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the Sessions; and shall also, on or before the above date, send to every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels a copy of the Conference Plan.

Every Minister so appointed is responsible to the Conference for the fulfilment of his appointment. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1827], p. 291; 1903, p. 359.)

39. Committee on Appeals and other Cases.—At the commencement of the Pastoral Session of each Conference a Committee of twenty-one members shall be appointed, to whom shall be referred, without discussion:

(1) All cases, needing further inquiry, touching the character of Ministers or Probationers, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Synods thereupon;

(2) Any Notice of Charge or Appeal relating thereto; or

(3) Any other matter which the Conference may so refer.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and some other member of the Conference shall then be appointed to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special cases may, if the Conference so decide, be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1873], p. 202.)

40. Appeals in Cases of Discipline.—No Appeal shall be received after the completion of the year following the Conference immediately succeeding the act of discipline, except by special decision of the Conference. (Minutes, 1891, p. 229.)

41. Ministers under Affiliated Conferences.—(1) British Ministers who have elected to remain in Full Connexion with the Yearly Conference whilst employed under an Affiliated Conference must be held to be absolutely subject to the Affiliated Conference in all matters connected with the work and within the limits of that Conference; but the question of their continued connexion with the Yearly Conference can be determined only by the vote of the Yearly Conference.

(2) Any British Minister who has elected to enter into Full Connexion with an Affiliated Conference, or who may hereafter so enter, must be regarded as having thereby resigned his connexion with the Yearly Conference; and the fact of such resignation shall be entered on the Journal of the Yearly Conference.

(3) Ministers who were not sent out from England, but were taken into the Ministry in the countries now belonging to Affiliated Conferences, and also Native Ministers, are absolutely subject to their respective Affiliated Conferences. (Minutes, 1891, p. 231.)

42. Obituaries of Ministers of Affiliated Conferences.—On the death of any Minister of an Affiliated Conference who had a right of return to this country, an Obituary shall be inserted in the Minutes of the Yearly Conference. (Minutes, 1890, p. 211.)

43. Native Ministers and Ministers admitted for Service in the Countries Specified.—For the Resolutions of the Conference on this subject, see Minutes, 1895, pp. 217–220.

The following is substituted for Resolution III.: (1) That Courts of Superior Jurisdiction for the Ceylon, South India, and North India Provincial areas shall be constituted as follows: Each Court shall consist of twenty members, of whom ten shall be Missionaries from England, including Chairmen of Districts ex officio, and ten Ministers accepted for service in Ceylon or India respectively. The members (exclusive of the Chairmen of Districts) shall be elected by the several District Synods; and the numbers to be elected by each Synod shall be determined from time to time by the Missionary Committee of Discipline.

(2) All elections shall be by the united votes of the European and other Ministers.

(3) Probationers shall not be eligible as Representatives.

(4) Each Court of Superior Jurisdiction shall elect its own Chairman and Secretary. (Journal, 1905, and Minutes, 1906, p. 15.)

44. Provincial Synods and Candidates for the Ministry.—In those areas of the mission field in which Provincial Synods have been established, the recommendation of the Provincial Synod shall be required: (1) Before a Candidate for the Ministry from a District within the Provincial area is received on trial by the Conference;

(2) Before a Candidate for admission into Full Connexion from a District within the Provincial area is received into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Journal, 1905, and Minutes, 1906, p. 15.)

45. Status of Ministers in the West Indies and other Specified Countries in Relation to the British Conference.—Ministers wishing to be transferred to the work at home shall submit their application to the Committee appointed by the Conference to consider applications from Ministers of other Churches, and shall submit themselves to such examination as that Committee may determine. The Conference, while not prepared to recognise the claim for Full Status of men who have been received for work in specified countries, nor on the other hand seeking to exclude their applications, deems it undesirable to lay down any general principles in regard to such applications, but recommends that the existing usage of the Conference should be continued and each case considered on its merits.

Inasmuch as this new class of applications involves questions of finance that affect the Missionary Society in addition to those laid down in the Memorandum of Agreement, the Conference is of the opinion that any case recommended should be submitted for the opinion of the Missionary Society before being finally settled.

The Conference further resolves that whenever it is recommended that an Applicant shall receive Full Status the Conference shall adhere to its rule that the Financial Payments shall be paid through the Missionary Committee when the Full Status is granted, and not delayed until the Minister makes application to return to the Home work. (Minutes, 1908, p. 356.)

N.B.—Applications from Ministers who are Natives of Foreign Countries shall under no circumstances be considered.

46. Vacancies among Lay Members of the Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Forty-eight Laymen elected by previous Conferences being unable to attend the Conference, he or they shall inform the President at least one week before the date fixed for the commencement of the Representative Session. The President shall furnish the information to the Secretaries of the Nomination Committee, and that Committee shall nominate a person or persons to fill the vacancies thus created; such nominations being submitted to the Conference at the commencement of the Representative Session, which shall be requested to elect the person or persons so nominated.

In the event of a vacancy arising by appointment to a Connexional Treasurership, or by death, or through the death or unavoidable absence of a Connexional Treasurer for whom no substitute has been appointed by the Committee in question, nominations shall be made in the same way; and the person elected shall, as regards retirement and re-election, be subject to the rules applying to the person whose place he takes. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340; 1908, p. 112.)

IV. The Stationing Committee.

47. Election of Representative in District Synod.—The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen by ballot at the September Synod by the united votes of the Ministers and Laymen who are members of the District Synod. (Minutes, vol. i. [1791], p. 256; vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154; Journal, 1913).

48. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—(1) The Secretary of the Conference shall, early in December of each year, supply every Chairman of a District with a Schedule on which he shall be required, immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting, to enter the names of all Ministers in the District removing at the ensuing Conference, and for whom no provisional arrangement has been made; also the Circuits in which there is any vacancy not provisionally supplied. Early in January the Secretary of the Conference shall forward to every Chairman a complete list compiled from the information received. (Journal, 1912.)

(2) Not later than the first week in May, each Chairman shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Conference with a list of all Ministers for whom arrangements have not been made, and of all Circuits in like case; the information necessary to compile this list being sent by the Chairman to the Secretary of the Conference not later than April 20; such lists to contain complete information, and to be regarded as private and confidential. (Journal, 1907.)

(3) The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than June 10 in each year, upon a prepared Schedule, complete lists of—

(a) The invitations accepted by Ministers in his District;

(b) The arrangements provisionally made for the appointment of Ministers to Circuits in his District; and (c) All Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made.

(d) All Ministers for whom an extended appointment is requested.

(4) A list of all Ministers to be transferred from the Foreign to the Home Stations shall, at the same time, be furnished by the Missionary Secretaries to the Secretary of the Conference.

(5) From these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, a Preliminary Draft of Stations embodying all arrangements thus provisionally made; and also a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and a copy of these shall be furnished to each Member of the Stationing Committee, in London, on the Monday before the meeting of that Committee. (Journal, 1907.)

49. Regulations concerning the Stationing Committee.

(1) The Stationing Committee shall, from year to year, hold its first Session in London.

(2) The appointments made shall not be printed day by day.

(3) The Stations shall be printed in the Conference Town.

(4) The First Draft of Stations shall be an absolutely confidential document until the Representatives' Copies are ready for the post.

Should any Minister be officially reported as under discipline and suspended until the Conference, his name shall not appear on the First Draft of Stations.

(5) Probationers on the List of Reserve, and Students leaving the Institution, who are eligible for appointment, shall be entitled to a copy of the First and of the Final Draft of Stations.

(6) Each Representative shall send to the Secretary of the "Conference Arrangements Committee" two sets of Addressed Wrappers, for the First Draft and the Final Draft, respectively, for the Ministers and Circuit Stewards in his District, and for Six other Laymen—Members of the District Synod; the cost of which shall be refunded by the "Conference Arrangements Committee." (Minutes, 1888, p. 317.)

50. The President and Secretary and the Stationing Committee.—(1) As the President and Secretary for the time being are ex officio Members of the Stationing Committee they shall in future attend it only in their public and official character as persons specially charged with the general interests of the whole Connexion; and neither of them shall be considered eligible to be sent by any particular District as its local Representative.

(2) The President and Secretary of the preceding Conference, having attended the meetings of the Stationing Committee at their commencement, shall continue to be official Members of it during the whole of its sittings for that year; even when it may be necessary, for the completion of its business, that it should occasionally assemble after the election of the new President or Secretary shall have taken place. (Minutes, vol. v. [1824], p. 528.)

51. Stations in the Conference.—(1) The Stations shall be presented twice in the Conference, for a First and a Final Reading.

(2) In the First Reading of the Stations, the names of the Ministers shall not be read out one by one, but the Secretary shall call the names of the Circuits, and any member of the Conference shall be at liberty to question, or raise a discussion upon, any proposed appointment. In the Final Reading, the usage shall be observed of making changes only when all parties are agreed. (Minutes, 1892, p. 218.)

52. Extra Sitting of the Stationing Committee.—After the first reading of the Stations, the Committee may, when it is deemed expedient, retire for the further consideration of the Stations. (Minutes, 1888, p. 317.)

53. Re-appointment of Ministers to Circuits.—The term during which a Minister must be absent from a Circuit in England or Wales, before he can be re-appointed, shall be three years. (Minutes, 1889, p. 304.) He may then return, provided that the invitation of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is substantially unanimous. (Minutes, 1890, p. 207.)

N.B.—In relation to Scotland, a similar resolution was adopted in 1866. (Minutes, vol. xvi. [1866], p. 589.)

54. Additional Years.—In every case, whether in town or country, where an appointment is made beyond the limit of three years, such cases shall be considered year by year. The Conference attaches to any extension of the Term beyond three years the following safeguards:

(1) That the invitation be given, as our polity requires, from year to year.

(2) That in no case shall such an extension be made where there is not practical unanimity in regard to it in the Quarterly Meeting or in the Committee to which the power of invitation belongs.

(3) Each invitation, with a record of the reasons for it, and the vote of the Quarterly Meeting or any Committee acting under the authority of the Conference, shall be reported to the Stationing Committee, which shall meet, if necessary, specially for the purpose; and by the Stationing Committee be reported to the Conference, with a recommendation upon it. (Minutes, 1905, p. 369; 1911, p. 96 (4).)

Ministers appointed to act under the direction of a Departmental Committee shall, if re-appointment be desired by the Committee, be annually invited by that Committee, and dealt with by the Conference as in the case of Ministers in Circuits and Missions. (Minutes 1906, p. 336.)

55. A "Supply" in relation to a Third Year Appointment.—A Probationer sent by the President, before Christmas, as a Supply, is not thereby disqualified for appointment for a third year to the Circuit where he served as a Supply. (Minutes, 1887, pp. 193, 194.)

56. University Degrees.—(1) For the future, no Minister shall be entitled to have his Degree printed in the Minutes until the approval of the Probationers' Examination Committee has been obtained.

(2) In the case of every Degree printed in the Minutes, the source of the Degree shall be stated, except in the case of that of Doctor of Divinity received before the Conference of 1895.

(3) Degrees obtained from a Foreign University, by means of Examinations conducted in this country, shall not be printed in the Minutes. (Minutes, 1893, pp. 227, 228; 1895, p. 225.)

(4) The Conference resolves that, in addition to the statement of the sources of Degrees, the prefix (Hon.) shall be put before all British or Foreign Degrees in Arts, Law, and Science, if they be Honorary. (Minutes, 1903, p. 357.)

(5) The Conference directs that in future Honorary Degrees shall only be recognised if they proceed from Corporations which have a full University Status. (Minutes, 1903, p. 358.)

(6) In view of the extension of University facilities for ad eundem degrees, such degrees shall not in future be printed in the Minutes. (Journal, 1906.)

57. Ministers for whom no Circuit can be found by the Stationing Committee.—The name of any Minister for whom no Circuit can be found by the Stationing Committee shall be omitted from the first Draft of Stations, a report being presented by the Stationing Committee to the Conference, as to the reasons for such action. The Conference shall in all such cases, on the first day of the Pastoral Session, appoint a Special Committee to consider and report to the Conference. Notification of the action of the Stationing Committee shall be given to the Minister for whom no Circuit can be found, and the regulations of the Conference relating to the right of appeal in such cases shall be observed. (Minutes, 1909, p. 361.)

V. Departments.

58. Designations and Nominations for Appointment to Departmental Offices.—(1) On any vacancy or vacancies arising in any Departmental Offices by death, retirement, expiration of term, or otherwise, the General Committee of the Department shall prepare a report concerning such vacancy or vacancies. This report shall contain a reasoned statement as to the particular features of the appointment which has to be made.

(2) The Committee may also submit the name of one or more Ministers, not exceeding three, whom it deems suitable for the vacancy.

(3) The Committee of any Department in which a vacancy occurs, shall, prior to making any report or suggestion, appoint a Sub-Committee, which shall carefully consider the whole matter and advise the General Committee respecting it. In the case of the Theological Institution, the Local Committee may report and recommend names to the General Institution Committee as they do at present.

(4) On the presentation of the names by the Committee of the Department for designation or appointment, the Conference, in its Representative Session, shall retain the right to add other names, and shall take at least one ballot, and then if an absolute majority has been secured, and the Conference thinks fit, it may by open vote pass on the result of the first ballot to the Pastoral Session.

(5) After the first vote has been taken it shall be open to any member of the Representative Session to move that the Standing Order which requires three names to be submitted to the Pastoral Session for designation or appointment to Departmental Offices be suspended in a particular case.

Should the motion for suspension of the Standing Order be carried in full Conference by a two-thirds majority, the Representative Session may submit either one name or two as may be deemed expedient. In all such cases the Pastoral Session shall have the right to nominate an additional name, or if need be, two additional names to bring the number up to three, before proceeding to the Ballot.

The Nominee or Nominees of the Representative Session must always be included in the three on which the final ballot is taken, should the Pastoral Session decide in any given case to increase the number of Nominees. (Minutes, 1913, p. 101.)

(6) In any case of emergency which arises during the Representative Session involving immediate appointment, the Conference shall determine its own method of procedure, but in each case three names shall be sent forward to the Pastoral Session.

(7) In any case of emergency which arises after the close of the Representative Session, the Pastoral Session shall have the right to appoint without a previous nomination.

(8) Appointments to Departmental Offices shall be in the first instance, as now, for a period not exceeding six years, but all re-appointments in the future shall be for three years only, and when any re-appointment is made the number of votes cast in each case shall be reported. (Minutes, 1911, pp. 92, 93.)

59. Elections to Departmental Offices.—In any new appointment to a Departmental Office, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken on the first two—or, if necessary, the first three—names on the list which have the largest number of votes. (Minutes, 1883, p. 183.)

60. Departmental Appointments.—In future no Minister shall be set apart for the work of a new Department without the question of such an appointment having been referred to the Synods for their judgment. (Minutes, 1903, p. 114.)

61. Nomination of Ministers to Departments.—If any question seriously affecting ministerial character or fidelity should be raised upon a proposed name in the Representative Session of the Conference, the nominations for designation for appointment to the office in question shall be postponed without discussion to the Representative Session of the following Conference, when the nominations shall be made under the regulations affecting nominations in cases of emergency for immediate appointment. By this arrangement the objection would be considered and decided by the Pastoral Session of the Conference in the Representative Session of which it has been raised. (Minutes, 1904, p. 112.)

62. Ministers appointed to Act under the Direction of a Departmental Committee.—Ministers appointed to act under the direction of a Departmental Committee, shall, if re-appointment be desired by the Committee, be annually invited by that Committee and dealt with by the Conference as in the case of Ministers in Circuits and Missions. (Minutes, 1906, p. 336.)

63. Vacancies among Lay Members of the Conference.—If any Treasurer of a Connexional Fund be unable to attend the Conference, the Committee of the Fund in question shall, at its last meeting previous to the Conference, elect one of its Lay members to represent the Fund at that Conference, in the place of the Treasurer. Should the Committee fail to appoint a substitute, the Nomination Committee shall so appoint. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340; 1908, p. 112.)

64. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several Departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Session, be furnished with all necessary statistical information on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up. (Minutes, vol. ix. [1840], p. 105.)

VI. Army and Navy Work.

65. Instructions to Chairmen and Superintendents in Foreign Districts.—The Chairmen and Superintendents of our Foreign Mission Districts and Stations where there are Garrison and Naval Ports are instructed to make such arrangements with the Naval and Military authorities as may be necessary for the benefit of Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, in concert with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

66. Reports and Returns to District Synods.—All Ministers working for the benefit of Soldiers and Sailors in Stations where Methodist Homes already exist, or shall be established, shall include in their quarterly Reports an account of the work done in the Homes; and at the May Synods the financial condition of such Homes shall be reported, as in the case of other Trust properties. (Minutes, 1887, p. 227.)

The following information shall be presented from each of our Military and Naval Stations to the May Synods; together with a Report of the work done for the benefit of our Soldiers and Sailors:

(1) The number of declared Methodists in the Army and Royal Navy, including the Coastguard, taken for December 31 of each year.

(2) The number of Members of Society in the Army and Royal Navy, including the wives and children of Soldiers and Seamen.

(3) The average attendance at divine service during the year.

(4) The amount of capitation and other official payments for the year.

In the case of Home Stations, these Reports and Returns shall be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel

Committee, which shall present them, with needful remarks thereupon, to the Synod. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

67. Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.—In addition to the Connexional sanction already required by our Rules before any property can be acquired for Methodist purposes, Ministers or other persons connected with our Societies contemplating the erection or acquisition of a Soldiers' or Sailors' Home shall communicate with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; and no binding arrangements shall be entered into until the written consent of the Home Mission Committee and of the Missionary Committee respectively shall have been received. (Minutes, 1887, p. 227.)

68. Army and Navy Ministers in relation to Circuit Work.—Ministers who are appointed to Army and Navy Work are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit in which they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may give such help to the Circuit as they can, but only by arrangement in writing between the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Synod, subject to the before-mentioned conditions. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

69. Capitation Payments and Pastoral Duties. — Wherever capitation payments are received on behalf of our Methodist Soldiers and Seamen, the pastoral duties which are entailed thereby shall be strictly fulfilled, and every facility and encouragement given to the men, their wives, and families to become attached to the services of the chapels in which, by these payments, they are now seatholders. (Minutes, 1888, p. 311.)

VII. Synods.

70. District Synods, 1915.—The Annual Meetings of the several District Synods shall be held between May 9 and 16, with the exception of those of the First North Wales, Second North Wales, South Wales, Nottingham and Derby, Lincoln, Hull, Isle of Man, and Scotland Districts.

71. District Synods and Attendance of Ministers.—The attendance of all the Ministers at their respective Synods (unless they are excused by dispensation of the Synod) is required by the Conference. No Minister shall be permitted subsequently to answering the questions affecting character to absent himself from any of the sessions of the Synod without the permission of the Chairman. In consequence of the serious and growing habit of Ministers absenting themselves from attendance at the Sessions of the Synod, or only remaining for a brief period of time, the above regulations shall be printed in the form summoning the Ministers to the Meetings of the Synod. As Supernumeraries are required to attend the May Synod, their expenses shall be paid by the Financial Secretary and included in the Synod Assessment to the Circuits of the District. (Minutes, 1911, p. 348.)

72. Returns of Bible-classes and P.S.A.'s.—The Secretary of the Sunday-School Department shall obtain the information from the Secretaries of the Districts. The Returns of P.S.A.'s are to be made in three columns. (Minutes, 1903, p. 359; 1906, p. 106.)

73. Lord's Day Observance.—The Temperance Committee of each District shall take direct oversight of the Lord's Day Question, and shall inquire in the District Synod what is being done to promote the due observance of the Lord's Day. (Minutes, 1896, p. 331; 1913, p. 66.)

74. Isle of Man District.—It shall be a part of the business of the September Synod of the Isle of Man District to call the attention of Superintendents, and other Ministers who may be responsible, to the Regulations concerning certain Quarterly Returns to the Registrar-General of the island, according to the provisions of the "Dissenters' Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1885," of the Isle of Man. (Minutes, 1885, p. 285.)

75. Election of Ministers to attend the Conference in its Representative Session.—(1) The election shall be by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who desire to attend the Conference.

(2) The Ministers so elected shall have permission to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session.

(3) The Ministers necessary to complete the number permitted to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session shall then be elected.

(4) In the event of any Minister elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session offering to provide for himself, his election shall not thereby be rendered void. (Minutes, 1886, p. 199.)

76. Election of Lay Representatives to the Conference.—No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected by the Conference, or by the May Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his election, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a Member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a Member of a Synod. Any Layman nominated in a Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 420.)

Duly qualified and elected women shall be eligible as Lay Representatives to the Conference.

The election of Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay Members only. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 421.)

77. Substitutes for Representatives to Conference.—In the event of one or more of the Ministers or Laymen elected by the Synod to attend the Conference in its Representative Session being unable to fulfil their appointments, they shall inform the Chairman of the District before the beginning of the Representative Session, and their place or places shall then be taken by the person or persons who received the highest number of votes next to those elected. (Minutes, 1895, p. 325.)

78. Re-election of Synod Committees.—The Regulations in regard to the District Committees having charge of Foreign Missions and Sunday and Day School affairs shall apply also to the District Temperance and Local Preachers' Committees; namely, that one Lay Member shall retire annually, but shall be eligible for re-election on the vote of two-thirds of the Synod. (Minutes, 1902, p. 114; 1908, p. 112.)

79. Class-leaders' Committee.—At the September Synod of each District a Class-leaders' Committee shall be appointed, to consist of the Chairman, the Financial Secretary, and four other Ministers and six Lay Class-leaders. (Minutes, 1908, p. 97.)

Each Synod shall have power to associate with the members of the District Class-leaders' Committee other Class-leaders of the District, provided that the Leaders so associated shall not thereby become members of the Synod. (Minutes, 1905, p. 93.)

80. District Temperance Committee.—The Temperance Committee consists of the Chairman of the District, the Financial Secretary, four other Ministers and six Laymen, who shall thereby become members of the Synod. One Layman retires annually by rotation. (Minutes, 1883, p. 242; 1893, p. 309; 1909, p. 116.)

81. District Temperance Committee.—Each Synod shall have power to associate with the District Temperance Committee other Ministers and Laymen interested in the subject of Temperance, provided always that the Laymen so added shall not thereby become members of the Synod. (Minutes, 1903, p. 114; 1905, p. 118.)

82. District Guild Secretary.—At each September Synod a Ministerial District Guild Secretary shall be appointed, and shall be an ex-officio member of the District Guild Council. (Journal, 1904; Minutes, 1913, p. 101.)

The Conference directs that in order that the Returns of all Young People's Societies other than Branches of the Wesley Guild may be presented to Conference, the Returns of such Societies as are now given in the President's Circular shall be obtained through all Synod Guild Secretaries and reported in the Wesley Guild Conference Agenda. (Journal, 1913, p. 61.)

83. Auxiliary Fund.—All subscriptions, collections, and other moneys received in the Circuits for the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund shall be paid to the District Treasurer and be remitted by him to the General Treasurer. (Minutes, 1906, p. 108.)

84. The Synods and Provisional Legislation.—The Conference resolves that inasmuch as the purpose of the Conference in submitting new legislation to the Synods is to ascertain their mind on the proposals laid before them, this provision of our Constitution permits them to suggest amendments to such legislation if they so desire. (Minutes, 1911, p. 367.)

VIII. Chairmen.

85. Election of Chairmen of Districts.—In the appointment of a Chairman of a District, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast, and according to the Standing Order relating to Elections to Departmental Offices. See Standing Order 59. (Minutes, 1886, p. 295.)

86. Resolutions on Pastoral Work and Probationers in their First Circuit.—A copy of the "Resolutions on Pastoral Work" shall be presented, under the direction of the Chairman of each District, to every Probationer on his first appointment to a Circuit. (Minutes, 1885, p. 183.)

87. Discipline of Methodism.—The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at the May Synods in reference to the several points of discipline specified on pp. 516-522 of Minutes, 1902.

88. Monthly Meetings of Ministers in Large Towns.—The Preachers of different Circuits, when resident in the same town, shall meet at least once in every month for mutual conference and prayer, to promote brotherly love, and to afford frequent and regular opportunities for friendly consultation on subjects of common concern in their respective Circuits. (Minutes, vol. vi. [1827], p. 281.)

89. Home Missionary Ministers.—A special inquiry shall be made at the May Synods whether the Regulations for the employment of Home Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home Missionary Ministers are appointed; and a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1862], p. 327.)

90. Changes of Ministerial Appointments.—Whenever any change of Ministers which it may be necessary to make in the intervals of the Conference takes place, the Minister or Ministers so removed shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Synod in which he or they reside. (Minutes, 1903, p. 360.)

91. Additional or Fewer Ministers.—All applications for additional Ministers, or for the reduction of the number of Ministers in any Circuit, shall be considered by the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, which shall report thereon to the May Synod. (Journal, 1894.)

92. Interchanges of Ministers.—The expense of interchanges appointed by the Conference between Ministers residing in various Circuits shall in no case fall upon the Ministers themselves, but shall be provided by the Circuits concerned, under the direction of the Synod. (Minutes, 1878, p. 252.)

93. Grants for Affliction.—Application for Grants for Affliction from the Connexional Fund must be submitted to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee before being presented to the Synod. (Journal, 1904.)

94. Neutrals in Voting.—In all voting upon cases of discipline, or upon Candidates proposed for the Ministry, the number of neutrals shall be recorded. (Minutes, 1894, p. 226.)

95. Probationers and Reports concerning General Fitness.—The District Synod shall be required to declare their judgment year by year as to the general fitness for our work in all its details of the Preachers on Trial resident in the several Districts. This judgment shall be furnished to the Committee for the oversight of Preachers on Trial. (Minutes, 1909, p. 358.)

96. Probationers to be Received into Full Connexion.—Before a Probationer is recommended to be received into Full Connexion, the several reports on his case from his acceptance as a Candidate, or a summary of them, shall be presented to the Synod, together with the judgment upon them of the Committee for the oversight of Preachers on Trial. This Committee shall have power to recommend to the Synod, either that a Probationer's acceptance into Full Connexion be deferred, or made conditional upon his satisfying further tests. (Minutes, 1909, p. 358.)

97. Trial Sermons of Candidates for Ordination.—Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May Synod, preach in the presence of three Ministers of the District, who shall report, in writing, to the Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 403.)

98. Examination of Candidates for Ordination.—(1) Before any Probationer, having travelled four years, is recommended by his Synod for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful examination, by the Chairman of that Synod, respecting his acquaintance with Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament. (Minutes, vol. iv. [1815], p. 122.)

This Oral Examination may be omitted if the report on the Probationer's paper on Wesley's Works is satisfactory. (Minutes, 1896, p. 197.)

(2) Every such Preacher shall also be examined as to his knowledge of the Constitution of Methodism and the Administration of Circuits; and as to whether, after four years' experience of its working, he still approves our discipline. (Minutes, 1897, p. 207.)

(3) The Welsh Assembly has power to arrest the Ordination of any Candidate for Ordination in the Welsh Districts, but not to proceed to Ordination in cases where the Welsh Synods decline to recommend. (Minutes, 1909, p. 360.)

99. Probationers and Wesley's Works.—Those Probationers who do not already possess Wesley's Works are required to procure them during the period of their Probation, and shall be allowed to pay for them to our Book Steward by such instalments as may best suit their convenience. (Minutes, 1882, p. 224.)

100. Probationers' Reading.—The Examination Committee shall prepare and send to each Probationer, early in October, a list of books specially recommended for the reading of Preachers on Trial, some of which shall have particular reference to the Scriptural Doctrine of the Church. With this shall be sent a classified form on which the Probationer shall describe his reading, theological and general, for the year.

This form is to be sent in to the Chairman of the District at least a week before the meeting of the May Synod. When the Book Lists of Preachers on Trial are under consideration in the Synods, the Chairmen shall note how far their reading has been guided by the recommended list. (Minutes, 1897, p. 221.)

101. Probationers and the Synods.—Whenever practicable, Probationers shall preach during the Synods. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 403.)

102. Probationers returning from the Mission Field.—If a Probationer enter upon the Home Work after spending part of his probation on the Foreign Field, the Missionary Secretaries shall furnish the Chairman of the District to which he is appointed with a report upon each year of the Probation which has been spent abroad. This Report shall be laid by the Chairman before the May Synod. (Minutes, 1896, p. 229.)

103. Probation of University Graduates.—Candidates for the Ministry who have obtained a Degree in any University of the United Kingdom shall not, of necessity, spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution, but, on the recommendation of their Tutors, the term of their residence may be shortened. And in such case, their Probation shall commence at the Conference next ensuing. (Minutes, 1886, p. 203; see also Minutes, 1895, p. 334, § 8.)

104. Administration of the Sacraments by Probationers.—The Stationing Committee shall prepare, year by year, for the Conference decision, a list of appointments to which this privilege may be granted. In cases of special emergency which may arise during the year, application for a dispensation to a Probationer to administer the Sacraments shall be made to the President through the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1892, p. 219; 1902, p. 359.)

105. Candidates for the Ministry.—(1) Whenever a Superintendent recommends his son as a Candidate for the Ministry, the character of the Candidate shall be signed also by his colleague or colleagues. In cases in which the Superintendent is appointed to a solitary Station, the character of the Candidate shall be countersigned by the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

No Candidate shall be nominated until he has been heard by the Superintendent and by his Colleagues. Full opportunity should also be given to the members of the Quarterly Meeting to hear the Candidate before the nomination is made. (Minutes, 1908, p. 354.)

It is required that in the written character of Candidates for the Ministry the Superintendent shall give information as to whether the Candidate has had "fruit" to his preaching.

(2) Whilst, as a general rule, Candidates must be fully accredited local preachers, this does not apply to exceptional cases. (Minutes, 1906, p. 333.)

(3) Those Candidates for the Ministry who are recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the May Synod, preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the Synod, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special Report of the Sermons shall be made in the District Synod, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates. (Minutes, vol. x. [1844], p. 91.)

(4) Arrangements shall be made by the May Synods for the hearing of each Candidate by three Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the Synod; and such Ministers shall suggest a mark and immediately forward their Report to the Rev. ARTHUR E. SHARPLEY, B.A., B.D., 18, Margaret Road, Harborne, Birmingham. (Minutes, 1889, p. 194; 1908, p. 354.)

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate; two preached, and one sent in manuscript. (Minutes, 1889, p. 193.)

(5) Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

106. System of Marking in Examinations.—(1) In valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 shall be adopted; number 1 being the highest value, and 7 the lowest.

(2) The seven grades shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very Good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very Poor. Also, that the marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; "average" quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair). (Minutes, 1888, p. 214.)

107. Candidates for the Ministry and the Large Minutes.—The Summary of Methodist Law and Discipline takes the place of the Large Minutes, and Candidates are required to read the Abridgment. (Minutes, 1905, p. 367.)

108. Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts.—Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work. (Minutes, 1889, p. 317.)

109. Circulars to Members of the Synod.—The Chairman shall send a Circular to the Lay Members of his Synod requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the May Synod; specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been specially remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 402.)

A similar Circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the September Synod.

All Ministers who are members of the Synod shall also be summoned thereto by circular. (Minutes, 1897, p. 243.)

110. Sanitary Condition of Ministers' Houses.—Circuit Stewards are required to have an inspection of every Minister's house, at every change of Minister, by an independent sanitary expert, and wherever possible such inspection shall be by the Sanitary Inspector of the Local Authority, and to forward a certificate of the good sanitary condition of the house to the Chairman of the District before August 21.

Attention shall be called to these requirements at the May Synod, and inquiry shall be made at the September Synod whether this requirement of the Conference has been carried out. (Minutes, 1893, p. 327; 1894, p. 323; 1905, p. 118; 1908, p. 113; 1911, p. 95.)

111. Insurance of Trust Property.—The District Home Mission and Chapel Committee shall see year by year that the Trust Properties are fully insured and report to the Synod. A Report shall be presented to the Quarterly Meeting once every year as to the amount for which the several Trust Properties in the Circuit are insured. (Minutes, 1906, p. 109.)

112. Suggestions to Conference from the Synods.—A copy of any Suggestion from a Synod to the Conference relating to a Connexional Department shall be sent immediately after the Synod to the Secretary of the Department concerned. (Minutes, 1891, p. 323.)

113. Copies of District Minutes.—Chairmen of Districts are required to procure two complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the Synods, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Synods shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary.

One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records; the other shall be sent to the Rev. JOHN E. WAKERLEY, 85, Newmarket Road, Norwich, not later than June 1, and delivered by him to the President on the first day of the Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion.

The copies of the latter class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

The District Secretary is required to furnish the Chairman with such extracts from the District Minutes as he will need at the Conference. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1799], p. 24; vol. vii. [1835], p. 554; vol. xx. [1877], p. 514; 1881, pp. 307, 308; 1890, p. 326.)

114. Minor Synod.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor Synod is rendered necessary, except under the Regulation of 1840, such Synod shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides; the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, and the Chairman of the District other two; the six thus chosen, together with the Chairman of the District, to constitute the Minor Synod.

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers to act as members of the meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them, so that the number required by rule may be made up. (Minutes, vol. ix. [1840], p. 94; vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154; 1894, p. 217.)

In the case of the trial of an Appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit, the two members of the Minor Synod added by the legislation of 1894 shall be nominated by the President of the Conference. (Minutes, 1897, p. 241.)

115. Substitute for the Chairman of a District.—When the Chairman of a District is unable to attend any meeting of his Synod, a Chairman for the occasion shall be elected by the Synod from among the Ministers then present. (Minutes, 1891, p. 230.)

116. Trial of the Chairman of a District.—In case of any complaint arising against the Chairman of a District, in reference to either his personal or his official conduct, the accuser, after duly apprising the Chairman of his intention, shall place his complaint in the hands of the President of the Conference for the time being, who shall have authority (if he deem such a course necessary or expedient) to summon a Meeting, consisting of the President of the Conference, the Secretary of the Conference (who shall act as Convener of the meeting), and twelve other Ministers who are in Full Connexion with the Conference, of whom six, wherever practicable, shall be chosen from among the Ministers of the District of which the accused is Chairman (each party having the right to challenge any or all of the persons first nominated by the President), and to place the Chairman on his trial before them.

If the guilt of the accused be proved, the Meeting shall have power to suspend him till the ensuing Conference, or to depose him from the chair; and in that case the members of the Synod concerned shall, as in the case of the death of a Chairman, elect another Chairman.

The above Resolution shall not apply to the legislation of 1835 (Minutes, vol. vii. [1835], p. 581) relative to the trial of an Appeal against a sentence of expulsion pronounced by the Chairman of a District in the capacity of Superintendent of a Circuit. (Minutes, 1894, p. 217.)

IX. Superintendents.

117. Weekly Meetings of Ministers.—Ministers appointed to the same Circuit shall meet together once a week, or as often as practicable, in order to converse freely respecting the affairs of their Circuit. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1806], p. 348.)

118. Reading of Resolutions on Pastoral Work.—These Resolutions shall be read at each May Synod, and at the Ministers' Meeting of each Circuit in September. Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry at the May Synod concerning the due observance of this Regulation. (Minutes, 1885, pp. 356–366.)

119. Probationers and the Lord's Supper.—Superintendents are required to make the necessary arrangements, on their Circuit Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this Holy Sacrament. (Minutes, vol. x. [1844], pp. 91, 92.)

120. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—All the Ministers and Probationers appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 121.)

121. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—Superintendents are directed to appoint special Society Meetings, to be held at the principal chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations. (Minutes, vol. viii. [1838], p. 360.)

122. The Covenant Service in Villages.—As many of the members of our Church in Village Societies cannot take part in the annual Covenant Service when held only in our principal chapels, the Conference directs Superintendents to arrange, when necessary, for additional Covenant Services for the smaller Societies, to be conducted by Ministers on the week-nights at the commencement of the new year; and that, in connexion with these Services, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be administered. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

123. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.—The Conference is impressed with the advisability of arranging for the more frequent administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper on week-days in those places where it is difficult to arrange for its administration on Sundays. The Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits to pay special attention to this important matter. (Minutes, 1896, p. 230.)

124. Annual Circuit Meeting of Class Leaders.—An Annual Meeting of Class Leaders shall be established in every circuit. The Meeting shall consist of all the Ministers and Preachers on trial appointed to the Circuit, and all the Class Leaders and Assistant Leaders in the Circuit. Junior Class Leaders shall be entitled to attend the meeting, but not to vote, unless they have attained the age of twenty-one years. The meeting shall be held annually at a time to be fixed by the September, or, where desirable, by the June Quarterly Meeting. The Quarterly Meeting shall also appoint a Circuit Secretary. The Superintendent Minister is authorised to call special meetings when necessary. (Minutes, 1909, p. 93; 1912, p. 368.)

125. Quarterly Fast-days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the following year, are Fridays, October 2, 1914; January 1, April 1, and June 25, 1915. (Minutes, vol. i. [1767], p. 73; vol. v. [1821], p. 249.)

126. Admission of Members.—Rule of 1797. It is not intended that the names of all those who are on Trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on Trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to such person at the Quarterly Visitation. (Minutes, 1880, p. 265.)

127. Recognition of New Members.—The public and formal Recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage the New Members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition should be associated, wherever practicable, with the Public Service on the Lord's Day, morning or evening, and be followed by the administration of the Lord's Supper. In some Places it might be found more expedient to recognise New Members at a Society Meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week-evening service.

The Conference therefore directs that, at least two or three times a year, if practicable, meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held in every Circuit, the frequency and exact nature of such meetings being left to the discretion of the Superintendent. (See "Form of Service," Minutes, 1894, pp. 448–454.)

If, upon inquiry, it be found that any person, in other respects eligible for recognition, has not received Christian Baptism, that Sacrament shall be administered before the recognition of that person, and, if not otherwise, in connexion with the Recognition Service. (Minutes, 1878, p. 186; 1885, p. 278.)

128. Quarterly Returns of Membership.—Where practicable, the numbers for each Society shall be read in the Leaders' Meeting immediately before each Quarter Day. (Minutes, 1893, p. 228.)

129. Annual Return of Members.—The number of Members in the Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported at the Synods, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference.

These Returns of Members in the Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May Synods, to the Rev. John Bell, Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.

130. Membership Bureau.—The operations of the Bureau extend to the whole of the Connexion, to the Colonies, Foreign Stations, and the United States of America.

All removal notes for the United Kingdom are to be sent to the Rev. J. Alfred Sharp, Secretary, 25 and 27, City Road, London, E.C. (Minutes, 1908, p. 116.)

All removal notes of Emigrants are to be sent to the Rev. Simpson Johnson, Secretary of Methodist Brotherhood, Central Buildings, Westminster, S.W.

131. The Society Meeting.—(1) The whole Society in each place shall, wherever possible, be called together, by appointment on the Circuit Plan, at least once a quarter, for purposes of general fellowship amongst its members, for testimony concerning Christian experience, and for pastoral guidance and common counsel in the things of the kingdom of God, both as touching personal religion and the work of God in the congregation and neighbourhood.

(2) At the Society Meeting new members, after being reported to the Leaders' Meeting, shall be introduced by their Leaders to receive the right hand of fellowship. Members transferred from other Societies, or other Churches, shall be introduced. Baptisms that have taken place since the preceding meeting, and losses suffered through death or through the removal of any members of the Church, shall be reported. New appointments, and retirements of Class-leaders and Stewards, shall be announced. At the first meeting in the New Year the Roll of Membership, containing the names of all fully accredited members on the Class-books, as reported to the Leaders' Meeting, may be read in the Society, and each member shall be expected to answer to his name. It is recommended that once in the year, if not more frequently, the Society Meeting shall conclude with the observance of the Lord's Supper.

(3) None but members of our Church, with those on trial for membership, shall be admitted to the Meeting of the Society. It is desirable that the Quarterly Ticket of membership should be brought to the Meeting, and shown at the door on entrance. (Minutes, 1908, p. 581; 1909, pp. 100, 364.)

132. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], p. 541 ; vol. xviii. [1872], p. 656.)

133. The Conference directs that in all our Circuits separate Minute Books shall be kept for cases of Discipline in Leaders' Meetings, and for such cases in Local Preachers' Meetings as seriously affect the moral character of Local Preachers ; and that such Minute Books shall be under the care of the Superintendent Minister of the Circuit for the time being, who shall be responsible for their safe custody.

134. Trial of Trustees.—If a charge is brought against a Trustee, then there shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting before which the charge is investigated the Trustees of the chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected ; or, if there is no such chapel, then the Trustees of the chapel in connexion with the principal Society in the Circuit town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of Society in the same Circuit. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1872], p. 656.)

135. Custody of Trust Deeds.—The Conference recommends that a Fire-proof Safe be provided in each Circuit, and that all Deeds relating to Trust Property be carefully preserved therein.

136. Register of Trust Deeds.—A Register of all Deeds and Documents relating to Trust Properties in the Circuit shall be preserved in a book ; and the Deeds and Documents shall be compared with this Register annually by the Superintendent Minister and the Circuit Chapel Secretary, or by some other person to be appointed for the purpose by the Annual United Trustees' Meeting.

137. Names and Addresses of Trustees.—The Superintendent shall annually revise the Names, Addresses, and Occupations of the Trustees of all our Trust Properties, as entered in the Circuit Book. (Minutes, 1891, p. 259.)

138. Political Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Trust Premises.—Having regard to the fact that in some Places a desire has been expressed to use our Trust Property for the purpose of Political Meetings, the Conference declares that such uses are not contemplated by the provisions of any of our Trust Deeds; and it reminds Superintendents and Trustees that our Trust Properties can only be lawfully used for the purposes provided for in the Trust Deeds.

The Conference expresses the conviction that any such use of the Premises as that suggested would be detrimental to the best interests of our Societies by endangering their peace and unity. (Minutes, vol. vii. [1834], p. 420; 1885, p. 185.)

In regard to allowing the use of Wesleyan Methodist Trust Property for meetings of Parish Councils, see Minutes, 1894, p. 323.

139. Voting in our Chapels on Municipal and other Matters.—It is not within the province of any person occupying our pulpits to submit Resolutions and take votes on municipal and semi-political matters, nor to ask the congregation to vote thereon at the close of the service in our Chapels on the Lord's Day. (Minutes, 1904, p. 361.)

140. Friendly Societies and Meetings on Trust Premises.—Friendly Societies and Approved Societies under the Insurance Act may be encouraged to hold their Meetings in Wesleyan Methodist Schools or Vestries, especially where there is no other public building available for the purpose; care being taken to avoid any action which would render the Trust property liable to rates. (Minutes, 1896, p. 333.)

141. Discontinuance of Public Services.—Before Public Services are finally discontinued in any Chapel held on a Connexional Trust, at least three months' notice of such intention shall be given by the Superintendent Minister to the District Home Mission and Chapel Committee, and also to the General Secretary of the Home Mission Committee, in order that steps may be taken, if thought advisable, to avoid such a necessity. (Minutes, 1905, p. 118.)

142. Entertainments on Trust Premises.—The Conference has reason to believe that in certain localities entertainments have been allowed which are, to say the least, highly inexpedient, and that in a few cases the practice obtains of holding entertainments which are altogether inconsistent with the purposes for which our property is held in Trust. The Conference therefore directs that the greatest possible care must be taken not to allow premises set apart for religious purposes to be used for entertainments which would bring a reproach upon the Church or constitute a ground of offence to our people generally. The Conference further urges Ministers and Trustees to exercise a wise discrimination in regard to these matters, especially in view of the fact that certain entertainments which may be innocent in themselves are associated in the public mind with the gambling spirit of the age, and are altogether at variance with the objects for which the Methodist Church exists. At the same time the Conference is of opinion that in certain localities where the people have little opportunity of wholesome recreation, such recreation may with advantage be permitted. (Minutes, 1908, p. 107.)

The Conference regrets to find that in a few cases Trustees have proposed to apply for a Dramatic Licence for the purpose of allowing dramatic entertainments on our premises, and that in some parts of the country entertainments and amusements have been countenanced which ought not to be associated with places set apart for Religious Worship or for Sunday Schools. The Conference strongly disapproves of any application for Licences that might give the impression that our Trust property could under any condition be used for the purposes mentioned, which are so alien to the traditions, character, and aims of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. The Conference declares that Dancing, Card-playing, Games of Chance, Entertainments which legally require a Dramatic Licence, and

Amusements of a frivolous and vulgar type are contrary to the "General rules and usages of the people called Methodists" as affecting the use of our Trust property, and cannot be allowed. (Minutes, 1909, p. 109.)

143. Expulsion of Members.—Inasmuch as a Superintendent is directed to bring before the weekly meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit every case of proposed expulsion of a Member, in order that he may have the advantage of hearing the opinions and advice of his colleagues and co-pastors, before he shall finally decide on the course he ought to adopt; the Conference directs that when the Superintendent has not a colleague, and cannot therefore consult a weekly meeting of the Preachers of the Circuit, he shall, in every case of the proposed expulsion of a Member of Society, take counsel with the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1898, p. 253.)

144. Modification of the Leaders' Meeting.—(1) The representation of our members in Local Church Management shall be secured by the enlargement of the Leaders' Meeting.

(2) The elected members of the Leaders' Meeting shall be in the proportion of one in fifty, or fraction of fifty, members of Society in connexion with that Leaders' Meeting up to four hundred, thus providing for a maximum of eight elected members.

(3) Persons thus elected to the Leaders' Meeting shall thereby become members of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

(4) Persons eligible for election to the Leaders' Meeting shall be not less than twenty-one years of age, and shall have been in continuous full membership for at least three years.

(5) Persons eligible to take part in the election of representatives to the Leaders' Meeting shall have been full members for at least twelve months, and shall be not less than twenty-one years of age. This shall not exclude from voting those persons who are already members of the Quarterly Meeting.

(6) Representatives to the Leaders' Meeting shall be chosen after nomination, either by open voting or by ballot, as the Meeting of Members may determine. The nomination shall be made in the Meeting by any member who is eligible to take part in the election. The election in each case shall be for one year, provided the membership be maintained.

(7) The election of representatives shall take place annually at an aggregate Devotional Meeting of the Members of each Society, to be held as early in the year as conveniently possible, and shall be presided over by the Superintendent Minister or one of his colleagues; the members to be admitted to the Meeting by showing their ticket of membership for the previous Quarter. If a vacancy in the number of the Elected Representatives should through any cause occur during the year, the place may be filled at a Society Meeting duly called, and constituted, as in the case of the Meeting described in the preceding paragraph. (Minutes, 1908, p. 108; 1911, p. 95.)

(8) The disciplinary functions of the enlarged Leaders' Meeting shall be the same as those exercised by the Leaders' Meeting as heretofore constituted. (Minutes, 1908, p. 107; 1909, pp. 100 and 364; 1911, p. 348.)

(9) The chief or general Superintendent of each Sunday School shall be ex officio a member of the Leaders' Meeting of that Society with which the Sunday School is connected, he being a member of Society and not a member of any other Leaders' Meeting. (Minutes, 1913, p. 61.)

145. Appeal to the Leaders' Meeting.—No Appeal to a Leaders' Meeting shall be received against an act of Discipline by a Minister, in withholding a Ticket of Membership, after the completion of twelve months from the time when the member has been informed by the Minister of such act of Discipline. (Minutes, 1906, p. 333.)

146. Orthodoxy of Office-bearers.—No person shall, on any account, be permitted to retain any official situation in our Societies who holds opinions contrary to the total depravity of human nature, the divinity and atonement of Christ, the influence and witness of the Holy Spirit, and Christian holiness, as believed by the Methodists. (Minutes, vol. ii. [1807], p. 405.)

147. Junior Society Classes.—In connexion with our Societies, Classes shall be generally established which shall directly provide for the religious instruction of young people. They shall have as their object the early conversion of children to God, their instruction and training in Christian doctrines and morality, and the development of Christian experience and character. For these purposes Holy Scripture shall be largely used. (Minutes, 1894, p. 218.)

148. Leaders of Junior Society Classes and the Leaders' Meeting.—Leaders of Junior Society Classes shall be members of the Leaders' Meeting and the Circuit Quarterly Meeting, provided they have reached the age of twenty-one years. (Minutes, 1910, p. 104; 1911, p. 352; 1912, p. 366.)

149. Joint Circuit Committees.—For the purpose of representing, when necessary, the general interests of the Society in regard to any special purpose or object that needs to be dealt with, combined meetings of the Leaders' Meeting with the Trustees, the Sunday-school Committee, or any other local body connected with the Society, may be held occasionally. (Minutes, 1891, p. 329.)

150. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman and Financial Secretary of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting, with the name and address of any person elected to attend the May Synod in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such Synod; and also with the names and addresses of those persons, in addition to the Circuit Stewards, who have been elected as Representatives to the Synod. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1871], p. 402; 1885, p. 276; 1892, p. 311; 1893, p. 319; Journal, 1903.)

151. Lay Agents in Circuits.—(1) All Lay Agents employed in our Circuits shall be members of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, and shall be accredited as such by the Superintendents of the Circuits from which they come.

(2) A Lay Agent who is a fully accredited Local Preacher, having presented his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan to the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he is to work as a Lay Agent, shall have his name placed at the foot of the list of Local Preachers on the Circuit Plan, unless the Local Preachers' Meeting, in exercise of the power given to it by the Conference (see Minutes, 1895, p. 436), shall decide to place his name in a higher position. The words "Hired Local Preacher," "Lay Agent," or otherwise, shall be added to his name on the plan; and while employed as a Lay Agent in the Circuit, he shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting.

(3) Any Lay Agent desiring to offer himself as a Candidate for the Ministry must be proposed in and approved by the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit of which he is a member, the directions concerning the residential qualification of Candidates for the Ministry being strictly observed.

(4) If a Lay Agent is not a Local Preacher, his name shall appear on the Circuit Plan, but not among the names of the Preachers. He shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Preachers' Meeting in the same manner as Exhorters are subjected to that jurisdiction by the provisions of our Discipline. (Minutes, 1895, pp. 435, 438; 1898, p. 360.)

152. Circuit Missionary Accounts.—In no Circuit shall the Missionary Accounts for the year be closed until they have been passed by the Local or Circuit Missionary Committee, and duly signed by the Superintendent of the Circuit. (Minutes, 1898, p. 361.)

153. Prison Chaplains.—Superintendent Ministers of Circuits in which County or Borough Prisons are situate are required to furnish each year in September to the Ministerial Secretary of the Home Mission's Prisons Sub-Committee the name and address of a Minister in the Circuit for recognition by the Governor of such jail as authorised to visit any Wesleyan prisoners. (Minutes, 1903, p. 362.)

154. County Asylums and Civil Prisons.—The Pastoral oversight of Wesleyans in County Asylums shall be regarded as part of the duty of the Ministers in those Circuits in which County Asylums are situated. (Minutes, 1908, p. 356.)

155. Assistant Class Leaders.—Where a Society Class is large, a Leader infirm, or it appears otherwise expedient, an Assistant Leader may be appointed by the Leaders' Meeting on the nomination of the Superintendent, and such Assistant shall be a member of the Leaders' Meeting. The number of Assistant Leaders who shall be members of the Leaders' Meeting shall not exceed one Assistant for one class. Assistant Leaders shall be members of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. The appointment of Assistant Leaders shall be an annual instead of a permanent one. (Minutes, 1907, pp. 99, 348; 1910, 368.)

156. Candidates on the List of Reserve.—1. Every accepted Candidate on the List of Reserve who is not appointed by the President shall be placed under the care of the Superintendent of the Circuit in which he resides, who shall be responsible for furnishing to the Designation Committee the required report concerning the said Candidate.

2. Candidates on the List of Reserve who receive an appointment before Christmas shall take the prescribed course of Reading and Examination for Probationers of the first year. Such Candidates, when appointed after Christmas, shall be required to take a course of Reading to be prescribed by the Probationers' Examination Committee, varying according to the date of appointment. This Committee shall satisfy itself that its requirements have been observed, and shall report to the Designation Committee.

3. As proper time for study is essential to the work of our Probationers, the Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits and Missions to arrange accordingly. The Conference directs the Secretary of the Examination Committee to report to the Designation Committee those cases in which, in consequence of pressure of special work, there has been comparative failure in the Examination for two successive years.

X. Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

157. The Ballot in Quarterly Meetings.—(1) At the elections in Quarterly Meetings of the Representatives to the District Synods the usage of open voting may be departed from, and the elections decided by ballot, after nomination by the Lay Members of the Meeting. (Minutes, 1893, p. 319.)

(2) In respect of all other elections made at Quarterly Meetings the Conference re-affirms its declaration of 1884, namely: "The practice of voting by ballot in the administration of Methodism in our Circuits is contrary to long-established usage, and its adoption would in various ways be injurious to the interests of our Societies." (Minutes, 1884, p. 191; 1893, p. 319.)

158. Church Membership and the Synods.—No one is eligible for a seat in a Synod, or upon any Committee thereof, who is not a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. (Minutes, 1892, p. 309.)

159. Circuit Stewards and the Synods.—Circuit Stewards, who are otherwise members of the Synod, shall not be at liberty to decline to attend the Synod as Stewards, and then claim the right to sit and vote by virtue of any other office. (Minutes, 1892, p. 311.)

160. Lay Representation in Synods.—(1) Each Circuit shall be represented in the Synod by its Circuit Stewards, or, in their unavoidable absence, by substitutes, in accordance with the existing regulation on that subject.

(2) In addition to the Circuit Stewards, the March Quarterly Meeting of the Circuits may elect, as members of the Synod at its next meetings in May and September, Laymen, who are considered suitable on general grounds, in the following proportion; viz. (a) Circuits providing for one or two Ministers in Full Connexion shall elect one representative; (b) Circuits providing for more than two Ministers in Full Connexion may elect one additional representative for each Minister in Full Connexion over the number of two. (Minutes, 1902, p. 111; Journal, 1908.)

161. Substitutes for Lay Members of Synods.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting in March is entitled to elect, provisionally, a substitute for each of the Circuit Stewards, whether he shall, or shall not, have declared his ability and willingness to attend the May Synod; also, a substitute for each of the Representatives, or for the Representative. Any Circuit Steward or Representative who shall find himself unable to attend the Synod shall inform the Superintendent, who shall thereupon invite the substitute to be present. This applies, so far as substitutes for Circuit Stewards are concerned, both to the May and September Synods. (Minutes, 1897, p. 340; 1908, p. 115.)

162. Candidates for the Ministry.—In any case in which a Candidate has not resided for two years continuously in the Circuit from which he is recommended, the Superintendent of that Circuit shall obtain a written report concerning him from his former Superintendent or Superintendents, so as to cover the previous two years, and present the same to the March Quarterly Meeting and to the Synod. (Minutes, 1895, p. 204.)

be nominated until he has been heard by the Superintendent and by his colleagues, and also that full opportunity be given to the members of the Quarterly Meeting to hear the Candidate before the nomination is made. (Minutes, 1908, p. 354.)

163. Division of Circuits.—Before a Synod consents to the division of any Circuit, inquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust Estates affected by the proposed division, especially in reference to debts existing thereon. (Minutes, vol. xviii. [1870], p. 154.)

For Regulations as to Division of Circuits, see Minutes, 1886, pp. 270–273.

164. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall in future be fully stated in the Minutes of the Synod to which they belong, and the Secretary of the Synod shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and in such cases, copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned shall be coloured so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust Deeds of the Circuits.

These arrangements shall be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 454.)

165. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—(1) In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation is allowed: One third of the sums received from Juvenile Associations to be paid to the Funds of the Missionary Society, it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years; one third to the Home Mission Fund; one third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting.

(2) A return of the gross amounts collected in the various Circuits by Juvenile Missionary Associations, with the proportions of such amount allocated to the various objects, shall be made yearly, at the May Synods. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], p. 528; and vol. xx. [1877], p. 398; also 1885, p. 195.)

166. Quarterly Meeting Inquiry.—In every Circuit Quarterly Meeting inquiry shall be made from the Chair as to the amount received on behalf of Foreign Missions during the quarter, and the payment thereof to the District Treasurer. (Minutes, 1902, p. 14.)

Circuit Missionary Committees and Officers are to be appointed, and the Report and Audited Accounts presented, at the March Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1909, p. 17.)

167. The Weekly Offertory.—The Offertory System shall not be adopted in any chapel without the consent of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1889, pp. 286, 287.)

168. Grants towards Removal Expenses.—If any Minister be appointed to a Circuit, after an invitation sent by that Circuit to the Minister, every expense incurred by his removal, beyond what the Circuit he is leaving may provide, shall be borne by his new Circuit. (Minutes, 1878, pp. 221, 222.)

169. Financial Statement at June Quarterly Meeting.—The Circuit Quarterly Meeting affords a most valuable opportunity for bringing the Connexional principle before the leading officials of our Circuit; and the Conference directs that at each June

Quarterly Meeting this shall be done, and a report made of the Circuit contributions to each Connexional Fund during the year. (Minutes, 1889, p. 288.)

For list of Connexional Funds, see pp. 453-5.

170. Wesley Guild Returns.—The Returns which are prepared for the District Synod are, by the recommendation of the Conference, to be submitted and considered by the March Quarterly Meeting in the same way as other Departmental Returns. (Minutes, 1908, p. 96.)

171. Statistics of Day and Sunday Schools.—The statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

172. Memorials to Conference.—(1) Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so, that Meeting itself, subject to the regulations which follow, shall have authority to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any Member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 111.)

(2) Any Member of the Quarterly Meeting intending to propose a Resolution, and bring the same before the June Quarterly Meeting as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference, shall give notice, with a copy in writing, of the particular Motion or Resolution which he intends to propose either at the March Quarterly Meeting, or to the Superintendent Minister not less than seven days preceding the date of the June Quarterly Meeting; and no proposal of which such notice has not been given shall be brought forward that year. But should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend, as well as simply adopt or reject it. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112; 1895, p. 367.)

(3) A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by the Chairman of the Meeting; and he shall add a footnote, stating the number of persons present, and also the number voting for and against the Memorial. (Minutes, 1891, pp. 331, 362.)

(4) Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings are to be forwarded by the Superintendents of Circuits to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, the Rev. GEORGE MARRIS, The Manse, Chislehurst, not later than ten days before the opening of the Conference. (Minutes, 1889, p. 285.)

(5) All Memorials thus received by the Conference shall be referred to a Committee of its members, who shall carefully classify and consider the whole, and present their report thereon to the Conference. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(6) The Quarterly Meeting has complete freedom to memorialise the Conference. It is not competent for the Chairman of a June Quarterly Meeting to rule any Memorial out of order. The Conference reserves to itself alone the right to determine whether a Memorial contains a proposal of a revolutionary character, or subversive of the doctrine or discipline of Wesleyan Methodism. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112; 1895, p. 368.)

(7) The Conference cannot sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit. (Minutes, vol. xii. [1852], p. 112.)

(8) No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit except in manuscript. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 454.)

(9) The consideration and determination of all questions raised by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof, respectively. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the province to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide. (Minutes, vol. xx. [1877], p. 424.)

173. Central Mission Quarterly Meetings and Non-resident Trustees.—The direction that the Quarterly Meeting of the Manchester Mission, Oldham Street Circuit, shall include the Trustees of all the Chapels and Mission Halls who are members of Society, whether such Trustees are resident in the Circuit or not, shall apply to all the Central Missions whose Committees are appointed by the Conference. (Minutes, 1895, p. 274; 1910, p. 103.)

XI. The Local Preachers' Meeting.

174. Before any Candidate comes upon the Plan on Trial, he shall be examined by the Superintendent, or under his direction, in the Summary of Christian Doctrine and Bible History; and, when necessary, in the elements of English Grammar. (Minutes, 1874, vol. xix., p. 455.)

175. No Candidate shall be fully admitted as a Local Preacher until he has read the first four volumes of John Wesley's Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament; and until he has passed a satisfactory examination in the definitions and Scripture proofs of the leading Doctrines of Christianity as there explained. (Minutes, 1876, vol. xx., p. 155.) The period of probation is twelve months. The Local Preachers' Meeting may extend the period in individual cases if necessary or desirable. (Minutes, 1905, p. 92.)

176. All Local Preachers shall meet in class. (Minutes, 1869, vol. xvii., p. 624.)

177. Wherever practicable, Local Preachers, after being received on Full Plan, shall be recognised at a Public Religious Service. (Minutes, 1895, p. 437.)

178. A Local Preacher who shall be adjudged a bankrupt, or who shall make a composition with the general body of his creditors, shall thereby be suspended from his office as a Local Preacher until the Local Preachers' Meeting shall have decided whether the circumstances of the case are such as to justify his continuance on the Plan. (Minutes, 1895, p. 314.)

179. Every duly accredited Local Preacher is entitled to be placed, without renewed trial or examination, upon the Plan of any Circuit to which he may remove; provided he present his Note of Removal and current Circuit Plan, and has become a member of Society in that Circuit.

(This, of course, does not apply to Local Preachers on trial.)

The position of a Local Preacher on the Plan of the Circuit to which he may remove shall be decided by the Local Preachers' Meeting concerned. (Minutes, 1895, p. 436.)

180. Before a Local Preacher from another branch of the Methodist Church is put on the Circuit Plan he shall satisfy the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting that he holds our Doctrines, approves our Discipline, and has competent abilities for the work. (Minutes, 1898, p. 250.)

181. The necessities of our work require that suitable persons should be employed in the capacity of Exhorters; such persons having the approbation of the Superintendent and the Local Preachers' Meeting. (Minutes, 1876, vol. xx., p. 155.)

182. Before any place is taken off the Plan the sanction of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting shall be obtained. (Minutes, 1895, p. 439.)

183. Local Preachers' Meetings.—In every Local Preachers' Meeting the Superintendent shall inquire quarter by quarter as to the reading of Local Preachers on Trial, and especially as to their reading of Wesley's Sermons and Notes on the New Testament. (Minutes, 1902, p. 359.)

XII. Sunday and Day Schools.

184. Sunday-school Official Meetings.—The Superintendent Minister of the Circuit shall preside at the Annual Meeting of the Committee and Subscribers; and also at all meetings of the Committee, and at all meetings of the Teachers. If at any one of the said meetings the Superintendent Minister be not present, one of the other Ministers of the Circuit shall preside. If no Minister is present, the meeting shall appoint one of the Officers of the institution to act as Chairman; except in the case of a Teachers' Meeting, when one of the Superintendents of the School shall preside. (Minutes, vol. xvii. [1868], p. 384.)

185. Representation in Circuit Quarterly Meetings.—(1) No one who is not a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of at least three years' continuous standing shall be ex officio, or eligible to be elected as, a Representative from a Sunday School to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting. No person shall be deemed eligible to represent a Sunday School at the Quarterly Meeting of any Circuit in which he is not at the time a Member of the Wesleyan Methodist Church.

(2) The Chief or General Superintendent of every Sunday School shall be a member, ex officio, of the Quarterly Meeting.

(3) In Schools with an average attendance of one hundred to three hundred scholars, in addition to the ex officio Representative, a special Representative shall be chosen from the teachers and officers of the school at the Annual Meeting of the Local Council.

* This Standing Order applies to the old Regulations still in force in some Schools.

(4) In Schools with an average attendance of three hundred scholars and upwards, a second special Representative shall be elected in like manner. The special Representative or Representatives shall be elected annually, the same persons being eligible for re-election. Only members of the Wesleyan Methodist Church shall vote for Representatives.

(5) Where there are two sessions, the average attendance shall be that for the larger session, as given in the official returns for the year preceding that in which the election is made.

(6) Should any School Superintendent not be a member of the Church, the teachers and officers of the school may, at the Annual Meeting of the LOCAL COUNCIL, elect from among their own number as a Representative some other person who is duly qualified in respect of his membership.

(7) The time and place of the meeting when Representatives are elected shall be fixed in consultation with the Superintendent Minister, either he or one of his colleagues being in the chair; and in the event of a Circuit Minister not being present, the chairman shall be elected by the meeting, such chairman being a member of the Church. (Minutes, 1894, pp. 313, 314.)

186. Orthodoxy of Sunday-school Officers and Teachers.—The Chapel Model Deed provides that in any School held in a building settled on the Trusts of the Chapel Model Deed the teaching is always subject to the Clause in the Deed respecting Doctrine; and the Conference has specifically directed that no person shall be continued as an Officer or Teacher who shall at any time be declared by the LOCAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL COUNCIL or the Leaders' Meeting unfit in respect of general character or of religious opinions for the Office he sustains or for taking part in the Christian Education of the young. (Minutes, 1827, vol. vi., p. 298; 1911, pp. 421, 422.)

187. Our Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.—The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our Catechisms. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1873], p. 176; 1882, pp. 224, 225; 1890, p. 279; 1896, p. 230.)

188. Correct Returns from Sunday Schools.—(1) The LOCAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL COUNCIL shall consider at a meeting to be held not later than January 31 of each year, the School Returns for the year ending December 31 previous, and immediately forward the Schedule to the Circuit Secretary. (Minutes, 1911, p. 512.)

(2) The Report of each School is to be submitted by the School Secretary to the officers of the School, and countersigned by the School Superintendent before being sent to the LOCAL COUNCIL. (Minutes, 1904, p. 110.)

(3) The CIRCUIT SUNDAY-SCHOOL COUNCIL shall consider the Sunday-School Schedules and report thereon to the Circuit March Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1911, p. 513.)

(4) The Statistics of the Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the Circuit March Quarterly Meeting, but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the Circuit JUNE Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, vol. xix. [1874], p. 440.)

189. Scholars' Removal Notes.—With a view to preventing, as far as possible, the loss of scholars by removal, "Scholars' Removal Notes" should be used in all our Schools. The Conference requests the Committee of the Sunday-School Department to supply, free of cost, in the first instance, a Specimen Book of Removal Notes to the officers, and to intimate the willingness of the Department to assist in any case of difficulty. (Minutes, 1907, p. 97.)

190. Erection of Sunday-School Premises.—All trustees who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises, intended for Sunday-School work, shall communicate with the Connexional Sunday-School Department before the plans are finally accepted and before they are submitted to the District Chapel Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings, and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted. (Minutes, 1874, pp. 440-441; Minutes, 1912, p. 117.)

191. Examination of Pupil Teachers.—The Annual Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday in October and on the first Saturday in March. The questions shall be prepared by the General Committee; the Examination held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at suitable places for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September Synods, and agreed to by the respective School Committees; and the written answers forwarded to the General Secretary, to be valued by a Central Board of Examiners elected by the General Committee. (Minutes, vol. xv. [1863], pp. 534, 535; vol. xx. [1877], p. 409.)

In connexion with Central Examinations, meetings of Teachers and Pupil Teachers shall be held, under the direction of the Chairman of the District and the District Education Secretary.

SECTION VI.

ANNUAL ADDRESSES.

The Address

OF

TO THE

METHODIST SOCIETIES.

Dearly Beloved Brethren in Christ Jesus,—

We send you greeting in the name of the Lord. Throughout the Sessions of Conference we have been deeply sensible of your fellowship with us, and the remembrance of your faith and love has inspired both our thanksgiving and our prayers. In all our counsels you have been in our minds and upon our hearts. We have not forgotten that it is for your sake we assemble, and that we are one body in Christ and members one of another. There has been nothing parochial or sectional in our counsels. All sections of our people have been kept in view, and we have sought to know the will of God for all whom He has given us. In both Sessions of the Conference there have been marked and gracious signs of His presence. With great candour we have sought to know the things that are amiss among us, but candour has been softened by penitence and chastened with love. There is deep concern among us for the things of God, and we are strengthened in the remembrance that you share with us the travail of Zion, and that with one heart we wait for His appearing. It is in the confidence of this fellowship we call you in Christ's name to thanksgiving, consecration, and advance.

Thanksgiving has been the supreme note of the Conference. There was a solid array of decreases in the figures of the Church, but while they solemnised us, they did not depress us. A buoyant and invincible hopefulness refused to be blinded to the manifold tokens of Divine blessing. The President's Conventions throughout the year have discovered the heart of our people. In all parts of the country they have rallied in thousands, and exulted in Methodist singing, Methodist testimony, and Methodist joy. The heart of our people rings true to the fundamentals of our faith and the characteristics of our Church. The Conventions have been followed in many places by a return to the old paths of spiritual fellowship and service, and it is for us to foster and strengthen the revived and quickened devotion. Emotion that does not pass beyond sentiment is full of peril. Vision is for action, and spiritual exaltation must be transmuted into the holiness of life and the service of love. There is reason to be afraid of religious emotion that exhausts itself in sensation, and care must be taken that it becomes the inspiration of good living and of Christian service. On the other hand, activity is futile without vision. Galvanised activity accomplishes nothing in the realm of spiritual things. The command to tarry holds in the leash the command to go, but the coming of power is the signal to arise.

We rejoice greatly in the triumphant completion of the Centenary appeal for Missionary service. The Lord has graciously crowned our efforts with success, and His people have cheerfully laid upon His altar a thankoffering of £283,499 13*s.* c*d.* Nor is this all. Consecration preceded the gift, and, as in the days of the Apostles, our people "first gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us by the will of God." There are greater gifts than those of silver and gold, and, in an enlightened Missionary faith, a revived Missionary zeal, and a new Missionary Fellowship, the Centenary appeal will bring forth fruit after many days. The organisation of Methodist Laymen in Missionary fellowship is a most hopeful sign, and we commend it to all our people. Conventional giving has become a reproach. The cause of Christ demands personal interest, intelligent faith, and sacrificial service; and in nothing are these demanded more than in the evangelisation of the world for Christ. Vision is mightier than argument; and it is our concern to make men see. The eyes of the mind and the eyes of the heart need to be enlightened, and to this end we are called both to instruct and to pray. Knowledge is an important factor in effectual prayer, and we are therefore told to be watchful unto prayer. We commend to you the study of the Imperial interests of our Lord's Kingdom, and urge you so to study Missionary interests that you may help by your prayers the toilers in the field.

Through all our thanksgiving there runs a haunting sense of humiliation and need. We cannot shut our eyes to the fact that all is not well with us. For the eighth year in succession there is a serious decrease in our Church membership. This decrease is accompanied by a corresponding decline in all departments of our Church work. The situation is one of extreme gravity, and it is no relief to be told that others are in like distress. Neither is there comfort in the material prosperity and financial achievements of our Church. No sort of prosperity can make up for spiritual decline. We cannot juggle with eternal realities, and one of the first principles of the Divine order is that all seeds and trees bring forth fruit after their kind. Figs are not gathered of thorns nor grapes of thistles. Neither can that which is carnal bring forth that which is spiritual. The law is as fixed in morals as in Nature, and, as was said in the Conference, we cannot get a spiritual fruitage from a non-spiritual rootage. We have multiplied our activities of beneficent service, and forgotten the first principles of the Kingdom of grace. There must be a return to the simplicities of our holy religion, both in faith and practice; a return to the lowly habits of devotion, to humble efforts in personal service, and to the cultivation of the inner life of the soul. The world is too much with us. We need to get above it to God, lest the activities of Christian service become the sepulchre of spiritual life.

The condition of the world demands of the Church a deeper spirituality. Everywhere there is restlessness and revolt. The restraints of conventional morality are openly despised. The standards of the Church are ignored. Irreligion is defiant and unashamed. Vulgarity is canonised. Brutality is exalted into a virtue, and force is proclaimed to be the supreme court of appeal. Gaiety is added to lawlessness, and the craze for pleasure defies the sanctities of religion and the home. Authority has broken down, and men brook no restraint of discipline upon their desires. Against such conditions conventional religion is utterly futile, and to call in Satan to cast out Satan is a fatal policy. The age is at a crisis which is universal, and the issue is with its Christian people. If Babylon prevails at this juncture, Zion will go into captivity for a generation. The judgment of both the Church and the world is at hand. To Zion there comes the call, "Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. For, behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples: but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and His glory shall be seen upon thee."

This is the day of opportunity. The fields were never so ripe unto harvest. The dawn of a new day is on the tops of the mountains. For half a century materialism and rationalism have held the thinking of the world in their cruel grip, but their reign is over. Spiritual realities are coming to their own. The things not seen are being discovered. Religious consciousness is recognised as a fact of scientific value. Conversion has suddenly become the absorbing subject of Psychologists and Social Reformers. Religion is recognised as essential to perfect personality. The contradiction of Christianity has been turned into a challenge. Instead of being assailed it is required to prove itself. Competition is a severer test than assault; and the Churches are called upon to make good their claim. The world offers its goodly pearls and challenges the Churches to produce something better, and woe to us if we cannot offer the Pearl of Great Price! Our claim is that Jesus Christ comprehends, completes, and perfects them all—and more; and it is for us to make good the claim. Babylon is at the zenith of its magnificence and power. Has Zion anything better, worthier, diviner than the world's best in character, happiness, and worth? We believe it has, and we must go forth to proclaim, verify, and demonstrate our faith. The Church is challenged on every side, but we cannot complain, for the challenge is based entirely upon the claims we have made for our Lord. Intellectually, socially, and spiritually, we are called not to combat a denial, but to make good a claim.

The Conference calls upon the Methodist Church to answer the challenge at the gate. After prolonged discussion and much prayer, it has solemnly resolved upon a campaign of spiritual advance. The details of the campaign will be laid before you in due course, and they will be found to be in harmony with the best traditions of our Church. They begin with the Sanctuary, for the River of Life ever flows from under the Altar. With great earnestness, definite efforts are to be made to bring home to our adherents and our young people the claims of Christ and His Church. With one heart we are exhorted to a deepened spiritual life, and by personal witness and prayerful effort to seek to bring others to the knowledge of His saving grace. Then from a quickened and sanctified Church life, there is to spring a greater effort to reach the vast multitudes who are outside the organised activities of the Church. Various methods are suggested, but room is left for local modifications as the Spirit of the Lord may direct.

The Conference relies upon the loyalty of the Methodist people in this matter. The task is essentially different from that of raising funds. To give money is much easier than to give ourselves. Besides which, the movement of the Spirit is full of surprises. It is as incalculable as the wind that bloweth where it listeth; but the wind is not lawless, and there are laws of spiritual revival and power. It is for us to seek with all our hearts, and we shall not seek in vain. While we preach and pray, examine and sanctify, faith will make the valley full of ditches, and God never mocks the faith that works and prays.

Let us have faith in God. We are in danger of being paralysed by the hosts of Syria, because we have no vision for the chariots and horses of fire that are at the Lord's command. Our salvation will be in a daring act of faith. There are many adversaries and many difficulties, and the greatest of them are not outside. There are divisions among us that can never be healed by discussion. Controversy never settles disputes of faith, for it is in action that faith finds its verification and adjustment. It was at the touch of the priests' feet that the waters rolled back and made a way for the hosts of God. It was at the triumphant shout of a marching Israel that the walls of Jericho fell. Jehoshaphat was sorely bewildered by the allied forces at the gate, but when they went out singing unto the Lord and in the beauty of holiness, the Lord scattered their enemies and gave them great spoil. We believe the Church is waiting to be led, and it is with confidence that this call to advance is sent forth. God's people offer themselves willingly in the day of His power. Let us each begin the year with a renewal of our personal allegiance to our Lord, and to the ordinances and service of His Church. Let us each stand in his place and bear his part as "a good soldier of Jesus Christ," and let us each remember our Zion at the throne of grace, and if we thus sanctify ourselves the Lord will do great things for us.

Brethren, we "commend you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you the inheritance among all them that are sanctified."

"Now the God of peace, Who brought again from the dead the great Shepherd of the sheep with the blood of the eternal covenant, even our Lord Jesus, make you perfect in every good thing to do His will, working in us that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen."

SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary.

OF THE

IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1914

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1914.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren,—

As your brethren in God's work and in the Methodist Church we desire to send you our most cordial greetings. We rejoice in the bonds of brotherhood and of common faith which unite our Conferences, and are determined to maintain that union and brotherhood.

It has been a real pleasure to us to receive as President of our Conference the Rev. Samuel F. Collier. His able and genial conduct in the chair, his friendly disposition, and his inspiring utterances in our public services have commanded admiration and won our affectionate regard.

The enforced absence of the Ex-President, the Rev. Frederick Luke Wiseman, B.A., has been a cause of deep regret to us; but we have been glad to welcome to our midst your ministerial representatives, the Rev. William Bradfield, B.A., and the Rev. Samuel Chadwick. Not only in the sessions of Conference, but in the public meetings and in our pulpits, these brethren have worthily represented you, and greatly encouraged and stimulated us. We are very sorry that Mr. Henry Holloway, your lay representative, has been unable to come to our Conference; but his place has been excellently filled by Mr. Gipsy Smith, whose prayers, addresses, and songs have been to us both an inspiration and a delight.

We have to report an apparent decrease of 291 in our membership for the year. We are not seriously exercised in the matter, for we know that much of our work must always be done for results that appear in other continents; our harvest is not always reaped in our own fields; our vine bears some of its choicest fruit over the boundary of our garden. We are satisfied, moreover, with the knowledge that our Junior membership is growing regularly and shows an increase on the year of nearly a thousand.

The year has been a sad one to many of our people: death has been more than usually severe in its call.

Many brethren who had an honoured place in our Church, and whose names were familiar to you, have been called away: the Rev. Wesley Guard, who made full proof of his ministry in over fifty years of unique service for God and Methodism; the Rev. R. Crawford Johnson, D.D., whose best memorial is our splendid Central Mission and its great record of noble work accomplished for the Lord; Mr. Thomas Foulkes Shillington, whose sane counsel, deep spirituality, and princely generosity were appreciated in our whole Connexion; the Rev. John Oliver, at one time the oldest Methodist preacher in the world; the Revs. William Y. Northridge, Henry Kennedy, W. Hamilton Weir, Robert Knox, Samuel Cowdy, Moses Douglas, and many others. They all died in faith, trusting in the promises, and leaving a good witness that they had served their generation by the will of God.

The supply of candidates for our ministry has given us some little concern in recent years. We have had to produce sufficient men to fill up, not only the vacancies caused in our ranks by death and retirement, but also a considerable number of vacancies caused by the emigration of brethren who heard the call of the great countries of the West, and had gone to work for God there. This year we rejoice that the Holy Spirit has moved in the hearts of a larger number of young men, and called them to the holy work of the Christian ministry.

It has been on our hearts for some time that there was great need for a better provision as regards ministerial allowances. The increased cost of living made it imperative that something should be done to save our brethren from the possibility of straitened circumstances. A well-planned scheme has been brought into operation to accomplish this excellent purpose, and our people have generously answered the fresh calls so made on them.

The public affairs of our country give us much concern. All around us there is great unrest. There is a very deep anxiety and a state of tension as regards the future. The days are pregnant with crisis. Our people are very earnest in prayer to God for guidance and help.

Ceaseless intercession is ascending that the long-awaited day of peace and concord in Jesus Christ may dawn on our island. Through it all we have an ever-deepening conviction that the ills of Ireland demand religious more than political treatment, and that our Church holds in its hands the safest and most adequate cure for the sorrows and faults of Ireland, videlicet the full and free gospel of personal salvation through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ our Lord.

We have been rejoicing in our Conference that, in spite of the anxieties and preoccupation of many of our people, a wonderful work of grace has been going on in many directions. In city churches, in wayside tents and markets and fairs, in tiny cottages and in great mission halls, souls have been born into the Kingdom, and striking victories of grace have been won. We continue to pray that with you and with us such tokens of God's blessing may more and more abound.

We have chosen for the office of Vice-President and Delegate the Rev. William R. Budd, the General Secretary of our Home Mission Fund, a brother greatly respected and beloved among us. He will be accompanied by the Rev. William Corrigan, the Rev. John A. Duke, B.A., and Mr. William R. Burgess. These will be our representatives to your Conference and will inform you of our affairs as you may desire.

We confidently count on the continuance of your interest in us and prayers for us. We desire to have it kept in mind throughout British Methodism that we have a common spiritual heritage and common interests in the kingdom of God.

We know something of the serious difficulties that you have to face in Great Britain, the social and economic problems and the mingled materialism and godlessness of the age that confront you. The foes around you are fierce and numerous, but your hearts are strong, and we commend you in confidence to the grace of Christ Who is your sufficiency and ours.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JAMES M. ALLEY, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1914

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1914.

Beloved and Honoured Brethren,—

We have received with unfeigned pleasure and gratitude your Annual Address, and heartily reciprocate your cordial and affectionate greetings. It has been a joy to us to welcome your esteemed Vice-President and delegate, and his worthy associates, and to listen to their much-appreciated message.

We share with you in the sorrow of having to report once again a decrease in the adult membership of our Churches. The increasing materialism of the present age, and the hesitation on the part of many of our seriously-minded people to accept the responsibilities of church membership, are causing us much anxiety. We have spent much time during the Conference in humble confession and heart-searching, and we earnestly pray that to yourselves and us there may speedily come seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord.

We rejoice that the manifest blessing of God has so abundantly rested upon your efforts to win the children for Christ, and that your Junior membership returns continue to show a gratifying increase. We are thankful that we have similar encouragement in regard to the Junior members of our home churches. We are more than ever convinced of the necessity of caring for the lambs of Christ's flock, and of endeavouring by every means in our power to keep them within the sheltering fold of the Good Shepherd.

We deeply sympathise with you in the exceptionally heavy losses which you have suffered during the past year through death. We note among those who have been called to their reward the names of honoured brethren who were much beloved by us. The Rev. Wesley Guard was for many years a familiar and welcome figure at our Conference, and his genial and lovable presence will be greatly missed. We remember also with much affection and gratitude to God the Rev. R. Crawford Johnson, D.D., and Mr. Thomas F. Shillington, and their fellow-workers who have fallen on sleep, and whose names are in the Book of Life. They rest from their labours and their works follow them.

Whilst we mourn with you the removal of so many who have been your brave and well-tried leaders and comrades in the good fight of faith, we rejoice to know that there has been so cheering an increase in the number of those whom the Holy Spirit is calling to fill the vacant places in your ranks. We pray that upon the young men who are responding to His call there may come a double portion of the Spirit.

The past year has been marked by the successful comple tion of the Foreign Missions Centenary Fund. The amount aimed at has been considerably exceeded; but we rejoice especially in the spiritual outcome of the movement, and in the deepened interest and growing enthusiasm in the cause of Missions that are being manifested among our people. We gladly and gratefully recognise the honourable part which you have taken in this great Centenary enterprise.

We greatly rejoice with you in the abundant blessing that has rested, during the past year, upon the various agencies which you have been carrying on for the spread of the Kingdom of Christ in your land. We have heard with great thankfulness from your honoured Delegate of the success which has attended the preaching of the Gospel in the open air, and the labours of your colporteurs in the country fairs and markets, and we earnestly pray that the blessing of our God may continue richly to abide upon the manifold ministries of His word, so that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in Him.

We would assure you of our sincere sympathy with you in the days of social and political disquiet and anxiety through which you are passing, and of our constant prayers that God will so direct the public affairs of your country that abiding peace and prosperity may come to your people. Amidst all your perplexities and apprehensions regarding the future, we are confident that God will be your refuge and strength, and that the peace of God which passeth all understanding will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

We are comforted, dear brethren, in the presence of the difficult problems, social and economic, which confront our Church in this land, by the assurance of your prayers in our behalf. Our sufficiency is of God, and we are persuaded that in His strength we have every reason to face the future with the confident and glad hope that the best is yet to be, and that striving together with one mind for the faith of the Gospel, and always abounding in the work of the Lord, you and we shall rejoice together over greater spiritual triumphs than we have ever yet known.

"Now our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work."

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary.

OF THE

FRENCH CONFERENCE OF 1914

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1914.

Dearly Beloved and Honoured Brethren,—

It is a great joy for us to know that we have in England many devoted and faithful friends of France and of our work in France. You have always practised the entente cordiale; you have always manifested your sympathy towards us by your generous gifts, your prayers, letters and visits. On our side we can say that our affection for you is deep and sincere, and that we are greatly interested with the dealings of your Church, with your difficulties and your victories. We have followed with joy and thankfulness the magnificent campaign which your President, the Rev. Samuel F. Collier, has undertaken with such zeal and success. We feel sure that your future will be still more glorious than your past. We ask God that it may be so, because we believe that modern England needs Methodism as much, and even more, than in the days of Wesley.

France also needs Methodism. France needs the living, active, aggressive Christianity which it has been the mission of Methodism to reveal. French people are not, generally speaking, anti-religious; they cannot content themselves with the negations of materialist atheism. But they can neither be satisfied with the superstition and intolerance of Roman clericalism. It is true that, just now, Catholicism seems to fight with a greater energy, and gives, in some parts of the country, the appearance of strength. But we can say, without any exaggeration, that the soul of our nation turns away from the Pope, and that it longs, more than ever, for the religion of truth and love, for the religion of Jesus Christ.

We are not, fortunately, the only Protestant Church in France. We are surrounded by other evangelical churches which do a fine work and with whom we like to be fellow labourers. But we think that they need us, as we need them; we think that France also needs us. Our history, past and present, gives us the conviction that God has a work for us in this country, and that He is willing to bless us and make us a blessing. Therefore we are determined to be more than ever faithful to the true spirit of Methodism, and specially to its two great characteristics, the missionary love and the longing after holiness.

It seems to us that our Churches, the Southern as well as the Northern, understand the magnificent duty of aggressive evangelism. Not only in our new Churches of Brittany and Savoy, but also in our elder Churches, as, for instance, in Auvergne, we are pleased to see many fine and successful efforts to reach the crowd. We cannot say that a great revival has visited us; but still we are thankful to see so many of our friends, and specially among the young, among the members of our Christian Endeavour Societies, who have decided to be true Methodists—that is to say, to be Christian "in earnest," and to "abstain from every form of evil." They are always ready to fight in the Lord's name against the terrible curse of alcohol, immorality, scepticism, clericalism, worldliness, injustice, and war.

In this we greatly rejoice; we are anxious to be the salt which keeps its savour, and we firmly believe that, by a more complete surrender of ourselves to Christ, our influence upon French Protestantism and France itself will be much deeper and more useful than in the past.

We find another reason for hope and praise in the fact that this year, as last year, we have in our Theological School six students. The young are coming to us; they believe in us. Our Centenary meetings have been inspired not only by the blessings of the days gone by, but also by the hopeful prospects which God sets before us.

Our Annual Conference has just been held in Paris, under the Presidency of the Rev. O. Prunier. It has been most inspiring. Our new President is the Rev. Emile Ullern, who began, four years ago, a most interesting and promising work in Savoy. Our delegate to the Leeds Conference is the Rev. William Henri Guiton, of Levallois.

We pray that this year our Church may be blessed by a mighty revival. May we expect from God and undertake for Him greater things. We thank you most heartily for the inspiring letter you sent us last year, and we ask you to receive once more the assurance of our thankful and loyal affection in Christ Jesus.

In the name and by order of the Conference,

L. PARKER, Secretary.

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1914

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE, 1914.

DEAR BRETHREN,—

We have received with great pleasure the affectionate and cheery letter which you sent to us by the Rev. W. H. Guiton. He took part in the great open session of our Conference, and amidst the messengers from world-wide Methodism he worthily represented the work of our nearest Continental neighbours.

We know and admire the indomitable and uncomplaining courage with which you are carrying on the witness of Methodism which has been sounding in France for close on a hundred years. We know how frequently you find yourselves cramped by narrow means, and how often you have to allow great opportunities to pass you by simply because the material resources necessary are lacking. The personal devotion and self-sacrifice of your ministers have been, all through your history, and never more so than to-day, a fragrant offering on God's altar. Such sacrifices cannot be offered in vain. What you have done for France cannot be measured by the numbers counted in your membership or your adherents. Your zeal and the eager proclamation of Methodism's distinctive message—the assurance of sins forgiven and the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit—have induced currents of life in other Churches far outside your own borders. The Methodism which links you with us does not sever you from your own countrymen; its message and work are as world-wide as the spiritual needs of mankind. France had a noble place in the early struggle for religious freedom, and the descendants of the Huguenots in the Protestant Churches of to-day owe much to the earnest evangelism and glowing experience of you and your Fathers. In this fact of indirect result of life and work you share the experience of the Methodist Church throughout the world.

We are delighted to hear of the continued success of your newer work in Brittany and Savoy. Notwithstanding the hardening of materialism and the dullness due to corrupt forms of faith, there is in the heart of man a spiritual receptiveness in response to the power of Christ which supplies its need. Your experience of this power, your enthusiastic belief that you have something worth giving to the needy lives of men, must, under God's blessing, win them to accept it.

You, who have shared in the toil and pleasure of giving, will rejoice with us in the splendid result of the Centenary Movement of our Foreign Missionary Society. The £284,000 which has been contributed as a Plant Fund is, we confidently believe, but a gift preliminary to and indicative of a permanent increase in prayer, money, and service for the second century of Methodist work for the evangelisation of the world.

Your letter refers to the delightful evangelistic campaign during the past year of our Ex-President and Mr. Gipsy Smith. Those great meetings and the consecration of many lives to Christ are meant to be a new beginning in aggressive movements of our home Churches upon the irreligion of the day. Our Conference has been deeply moved to search its own heart and to consecrate itself afresh to this end.

We welcome and heartily approve of the appointment of the Rev. Emile Ullern as your President. We have not forgotten the profound impression made by him during his visit to the Lincoln Conference. We rejoice in the fact that you have a good number of young men coming forward for your ministry. It is a pleasure to us that among them is a young Englishman bearing a name already well known for a share in your work.

Be assured of our sympathy and prayer; be bold and of a good courage, full of faith, love, and joy. You and we have a great inheritance; let us, in God's strength, make up our minds to hand it on unspoiled to the generation to come.

In the name and by order of the Conference,

SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary.

OF THE

CONFERENCE

OF THE

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH OF SOUTH AFRICA

TO THE

YEARLY CONFERENCE OF 1914.

DEAR AND HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Assembled at Port Elizabeth in our Thirty-second Conference we send you greeting, with assurances of our continued affection and esteem.

Your reply to our address of last year was received with cordial appreciation. Its note of hopefulness was exceedingly gratifying to us, and provocative of praise and prayer.

We acknowledge with gratitude your confirmation of the nomination of the Rev. T. Edward Marsh as President of our Conference. As a philanthropist, a man of God, and a lover of missions, the President has exerted an influence not only upon our Church, but on the whole of South Africa. Suffering from acute indisposition, it has been impossible for him to preside over all the sessions of the Conference; but in his Presidential Address, and in his subsequent sermon and address to the Representative Session, he gave an inspiring and impassioned plea on behalf of the children and missions. Its keynote, "The children of our people for the service of King Jesus—at home if He will, among the heathen if He call." We are thankful to God for so much renewed strength that gave us a week of the President's genial guidance, and we pray earnestly for his speedy recovery to health and service.

Our ex-President has had a year of arduous travel and work, a year that has been peculiarly rich in inspiration to the Churches and of wise, helpful service—one that will be memorable throughout the whole of our Church. He has presided over the latter half of the Conference with all his accustomed energy and ability.

It has been gratifying to us that our representative to the Yearly Conference, the Rev. A. H. Hodges, has been able to render you service during the celebration of the Centenary of the Missionary Society. We rejoice greatly with you on the success of those celebrations, and are thankful to God for the spiritual and financial results achieved. They are an incentive to us in preparing for our own Centenary celebrations in 1916, and a token that the presence and power of God still abide with you.

We have read with great interest of the work done by the Rev. S. F. Collier during his Presidential year, and are sure that the result is being felt in our Colonial Churches. We were humbled and moved to prayer during the years of your depression, and we rejoice greatly with you over the evident signs of returning prosperity.

It is with great thankfulness we are able to report continued success in our work. The increase in membership (English) is the largest we have had in any year, with one exception, since the Conference was established. In the Native section the increase is 1,658 full members, 1,878 on trial, and 1,163 in junior classes.

We reported last year a decrease in our Missionary Income of £750, and a debt of £3,178. This year we report an increase of £1,011, whilst the debt, owing to the generous gifts of friends and a special collection taken in many of our churches at Eastertide, has been greatly reduced, and our expectation is that during the year it will be entirely liquidated.

The Rev. James Robb, who has rendered very distinguished service to our Missionary Society, retires from the Secretaryship this year and is succeeded by the Rev. Samuel Clark, one of the oldest and most successful of our missionaries.

We have passed through a year of exceptional anxiety and unrest, which we know has affected the work of your Society in the Transvaal, and has also had a considerable effect upon every section of the community. We would assure the brethren of the Yearly Conference that our Church is not unmindful of the gravity of the situation, and as custodians of the spiritual interests of a large proportion of the Native and Indian populations of South Africa, we are facing the problems in earnest prayer and confident reliance upon

God. Our present Conference has been characterised by the vigorous interest of prominent consecrated laymen, who, by their wide outlook, their zeal for missions, and their eager faith, have stimulated and enheartened us. We go forward with high hope in our hearts that truth and justice, religion and piety will prevail.

During the year there have passed from our ranks three notable ministers—one European and two Native. The Rev. E. J. Warner was known to you as one of our older missionaries, a man of deep piety, of wide and accurate knowledge of Native life and affairs, and possessing a perfect mastery of the Native language. He enjoyed a career of great usefulness, and passed peacefully away on July 28, 1913. The Revs. William Giwu and Joseph Mngqibisa were men of outstanding character, received into the Ministry during the visit of the Rev. John Kilner thirty years ago. They were both of heathen parents, and were rescued from heathenism of a most degraded type; but by their splendid Christian character, and a wonderful devotion to the work of God, added to the many glorious triumphs of the Gospel in this land.

The Revs. Wesley Hurt, William Cliff, and Charles Pamla, after many years of service, have become Supernumeraries this year. The Rev. Wesley Hurt, in his fifty-four years of active work, has served our Church nobly, both in European and Native circuits, and as Principal of the Native Theological Institution. He was President of the Conference in 1909. The Rev. William Cliff has been a faithful Methodist preacher greatly beloved, a humble-minded and sincere Christian gentleman. The Rev. Charles Pamla was the first Native Christian called to the Ministry of our Church, and after fifty years of faithful work, rich in spiritual results, retires with the love and esteem of the whole Church.

We have nominated as President of our Conference of 1915, to be held in East London, the Rev. Robert Matterson. Mr. Matterson is well known to you, and has rendered eminent service both in Colonial and Mission circuits. He is a wise administrator and devoted missionary. We respectfully request the Yearly Conference to ratify our choice.

The ex-President, the Rev. W. Pescod, has been appointed our representative to your Conference to be held at Leeds, together with Messrs. B. H. Parker, of Capetown, and Trevenen Polkinghorne, of Verulam, Natal.

We rejoice with you, Fathers and Brethren, in the signs you have in your midst of the revival of the Work of God, and we pray that those signs may be fulfilled exceeding abundantly above all you can ask or think.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

HENRY COTTON,
Secretary of the Conference.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1914

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1914.

DEAR AND HONOURED BRETHREN,—

The address of your Conference was duly presented to the Annual Conference assembled in Leeds under the Presidency of the Rev. Dinsdale T. Young. Your representatives were well received, and your esteemed ex-President, the Rev. W. Pescod, addressed the Conference. The account of work done during the year, the record of aspirations for future service, and the spiritual motive underlying both, have deeply affected the Conference. They are to us so many indications of the reality of your life in Christ, and they assure us of a still larger fruition of that life to be realised by you in days to come.

We greatly regret to hear of the indisposition of your President during the sessions of your Conference. His name is associated with great philanthropic service on behalf of children, and we note that he was at least enabled to lay before you the burden of his heart in the Presidential Address to which you refer.

The sessions of Conference with you, as with us, are marked by loving recollection of those who have finished their course and have now entered into "those high offices that suit the full-grown energies of heaven." You call special attention to such honoured servants of Christ as the Rev. E. J. Warner, William Giwu, and Joseph Mngqibisa; we speak with equal love and reverence of Dr. James Chapman, of the Rev. George Stringer Rowe and many another. The greatness of their service was matched by the beauty of their lives, and their personal devotion to Christ is both impulse and example to us who remain a little longer in that service which is perfect freedom.

We note with special interest the fact that you hope to celebrate the Centenary of the South African Church in 1916. You will rejoice to hear of the complete success of our own celebration. We rejoice that God's people have brought into His treasury more than that which we asked of them, but far beyond this financial relief to our work is the quickened interest and the deep spiritual fervour which the movement has evoked. These things are shown in the spread of the Laymen's movement, and the establishment of schools and classes among our young people for the study of Missionary questions, and they are likely to affect profoundly the general life of the Church at home. They have been secured under the blessing of God by emphasising not the financial aspect of such a movement, but the underlying spiritual—our personal relationship to Christ, the universality of His redemptive work, and the charm and heroism of those who counted it a small thing to lay down life itself in the carrying of that Gospel to the ends of the earth. The same uplifting appeal is open to you, and we need only recall such names as those of William Shaw, Barnabas Shaw, Shepstone, and Boyce, to see that you too are rich in the records of Christian service. It is a happy augury that you have not only greatly reduced the debt reported, but have increased your annual income by more than a thousand pounds. In view of the call from every quarter of the globe for an extension of Missionary service, the Church which prepares to enter upon that service will know the joy which comes to those who answer their Master's call.

In connexion with your Missionary activities you speak of "anxiety and unrest" and of racial problems which you have to face. Such problems confront our brethren in Canada and in Australia as well as yourselves, and we know how deep the cleavage is between the interests involved, and how easy it is to approach them with a prejudiced mind. However difficult it may be to forecast the ultimate solution of such problems, we shall not forget that "in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all made to drink of one Spirit." We are assured that the solution, when it comes, will be Christian in spirit and in scope, and we rejoice to know that you consider yourselves to be "custodians of the spiritual interests of a large proportion of the native and Indian populations of South Africa." In such a spirit you cannot fail to see the vision of that "one new man" in Christ as it was seen by the great Apostolic Missionary of the early Church.

We have our problems too. We are face to face with social and political difficulties which in our days have assumed enormous dimensions, and which threaten us with strife and conflict. But we are convinced that these things are but part of the travail which attends the birth of a larger expression of life than we have yet known, and we know too that Christ will fill that enlarged life, and will permeate it with the Spirit of God. Our prayer is that the Church may be saved from the deadening effect of materialism and may be quick to respond to every manifestation of His presence in the general life of man. It has been a great joy to us to detect in all the proceedings of our Annual Conference the note of a true apprehension of the issues involved in the life of to-day, and an earnest endeavour to claim that life for Christ.

The Conference ratifies with great pleasure your nomination of the Rev. Robert Matterson to be the President of your Conference in 1915. He is not unknown to us in England, and we pray that he may be sustained by the grace of God during his presidential year, and may be enabled to render you that service which, we are assured, it is in his heart to render you.

Once more we pray that the richest blessing of Heaven may rest upon you, and upon the whole Israel of God.

Signed in the name and by order of the Conference,
SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary.

OF THE

GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH OF AUSTRALASIA

TO THE

WESLEYAN METHODIST CONFERENCE

1914.

Honoured and Beloved Fathers and Brethren,—

From our General Conference assembled in Brisbane we send affectionate greetings to our Mother Church in the old country. We do not forget the many ties, both of affection and obligation, which bind us to the Church from which we are sprung. Your traditions, your successes, your problems are ours also. The great truths on which we build and the great aims which inspire us, are our common heritage. We are united in the great bond which nothing can sever, the sentiment of common loyalty to the Great Head of the Church.

We have elected as our President one who, for his eminent services in connexion with missionary enterprise, is known by you as well as by us. Dr. Brown is known beyond the bounds of our Church by his distinguished services to anthropology and ethnology; but his supreme devotion and his greatest successes have been evidenced in the great service which he has rendered on behalf of our missionary work in the islands of the Pacific. The Conference has given a considerable portion of its time to a consideration of our missionary problems, and has resolved on changes of policy and a very considerable enlargement of operations. We have decided to endeavour to increase our missionary income by 100 per cent. during the next five years, and it has seemed a most fortunate coincidence that we should have so distinguished a missionary to preside over a Conference which has given such prominence to missionary work.

In connexion with your own Missionary Centenary we have appointed our President as our representative, and he will be able to lay before you the problems and solutions which present themselves to us in our own special field.

We, like yourselves, are experiencing a great revival and development in this section of our work, and there is no circumstance of our Church life which gives us more satisfaction than the increased interest of our people and their enlarging liberality in the effort for the extension of the Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour amongst the heathen races under our care.

We have sorrowed with you in the loss which the Church has sustained during the recent years by the death of some whose names and work have been familiar to us. The removal of that great evangelist, Thomas Cook, left the whole Church poorer, and we have many amongst us who remember with thankfulness the services he rendered to us by his presence in past years.

The work of Charles Kelly, of Dr. Pope, and of Dr. Gregory is well known to us, and we have felt the benefit of their great services. We too have to lament the absence from amongst us of several ministers and laymen who have rendered eminent services to the Church.

You will learn with interest that the constitution of an independent Church in the Dominion of New Zealand is now an accomplished fact. The separation which was resolved upon at our last General Conference has been carried out with great success, and although still united with us in our missionary activities, the New Zealand Church is now in all other respects independent of the Australasian General Conference. This event has at once been signalised by a union of all the Methodist Churches of the Dominion, and there is but one Methodism now in the Southern lands. For the cordial and Christian spirit in which this important step has been taken we give thanks to God; and although we feel that our Conference has been impoverished by the loss of the New Zealand representatives, we hope that the change effected may result in a large and fruitful development of our Methodist Church in New Zealand.

We are glad to report that notwithstanding the many influences adverse to the spread of organised Christianity, from which you suffer in common with us, we are able to report the substantial increase of 24,547 members since the consummation of Methodist Union in 1904. Though this is far from being what we desire, yet we are encouraged by these signs of the Lord's presence and working in our midst.

We have accredited as representatives to your Conference the Rev. B. Danks, Rev. W. Powell, the Rt. Hon. Sir Samuel Way, Bart., and Mr. F. Cato, who are honoured brethren amongst us. They will be able to render a more detailed account of our work.

We are encouraged by an increasing and widespread interest in the work of our young people. Great developments in connexion with our Sunday-school work are in process amongst us, and we have been greatly indebted for information and inspiration to the visits of enthusiasts in their work from amongst you, and the Churches of the American Continent. We are looking for great and permanent addition to our effectiveness in consequence of this work, to which a considerable portion of our time in this Conference has been devoted.

In the year 1915 we shall celebrate the Centenary of the establishment of Methodism in these lands, and we are hoping that it may be possible for you to send a representative to join with us in our celebration. We shall give the heartiest welcome to any one whom you may think fit to appoint for that service, and we expect that he will be joined by representatives of the other Methodist Churches throughout the world.

In conclusion, we pray, as we are bound both by duty and affection to do, that the work of God may prosper amongst you, and that to you, as to us, may be given the joy of harvest.

On behalf of the Methodist Church of Australasia,

We are, Fathers and Brethren,

Yours in the Service of the Gospel,

GEORGE BROWN, President.
J. E. CARRUTHERS, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1914

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

OF THE

METHODIST CHURCH OF AUSTRALASIA.

Dear and Honoured Brethren,—

We warmly reciprocate the greetings you have sent us through the representatives who have come from far to the Motherland. A pioneer missionary like the Rev. Benjamin Danks, with a record of faithful and successful service in a field which only heroes could enter, a veteran director of the missions whose earlier story thrilled our fathers' hearts when the British Conference carried the responsibility of them, Mr. Danks was assured of his welcome at the Conference, and his address confirmed all our expectations. During the year we have been honoured and blessed in many of our Churches and Colleges by the visit of that world-famous missionary the Rev. Dr. George Brown. We have counted among our missionary classics the amazing story of his labours in lands where the survival of God's messenger was a marvel greater than the quenched furnace and muzzled lions of Daniel, and the triumph of his message is foremost among the present-day evidences of Christianity. He has in previous visits made our hearts glow with the inspiration of his bodily presence, and we were peculiarly thankful to have him with us as your representative at our Missionary Centenary. He will have told you of the memorable celebration in which he took part. We have at this Conference seen the celebration attain a fitting close. The thankoffering of our Church for a century in which God has made His pleasure prosper in our hand reaches a sum considerably higher than we set out to attain. It represents untold devotion and sacrifice on the part of multitudes of our poorer people, to whom God has given greater wealth than can be counted in gold and silver. And in the splendid enthusiasm generated in the Laymen's Missionary Movement we are assured of the prospect of a more enlightened and free-handed generosity to support the great work in times to come.

The completion of our Centenary prepares the way for your own, a solemn and joyful festival of essentially the same kind, for you commemorate a century of evangelism in an area covering a large part of a hemisphere, and peopled by heathens almost as numerous as those who acknowledge the name of Christian. Our own Centenary has been rich in memories of Fiji and the Friendly Isles; and the names of saints and martyrs are linked imperishably with a story that belongs to us as well as to you. We rejoice greatly in your determination to double your missionary revenue, and so honour worthily the fulfilment of a hundred years during which God has blessed you and made you a blessing. We pray that you may enter on the new century with high hopes and inspired resolves, and that in the midst of apathy and materialism and sin at home, like that which lifts its head against our work in the old country, you may be able to bear a testimony full of certainty and convincing power. It is indeed good to recall that you can celebrate the occasion by seeing all sections of Methodism united into one powerful Church, and the distant Church in New Zealand strong enough to pursue its own way. May these happy developments, themselves the manifest results of the working of God's mighty Spirit among you, herald yet greater blessings in years to come. And that such further advance may be secured in the most effective way possible, we pray that your earnest endeavours to extend and strengthen your work among the young may be rewarded from on high with abounding success.

Our greetings on the occasion of your Centenary will be brought to you by our representative, the Rev. Samuel F. Collier, the Ex-President of our Conference, a brother greatly beloved, whose work as the Superintendent of the great Manchester Mission marks him out as one of the most honoured of the Divine instruments of modern aggressive enterprise.

SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary.

OF THE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF AMERICA

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1914.

To the President and Members of the Wesleyan Methodist Conference.

Dear Fathers and Brethren,—

Pursuant to the action of the General Conference of 1912, held in Minneapolis, Minnesota, the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church have designated the Rev. James Roscoe Day, D.D., LL.D., to bear to your honourable body the fraternal greetings of our Church.

Doctor Day has a most distinguished place in our ministry. For years he occupied conspicuous pastorates in our principal cities. In the Presidency of Syracuse University, one of the most important of our schools, he has so wrought himself into the educational history of Methodism as to command the gratitude and honour of our Church, and by his declination of the Episcopacy in 1904 he has come to share in the distinction which, prior to that day, belonged to Wilbur Fisk alone.

Doctor Day will bring to you a good word concerning the Church he represents, telling you of its toils, its successes, and its plans, broadened by the Providences of recent years, of its endeavour and accomplishment in matters educational, philanthropic, and evangelistic. You will have interest and satisfaction in the words he speaks, for you are the Mother Conference of our Methodism. Our traditions lead us back to you, and your sons were our founders.

It was with peculiar satisfaction that our General Conference at Minneapolis heard the words of the Rev. J. T. Wardle Stafford, who brought to us a message of rare interest and force. Most worthily did he fulfil the task committed to him. We are assured that in the message that Doctor Day shall bring to you, you will feel the heart-throb of the Methodist Episcopal Church, discern its undiminished vigour, its unfaltering purpose, and its abiding love for all the disciples of our Lord, but in particular for you, whose faith is our faith, whose achievements are our rejoicing, and whose purposes are wrought into the alluring vision of our consummate hope.

"Peace be to the brethren, and love, with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ."

By order and in behalf of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church,

L. B. WILSON, Secretary.

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1914

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF AMERICA.

DEAR BRETHREN,

Our Conference, assembled in the city of Leeds, under the Presidency of the Rev. Dinsdale T. Young, received the greetings of your Church, brought to us by the Rev. Dr. Day, Chancellor of Syracuse University, with manifest and genuine delight. The "Open Session" of the Conference, at which delegates from other lands were welcomed, and at which Chancellor Day was one of the chief speakers, was by universal consent the best for many years. By his humour and wisdom, his mental grip and spiritual insight, the Chancellor won our hearts and made us all his debtors. As we listened to his ringing words we realised again that, with whatever difference of accent and emphasis, you and we still speak the same spiritual tongue.

With multitudes on both sides of the Atlantic and throughout the world we join in devout thanksgiving to Almighty God for the hundred years of peace between the two great nations of the English-speaking world, and we rejoice that to the children of Wesley in England and America it has been given to weave one of the strongest of the many ties which now bind them to each other.

Of our own Church life and work it is not needful that we should now speak. It would be idle to pretend that all is well with us. We are suffering from causes which for the moment make the work of all the Churches of our land exceptionally difficult. Nevertheless, in the large number of young men who annually offer themselves for the work of our ministry, and in the re-kindling of missionary enthusiasm among the laity of our Church, we see signs real and unmistakable of the presence of God in our midst and the promise of a brighter day.

Praying that God will grant alike to you and to us to be faithful to our inheritance and our opportunity,

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

SIMPSON JOHNSON, Secretary.

III. GENERAL REPORT.

Principalship of Southlands College.

IT was foreseen that when a vacancy occurred in the Principalship of Southlands College the Board of Education would probably require the appointment of a woman as Principal, and they have insisted upon this requirement. The Education Committee, therefore, took steps to secure the appointment of a woman Principal, and it unanimously appointed Miss Mary Atkinson Williams, B.A., formerly a student and tutor in Southlands College, and at present Head Mistress of the Girls' Grammar School, Brisbane, Australia. The Board of Education approved the choice.

Chaplaincy of Southlands College.—The Conference appointed the Rev. James Critchison to be Chaplain of Southlands College.

Single School Areas.

The past year has brought no legislative change in regard to Single School Areas—the admitted Nonconformist grievance is still unredressed. In one or two instances where Wesleyan Day School premises have been condemned on structural grounds, there was a danger of the district being left without a choice of schools. The Wesleyan Education Committee therefore used its utmost influence both in the localities concerned and with the Board of Education to secure the provision of a Council School. It did not fail to emphasise both publicly and in official correspondence the generally accepted policy of the Board of Education that if the existing single school areas cannot be diminished except by legislative action, their number should not be allowed to increase. The cases that have required the watchful care of the Committee have arisen in the Midlands and in the South-west of England. It is gratifying to be able to state that in the former case a Council School is being provided, while in the latter it is practically certain that the same issue will be reached. The Committee will continue to use its influence to secure the establishment of Council Schools where it is deemed impracticable to continue Wesleyan Day Schools.

Principal Day School Extensions.

(1) Oxford, Wantage. Improved lighting, heating, and ventilation, glazed partition, additional land and asphalting of playground, additional cloak rooms, etc., costing £520.

(2) Frome. New wing to present school buildings, new cloak rooms, folding partitions, heating apparatus, and asphalting of playgrounds, costing £500.

(3) Preston (Lune Street): Ribbleton Avenue New Day and Sunday Schools. New school for 350 children to supersede the Tennyson Road school premises, costing £4,000, exclusive of site and furniture.

(4) North Derbyshire Mission, Bakewell. Extra class room, enlarged playgrounds, new cloak room, and other alterations costing £700.

(5) Doncaster (Oxford Place): Extensive improvements in lighting, heating, ventilation, and sanitation, and additional playground accommodation, costing £624, exclusive of furniture.

(6) York (Priory Street): New block to provide hall for wood and metal work, cookery, laundry, and house-wifery, and additional class rooms, costing £2,500, old building remodelled at an additional cost of £1,250.

(7) Bardney (Lincs.): Purchase and demolition of four cottages and gardens to provide additional playground accommodation; erection of new class room, lavatory accommodation, and other improvements, costing £400.

Other subjects dealt with in the Report are: (a) Bills before Parliament; (b) Annual Public Meeting; (c) Revival of the Pupil Teacher System; (d) Transition from the Elementary to the Secondary School; (e) The Medical Inspection of School children; (f) Reorganisation of Evening Schools in London; (g) The number of small Primary Schools; (h) The number of Public Elementary Schools; (i) Teachers' Registration Council; (j) Statistics in regard to Education; (k) The Westminster and Southlands College Reports. The illustrations include a portrait of the late Rev. Dr. Chapman; New Schools at Ribbleton Avenue, Preston; Ground Plan and Sketch of the School at York, Priory Street; and a photograph of the Choir and Platform at the Annual Education Meeting in March, 1914. There are also included a List of Wesleyan Day Schools and statistical table; appendices relating to examinations of the Students in training; an Alphabetical List of the Teachers trained in the Colleges, with Obituaries of Teachers who have died during the year.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT FOR WESLEYAN SECONDARY SCHOOLS.

Report.

The work of the Board of Management during the past year has presented several points of exceptional interest.

Dr. Vinter, Head Master of Woodhouse Grove School, after thirty-five years' service, has resigned his post, and will retire from it at the close of the Summer Term, 1914. The Board, by a unanimous vote, adopted the following resolution:

"The Board of Management, in accepting the resignation of Dr. Arthur Vinter as Head Master of the School, desires to record its warm appreciation of his services in that capacity for over thirty years. It recognises with gratitude his whole-hearted devotion to the cause of Christian Education, as well as the fruitful influence of his distinguished scholarship and manly character. As Head Master he has borne a large share of responsibility for many improvements in the fabric and equipment of the School, working loyally through early periods of severe discouragement, but earning the thanks of future generations.

"The kindly interest of Mrs. Vinter in the hundreds of boys who have passed through the School is also gratefully remembered.

"The Board joins unanimously in expressing its sincere good wishes to the Head Master and his wife on his retirement from office."

Mr. Wilfrid James Walker, M.A., Open Mathematical Scholar, Balliol College, Oxford, at present Senior Mathematical Master in the County School, Wrexham, will succeed Dr. Vinter in the Headmastership.

Reports of the Head Masters.

The following Reports, furnished by the Head Masters, show that during the year the Schools have been carried on with much success, and that a high moral tone pervades the School life:

1. East Anglian School.

Number of Pupils.—December, 1913: Boarders, 96; day boys, 12.

Staff.—The Staff, which may be regarded as a very efficient one, has remained unchanged throughout the year.

Examination Results.—In accordance with the suggestions of the Board of Education, the Science and Art Examinations and the Cambridge Local Preliminary Examination have been discontinued.

Cambridge Locals—Senior, 6; Junior, 12.

Trinity College of Music—Preparatory, 1; Junior 2.

DISCIPLINE.—The discipline has been entirely satisfactory.

(Signed) SAMUEL LEIGH.

2. Truro College.

NUMBER OF PUPILS.—The total for December, 1913, was 138; of these 59 were boarders and 79 day boys.

HEALTH.—Uniformly good.

PHYSICAL EXERCISES.—The boys take a keen interest in the School games, and in general physical culture.

MORAL TONE.—The honour of the School is well maintained by the Prefects and Senior boys.

EXAMINATION RESULTS.—In the Cambridge Senior Local Examination held in July, 1913, seventeen boys entered and fifteen passed; that is to say, 88 per cent.—First Class Honours, J. C. Tregea, R. Truscott, and W. G. Kelynack. Second Class Honours, H. A. Millard, T. G. Rowe, H. R. Moffatt (distinguished in Geography). Third Class Honours, C. E. Pearce, C. E. Collins, A. J. Bengafield, D. Tregenza. Pass Division, five. Ten out of fifteen are exempted from the whole of Part II. of the Previous Examination of the University of Cambridge; and three are also exempted from the Additional Subjects. Eight boys out of nine passed in spoken French. Ten in Honours in the Seniors is our best record.

In the Cambridge Junior Examination there were eleven in the Pass Division, and of these two passed in spoken French.—Old Boys—J. B. H. Mawer obtained Honours in French and English in the Final B.A. Examination, London: H. W. Dudley, Ph. D., Berlin University; L. C. Rice, Mathematical Tripos, Part I.; and W. T. Gregor, Gold Medallist in connexion with the three Training Colleges, Transvaal.

(Signed) HERBERT W. VINTER.

3. Woodhouse Grove School.

GENERAL.—The buildings, since the alterations, are so admirably disposed that there is a maximum of efficiency during school hours, and the discipline has been made correspondingly easy. The dining-hall is bright and cheerful, and its walls have received the portraits of nearly all the former Governors and Head Masters. The two new class rooms for the Junior Department and the new junior bedrooms prove a great boon to the little boys.

Examination Successes.—We are glad to note the success of the following Old Boys during the year 1913:

At Cambridge University—P. S. Grimshaw, B.A., Second Class Honours in History Tripos and Third Class in Part II. of Theological Special. E. O. Nuttall, B.A., Second Class Honours in History Tripos and Geography Special. W. D. Scott, First Part of Mathematical Tripos at the end of his first year. P. S. Grimshaw, B.A., and J. H. Reed have both been accepted for the Wesleyan Ministry, and are now in residence at Didsbury College.

At Liverpool University—C. V. Pearson, the Junior "Lyon Jones" Scholarship of £21 a year for two years at the Liverpool Medical School, awarded at the end of his first year.

The Examination Successes in the School for the year 1913 were as follows:

Cambridge Local Examinations, held in July. Seniors—Honours Class II., H. A. Field. Pass, G. G. Middleton, A. B. Moorhouse, J. F. D. Shrewsbury, G. A. Wilson. Field and Moorhouse obtained exemption from the London and Northern Matriculation Examinations, and Wilson passed in spoken French.

Junior—Honours Class I., T. W. Harrison; Class II., H. Parkinson; Class III. T. A. Evans and H. V. Mitchell. Pass, F. S. Curry, W. H. Miles, J. H. Moorhouse, A. H. Morley, G. R. Morley, H. C. Petch, C. S. Stuart, R. N. Wildman, F. A. Wilson, R. K. James, H. Woods, A. Spangenberg. T. W. Harrison, H. Parkinson, T. A. Evans, and A. Spangenberg passed also in spoken French.

Leeds University—W. H. Dean won a West Riding County Council Studentship of £35 a year, for three years, to Leeds University, and was awarded the Charles Wheatley Scholarship, value £25 per annum for three years, on the result of the July Examination of the Joint Matriculation Board.

Cambridge University—W. Mabane won an Exhibition, valve £30 per annum for three years, at Caius College, Cambridge.

List of Secondary Schools.

1. Schools for Boys.

Truro College.—Head Master: Herbert W. Vinter, M.A. (Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge).

Bury St. Edmunds.—Head Master: Samuel Leigh, B.A. (Lond.) (of University College and King's College, London; for many years Assistant Master of the Northampton Grammar School, and Tower Hill School, London).

Canterbury, Kent College.—Head Master: Alfred Brownscombe, M.A. (St. John's College, Cambridge).

Woodhouse Grove School, Apperley Bridge, near Bradford.—Head Master: Arthur Vinter, M.A., LL.D. (Graduate in Honours in Mathematics, Physics, and Chemistry; formerly Scholar of Gonville and Caius College, and Assistant Master at The Leys School, Cambridge).

Dr. Vinter will be succeeded in September, 1914, by Wilfrid James Walker, M.A. (Oxon), Open Mathematical Scholar of Balliol College, Oxford.

2. Schools for Girls.

Penzance, West Cornwall College.—Lady Principal: Miss Hanna, B.A.

Jersey, Jersey Ladies' College.—Lady Principal: Miss Roberts.

Folkestone, Kent College.—Lady Principal: Miss Brunyate, M.A.

Queenswood, Clapham Park, London, S.W.—Lady Principal: Miss Trew.

REPORTS OF THE DIRECTORS OF MIDDLE-CLASS SCHOOLS.

1. Cornwall Wesleyan Methodist Girls' School Association, Limited.

The Directors have pleasure in presenting their Thirtieth Annual Report.

The Directors are gratified to state that the number of pupils remains satisfactory, the fees showing an increase upon last year.

The College has shared the common experience of all Penzance schools during the winter in that some pupils have suffered slight attacks of German measles; apart from this the health has been quite satisfactory. All sanitary arrangements have received serious and special consideration, and are under the periodical inspection of the District Sanitary Inspector.

With regard to the important matter of the efficiency of the Teaching Staff, the Directors feel special satisfaction in reporting that this is fully up to the high standard of former years. A beginning has been made with the Montessori system for the younger children, and this promises to be educationally advantageous as well as very popular. Pupils are entered for the London Matriculation, the Cambridge Local, and other examinations.

The continual aim of the Head Mistress and the Staff includes not only the imparting of knowledge and the training of the mind, but also the development of character on Christian principles.

The Directors have pleasure in reporting a profit of £241 0s. 7d., on the year's working, and recommend a dividend of 5 per cent. on the profit-bearing "A" Shares paid up.

The retiring Directors are Mr. James Wickett and Mr. J. Vivian Thomas, who are eligible for re-election.

The following have been amongst the Examination Successes for the year:—London Matriculation, 1; Cambridge Local Examination (Senior), 4 passed, one being excused Cambridge Previous Examination, Part II.; Junior, 16; (Preliminary), 21 (4 in Honours); Board of Education's Art Examination, 7; National Union of Teachers Woodwork Examination, 5; Pitman's Shorthand Certificate for Speed, Theory, and Practice, 5; Royal Academy and Royal College of Music Local Centre (Advanced Grade), 1; other Divisions, 4.

Kent College, Folkestone.

During the year 1913 the average number of pupils was: Boarders, 60; Day Scholars, 49. Total, 109.

There are now:

Boarders, 66. Day Scholars, 61. Total, 127.

Amongst the examination successes are the following:— Somerville College, Oxford, Scholarship of £50 a year for 3 years in Mathematics; Royal Holloway College, Bursary of £30 a year for 3 years in Modern Languages; Kent Higher Scholarship, £60 a year for 3 years in Modern Languages and English; London Intermediate Arts Examination (excluding English), 1; Excused London Matriculation, 1; Cambridge Higher Local Examination (Mathematical Group), First Class with Distinction, 1; Third Class Languages Group, 1; Third Class, 1; Cambridge Locals, Senior Class II., 1, Pass, 4; Junior Class II., 1, Distinguished, 1; Religious Knowledge, Class III., 1; Pass 3, 1 being Distinguished in Religious Knowledge; Examinations of the Royal Academy and Royal College of Music, L.R.A.M, 1; Local Centre Examination, Advanced Grade, Honours, 1; Pass, 1; School Examination, Higher Division, 2; Lower Division, 1; Elementary Division, 4; Examination of the Royal Drawing Society, Full Certificate, 1; Honours, 28; Passes, 32; at Exhibition, Highly Commended, 1; First Class, 1; Second Class, 1; Grand Concourse of National Society of French Professors in England, Prize, 1; Certificate, 1; London Institute of Plain Needlework, Certificates, 11.

General Report.

The amounts charged to revenue accounts for repairs and maintenance of buildings and furniture have been very considerable both at Canterbury and Folkestone. Because of these heavy payments, and in order to enable a small dividend to be paid out of profits, the Directors do not think it necessary to write off anything for depreciation in respect of buildings or furniture for the year 1913.

To enable a dividend at the rate of 1 per cent. to be provided it will be necessary to transfer £75 from the reserve fund.

In view of the good prospects for the current year the Directors recommend that this be done and that a dividend at the rate of 1 per cent., free of income tax, be declared. This will absorb £124 19s.

Kent College, Folkestone, is still quite full, and the number of boarders at Kent College, Canterbury, is increasing satisfactorily.

The retiring Directors are the Rev. J. R. Barnabas, Mr. W. Judges, and Mr. H. Moore, who are eligible for re-election.

The auditors, Messrs. Champness, Corderoy & Co., retire, and are eligible for re-election.

By order of the Board,

3. Jersey Ladies' College Company, Limited.

I.—Financial.

The Council present the Profit and Loss Account and the Balance Sheet for the year ended December 31, 1913, duly audited, and report as follows:

The net profit on the year's working amounts to £374 4s., no charge having been made in the year's accounts for interest on Debentures or Rentes, amounting together to £146 3s. 10d., the same having been allowed for by the liquidator of the Jersey Ladies' College, Limited, in the terms of purchase by this Company.

From the above amount of £374 4s. the sum of £249 9s. 4d., representing the proportion of profits from January 1, 1913, to August 16, 1913 (the date of the registration of the present Company), has been deducted, which sum, not being available for the purpose of dividend, has been dealt with as follows:

II.—Scholastic.

The Lady Principal reports: "The work of the School during the past year has been quite satisfactory; the tone has been excellent, and the health good.

"The following are the Scholastic successes:—Eunice le Seelleur, Licence-ès-Lettres (Bordeaux); Kathleen Renouf, London University Matriculation. In the Oxford Local Examinations the College candidates were all successful. Among the Seniors, Kathleen K. Furlonge gained Second Class Honours, and she and Dorothy Reeves showed sufficient merit to receive Certificates qualifying them for admission to Oxford University Examinations of B.A., etc.; Doris Webber also showed sufficient merit in French to gain exemptions from that subject in Responsions. In the Junior Examinations, Vera K. Rose gained Second Class Honours with distinction in Religious Knowledge, while Jeanne le Rossignol and A. Marjorie Mirehouse gained Third Class Honours, being bracketed Eighth and Ninth of all Junior Candidates in French.

"Dulcie de Ste. Croix Bryant passed the Advanced Grade, and A. Marjorie Mirehouse the Intermediate Grade, in the Central Examinations of the Associated Board of the R.C.M. and R.A.M. Seven other girls have been successful in the School Examinations of the same Board.

"Sixty-five papers were in for the Royal Drawing Society Examinations and thirty-two of these gained Honours."

J. F. GIFFARD, Chairman.
W. R. WINSTON, Hon. Secretary.

4. Queenswood School, Limited.

During the year a Sanatorium, designed and equipped on Hospital lines, has been built at the end of the North House garden. The Sanatorium faces south and has accommodation for twenty patients and a nurse. The entire cost of over £1,000 has been met out of the current account.

Notwithstanding the increased accommodation provided in 1912, it has not been found possible to receive all the pupils who have applied for admission to the School, and the Directors have pleasure in testifying to the excellence of the services rendered to the School by the Principal and her staff.

The net profit shown by the accounts is £1,838 9*s.* 9*d.* The Directors recommend the payment of the usual dividend of five per cent., free of income tax, on the paid-up capital of the Company, and in accordance with Article No. 4 will propose that the surplus profits be devoted to the upkeep and further improvement and equipment of the School.

Since the last Annual Meeting, Mr. Henry Holloway has resigned his seat on the Board, and the Directors also regret to record the loss by death of Mr. George William Munt, who was one of the first Directors of the School. Mr. John T. Burden has accepted the invitation of the Directors to a seat on the Board.

The Directors who will retire this year in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association are Mr. John T. Burden, Mr. Isaac C. Griffith, and Mr. E. T. Wilks, who are eligible and will be proposed for re-election.

Rydal Mount School.

Report of the Governors, 1913-14.

The Rydal Mount School was inspected in March, 1914, by H.M. Inspectors from the Welsh Department of the Board of Education. The visit occupied two days, and four Inspectors were present, including the Chief Inspector of Education for Wales. The official Report is a large octavo document of fourteen closely printed pages, and is of a most exhaustive character, entering into the greatest detail in respect of the instruction in the several subjects taken in the School. It would be hard to imagine a Report that should speak in more glowing terms in respect of the premises, the equipment, the staff, and the teaching. The Report is divided into three sections: the first deals with the instrument of government, the constitution of the Governing Body, the number of tutors and pupils. The amount of the fee is recorded; for pupils entering at an early age the boarding fee is under £80 per annum. In the second part an exhaustive summary is included of the number of pupils for the last five years, of the ages of the scholars, and of the classes in life from which the boys are drawn. It is noticeable that the largest number of boys comes from families described as wholesale manufacturers. This indication of the value of the commercial side of the School needs only to be widely known to attract large numbers of pupils from Lancashire and the adjoining counties who have in view a commercial career of the highest type. The next largest class is termed professional; this again is strong evidence that the School, in addition to the commercial side, provides an attractive and efficient classical and professional education. The Governors are sparing no pains to develop the School on these approved lines. Recently a considerable sum of money was spent on equipment in order that Science as applied to industry might be more efficiently taught.

The official Government Report describes the buildings "as beautifully situated between the rapidly growing seaside resort of Colwyn Bay and the wooded heights behind." The grounds cover between ten and eleven acres. The class-rooms are exceedingly comfortable, quiet, and well furnished. There is an excellent library. The assembly hall is imposing. The laboratories convenient and well equipped. The bedrooms are large, lofty, and airy, with wide floor space in the middle of each room. Situated in a town famous for its salubrity and quiet within its own ample grounds, "with buildings on which great skill and a generous expenditure have been bestowed," with its spacious rooms and class-rooms, the School appeals at once to every visitor "as a refined and happy home."

The Governing Body are gratified to find that the Inspectors speak in such high terms of the tutors, all of whom are Honours men, six out of nine being from Oxford or Cambridge. The Governors notice with approval the appreciative manner in which the Head Master is spoken of in the Report, and especially of the cordial feeling that exists between the Head Master and his colleagues, and between all the tutors and their pupils.

In respect of the subjects taught in the school, and which were minutely examined by the Inspectors, the Report is in every sense eminently satisfactory.

The general conclusions of the Inspectors will be noted with great satisfaction by all who are interested in the Rydal Mount School, which became so famous under its noble founder, the late T. G. Osborn, and its position promises to be maintained under the efficient Headmastership of his son, who succeeded him. The Report speaks of the "great and assiduous care" taken of the boys, that the School is more like a home than a school, although at the same time discipline is well maintained. The teaching in the class-room is "conscientious and inspiring," the games are given their appropriate place in the life of the School. The amenities of the grounds, the beauty of the buildings, the natural charms of the neighbourhood, become an unconscious but a very important part of the boys' education. The "spotless" cleanliness of the bedrooms, the "wise" care given to food arrangements, and the "belief in open-air recreation" in the healthy home of the School "are striking characteristics." Special mention is made of the behaviour of the boys, and the happiness and manliness which pervade the School. The Report concludes with the statement that the individual attention which is given to the pupils constitutes one of the most valuable features of the School.

The Leys School.

The outstanding event of the year has been the gracious visit of King George the Fifth to the School. His Majesty showed the utmost courtesy and interest and was obviously very happy in the midst of the boys. In his formal reply he referred with approbation to the breadth of the religious atmosphere of the School and congratulated it on taking a worthy place with the older Public Schools of the country, concluding with the wish "that it may long flourish as a home of sound learning and true religion." That the seal of royal recognition should thus be set to the aims and achievements of The Leys has given great pleasure to its friends all the world over.

In honour of the King's visit the Governors have erected a new building which is a great addition to the equipment of the School, previously very good. A handsome gateway to the main quadrangle is honoured by King George's name; a spacious library and a number of new classrooms are added; and the rooms in other parts of the premises thus set free will be used to increase domestic comfort in the Houses.

The unbroken good health of past years has been continued.

Direct from the School two Entrance Exhibitions have been won at Cambridge, one boy passed the Intermediate Science at London and ten have matriculated, and the usual number of Lower, School, and Higher Certificates have been won at the Universities' highest grade School Examinations. No less than eight boys won the difficult Certificate "A" of the Junior Officers Training Corps.

Among the seventeen honours degrees taken by Old Boys at Cambridge, the special distinctions have been in Medicine and Law. Old Leysians took the highest degree in one part of the Law Tripos and the third in the First Class in the other; to these were added two Doctorates in Medicine and the rare degree of Master in Surgery. We have also gained a Fellowship at Caius College, a First Class in Natural Science, and seven Seconds, in History, Economics, and Theology. Four foundation Scholarships have been won at King's, Sidney, Emmanuel, and Clare Colleges. Honours in Science and Arts have been taken also at London. An F.R.S., a K.C., and a Cambridge Litt.D., mark the achievements of senior Old Leysians.

Queen's College, Taunton, Limited.

The Directors have again the pleasure of presenting a highly satisfactory report. The subjoined list of successes in public examinations indicates the efficiency of the instruction given, and the fact that practically all the school places have been filled throughout the year shows that the school continues to be held in high regard.

The Directors have not only scholastic success to record, but also that the high moral tone of the school and its general good health have been fully maintained. They gratefully acknowledge the personal interests and efforts of both Mr. and Mrs. Haslam to secure these results.

The scholastic successes gained during the past year are as follows :

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON.

Matriculation Examination.—H. C. Latham (First Division), A. H. Hosegood, A. Linton, J. H. Llewellyn, W. H. Mildon, A. Rainer, N. T. Williams, C. K. Slack (Geography).

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD (LOCAL EXAMINATION).

For this year's Oxford Local Examination the College has surpassed all previous records in the number of successful candidates, viz., 66, of whom 13 were placed on the Honours list.

During the last twelve years 219 out of 224 candidates entered by the College for the Oxford Preliminary Examinations have been successful.

In the twelve years that Queen's College has entered candidates for the Oxford Local Examinations, 639 have been examined and 576, that is, 90 per cent., have proved successful.

SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIPS.

The Holloway Scholarship of £5 5*s.*, for Science.—J. Nott.

The Reed Scholarship of £5 5*s.*, for Modern Languages.—L. Guiton.

The Heaver Scholarship of £5 5*s.*, for the best candidate in the Oxford Local Examination (Preliminary).—D. M. Passmore and P. R. Bradford.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES, SEPTEMBER, 1913.

There are no specially new features to report this year. The Trustees have again to regret that the smallness of the endowment compels them to reject deserving cases. But they have received welcome evidence of the help which their small grants have brought to young Methodists who without them could hardly have borne the financial strain of a University course.

At the Trustees' Annual Meeting in September the applications for grants were considered. Two candidates received grants for the third time, and two for the second, amounting to £40 in all, and six new applicants received £55, making a total amount awarded of £95. Seven men and three women students were helped, of whom four are studying at Cambridge, two at Manchester, and one each at London, Oxford, Leeds, and Aberystwyth. Seven applications were refused, most of which the Trustees would have gladly placed on their list of awards if only the available money had been a few score of pounds more. The Trustees regret to say that no addition has been made to their capital during the year. The need becomes more and more apparent as time goes on. In the various branches of the teaching profession the possession of a degree makes more and more difference to the prospects of our young people, who should be our most valuable workers in time to come. Legacies or other additions to capital will certainly bear rich fruit in the future; but the Trustees will welcome even small annual subscriptions that will enlarge the amount they can give to the many deserving applicants whose cases are laid before them. They are glad to record that one former recipient has promised to subscribe one guinea per annum for the next five years in gratitude for the assistance rendered from the Fund.

General Report—1913-1914.

The Council presents its Report for the Connexional year 1913-14 with varied emotions. On the one hand there is clear evidence that the deepening of interest and purpose in Sunday School work is spreading throughout the land. Without any desire to institute comparisons that might be based on either insufficient data or misunderstanding of circumstances, the Council records its conviction that never in its experience have their been manifested more devoted service, clearer vision, more definite purpose, and a larger measure of spiritual desire than obtain to-day.

Numbers on the Books and Church Membership.—Side by side with this it has to report a decrease that seems out of harmony with this statement. Nor can the Council ignore the fact that this is the eighth year that it is faced with this unsatisfactory condition of affairs. The total number of scholars on the books, as compared with the previous year, shows a loss of 11,849, the average attendance a decrease of 10,548, and, most serious of all, there is a decrease in the number of Members of Society or "on trial" of 2,532.

Four Districts only report an increase in the total numbers on the roll. Of these Hull sets an example for the whole of the Connexion with an increase of 857 scholars, of 130 in average attendance, and of 50 in the number of teachers and officers. Next to Hull is the Whitby and Darlington District, with a total increase of 396, and Zetland with 31. Lincoln saves itself by reporting an increase of 2. Turning to the question of membership, the Welsh Districts show somewhat alarming figures. South Wales and the Second North Wales Districts both report decreases of over 390, the largest reported by any District; though Liverpool comes very near with a decrease of 373.

Visitation of Scholars.—Whatever may be the causes suggested for these various decreases as operating outside the school, it would be well for us frankly to recognise that more careful attention to certain details in the working of the school, especially that of systematic visitation, would save the pain of constant loss. Methodism nets a great quantity of fish, but the meshes of the net are so large that many escape.

Mr. W. Frank Freeman.—Again the Council expresses its thanks to Mr. W. Frank Freeman for the services he has rendered. Mr. Freeman is now making a Sunday School world tour, and is furnished with credentials from the Department which will enable him to render services to certain places in Australia and New Zealand.

Circuit Conventions.—The work of the Secretary and Lecturer during the year has, on the whole, been of an encouraging nature. In just a few places there has been a tendency to substitute talk at Conferences for work in the schools, but, as a rule, the Conferences have inspired work. The Council suggests to those Circuits which receive visits from its officials that a Conference is intended to outline methods of work, which, with certain adaptations, necessitated by local circumstances, can be tested.

Miss Olive Smith.—The Council regrets to report that its Primary expert, Miss Olive Smith, has been laid aside by illness for the greater part of the year. She is now on the road to recovery, and it is hoped that her restoration to health will be so complete as to admit of her resuming work early in 1915.

Scholars' Examination.—It is gratifying to be able now to strike a note that is entirely one of cheer. The schools have nobly supported the Scholars' Examination, and, as will be seen from the printed report, the numbers are considerably in excess of those of previous years. Encouraging letters have been received, referring in appreciative terms to the work, the results obtained, and the business-like manner in which this branch of the service has been organised. In addition to these results, the Council is glad to know that the examination work carried on independently by the Manchester District Council maintains its high standard of efficiency and of satisfactory results. Many schools still continue to take the Sunday School Union Examination. Of these no return is made to the Council, but there is evidence that many Wesleyan Schools are in this matter happily working with local branches of the Sunday School Union.

Teacher Training and Correspondence Classes.—It has been found necessary during the year to discontinue the Correspondence Classes in connexion with the Teacher Training Board. The number who availed themselves of this form of instruction was so small that it did not justify the expenditure either of time or money. On the other hand, the Teacher Training Classes are being fairly well sustained. The Council is convinced that if these classes could be started in all large centres they would help to solve the standing problem of the supply of teachers, both willing and capable.

Principal Ritchie's Meetings for Workers amongst Boys.—In February last, under the auspices of the Department, two meetings for workers amongst Boys were held in the small Hall, Central Buildings, Westminster, addressed by Principal Ritchie. These meetings were attended by the students of Richmond and Westminster Colleges, and by many other workers. Principal Ritchie proved himself a thorough expert in dealing with boys of the adolescent age, and those present received many valuable suggestions. The meetings were organised by the Boys' Committee of the three London Districts, and the expense was kindly defrayed by Alderman and Colonel Sir C. C. Wakefield.

Committee for Work amongst Girls.—The Council unanimously approved the resolution of the Sub-Committee that a Committee for work amongst Girls is desirable, and that such a Committee be elected jointly by the Connexional Sunday School and Wesley Guild Councils, two-thirds of the Committee being ladies, and that power be given to co-opt additional members. It was agreed to ask Conference for permission to add to the Connexional Council ten ladies nominated to serve on the Council as members of the Girls' Committee.

Grants.—Applications for grants show no sign of diminution. It has been a joy so far to meet every application that has been made according to the rules, and the Council earnestly hopes that it may continue to do so, though it may be wise to state that the requests for help grow more rapidly than the income, and it is quite possible that grants at a lower rate than the 25 per cent. of total expenditure upon furniture and equipment which has hitherto been maintained, may become unavoidable.

Circuit Councils and Subscriptions.—That the Circuit Councils, according to the Conference Legislation, are getting into more general working order is proved by the slight increase in subscriptions; but if the list of subscriptions at the end of the full Report issued by the Department is carefully studied, it will be seen that there is still room for improvement. Some Councils have yet to learn that "it is more blessed to give than to receive." The Connexional Council is grateful for the increase, and commends to its friends throughout the whole Church the claims of the Department. A steady income of £1,000 a year from subscriptions and donations is necessary if the claims referred to in the previous paragraph are to be met.

World's S.S. Convention at Zurich.—In July last the Secretary, with the Rev. Walter Fytche and Mr. W. Frank Freeman, attended the seventh World's Sunday School Convention at Zurich. The meetings were inspiring, and a great and wonderful vision of the children of the world trained in the obedience of Jesus Christ fired the enthusiasm of all present.

S.S. Convention at Swanwick.—At Easter the Rev. J. Williams Butcher and Mr. Robert H. Hugill were present at the Sunday School Convention at Swanwick, which devoted itself to the problem of the Intermediate Department. The prevailing characteristics of this Conference were a determination to take any amount of trouble to find the true solution of the problem of the adolescent period. Leaders, such as Mr. J. Lewis Paton, M.A., Principal Ritchie, Mr. G. Hamilton Archibald, Miss Huntley, Miss Pelton, and others, had many earnest disciples, who are now trying to work out in their own schools the lessons learnt there.

Visit of Lecturer to Carlisle and East Anglian Districts.—Despite applications from larger centres, some of which have had to be declined in consequence, the Council, feeling the necessity of helping schools in more sparsely populated rural districts, has set apart two periods of a fortnight each during which Mr. Hugill will visit the schools of the Carlisle and East Anglian Districts without any charge to the circuits.

Brotherhoods: Age limit.—For some time past there has been a desire to prevent boys leaving the senior classes of the school and joining Brotherhoods at too early an age. A deputation of the Council waited upon the National Brotherhood Council, and was received with the utmost sympathy. The result is satisfactory, for the National Brotherhood Council has sent a circular to all affiliated Brotherhoods, recommending that the minimum age of 17 years shall be strictly adhered to.

The Manual of the Wesleyan Methodist Sunday School.—Early in the year, through the kindness of two friends, supplemented by a grant from the funds of the Department, a copy of "The Manual of the Wesleyan Methodist Sunday School" was sent to every Minister in circuit work. That in some instances it has been studied is proved by the number of communications received and the enlarged applications for help for village schools, and for copies of Hunter's "Familiar Talks on Sunday School Teaching," to be sent to newly appointed teachers, of which 1,592 copies have been distributed during the year. The Council is particularly glad to be able to help the smaller village schools, and it has empowered the Secretary to send to any Circuit Council Secretary, who will pledge himself to distribute them, copies of the Prize Essays on Village Schools.

Prayer-Day Letters.—We again report a large circulation for our prayer-day letters, which were written, as in previous years, by the Rev. Carey Bonner and the Secretary of the Department.

Reconstruction of Premises.—In September last the staff had the pleasure of returning to its own quarters at Ludgate Circus Buildings, after six months in temporary premises. The alterations have proved a great success, and the Council expresses its obligation to the architect, Mr. R. E. Crossland, and to the contractors, Messrs. Geo. Parker & Sons. The Council now has a series of saloons that are the surprise and delight of visitors from the country, and is fully in a position to cope with a steadily increasing business. It should be clearly understood that no appeal of any kind has been made to the Methodist public for funds to cover the cost of these alterations. The lease was purchased some years ago by the accumulated profits of many years, and the cost of the alterations (over £4,500) is being charged on the profits.

"All-British" Pictures.—In the business, the main venture has been the publication of the "All-British" pictures, in conjunction with Messrs. J. F. Shaw & Co. These appear in several forms—the Large Cartoons, the Home Lesson Leaflets, the Bible Text Cards, and the Bible Stamp Album. The pictures have met with very wide and general approval, and are steadily improving in production as experience is gained. The sales are increasing not only in Great Britain, but in other parts of the Empire and in foreign fields: India, China, Spain, and Holland are all demanding special issues. The Bible Stamp Album is already winning for itself a large market, and ample preparations have been made to supply both Sunday Schools and those who work the Young Worshippers' League. The Council would also draw attention to the illustrated Bible which has been published for the use of schools. The type is clear, and there are two editions, one containing fifty and the other one hundred pictures.

Children's Welfare Exhibition.—At the Children's Welfare Exhibition held in April at Olympia, the Department had a large and varied exhibit. Friends from many quarters visited the stall and secured much information, and the Council confidently expects that the result of this, as an advertisement, will be seen in increased business during the coming winter.

Sir Francis F. Belsey.—In common with Sunday School workers throughout the world, the Council mourns the loss of the veteran leader and President of the Sunday School Union, Sir Francis F. Belsey. He was an English gentleman of the best type, cultured, scholarly, courteous, and always kindly in thought and temper. He will be greatly missed in gatherings at which his presence has been both a dominating and beneficial influence.

Sir William A. Smith.—Another great loss that has fallen upon Sunday Schools throughout the world is the early home-call of Sir William A. Smith, the founder of the Boys' Brigade. A more ardent Sunday School worker and one who sought more earnestly the highest spiritual interests of boys it would be difficult to find.

Mr. George Champley.—It is with great regret that the Council records the death of one of its own most devoted and capable members. Mr. George Champley, the Secretary of the Sheffield District Council and the representative of the Sheffield District on the Departmental Council, has heard the home-call. Mr. Champley was a type of man that it seems can be ill spared. Enthusiastic, with an intelligent grasp of the Sunday School problem, and with a happy combination of firmness and courtesy in debate, he will be as greatly missed by the Sunday Schools in Sheffield as he is by his fellow members of the Connexional Council.

The Council closes its report in a spirit of gratitude and hopefulness. It recognises that the spirit of the times is not helpful to its work; it calls upon all workers to join in a prayerful, resolute effort to resist every tendency that opposes the Kingdom of Christ, and to labour heart and soul for the glory of His Name and the good of His little ones.

Report of the Boys' Committee, 1914.

A considerable amount of pioneer work has been done by this Committee during the year. The work is threefold—(a) in answer to inquiries to communicate information bearing upon work with boys, (b) to give advice, (c) to forward copies of the publications of the Committee. These duties have been fulfilled in some scores of cases, including correspondence with workers not only in the British Isles, but even in Australia, India, and the West Indies.

There has been a decided increase during the year in the number of Churches and Sunday Schools undertaking definite work with boys.

Many District Sunday School Councils have formed Boys' Committees, which have taken up the work with energy. First of all, these Committees have collected particulars of the means already in operation, then they have set to work in order to arouse interest where there is none, and to encourage those engaged in an effort to win the lads.

Many Circuit Councils of both the Sunday School and the Wesley Guild have given the subject special consideration.

On Sunday afternoon during the Plymouth Conference a Boys' Service was held in King Street Chapel. The Ex-President, the Rev. F. Luke Wiseman, B.A., took the chair, and the Revs. W. B. FitzGerald and George Allen, B.A., were the speakers. This is the first occasion for a Boys'

Meeting to be held during the Conference, but so much good resulted that it is likely to become a standing feature in the future.

The problem of how best to retain the "old boys" in connexion with the Church, when they have reached the age limit prescribed by the various boys' organisations, has received careful thought. Several experienced members of the Committee have devoted special attention to this subject, and as a result it is hoped that helpful suggestions will be tabulated, which will tend to the solution of a difficulty which presents itself under such a variety of conditions.

The returns show that there are now 168 companies and 7,586 boys of the Boys' Brigade, 103 companies and 5,030 officers and boys of the Boys' Life Brigade, 145 troops of Scouts, and 62 other forms of work with Boys in the Wesleyan Church.*

Programme of Advance.

In view of the continued decrease in the number and the average attendance of scholars in our Sunday Schools, this Council resolves:—

1. That a combined effort should be made to obtain a 10 per cent. increase of scholars in all our Sunday Schools.

2. That such effort should be directed to (a) a more regular visitation of absentees whose names are still on the books, so as to retain a larger proportion of the scholars; (b) a systematic canvass in order to secure new scholars.

3. That such canvass should not be in the interests of the Sunday School only, but of the whole Church, including the school.

4. That the persons canvassed should be (a) those living in certain streets in the neighbourhood to be determined locally; (b) the parents of all scholars whose names have been removed from the roll within two years and who still live in the locality; (c) in addition, the neighbourhood of each school should be searched during school hours and an invitation given to children found in the streets who do not attend any Sunday School.

* The returns of the Boys' Brigade and Boys' Life Brigade, made on the Sunday School schedules, are 199 companies of the B.B. and 81 companies of the B.L.B.

5. That such a canvass should be conducted on some such lines as the following (subject to modification and adaptation to local conditions) :—

The canvass should be conducted generally on the lines of a Parliamentary canvass. Names should be taken from a register of electors or from a local directory. Each name and address should be written on a separate card, containing space for particulars of children eligible for Sunday School or Cradle Roll, also space to enter reply given to invitation—whether a visit from the Minister is desired—and other particulars.

About twenty cards should be given to each canvasser. The cards should be prepared by a Secretary (or Registrar) and band of helpers, gathered from the young people of the Church and Sunday School, the Wesley Guild, etc. Each canvasser should be supplied in addition with a card of invitation containing particulars of services, hours of school, etc., to be left with each person visited. It should be the duty of the canvasser to see personally each of his twenty persons and give him the invitation card, and to return the canvass cards in due course with particulars entered. The entry of the particulars to be made privately and with discretion. The cards when filled up to be returned to the Registrar or Secretary of the canvass. Names and addresses of prospective scholars to be given by the Secretary of the canvass to the Sunday School authorities, to be followed up by them. Names and addresses of those who have promised to attend the services to be given to the Minister.

6. That before such canvass is entered upon there should be :—

(a) A serious resolution of the local Sunday School Council to use all possible means to secure the advance proposed.

(b) A joint meeting of the Sunday School Council and the members of the Leaders' Meeting (with possibly other persons present, specially summoned because of their interest in Sunday School work and young people), at which the whole situation should be discussed.

(c) From this meeting a Committee should be formed to undertake the whole scheme of advance. The Committee should select a Secretary or Registrar, and a band of canvassers should be secured. The canvassers should be persons of discretion who are in full sympathy with Sunday School work. While in most cases teachers will be the most willing and efficient canvassers, the work should not be regarded as exclusively theirs. The interest of the existing scholars in the school should be enlisted, and they should be infected with the desire to secure new scholars.

7. That interest in the scheme might be further stimulated by :—

(a) A discussion in each Circuit Council.

(b) A special session of each September Synod.

(c) A series of devotional meetings held early in the autumn and arranged by the local Council in co-operation with the Leaders' Meeting.

APPENDIX V.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT

OF THE

NATIONAL CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

(FOUNDED BY DR. STEPHENSON.)

OURS is a daily ministry to the most helpless and the most needy of Christ's little ones. To welcome the children from destitution and sorrow to love and happiness, to mark the improvement in health and habits, and to see the awakening of the soul to the love of Christ is our unfailing joy in this service. We give thanks to God for His sufficient help, and for the increasing sympathy of our people toward this work.

If it were possible for us to do so, it would be our duty to receive many more of those for whom our help is sought. Alas! we have to discriminate between the needy and the very needy, for every Branch of the Home is always full, and the number waiting admission always large. We should require far more accommodation and a largely increased income to meet the need with which we are only too familiar.

We have increased our family during the year by 60, there being 2,205 children in our care on March 31, 1914. Of these, 544 are new admissions. They include nearly every phase of child-need—from the orphan of godly parentage to the destitute, neglected child of the immoral and the drunkard. An increased number have been received through Magistrates, Poor Law Guardians, and Police Court Missionaries.

The following are typical of many admitted during the year:

Boy of 14. Father dead; mother a charwoman, of indifferent character. Boy found begging.

Boys of 12, 10, and 8. Mother died of consumption; father paralysed. Six children dependent.

Girl of 4 and boy of 2. Father an invalid for some little time previous to his death. Mother left with five little children in extreme poverty.

Boys of 8 and 6. Father dead. Mother a very respectable woman, left with four young children.

Girls of 6 and 5. Father intemperate; deserted several years ago. Mother died of consumption.

Boy of 9. Father dead. Mother addicted to drink.

Boy of 7. Father in prison. Mother a most respectable woman. Has three children dependent.

Boy of 4. Fatherless. Mother left with two children under four years, and unable to find regular employment.

During the year 484 have left our care. The total number of children received since the beginning of the work is 10,491. We continue to receive abundant evidence of the well-doing of our former children, which is our chiefest joy.

The Branches.—The development of the new Branches at Harpenden and Bramhope has proceeded as the funds at our disposal have made it possible, but further progress cannot be made until the necessary financial help is forthcoming. We have added to the Harpenden Branch during the year a portion of the School, the Laundry, Governor's House, and the Staff Houses. The Chapel has not yet been begun, and the Stephenson Memorial Hall, a most urgent need, is still waiting the necessary funds for erection. Other vacant spaces for Houses and Workshops reveal the need of generous help before this branch can be completed. At Bramhope two additional Houses and a portion of the School have been erected, and our family there now numbers 120.

A new Branch, the generous gift of Mrs. Moxon, of Hastings, has been opened at Doddington, Kent. It is a commodious, well-adapted house, capable of accommodating about fifty children, and will prove of great value in assisting a specially needy class of children.

Improvements have been made at Frodsham, Farnborough, and Alverstoke Branches. At Frodsham the generous legacy of £5,000 of the late Miss Fowler, the donor of the Branch, will enable us to proceed with the erection of the School and the completion of the Branch.

Circumstances over which we have no control may probably necessitate the early closing of the Lalcham Orphanage at Oxted, and we must find ways and means of providing for our family of forty children. We have made many friends in the neighbourhood, and if we leave it we shall do so with profound regret.

Throughout the Branches the work has been carried on with diligence and cheerfulness by the Staff. It is a pleasure to bear testimony to the high motive and the whole-hearted devotion of Governors, Sisters and other helpers in this great work. The results which constantly cheer us are, to a large extent, the fruit of their devotion.

Finance.—There has again been an encouraging increase in the ordinary income of the year, for which we are profoundly thankful. The chief sources which show increases are: Street and House-to-House Collections, Young Leaguers' Union, and Public Meetings. We regret, however, that there is again a decrease in the Public Collections taken in chapels and Sunday schools.

We are deeply grateful to the many friends of our work for the noble response to our appeals. Everywhere there is an increasing interest in this Christ-like cause, and we again commend it with confidence to the prayers and the sympathy of our people.

APPENDIX VI.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

The Central Problem.—The second year's work in connexion with the new League of Abstainers has brought to light abundant evidence of the need for such a movement.

A main object of the League is to enrol in its Young Abstainers' Section every young Methodist, between 13 and 21 years of age, as a pledged abstainer. The belief that in this stretch of years the liquor habit is usually formed led to this attempt. Evidence which strikingly confirms this belief has accumulated in the course of the annual League canvass of the upper classes of our Sunday schools.

The work of the year has brought to light many instances of the prevalence of drinking customs among young people in industrial life. The Committee deplores the widespread mischief resulting, and urges our people, especially those in industrial centres, to do all in their power to promote total abstinence among the youth of the nation.

This is the central problem. Unless a new conscience in respect of the waste and peril of drinking habits can be formed in young England, the progress of the Temperance Reformation will be sadly retarded. Happily, the Young Abstainers' League is proving an efficient weapon in the fight. There is a large increase this year in its membership. We must persist until every young Methodist is a League member, annually re-affirming the pledge to abstain from all alcoholic drinks.

The Expansion of the League.—It is pleasing to record an increase in membership in the Young Abstainers' League of 17,601, and in the Adult Abstainers' League of 24,975. The total membership of the League, in its two sections, is now 134,366. There are branches of the League in over 2,000 of our churches.

The three Lancashire Districts again report the largest District League membership: Bolton, 10,502; Liverpool, 9,786; Manchester, 9,110. The three largest Circuit returns of League membership are the Bolton Mission, 1,808; the Leeds Mission, 1,569; and Liverpool (Bootle), 1,481.

Three Silver Challenge Shields have been presented to the Department during the year by Mr. Albert Walker, Sir Ernest H. Lamb, C.M.G., M.P., and Lady Lamb.

The Charles Garrett Shield, to be held by the League Branch reporting the largest number of members, goes this year to Oxford Place, Leeds, where no less than 1,191 abstainers have been enrolled in the Branch of the League. The Hugh Price Hughes Shield, to be held by the Branch with the largest League membership in proportion to local church membership, goes to Trebanog, in the Rhondda Circuit. This Shield now hangs in a room which two years ago was a miners' drinking club; the club was struck off the register for misconduct, and the room is now used for Methodist preaching. While the membership of our infant Church at Trebanog is 16, no less than 101 League members have been enrolled there. The John Wesley Shield, to be held yearly by the Branch showing the largest proportionate increase in membership, is won this year by Springfield Hall, Wandsworth Road, London. In 1913 Springfield Hall reported 35 League Members, in 1914 its membership has grown to 539. The results indicated by the award of the three Shields are indicative of the new spirit of Temperance enthusiasm which the League is creating throughout the Connexion.

The Connexional Temperance Secretary has been invited to visit Ireland next winter to assist in the establishment of the League throughout Irish Methodism. Correspondence with the Synods of the Transvaal and North Ceylon Districts is leading to the establishment of the League in those areas of the foreign field. Branches have also been formed at certain of the West Indian stations. Frequent inquiries as to the League method are received from the Temperance Committees of other denominations. The United Methodist Church and the Baptist Total Abstinence Association are constituting new Temperance Organisations similar to the Wesleyan Methodist League of Abstainers.

A Complete Temperance Programme.—The time is ripe for the inclusion of all forms of Temperance endeavour in our Church within the scope of a Complete Temperance Programme.

For some years there has been a steady decrease in the membership of the Bands of Hope. The reasons are those affecting all the Church's work amongst the children. Day schools are claiming more and more of the children's interest and attention, and schoolwork to be done at home makes against attendance at a week-evening meeting. The competition of the "Picture House" has been felt keenly by many Bands of Hope, especially in the smaller country towns. The greater stress of commercial life makes it more and more difficult for workers to be found who can be present at a meeting held as early in the evening as a children's meeting must be. Also the decrease in the number of Sunday-school scholars has had a corresponding influence on Band of Hope returns.

There is a nominal decrease in our Connexional Band of Hope returns this year of 20,441; but as the Band of Hope statistics at present include Juvenile Temperance rolls, and a number of these have been cancelled to make way for the organisation of Temperance work on the basis of the League, the real decrease in children actually atténding Bands of Hope is much smaller. Further, against the decrease in Band of Hope figures is to be set the enrolment of 3,168 children in experimental branches of a children's section of the Abstainers' League, the purpose of which is to enrol, in a reliable fashion, as pledged abstainers those Methodist children who cannot be gathered into Band of Hope membership. The experiment has been so successful that it is proposed to establish children's branches of the League wherever there is a considerable number of our children who cannot attend a Band of Hope.

The ultimate aim of the Complete Temperance Programme outlined below is the enrolment of every Wesleyan Methodist as a pledged abstainer. It will be seen that for each period in life there is a simple and suitable method of Temperance enrolment.

The Complete Temperance Programme includes:

1. For Children under 7: A Primary Section of the Abstainers' League.

Parents will be invited to pledge their children at birth to the Temperance cause.

Mrs. Peter Thompson, together with other lady members of the Connexional Temperance Committee, will especially interest themselves in this new movement. Attention will be drawn in the literature issued to the provision in the Children Act which makes it illegal for alcoholic liquor to be given to children under five years of age except in case of sickness, or under express medical orders.

2. For Children from 7 to 13: Either the Band of Hope, or a Children's Section of the League.

At 7 the child is to take his own pledge of abstinence from alcoholic liquors, and be enrolled in the Band of Hope, or where Band of Hope membership is impossible, as a member of the Children's Section of the League.

Wherever a Band of Hope exists, the work of enrolling those children who cannot attend its meetings as members of the Children's Section of the League will be under the direction of the Band of Hope Committee; where no Band of Hope exists, the work of the Children's Section will be entrusted to the local League Secretary or other suitable worker.

Careful attention is being given to the revision and strengthening of Band of Hope work throughout the Connexion. An affiliation scheme of Bands of Hope to the Connexional Department has made a promising start; nearly 300 Bands paid the affiliation fee this year, and secured such advantages as the free use of Temperance Lantern Lectures and a Temperance Lending Library, and free participation in a Temperance examination course.

3. For Young People Between 13 and 21: The Young Abstainers' League.

At 13 years of age members of the Children's Section will be transferred to the Young Abstainers' League; while Band of Hope members on attaining that age will also be enrolled as members of the Young Abstainers' League, but urged not to give up their Band of Hope attendance. As adolescence is the time when life habits are formed, the annual reaffirmation of the League pledge begins at the age of 13.

4. For all Those above 21: The Adult Abstainers' League.

At the age of 21, the Young Abstainer is transferred to the Adult Abstainers' League. It is also hoped that, by the work of the women's sub-committee, mothers who enrol their little children in the Primary Section of the League will themselves be induced to join the Adult Abstainers' League. Gradually the Adult Abstainers' League should come to include the great majority of the adult attendants at Wesleyan Methodist worship.

The Complete Temperance Programme formulated above provides a simple means of unifying new Temperance methods and old. It should go far to mobilise the Temperance forces of our Church for effective campaigning against the drink evil.

Temperance Propaganda.—Temperance Propaganda has been actively pursued. The Connexional Temperance Secretary and the Lay Temperance Advocates—Mr. Henry Wilson and Mr. R. J. Denholm—have together visited nearly 200 Circuits during the year. Numerous Bands of Hope Demonstrations and Abstainers' League Rallies have been addressed, and Conferences held with Temperance workers of the Circuits visited. There has been a notable increase in attendance at such gatherings this year, and a delightful quickening in the spirit of the workers.

Bureau of Free Legal Information.—The Bureau of Free Legal Information has given frequent advice to Methodist Temperance workers on licensing matters. Forty-two cases have been dealt with, or nearly twice as many as in the preceding year. Most inquiries have related to the best method of preparing opposition to old or new licences at Brewster Sessions. Other subjects of correspondence were the sale of sweets containing liquor, hours of closing, the presence of children in public-houses, grocers' licences, clubs, the sale of beer in an unauthorised place, habitual drunkards, the payment of wages in a public-house, and the delimitation of licensed premises. One interesting result concerns a Lincolnshire watering place where an extension of the hours of sale was granted to the licensees during the tourist season of 1913. The local League Secretary obtained legal advice through the Bureau, organised opposition to a similar request at this year's Brewster Sessions, and succeeded in inducing the Bench to refuse an extension this year.

Temperance Poster Campaign.—A beginning has been made with the issue of a series of new Temperance posters—a particularly promising form of Temperance propaganda. A poster design competition in the Pioneer resulted in over 100 designs being submitted. These were carefully examined, prizes awarded, and a capital series of 12 new Temperance posters will be ready for issue in the autumn—some illustrated, some letterpress.

A Temperance Lending Library.—A Lending Library consisting of about 30 volumes on the Drink Problem and the Gambling Evil has been formed. Any recognised Wesleyan Temperance worker can borrow a book free of charge and retain it for a month. 109 volumes were applied for during the year, and 40 of them purchased and retained by the borrowers. The aim of the Library is to place front-rank literature in the hands of workers. The Library is to be extended by the addition of a section on Social Problems.

Temperance Study Circles.—Mr. R. J. Denholm conducted during the past year with success two Temperance Study Circles; one for Band of Hope members, the other for senior Temperance workers. There were 35 entrants, 33 of whom sent in a satisfactory series of papers. The Study Circle idea bids fair to develop rapidly. New courses of study are being prepared for the next autumn and winter.

The National Position of the Temperance Question—There is much to encourage in the present position of the Temperance Movement in our own Church. There is grave reason for anxiety respecting the position nationally. The National Drink Bill for 1913 amounted to £166,681,000. This was an increase on the preceding year of £5,127,670. Turned into figures per individual this means that in 1913 the expenditure on Strong Drink per head was £3 12*s.* 5*d.*, as compared with £3 10*s.* 9*d.* in 1912. The increased commercial prosperity of the country doubtless explains this in part, but it is a lamentable thing that at this time of day our people should make better times an excuse for more drinking.

The Sale of Intoxicating Liquor on Sunday Bill reached its second reading in the House of Commons on May 8. The Bill did not require the entire closing of public-houses on Sundays. It provided that the hours during which liquor can be sold on Sunday should be reduced to three in the provinces and four in London; it also gave powers to local Licensing Justices still further to lessen the hours of sale. Notwithstanding the very moderate nature of these proposals the Bill was rejected on its second reading, the figures being :—

For the rejection	198
Against	179
Majority for rejection	19

It is particularly distressing to note that the Opposition treated the Bill as a party measure, and not a single Unionist vote was cast in its favour. There were also defections from the Liberal and Labour ranks. Altogether the event shows a lamentable indifference on the part of the legislature alike to the safeguarding of the Lord's Day and to the restriction of drinking facilities. The Committee places on record its intense disappointment at the rejection of the measure.

Again and again the Prime Minister and other members of the Cabinet have promised the introduction of a new and comprehensive Licensing Bill. One interest after another claims the care of the Government, but the drink evil remains unchecked. The preventive work of the Churches is undone in thousands of cases by the multiplicity of licensed temptations to drink. The Committee urges emphatically that the oft-repeated pledges of the Government should be fulfilled without further delay.

Last year saw the passage into law of a Temperance measure for Scotland. The chief immediate advantage is that licensed premises cannot now open earlier than 10 o'clock in the morning, instead of at 8 o'clock as formerly. The greatest gain from the Act will be realised in later years, for Local Option will come into force throughout Scotland in 1920. If the Government's programme continues too crowded to find space for a Bill for England and Wales as comprehensive as the Licensing Bill of 1908, why does not the Government introduce a Bill on the lines of the Scottish Act? Arm the electorate with the weapon of Local Option and a reduction of drinking facilities is certain.

Betting and Gambling.—The subject of betting and gambling was remitted to the Temperance Department by the Conference, with the direction that the Department should initiate a campaign against these growing evils. The subject has had constant attention in the public work of the representatives of the Department. Inquiries respecting the legal aspects of the problem have been dealt with through the Bureau of Free Legal Information. Frequent articles have also appeared in the Pioneer, contributed by ministers and laymen who have made a special study of the forms in which gambling is growing in their neighbourhoods.

There is a significant lack of suitable literature for the campaign against gambling. Steps are now being taken by the Department to furnish Methodist social workers with the class of literature needed.

The growth of the League of Abstainers affects, in some degree, the older forms of Temperance enrolment. Rolls of Abstainers included in both Juvenile and Adult statistics of preceding years have been cancelled where Branches of the League have been founded; this usually means the replacement of an unreliable method of numbering by a method which is reliable.

The Children's Section of the League of Abstainers is in formation and 3,168 members have been enrolled in 156 Children's Branches.

APPENDIX VII.

THE LONDON MISSION AND EXTENSION FUND.

In accordance with the Regulations the Committee has met quarterly during the year. A number of Sub-Committees have been held for dealing with Finance, Sites and Plans, the New Regulations, the London Mission Fund, Circuits in North and North-East London, and various forms of Christian work.

Sites and Buildings Section.

Schemes Completed or Still in Hand.—St. George's and Paddy's Goose (London Mission, East), Acton (Ealing and Acton Circuit), Edmonton New Hall (Tottenham Circuit), Coulsdon (Croydon, London Road Circuit), Muswell Hill (Highgate Circuit), Cranbrook Park (Ilford Circuit).

The New Chapel at Cottenham Park (Tooting Circuit) has been opened during the year, and already promises to be an important centre of Methodist influence.

A New Hall has been opened at The Slade (Woolwich Circuit) in order to make provision for a large artisan population employed at Woolwich Arsenal.

A Grant has been made toward the purchase of a large and valuable property in Denbigh Road, Bayswater, with a view to future extension of our work.

The heavy debt which has burdened our property at the Central Mission, Clerkenwell, has now been removed. A Grant of £1,200 has been made towards this object, and this Mission Centre has started on a new career of usefulness.

The Committee has been able to make further Grants of £2,000 to Kingsway Hall. This has been done in accordance with the suggestion of the last Conference and in co-operation with the General Chapel Fund, the Home Mission Fund, and the Trustees of the Westminster Central Buildings.

The Committee has carefully considered the position of our Chapel and School property at Richmond Road, Hackney, where the lease will shortly expire. It is hoped that a continuation lease, for a short period, will be secured.

New Sites have been secured at East Barnet, in the New Barnet Circuit, and also at Bush Hill Park, in the Tottenham Circuit.

The complete List of Sites held by the Committee in view of future developments is as follows:—Balham (Tooting Circuit), Pinner (Watford Circuit), Northwood (Watford Circuit), New Eltham (Chislehurst Circuit), Chingford (Clapton Circuit), Southfields (Wandsworth Circuit), Clock House (Bromley Circuit), Widmore (Bromley Circuit), Kenley (Croydon, London Road Circuit), Woodside Green (Croydon, South Norwood Circuit), Radlett (St. Albans Circuit), Tolworth (Kingston-on-Thames Circuit), Collindale Avenue (Finchley and Hendon Circuit), Mill Hill (Finchley and Hendon Circuit), Hendon (Finchley and Hendon Circuit), Northfields Lane (Ealing and Acton Circuit), Pitshanger (Ealing and Acton Circuit), Southall (Ealing and Acton Circuit), Upminster (Ilford Circuit), Chadwell Heath (Ilford Circuit), East Sheen (Richmond Circuit), Leybourne Road Gardens, Kew (Richmond Circuit), Wembley (Kilburn and Hampstead Circuit), Golder's Green (Kilburn and Hampstead Circuit), Mare Street (Hackney Circuit), Epsom (Sutton Circuit), Bandon Hill (Sutton Circuit), East Barnet (New Barnet Circuit), Bush Hill Park (Tottenham Circuit).

Temporary Iron Chapels or Schools have been erected on some of these sites.

These sites are held by Trustees on behalf of our Church, and the London Mission and Extension Fund has paid, during the year, a portion of the interest to the extent of £401 2*s.* 8*d.*

The New Proposals for London.

The Conference of 1909 directed the Committee as follows:

1. To devise, and press upon those concerned, schemes for the strengthening and development of Methodism in London, having regard especially:

To the needs of Circuits and Chapels, chiefly in the inner and middle belt of London, once prosperous, but now surrounded by populations altogether different from those formerly occupying these areas.

To the need for rectification of Circuit boundaries, the re-arrangement or amalgamation of small Circuits, and the supply in some cases of help in the administration of affairs where local help has failed or proved insufficient.

To the needs of neighbourhoods where our Church is not, or not adequately, represented.

2. To recommend to the Conference from time to time the area within which the operations of the Committee shall be applied.

3. To manage, subject to such rules and regulations as the Committee may hereafter approve, a New Fund to be raised for the promotion of Methodism in the defined area.

The creation of this New Fund was postponed because of the Centenary of the Foreign Missionary Society. The interval has been devoted to the carrying out of various new enterprises, and also of visiting Chapels and areas in nearly all parts of London. Special reports have been prepared showing our buildings, our Church activities, and also the changing character of the populations around these buildings. The fact that the resources of the old Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund are rapidly diminishing and the clamant needs of London make it necessary for the new Advance Movement to be undertaken at once. The Committee has carefully considered all the Rules and Regulations of the past in the light of experience and of the new and pressing needs of the Metropolis, and suggests the following alterations:

Area of Operation.—This Fund shall assist in the acquisition of Sites and the erection of commodious Wesleyan Methodist Chapels and Schools within the City and Metropolitan Police Districts of London.

N.B.—Wherever large industrial and residential populations are found just outside the Metropolitan Area, the Committee may, at its discretion, include these within the scope of the Fund.

School Buildings.—The Committee shall, at its discretion, make Grants towards the erection of School Buildings, whether these buildings are erected before the Chapel is commenced or after the Chapel has been built. The Grants shall be determined after due consideration of the necessities of the case, and shall be reckoned as part of the Grant towards the whole scheme. In cases where the erection of the School is delayed the Grant to the Chapel shall be proportionately less.

Reconstruction of Premises.—Grants may be made to assist in the reconstruction or adaptation of existing Chapels and School Buildings to altered conditions.

Re-organisation of our Work.—Assistance may be given to the re-organisation of our work in Circuits, Chapels, and Missions that exist in those parts of London where populations have changed in such a manner as to require special methods and agencies.

The New Fund.

The Committee recommends that an appeal in accordance with the directions of the Conference be made, to commence during the next Connexional year, for the sum of £150,000, and that a clear statement be issued respecting the objects to which the Fund will be devoted.

Work and Workers' Section.

Work of the London Mission.—The Work of God in the various branches of the London Mission is being carried on with the devotion and sacrifice that have always characterised it. The need for this special work is as urgent as ever it was; while numbers have been reclaimed from vice and poverty and have removed into better neighbourhoods others, alas, have taken their places.

The Central Fund of the London Mission has had the careful and anxious consideration of the Committee during the year.

Owing to the sickness and death of its late Secretary a large debit balance had accumulated, but the appointment of the Rev. C. Ensor Walters to this section of our work has made it possible to regain lost ground. During the year Mr. Walters has been able to increase the income by about £800.

Methodism in North and North-East London.

Interim Report.

The Conference of 1913 directed the Committee, in conjunction with the Synods that are affected, to take steps for uplifting and strengthening Methodism in North and North-East London by the rectification of Circuit Boundaries, by the re-arrangements or amalgamation of Circuits, or by any other methods that may seem desirable, and to present its proposals to the Conference.

During the year Sub-Committees have visited the following Circuits: Kentish Town, Highgate, Highbury, Finchley and Hendon, Prince of Wales' Road, Wesley's Chapel, Stoke Newington, and Mildmay Park. Careful reports of the entire position of Chapels in these various Circuits have been prepared and are being considered. It is hoped that definite proposals affecting a considerable portion of this area will be ready for the Conference of 1915. In the meantime the Committee will support the proposals of the First London Synod in relation to the Highbury Circuit, and will assist in making them effective.

These proposals are as follows:

1. That for the next year the Highbury Circuit shall be constituted as at present, so that the Quarterly Meeting may continue in accordance with the constitution of our Church, and all the present Officers and Workers in the Circuit may continue to have an opportunity of doing their best for the maintenance of the work of God.

2. That a Committee of Management be formed for the purpose of assisting the Highbury Circuit in relation to all the problems that are to be found within its borders. The Committee to consist of representatives of the existing Highbury Circuit, together with representatives to be chosen by the First London Synod from Circuits surrounding the Highbury Circuit, and of London Methodism generally.

3. The Committee shall be directed to consider, during the year, the whole case of the retention or otherwise of Caledonian Road, and any other changes that may be considered necessary to the maintenance and extension of our work in that particular locality.

The Synod further recommends, in view of the fact that the proposed Committee of Management will have to meet a serious financial situation, that Grants in aid be made from the Home Mission Fund and the London Mission and Extension Fund, the amounts required to be fixed by the Committee of Management at its first meeting.

Open-Air Work in London.

The Training School for Preachers and Speakers in the Open-Air has done another successful winter's work. About 80 young men enrolled themselves and attended regularly the Lectures on the Fundamental Truths of Christianity, the best way of meeting the Rationalism of the Times, Voice Production, and other practical aspects of Open-Air work.

The following centres have been organised during the summer for Open-Air Preaching: Hyde Park, Regent's Park, Victoria Park and East London, Clapham Common, Hampstead Heath, Bermondsey, Tooting Broadway.

All this special new work has been provided for by means of an Interim Fund which has been created for doing special aggressive work until the new and larger Fund can be raised.

APPENDIX VIII.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF THE CHAPEL COMMITTEE, 1914.

The Committee is glad to report that the Income has been more than maintained. The total Income from Collections and Subscriptions is £10,262 6*s.* 3*d.*, being an increase on the year of £210 19*s.* 2*d.*, which, considering the fact that the increase three years ago was £179 6*s.* 11*d.* is satisfactory. The Collections show an increase of £42 17*s.* 3*d.*, but as this source of Income declined both last year and the year before, this item is not so encouraging as it might seem. Taking into account the large number of new Chapels which have been erected, the Income from Collections ought to be considerably more. The Committee again calls attention to the fact that in many cases the Collection is not remitted in full, part being retained for local purposes.

Great care has been taken during the year in the Allocation of Grants not to exceed the income. The liabilities of the Fund to-day are £8,403 for relief of debt, and £10,765 for new erections, a grand total of £19,168. To meet these unpaid promises there is a capital of £19,122.

It has been found necessary to defer all applications for Grants towards relief of debt during April and May. Last year there were three months of arrears carried forward, so that the position is slightly improved. As compared with two years ago, it is considerably better, the arrears then being six months. As the year begins practically with a clean sheet so far as liabilities are concerned, the situation is more hopeful.

The Loans Fund has again been largely drawn upon for relief of debt. Out of £46,000 the sum of £45,388 has been lent without interest, and there are promises on the books of further loans amounting to £11,950 to be paid as the money is available.

The investments are to-day £2,827 less than twelve months ago. This is accounted for largely by the demands on the Reserve Fund supplementary to the Century Fund. The Committee has paid from this source this year £5,135.

It is satisfactory to be able to report that notwithstanding the continued drain upon its resources, the Interest on Loans, and Investments for the year, covers the entire cost of the Department within about £70.

The Reserve Fund which was created out of the ordinary income to supplement the Century Fund is not yet complete. It is being built up year by year by interest. This fund now stands at £4,554, the sum of £202 having been added during the year. Already £22,835 has been paid in grants from this source, and there are still outstanding promises amounting to £7,165, so that if the schemes are carried out there is still £2,611 required. It is possible that one or two of these schemes to which large grants have been promised may lapse, in which case the Chapel Fund would be relieved to this extent.

The total new expenditure sanctioned under Schedule A is £247,069, which is £47,343 in advance of last year. The number of cases is 289, as against 308 last year. The number of new Chapels to be erected is 41, the same number as last year. Of these 11 are to be built in places where previously there was no Methodist Chapel, and 30 supersede former erections.

The additional accommodation provided in the new Chapels is 7,231 sittings, as against 5,520 last year. The enlargements provide 838 additional sittings, making the total additional accommodation 8,069, as against 6,051 last year. The average cost per sitting is £6; last year it was £6 13s. The total debt on the entire outlay is $24\frac{5}{10}$ per cent., as against $35\frac{2}{10}$ per cent. last year. The debt on Chapels alone is $18\frac{6}{10}$ per cent. as against $19\frac{3}{10}$ per cent. last year.

The number of alterations and enlargements sanctioned this year is 107, as against 122 last year, and the cost £46,924, as against £42,879. Many of these alterations include Schools, and most of the new Chapel cases also include Schools. In addition, 25 Schools have been separately sanctioned at a cost of £60,411, an increase in the amount sanctioned of £32,681 as compared with last year. The increase in outlay under the head of modifications is £17,726.

In the return of cases completed under Schedule B, there are 279 cases representing an outlay of £337,152. Of these, 61 are Chapels, costing £197,918. There are 60 cases in which the conditions have not been fulfilled, as against 87 last year. Of these, 18 are Chapels, as against 26 last year. The debt on the entire outlay on completed cases works out at 32 per cent., as against $30\frac{1}{10}$ per cent. last year, the increase being largely accounted for by the Kingsway Hall scheme. There are 6 irregular cases, representing in all an outlay of £2,769. Of these, only one is a Chapel, costing £500.

The new Chapels returned as completed number 61; of these 27, to accommodate 6,170 hearers, have been erected in places where previously there were no Wesleyan Methodist Chapels, and 34, with 12,024 sittings, supersede former erections, which provided 7,575 sittings. The total additional accommodation provided in the new Chapels is therefore 10,619 sittings. The Chapel enlargements provide 569 additional sittings, making the total additional accommodation represented by these completed returns 11,188 sittings.

The amount raised locally for new erections and enlargements is £201,705. The amount actually expended both for new erections and relief of debt is £469,290; of this amount £318,490 has been raised locally, and if the Grants be added, the amount actually raised is £338,100. Last year it was £311,872. In seven years the Methodist people have completed cases of Chapels and Schools, etc., and Relief of Debt, which represent an outlay of £3,923,725.

There has again been great activity in dealing with debt. During the year the Committee has settled 173 cases of Relief by grants amounting to £6,733, discharging £74,530 of debt. This is an increase of 12 cases as compared with last year, but a decrease of grants paid amounting to £314. The amount of debt paid off, however, shows an increase of £15,739 on last year.

Loans have been advanced without interest in 27 cases amounting to £8,620, thereby discharging £18,642 of debt. This is an increase of 7 cases, and an increase in the amount of debt discharged by the aid of Loans of £7,859. The total debt paid off by Loans and Grants is £93,172, an increase of £23,598.

The debt paid off by local efforts exclusively is £38,966, being £3,926 less than was paid off locally last year. The total debt paid off during the year is £132,138. This return shows that the Trustees are still grappling nobly with the liabilities they have incurred. The total debt discharged since 1854 is £3,810,922.

There are 9,197 Trusts making returns, an increase of 36, as compared with last year. The debt exclusive of the capitalised value of ground rent is £1,396,413, being £64,381 less than last year. In two years the debt has been reduced on these returns by £76,812. There are 5,971 Trusts free from debt. The total income is £776,848, an increase of £50,386. There are 3,648 Trusts contributing £52,901 to Circuit Funds, a decrease of 19 Trusts and of £723 in the amount contributed.

The number of Legal Documents that have passed through the office during the year is 1,833, of which 337 were renewals under Fowler's Act, all of which have been registered.

Connexional Organ Committee.—The Connexional Organ Committee, which was appointed last year to act in conjunction with the Chapel Committee, has commenced its work during the year. Its advice has been sought in a number of cases, and in each case suitable counsel has been given. Model specifications have been prepared for organs of various sizes, and have been submitted to the consideration of trustees contemplating the erection of an instrument. In addition to the above, special specifications have been prepared by members of the Committee when these have been solicited. A good beginning has been made; and as the Committee becomes better known, we fully expect that it will become of great service throughout the Connexion.

Twentieth Century Fund.—The following is a summary of the Century Fund cases already settled to May 31, 1914. In addition to these, Grants have been paid by instalments in many cases the cost of which is not taken into account.

No.		Cost.	Debt.
664	New Chapels . . .	£2,757,322	£714,004
217	Schools	327,287	71,206

36	Ministers' Houses . .	31,925	6,849
1,246		£3,517,866	£893.547

The total amount of Grants paid to May 31, 1914, is £336,799.

The Debt on the entire outlay, after deducting £259,571 covered by rental, is £633,976, being slightly over 18 per cent.

Income of the Fund.

The Ordinary Income of the Fund from Collections and Subscriptions for the year ending May 31, 1914, is £10,262 6s. 3d., being an increase on the year of £210 19s. 2d.

The following are the particulars:

	Amount.	Increase.	Decrease.
Public Collections . . .	6,465 15 2	42 17 3	—

Grants Fund.

The sum of £6,733 has been paid in Grants for Relief of Debt, and £2,956 to New Erections. The amount in hand on the Relief and General Account was, on May 31, £8,356 15*s.* 1*d.*, and the amount in hand on Erections Grants Fund was £10,765.

Loans Fund.

The Capital of the Loans Fund is: Relief Loan Fund (A), £46,000; Erections Loan Fund (C), £45,115 12*s.*

During the year the sum of £8 620 has been paid in new Loans on the Relief Account and £605 on the Erections Fund Account, making a total of Loans advanced, £9,225. The Loan Instalments repaid have amounted to £6,043 17*s.* 6*d.* on the Relief Account, and £1,118 on the Erections Fund Account. The repayment of 33 Loans on both accounts has been completed during the year. There are now 281 Loans in operation. The balances of unpaid Loans on May 31 were: Relief Fund (A), £45,388 6*s.* 3*d.*; Erections Fund (C), £3,898 5*s.*

APPENDIX XI.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

This year, for the first time, by direction of the last Conference, a question appears in the Order and Form of Business for the May Synods, asking what steps are taken in the several Districts to ensure the due observance of the Lord's Day. The Committee has good hope that the result may be a widespread awakening of local interest in this important subject.

Two phases of the Lord's Day Observance questions have occupied the attention of the Committee during the year.

(a) The Conference has for many years reiterated its desire that the Sale of Intoxicating Liquors should cease on the Lord's Day. Our Committee was represented at the National Convention, a body representative of many Churches and Temperance organisations, which met last November to demand the passing of a Sunday Closing measure during the present session of Parliament. Such a Bill has been introduced in the House of Commons by the Rt. Hon. T. R. Ferens, M.P., and our Committee by resolution urged upon His Majesty's Government the duty of giving every facility for putting the measure upon the Statute Book. It greatly regrets that the Bill was rejected by the House.

(b) The question of Sunday Trading and Labour has been raised by the Weekly Rest Day Bill promoted by the Imperial Sunday Alliance. To this proposal the Lord's Day Committee has devoted much attention, with the result that it has come, on the whole, to the conclusion that the Bill does not, with sufficient definiteness, uphold the Lord's Day as the Day of Rest to be safeguarded against toil and business. Whilst recognising, therefore, the good intentions of the promoters of the Weekly Rest Day Bill, and the undoubted benefits which would accrue to large numbers of people from its passing into law, the Committee feels that it could not wholeheartedly support the Bill without assurance of stringent amendment providing for increased safeguards for the Sabbath. The Committee has, accordingly, requested the Committee of Privileges to consider in what way the Bill may now most effectively be brought into harmony with the Conference resolutions on Lord's Day Observance.

The Committee desires to acknowledge its obligations to Dr. Neave, one of its members, for a carefully drawn and lucid Memorandum on the existing law with regard to prosecutions for Sunday Trading.

The whole trend and tendency of modern thought and practice in the matter of Lord's Day Observance are in the direction of greater laxity, and while recognising the difficulties presented by the conditions of life in the present day, and especially the life of the poorer classes in our great cities, the Committee would urge upon the Conference the need for maintaining an unflinching allegiance to the Scriptural obligation of keeping the Sabbath Day holy, as alike a plain duty and a sacred privilege, not to be abrogated save at the gravest peril to the individual and the national life.

APPENDIX XII.

LOCAL PREACHERS' AFFAIRS.

Report of the Committee.

From the statistical returns printed on another page, it will be seen that there is an actual decrease on the year of three in the total number of fully accredited Local Preachers in the Connexion. The number reported is 19,463, and 1,477 on trial, 90 more than a year ago. It may be worthy of notice that the number taken on the Full Plan during the year, 624, just meet the cumulative losses from death, emigrations, and retirements. Putting together the various ways by which Local Preachers might help themselves in their Circuits, or be helped by such means as Reading Circles, Libraries, Theological Classes and the like, there are only 335 altogether, which certainly leaves much to be desired in the direction of increasing their fitness for the pulpit.

It is with a measure of regret that the Committee have again to confess that the Annual Examinations do not appear to arouse the interest they deserve. Only 67—the same number as last year, out of a total of over 19,000 Local Preachers—sat for the Examination last March. One cannot suppose that of those who have leisure to prepare for the Examination, which is not an arduous task, there are not more to whom it would be a benefit. Only 58 passed the Examination, which consists both of a theological and homiletical section. In the former section 15 took honours, 28 were in the first division, and 15 in the second; and in the homiletic section 17 took honours, 27 passed in the first division, and 14 in the second.

Next year's Examination—the nineteenth in succession—falls on Monday, March 1, 1915. The text-books are Brigg's Acts of the Risen Lord, and Gurney's Church of the First Three Centuries. Mr. H. Arthur Smith, M.A., and the Rev. Thomas R. James, B.A., are the appointed examiners.

There continues to be an encouraging use of the other aids provided by the Committee for mental stimulus and help, namely, the Correspondence Classes and the purchase of books from the recommended list at two-thirds of the published prices. For the year ending with June, the cost to the Committee of books thus bought was £225 6*s.* 6*d.*

The Committee deeply mourn the recent loss of two distinguished and honoured brethren, Messrs. William Butterworth and John Harding. Both rendered devoted service to the Church they loved, and their names will long be kept in remembrance.

Review of the Year.

The National Wesley Guild Conference.

THE National Wesley Guild Conference held at Birmingham last Easter afforded plain and unmistakable evidence that the Wesley Guild, where it is thoroughly worked, is stronger than ever. There is freshness and vitality in the movement, and its possibilities, far from being exhausted, are continually unfolding.

Nearly five hundred delegates attended, representing as many Guilds, District Councils, or Sectional Councils. It is no small testimony to the earnestness of which young Methodism is capable that so large a number, young men and young women, should give their Easter week-end to a gathering so directly religious in character.

The Sessions were characterised throughout by a deep spiritual tone, and an intelligent grasp of the needs of the Church. Ample time was allowed in every Session for full and free discussion, and the speaking was excellent in quality and always to the point. It was evident that the Delegates were heartily in sympathy with the highest ideals of the movement.

It was ascertained during the Conference that a very large number of the Delegates were local preachers; a still larger proportion Leaders, Senior or Junior; and that nearly all were Sunday School workers.

The Wesley Guild, as represented by the National Conference, is an effective training for service and is raising up an army of workers of which any Church might be proud.

A New Evangelistic Venture.—A proposal first ventilated by Mr. Arthur Bowen at the September Meeting of the Central Council took definite form at the National Conference. It might be aptly described as Holiday Evangelism. A number of young men have expressed their willingness to spend a week of their holidays in country districts and will give their evenings to visiting the villages, holding open-air services, encouraging country Guilds, and in strengthening in every possible way our country Methodism.

A party is being arranged for the present summer, and will carry out evangelistic work in the Wye Valley and Forest of Dean.

The Devotional Department.—The Devotional Meeting still holds its own as the most helpful meeting of the Guild, and its influence is felt through all the Departments. Several features of our Headquarters' work deserve special mention.

1. The Devotional Booklet.

The fact that we have sold at Headquarters about 25,000 copies of this little publication is evidence in itself that it has met a real need. We receive testimonies on all hands to its worth and helpfulness. The subject for the past winter has been "St. Paul's Hymn to Love," with the Rev. Percy Ainsworth's volume bearing the same title as a book for Devotional study.

The new Booklet for 1914-15, already published, marks a great advance upon any we have yet issued.

2. The Guild Bible Study Circle.

The Bible Study Circle has been conducted by the Rev F. J. Pope, and the topic for the year is "The Prophets of Israel," beginning with the Minor Prophets. Our method of work includes :—

(1) Papers month by month in The Guild.
(2) Suggestions as to the best books to read.
(3) Monthly questions on the topic of the paper.
(4) Correspondence.

The letters received by Mr. Pope show that keen interest has been awakened. Circles have been formed in many Guilds, and many solitary students have been helped.

The Literary Department.—Difficult as it is in these days of numerous outside attractions to get young people to read the best books, we have nevertheless been cheered by some evidences of success.

"The Fellowship of Books," conducted by the Rev. R. Martin Pope, M.A., continues to strengthen its hold upon readers of The Guild. Mr. Pope's plan is to suggest a short course of reading for each month and to comment on it in the following number. Two books of sterling literary worth are chosen for continuous reading and study during the year and other additional books are suggested from time to time. All are selected from cheap shilling and sixpenny editions.

The Guild still maintains a large circulation and helps the movement in a great variety of ways. In addition to the two monthly articles already named, another series of papers deserves special mention, namely the series on "Great Art," by the Rev. G. Beesley Austin. Each of these papers is accompanied by a full-page illustration of the picture which Mr. Austin takes for his text.

Christian Service Department.—The manifold variety of the work included under this head makes it impossible to do more than refer to one or two special features. The Guild has in many instances become the working force of the Church, and its members are undertaking all kinds of helpful service. We endeavour at Headquarters to supply our local workers with practical suggestions.

The Modern Sunday School, by the Rev. J. Williams Butcher, is an addition to our "What to Read" Series, and has been issued with a view to helping those who are engaged in Sunday-school work. Under well-chosen heads Mr. Butcher deals admirably with every aspect of the question, and recommends the best and most up-to-date books to be read by those who wish to attain the highest degree of efficiency.

"Citizenship Evenings" is a leaflet providing guidance for our Guild workers in the selection of Social Service topics, with suggestive programmes and lists of books to read.

The Junior Guild.—The Junior Guild, wherever it has been worked, has proved to be an admirable means of winning and instructing our boys and girls. All the Year Round with the Juniors has received many tributes of praise, not only from workers in our own Church, but from leaders in the world of youth in other Churches. But, prosperous as existing Junior Guilds are, our Church has not yet awakened to the full value of the Movement. If the methods of the Junior Guild were generally adopted, it would go far to solve many of our difficulties with regard to the training of the young.

The Wesley Guild Hospital.—The work we have undertaken in West Africa has entered upon a new phase. Dr. Stephens has been home on furlough during the year, and has now returned to commence the building of his Hospital. During his visit to England he visited many Guilds and awakened immense enthusiasm. All the beds, the operating table, and other necessaries for the Hospital were promised, and willing hands set to work to make quilts and other requisites.

The total amount raised by the Guilds in Great Britain during 1913 was £671 4*s.* Of this, £249 12*s.* 10*d.* was toward the support of Dr. Stephens himself, and the remainder for the equipment of the Hospital. For the complete maintenance of the Hospital, including the doctor himself, at least £620 a year is necessary, and steps will be taken early in the autumn to lay these needs before all our Guilds in such a way that we may reach the required amount.

Young People's Societies.—For the first time our Report includes returns of "Young People's Societies other than Wesley Guilds," and it is, perhaps, not surprising that the information supplied is very imperfect. All manner of Societies have been reported, including Brotherhoods, Sunday Afternoon Bible Classes, Scout Troops, Companies of the Boys' Brigade, and Bands of Hope, all of which are returned in other ways.

After eliminating all these there remain 350 Young People's Societies, with a total membership of 17,601.

The following points are to be noted:

(1) A considerable proportion of these Societies have hitherto been returned as Wesley Guilds.

(2) Forty-eight are Christian Endeavour Societies. These, in nearly all cases, have quite a small membership.

(3) A large proportion of the Societies reported are not substitutes for the Wesley Guild, but are Clubs, Study Circles, or Societies for some specific purpose, working side by side with the Guild.

(4) In the cases of the West London Mission and the Nottingham Mission, the superintendents have entered a list of from ten to a dozen Societies, representing the Institutes of the Missions, and we are glad to be able to recognise these numerous activities as a part of the work done for young people. It would be a great advantage if, in both cases, by a little adaptation, some link could be established so as to bring these hives of industry into fellowship with the larger movement.

(5) No Young People's Society attains so high an average of membership as the Wesley Guild, a fact which is no small testimony to its efficiency.

Numerical Returns.—The net result of the year is a decrease in the numbers of the Guild in Great Britain, both senior and Junior; though the Junior decrease is comparatively small.

In the Senior Guild we report a decrease of 60 Branches of the Guild, and 7,921 Members.

The circuit schedules have been carefully examined and the returns analysed. The following points are worth noting:

(1) Nearly one half of the decrease is accounted for by the transfer of Societies, formerly returned as Guilds, to the column for "Young People's Societies." Few of these were ever Guilds in any true sense of the term.

(2) The remainder of the decrease is due, almost entirely, to the lapse of a large number of Guilds in very small villages, and is to be explained by the discouraging conditions in rural districts. Workers are few, many of the best remove to the towns or emigrate to foreign countries, and those who are left lose heart. In the Whitby and Darlington District, for instance, where there is a net decrease of 16 Branches of the Guild, nearly all the lapsed Societies are village Guilds.

(3) No less than 166 new Guilds have been formed during the year, many of them being revivals on constitutional lines of weak Guilds that had lapsed.

(4) An unsatisfactory feature of the returns is the large increase of Guilds with unclassified membership.

All workers among the young, in other churches as well as our own, are faced by serious problems arising out of the social and religious conditions of our day.

The increasing claims of Evening Schools and Technical Classes are making it more difficult for the most thoughtful of our young people to attend week-evening meetings; while, on the other hand, picture palaces and other amusements are drawing away large numbers, especially of the younger lads and girls.

We have also to contend against apathy in the Church itself. In many cases those who ought to be the leaders of the young make no attempt to understand the aims and ideals of the Guild movement, and even discourage the adoption of effective Guild methods. Guilds are allowed to lapse, and nothing is substituted in their place. The result is a most disastrous neglect of those who ought to be the material of the Church of to-morrow.

In many Districts the District Council is weak and ineffective. In some there is no District organisation whatever, and these are the Districts where our country villages are suffering the most.

If during the coming year our District Councils would get into touch with all the Guilds in their area, helping those that need encouragement; if every Guild, large and small, would act upon the principle that it is its business to win, retain, and in some way recognise as comrades all the young men and women in their School, Church, and Congregation; and if, further, we could count upon the living, active sympathy of all our ministers, leaders, local preachers, and Sunday-school workers, the decrease of the last two or three years could be reversed in six months.

The Wesley Guild is definitely spiritual in aim, and its regulations are sufficiently elastic to meet the conditions of any Church, large or small; but it is, at best, a method of work, and needs working.

APPENDIX XIV.

REPORT OF THE WESLEY DEACONESS INSTITUTE.

The Committee is thankful to report that the Deaconesses, both in the home circuits and missions, and on foreign stations, have rendered another good year's service, and that the work is steadily winning the warm approval of our people, wherever it is established on a satisfactory basis.

A good year's work has also been done at the Training College at Ilkley. The Committee cordially acknowledges the way in which the members of the staff have met the special call upon them owing to the Warden's absence as the Fraternal Delegate to the Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

The main body of Deaconesses are working under our recognised Church authorities, but a few appointments have been made to Rescue Work and White Ribbon Work at home, and to missionary stations abroad under other authorities than those of our own Church. These cases are carefully watched. While it is desirable that there should be some liberty to meet such calls, it grows more and more clear that the Deaconess work is essentially a branch of our Methodist Church order, and thrives best when it is most fully recognised, not as an outside agency, but as an integral part of the life of the Church. Deaconess work is essentially Christian ministry. Its instrument is the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, and for the Deaconess to become merely a social worker, or to be placed in positions where the central aim of leading people to Christ is at all obscured, would be highly detrimental to the work, and it becomes more evident, as experience accumulates, that it is desirable that the direction of the work should be in the hands of the ministers and our recognised Church courts.

The Committee has long felt the desirability of some enlargement of the College premises at Ilkley. The buildings there are proving suitable and convenient in every respect except that of bedroom accommodation. There is need that this should be increased in order to admit of Deaconesses visiting the College more freely as a mother-house, for rest and for consultation with the Warden, and also that the College should be able to receive students who do not intend to offer themselves as candidates for the Deaconess work, but who are desirous of receiving a training for foreign missionary work or for other Christian service. More accommodation is also needed for the College staff. The Committee propose to erect a story above the College Hall which will provide fourteen additional bedrooms. They do not intend to go into debt for this enlargement, but will proceed with the work as soon as the necessary funds are assured. It is also desirable in connexion with this effort to remove the existing debt on the current account, which now amounts to £392 7*s.* 10*d.*, and it has been necessary to purchase some rights of light in order to carry out this improvement. The total amount needed is about £2,000, of which £1,100 is already promised, and the Committee is desirous of obtaining the rest of the money in order that the work may be immediately proceeded with.

The financial arrangements which the Committee has made are proving themselves to be sound. There is still a deficiency of subscribed income this year, amounting to £58 0*s.* 10*d.*, but we have again received one large subscription very generously given on which it is not fair to count permanently. The Committee repeats its conviction that the work needs a Connexional contribution of from £300 to £500 a year to put its finances on a satisfactory basis. The financial arrangement for the cases of sick Deaconesses has worked satisfactorily during the year, though it is to be noted that the number of claims under this head continues to increase, and it is not clear whether it has yet attained its normal level. If the amount needed should grow much larger, fresh arrangements would be necessary to meet it. The Committee recognises that the allowances paid to Deaconesses are only barely sufficient to provide a modestly comfortable maintenance for them, and with the increase in the cost of living there are already many cases where these allowances really need to be increased. The Committee hopes for a generous consideration of those concerned whenever it is necessary to appeal for such an increase.

Convocation was held this year in the Clapham Circuit with the kindly co-operation of several adjacent circuits. The public meetings were unusually successful, and the spiritual tone of Convocation was thoroughly good. Deaconesses have once more shown themselves to be a body possessed of a true social unity and of a strong common devotion to the work and to the Master.

The Roll of Members of the Order is composed as follows:

Deaconesses fully recognised	168
Deaconesses fully recognised at Convocation	22

METHODIST CONCERTED ACTION COMMITTEE.

CONSTITUTION:

Wesleyan Methodists	14
Primitive Methodists	9
United Methodists...	7
Wesleyan Reform Union	1
Independent Methodists	1

Objects.

CO-OPERATION: (1) In Mutual Defence; (2) in Christian, Moral, and Social Work, independent of all party associations and political creeds; (3) in the Prevention of the unnecessary multiplication of Chapels, especially in small places; (4) in the fraternal Development of Methodism in the thousands of villages and small towns where it has at present no existence.

The Committee met on April 28, 1914, the Rev. Andrew Crombie in the Chair. Representatives from the Methodist Churches were present.

1. The Secretary read reports dealing with the cases at Bedford and Letchworth. In reference to the latter case the following resolution was unanimously passed:

> "That having heard the statement of the Secretary of the Committee and also of the Financial Secretary of the Primitive Methodist Church, the Committee is unanimously of opinion that no ground for complaint exists."

2. Newton Abbot Case.—The Secretary reported that certain letters had been received by him complaining that the Primitive Methodist Church was contemplating the starting of a cause in Newton Abbot, and that this had led the local Free Church Council to send to the National Council of Free Churches a strong protest against this. The Rev. H. J. Taylor, Financial Secretary of the Primitive Methodist Church, made a statement to the Committee which showed that the local friends at Newton Abbot were misinformed as to the intention of our Primitive Methodist Brethren. The following resolution was unanimously passed:

> "The Concerted Action Committee having heard the statement of the Secretary of the Primitive Methodist Extension Committee, unanimously expresses its satisfaction with the way in which the subject has been dealt with by the Primitive Methodist Committee and with their decision not to enter Newton Abbot in existing circumstances."

3. Work of the Committee.—A long conversation took place in respect to the work of the Committee, and the feeling was expressed that if possible the Concerted Action and some other Committee should have power to review at an earlier stage proposals for extension which mean entering upon territories already provided for. The difficulties which stand in the way of this were pointed out, and the Committee resolved to postpone the consideration of this question until its next meeting.

APPENDIX XVI.

FOURTH ŒCUMENICAL METHODIST COMMISSION.

The Commission has not met during the year.

No communication has been received from the American section concerning the things remitted for consideration.

The best way of celebrating the Hundred Years of Peace between the United States and Great Britain has been considered by the Special Committee appointed at the Conference of 1913. This Commission has been represented on that Committee.

APPENDIX XVII.

THE METHODIST BUREAU.

During the past year 3,475 cases of removal have been reported to the Methodist Bureau. This number has been made up as follows: 3,114 Members and 361 Adherents. The following tables show the results obtained in connexion with these cases:

1. Members.

In accordance with the request of the Committee we have this year kept a careful register of the 808 cases upon which we could not get reports last year. These cases have been followed up and the following table shows the results:—

The Committee desires once again to call the special attention of the Conference to the fact that 590 cases of Members and 137 Adherents have not been reported upon by the Ministers to whom the Removal Notes were sent. Some of these cases will, of course, be reported upon, but the return dealing with the 808 cases of last year shows the need of more careful attention being given to this matter. The Committee, therefore, requests the Conference to repeat its former declaration in respect of the work of the Bureau, requiring all Ministers, on the removal of any member, to send to the Bureau Committee full details of the name of the member and the Circuit to which he is removing. It further asks the Conference to direct that in the September Synods the Chairmen of Districts shall call attention to this regulation.

APPENDIX XVIII.

REPORT OF LAY WORKERS' COLLEGE, AND SOUTH YORKSHIRE COALFIELD.

Cliff College Report.

The work of the year calls for special thankfulness to God. The transition has been accomplished without any break in the continuity of spirit and work. The heavy expenses have been met, and we close the year with a small balance in hand on the current account. With the exception of two cases of scarlet fever, the health of the College has been good, and the spirit and conduct of the brethren have been all that could be desired.

There were 69 students in residence during the October term, 68 in January, and 67 in April; an average of 68 per term. The number of students for the spring term is much larger than in former years, and a greater number have stayed for the full year's course. Ninety-nine different men have been at the College during the year; of these 20 are candidates for the Home Ministry, 5 have become Lay Agents, 3 have gone to Australia, and 2 to the United States. The rest are not yet settled as to their vocation, but, as usual, some will go to the Colonies, others will become Evangelists, and the majority will return to their Circuits and business. We have many testimonials to the usefulness and influence of Local Preachers who have had a course at the College, and carry its teaching and ideals into their Circuit life.

Since the College was opened in 1904 we have had 883 students in residence. Of these 149 have entered the Home Ministry, 90 have gone to Canada, 71 to the United States, 66 to Australia, and 8 to the various parts of the Foreign Field; 76 are Lay Agents and Evangelists in this country, and 423 have gone back to their Circuits all the better equipped for Christian service.

The Evangelistic Agencies of the College have been blessed to the salvation of many. The Gospel Cars were reduced in nine years from 26 to 3. Those left have done good service during the year, but the work of the Cars needs to be re-organised and placed on better lines. The Evangelists in Circuits directly under our care number 16, and the reports of their services show a year of successful harvest.

My colleagues on the Staff have rendered admirable service, and upon all our work there has been the good hand of our God. The prospects are bright, and there is every reason to be of good courage.

South Yorkshire Coalfield Report.

In presenting its Third Report to the Conference the Commission desires first of all to express its high appreciation of the appointment by the Conference of the Rev. Josiah Mee to the South Yorkshire Coalfield Mission. In every way the appointment has abundantly justified itself, for all departments of the work have prospered under his charge. Favoured with excellent health, Mr. Mee has manifested to a remarkable degree all those gifts of preaching and organising which have characterised his long ministry. Endowed with a rare combination of wisdom, zeal, and personal charm, his varied services are greatly appreciated in all parts of the Coalfield district.

True mission work is undoubtedly being done among the miners. Mr. Mee and his devoted assistants are getting right among the people, and really grappling with the difficult problems of the Coalfield; they are going to those who need them most and offering them the blessings of the Gospel. Having obtained a new motor car through the kindness of friends of the mission, Mr. Mee held, on the first Sunday after procuring the car, no less than six open-air services in six different localities, all the services being largely attended.

As regards the work of other agents of the mission we give Mr. Mee's own words.

Mr. Mee's Report.

"The work of the Rev. W. H. Cookson has been well sustained during the year. Excellent reports have been sent by the superintendents of the various Circuits. Mr. Cookson says himself that he has found an improved spirit in the Churches, the work has been more spontaneous, and in some places notorious characters have been reclaimed and converted.

"Captain Davis has toiled unceasingly, gathering crowds in the open-air and visiting hundreds of families in the new populations. By the kindness of the Chairman of the District he has had the use of a Gospel Car, which has at times served as his home, and by means of which, and his motor car, he has distributed large quantities of cheap Testaments and temperance literature. At Moorthorpe, with the hearty assistance of the resident minister and a band of zealous young men belonging to the South Elmsall Society, Sunday-night services have been conducted in the Picture Palace.

"Mr. Mealing's work at Goldthorp has been greatly assisted by the opening of a new movable Chapel, built of timber and nicely furnished. It will seat comfortably about 100 persons. At Thurnscoe his ministry has proved most successful and acceptable.

"At Dinnington Mr. Varcoe and his excellent wife have stimulated the service and liberality of the people, and have crowded both School and Chapel. The present building holds 300 adults, but it is necessary to erect more commodious premises. Plans have been prepared.

"At Carcroft and Woodlands Mr. Basford has seen many conversions. For the population around the Bullcroft Colliery a new Chapel and Schools are to be proceeded with.

"At Maltby a Chapel and School enlargement scheme has been carried out and land secured for extension. Mr. Adamson's work has been blessed to the extension of the living Church.

"Mr. Troughton at Denaby and Mr. East at Forest Town have both laboured diligently, and have seen conversions and increased congregations.

"Two other evangelists have laboured under the direct control of the mission, viz., Mr. Corbett, a man of considerable experience as a mission preacher, and Mr. Norman Dunning, a scholarly youth without previous experience. Doubtless other young men like-minded will offer themselves in the future for similar service.

"The Superintendent has preached and visited continuously in the area, although it has not yet been covered by him. He has also devoted himself to the problems involved in the raising of the central fund authorised by the Conference of £20,000. He is deeply impressed by the need of every sort of evangelistic endeavour by all the Churches, and thankful to report a sympathetic spirit among the colliers themselves in almost every place."

During the year inaugural meetings have been held at Doncaster and Rotherham respectively. They were both successful gatherings, and a warm interest was manifested by Circuit friends in the work of the mission. In view of these meetings an appeal, prepared by Rev. S. Chadwick, was widely circulated, with encouraging results. In addition to the promises of £1,000 each from the General Chapel Committee and the Home Mission Fund, the sum of £4,600 has already been promised, making a total of £6,600 towards the £10,000 which is the first amount aimed at by the Commission.

Believing that the time had come for definite allocations to be made to the most urgent cases, the Commission has now set about this work, and by this means a stimulus of local enthusiasm and enterprise has been created. At the second meeting of the Commission ten such cases were carefully considered, and schemes for dealing with them were formulated.

It is in no small measure due to the counsel and practical sympathy shown by the Connexional Chapel and Home Mission Committees, and by the Chairman of the Sheffield District, that the Commission is able to present such a satisfactory report of the year's work, and to take so hopeful a view of the future.

Open-air Preaching.

The Committee reports with satisfaction a continued and growing interest in Open-air Preaching. Its value and importance are being more fully recognised, and the desultory and partial efforts of the few are in some Circuits being substituted by well-organised campaigns under capable leadership. An illustration is found in the recent ten days' Mission on Clapham Common, supported by the most prominent members of the Church. The resident Minister at Broomwood, assisted by a Connexional Evangelist, preached to large and reverent congregations night by night. The neighbourhood was stirred and many people were greatly blessed. Every Sunday night since the Mission a meeting has been held on the Common, and the week-night service has been transferred to the same place. The Committee believes that a similar campaign might with great advantage be undertaken in populous localities, and it would be prepared to appoint an Evangelist to assist in any well-organised effort. Of a different, but equally effective type has been the four weeks' Evangelistic tour in the villages of the Bristol District. Assisted by some of the younger Ministers and Laymen, and with the aid of a Gospel Car and tent, the Rev. T. Ferrier Hulme and his helpers, by their original and vigorous campaign, have aroused interest, cheered village Methodists, and set an example worthy of imitation in similar areas. In South Yorkshire the Rev. Josiah Mee and others have proclaimed the Gospel to large congregations of miners, and have thus revived the practice of Wesley and the early Methodist preachers among the colliers of their day. More important, however, than any scheme of work which either the Committee or Circuits may promote, is spontaneous enthusiastic effort born of a deep and passionate desire to carry the Gospel to those who are outside the Churches. The opportunity is great and the need is urgent; what is required is the spirit to undertake the work on a larger scale.

Seaside Open-air Missions.—The Committee has again organised a Seaside Open-air Mission at popular holiday resorts during August. The following centres will be visited: Bridlington, Cleethorpes, Great Yarmouth, Brighton, Douglas, and Whitley Bay. Ministers and Laymen of suitable gifts and wide experience have been appointed to conduct the services. Apart from the direct results of these Missions, the impetus given by them to Open-air Preaching is undoubted, and the work of the Committee might well be supplemented here and there by similar arrangements promoted by the Home Mission Committee of the District.

Training Schools.—The Westminster Speakers' Union, so successfully established under the Rev. Simpson Johnson, continues its useful work. In addition similar Schools were held last winter at Portsmouth, Birmingham, Manchester, Bradford, Leeds, Hull, Nottingham, and Macclesfield. In no case has the attendance been large, but those who have availed themselves of the training provided have derived great mental and spiritual benefit. In almost every case the instruction received by the student has been turned to immediate practical use. At Portsmouth an enthusiastic open-air campaign, which included great meetings in the centre of the town, and a seven days' Mission on the Southsea Beach, has been organised, and many young men who were members of the Training School have rendered valuable help. Four meetings each week are being held in the populous centres of the Potteries, chiefly by those who have received training in that District. In Leeds the School was followed up with a Demonstration at the beginning of the summer, and open-air work has been started in various places and developed in others. In Hull several members of the Anglican Church attended the School and greatly appreciated the help which it afforded.

Open-air Speakers' Handbook.—At the request of the Committee, the Rev. C. Ensor Walters has prepared a Handbook on open-air preaching and speaking, entitled: "The Open-air Speakers' Handbook." The whole question of open-air work is exhaustively dealt with. Contributions from our leading Missioners who have had practical experience of this work are included in the volume. The Preparation of the Speaker—The Preparation of the Message—The Evangelist in the Open-air—The Defender of the Faith in the Open-air—The Cultivation of the Voice—Music and Singing in the Open-air—are all dealt with. The Rev. George H. McNeal contributes a chapter on how to organise and conduct open-air services in towns, villages, and by the seaside. There are valuable suggestions as to how to organise Open-air Speakers' Schools. We believe that the book will be of real service to our Church.

APPENDIX XIX.

METHODISM IN SOUTH WALES.

The South Wales Commission has held two meetings at Cardiff during the year. Sub-Committees have also visited Swansea, Bridgend, Brynmawr, and Tredegar for the purpose of consultation with representatives of the Circuits upon suggested re-arrangements of our work in these areas.

Careful inquiry has been made respecting the growing populations of the Swansea Valley, particularly at Clydach, Pontardawe, and Morriston, in the Swansea (English) Circuit. An application for the appointment of a Home Mission Minister to take special oversight of these places, and proposals affecting the town of Swansea itself, have been heartily endorsed by the Commission. Suggestions have also been made for the more successful working of Methodism in the towns of Pontypridd and Bridgend.

The need for re-adjustment of the present Circuit arrangements of Welsh and English Methodism, especially in South Wales, becomes more urgent year by year. The whole subject of "one Methodism" is under consideration by a Committee of the Welsh Assembly, but the Commission has felt that, apart from that fact, some friendly consultation between representatives of the Commission and one or two Circuits where flagrant conditions of overlapping exist was advisable. In harmony with this view a deputation has met representatives of the Brynmawr (Welsh and English) Circuits, where the conditions are most acute. In the five Chapels which comprise the Welsh Circuit, some of them in close proximity to the Chapels in the English Circuit, only one service is conducted in the Welsh language. It is manifest that both economy and efficiency would be secured by the union of the two Circuits, and all the needs of the Welsh-speaking people would be met by the appointment of a bi-lingual Minister. At the request of a representative meeting the Commission has drafted a scheme of the arrangements to be submitted for the consideration of the Quarterly meetings in the autumn. Consultation has also taken place with the various representatives of Welsh and English Methodism in the Tredegar area, and proposals in relation to the town of Tredegar will be considered by the respective Circuits next year.

The proposal to raise a South Wales and Monmouthshire Extension Fund of £25,000, approved by the Conference, received the careful consideration of the Cardiff and Swansea May Synod, and while sympathy was expressed with the aim and purposes of the scheme, there was little promise of adequate financial support forthcoming. In view, therefore, of the want of enthusiasm within the District for the enterprise, the Commission sees no immediate prospect of raising the capital sum named. While, however, a fund to aid in the erection of suitable buildings must for the present be abandoned, a proposal to raise an Evangelistic Fund in order to meet the imperative call for further agencies amongst the new mining populations has been approved. The appointment of a District Missionary, who shall act under the direction of the Home Mission Committee and promote Evangelistic and pioneer work, has also been recommended, and these proposals are referred to the Home Mission Committee and the September Synod of the District for further consideration.

APPENDIX XXI.

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Annual Report, 1913-14.

The trading for the past year has been most satisfactory. The sales amount to £58,637 19*s.* 10*d*, an increase over last year of £1,198 2*s.* 3*d.* After depreciating the stock and writing off £330 14*s.* 5*d.* as bad debts, the Board is able to report that, in addition to the two grants already made, viz. Irish Conference £200 and Temperance Committee £50, it is in a position to recommend the following additional grants:

Annuitant Fund	£1,000
Auxiliary Fund	1,000
Connexional Fund	300

The total grants for the year will therefore amount to £2,550. In addition to these grants the profits of the year will permit the Board to add £750 to the Building Reserve Fund which was established in 1912, and also to carry forward to the profits of next year the sum of £474 8*s.* 3*d.*

The Board is thankful to be able to make an encouraging report with respect to the various Magazines. During the year The Magazine has been reduced in price, though there has been no reduction either in the quality of the material used or in the quantity of printed matter. The result has been a gratifying increase in circulation, but the Board feels that the oldest religious magazine in the country deserves a larger circulation than that to which it has at present attained.

The Church Record has increased its circulation nearly 50 per cent. during the last two years, and we hope that a still better future is in store for it.

The Preachers' Magazine has been taken up by our friends of the Primitive Methodist Church, and this has led to a doubling of the circulation.

For these results the Board is profoundly thankful, and it earnestly pleads with the Brethren to give their sympathy and help to this branch of the work of the Publishing House.

The Board desires to record that Mr. James Botteley, of Birmingham, has presented to the Conference a valuable collection of Wesley Busts, etc. This collection is held under trust for the Conference and is housed at City Road. Many friends from the Provinces and Colonies have already applied for permission to view this Collection, and any visitors to London will be gladly accorded the same privilege

APPENDIX XXIII.

METHODIST SETTLEMENT IN LONDON.

Report of the Committee.

The work of the Settlement during the past year has been carried on according to the well-established methods. The Settlement has had somewhat less than its full complement of Residents during the year. There have been 11 Residents in connection with the Women's House.

We desire to point out what excellent arrangements are made by the Settlement to provide for young men who come up to London for professional and business work. It also affords invaluable opportunities for men desiring to enter the Ministry and to gain experience in practical work.

Evangelism.

The evangelistic work of the Settlement is carried out principally in connexion with the South London Mission, and this aspect of the work is recorded in the Report of the South London Mission. Classes for Biblical and Theological Training have been held regularly at the Settlement during the Session with a view to meeting the needs of local preachers, Sunday-school teachers, and mission workers. Advice has been given in sermon preparation and theological books have been studied. A Sunday-school Preparation Class has been well attended throughout the year.

Adult Bible Schools for men and women are conducted at the Settlement, and have proved very helpful. A Bible Class has been held on Sunday afternoons during the winter.

Temperance Work has been carried on through numerous organisations for men, women, and children, which have also provided counter-attractions to the public-house in the form of temperance clubs and societies.

Educational Work.

During the Session there have been 1,159 entries for our Evening Classes. The following is the list:

Art.—Photography, 19; Art Needlework, 15.

Commercial and Civil Service.—Accountancy and Book-keeping 57; Shorthand, 85; Typewriting, 35; Typewriting Practice, 11; Handwriting and Orthography, 23; Geography, 17; Précis and Indexing, 19; Digesting Returns, 16; Composition, 22; History, 14; Commercial French, 5.

Gymnastic Instruction and Practice.—Men, 32; Women, 29.

University Extension Lectures.—"The Theatre, Ancient and Modern, and Some Great Plays."—Autumn, 53; Winter, 51; Summer, 40.

Languages and Literature.—Elocution (Advanced), 22; Elocution (Elementary), 31; English Grammar, 15; French (Advanced), 15; French (Commercial), 5; French (Elementary), 36; German (Elementary), 9; German (Advanced), 5; Greek, 3; Latin, 12; Literary Reading Circle, 13.

Mathematics.—Euclid and Algebra, 7; Higher Mathematics, 1.

Music.—Choral Society (Members and Associates), 81; Girls' Choir, 14; Violin, 62; Mandoline Class, 11; Mandoline Band, 6; 'Cello, 2; Banjo, 5; String Band, 19.

Nature Study.—5.

Technical.—Ambulance, First Aid, 23; Nursing, 8; Brigade, 63; Handwork, 47; Dressmaking, 26.

Bible Study.—The Epistle to the Ephesians, 7.

During the winter months there have been popular lectures and concerts every Saturday evening. Among those who gave lectures were the Rt. Hon. the Lord Chelmsford, G.C.M.G., Professor Selwyn Image, Mr. A. Compton Rickett, and Mr. Hawes Turner, of the National Gallery.

The Choral Society, under the honorary directorship of Dr. J. E. Borland, and conducted by Mr. E. Stanley Roper, M.A., Mus. Bac., maintains its high level. Among works performed were Coleridge-Taylor's "A Tale of Old Japan" and "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast," Bach's Passion Music, according to St. Matthew, and "Elijah," Part I. At the last concert about 500 children from the L.C.C. Elementary School took part in the choruses.

Unhappily it was impossible to hold the Whitsuntide Loan Picture Exhibition this year owing to the financial needs of the Settlement. We hope that sufficient help may be forthcoming to continue this most important and valuable piece of work next year.

The London County Council has continued its annual grant of £300 in aid of the educational work of the Settlement, and a grant of £48 0s. 6*d*. has been received from the Board of Education.

Our Social Work.

St. George's House is a Temperance public-house carried on by the Settlement. It is open every evening and forms a centre for social work along the waterside. The Men's Club, which is growing successful, is largely self-governing. The usual Summer Camp and Annual Outing were arranged. Meetings for Women and Children's clubs and playhours are also held at St. George's House. A Primary Sunday School is also carried on.

Beatrice House is a centre of work among women, and the workers are in touch with over 150 mothers of families. Three Women's Socials meet here every week. A Girls' Club is also held here twice weekly. Beatrice House is also a Registry Office for young servants, and good work is done in helping and advising them.

Three Schools for Mothers are held: one at St. George's House, one at Beatrice House, and the third at the Great Central Hall, Bermondsey. The attendance is good, and the mothers benefit greatly by the instruction given by our Nurses. One of our lady workers is Hon. Superintendent.

At the Day Nursery great care is taken of a number of children between the ages of four weeks and four years, while the mothers are at work. It is managed by a special Committee, and is largely supported by funds from The Westminster Gazette.

The Free Kindergarten is carried on daily in the buildings of the Boys' Institute for children between the ages of two and a half and six years of age. The children benefit greatly by the training they receive. This work is recognised by the Board of Education.

Five Girls' Clubs are held in connexion with the Settlement. Lectures have been given on Temperance, First Aid, Hygiene, etc., and the leaders make it a point to come into personal touch with all the members, and are thus able to help them over many difficult places in their lives.

The Settlement Company of the Boys' Brigade has celebrated its coming of age this year by winning for the third time the Daily Telegraph Shield. No Company has ever held the trophy for three years in succession. The Company has again won the South London Battalion Colour. Services have been held on Sunday evening, and also a number of Church Parades. The Summer Camp was held at New Romney last August.

The Old Boys' Club has been very successful during the last year, and keeps together a number of young men who have passed through the Boys' Brigade.

The Boys' Institute, in connexion with the Boys' Brigade, continues to do good work, and is open every evening of the week until the cricket season begins.

Five Boys' Clubs are carried on weekly. The influence of the leaders over these boys, some of whom come from very very poor homes, is invaluable.

The Annual Flower Show was held as usual. Most of the County Council Schools in the district took part. The exhibits numbered considerably over 1,000.

The Ambulance Brigade.—The Bermondsey and Rotherhithe Division of the St. John Ambulance Brigade has its Headquarters at the Settlement. Its members attend regularly for drill and practice, and have taken part in street duty on various public occasions.

Classes in First Aid and Home Nursing have been held for men and women.

Societies for the Promotion of Thrift are carried on in connexion with the Settlement. The State Insurance Section in connexion with our Dividing Benefit Societies makes good progress. The membership is nearly 4,000.

Local Administration and Philanthropy.

The Settlement has maintained its influence and activity in local administration.

The London County Council.—The Rev. Dr. J. Scott Lidgett continues to act as one of the Representatives of Rotherhithe on the London County Council, and also as a member of the London Education Committee, including a number of its Sub-Committees.

Dr. Lidgett has continued to act as a member of the Governing Body of the Borough Polytechnic, and of Herold's Institute. A number of members of the Settlement have continued to act as Managers both of the Council Schools and of the Non-provided Schools of the Borough, on the Local Advisory Committee for Secondary Schools, and have done active work on the School Care Committees. Two Residents are also members of the local School Attendance Committees.

The Settlement also has been represented on the Committee of the Invalid Kitchen, the Bermondsey Committee for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, and the Distress Committee under the Bermondsey Borough Council. A number of our workers are represented upon the Local Juvenile Advisory Committee of the Labour Exchange.

Bermondsey Metropolitan Borough Council.—Two of our Settlement workers are members of this Council.

Poor Law.—Miss Simmons, the head of our Women's Settlement, continues to act as Poor Law Guardian for the Parish of Bermondsey, and does excellent service as a member of the Schools Committee and Infirmary, Finance, and Workhouse Committees. The Ladies' Committee, of which Miss Simmons is chairman, helps girls coming into the lying-in ward of the workhouse. Some of our lady Residents have been able to help these girls to find work, and so get a fresh start in life.

The Metropolitan Association for Befriending Young Servants.—A lady Resident is responsible for the local work of this Association, and she conducts a local Registry Office. Situations have been found for 45 girls and 126 have been regularly visited. Lodgings have been found for the homeless, and others have been helped by grants of clothing. Two have been trained for service.

The Association for Befriending Boys looks after those who are placed out in situations from the various Poor Law Schools of London. The Bishop of London is President of this Association, and the Rev. Dr. J. Scott Lidgett is Chairman of the Council and also of the Executive Committee. One of our Residents keeps in touch with the boys who are placed out in this district. The Bermondsey Board of Guardians is represented on the Council by Miss Simmons.

Children's Country Holidays Fund.—Secretaries for both the Bermondsey and Rotherhithe Committees of this Fund are provided by the Settlement. Over 2,000 children are sent into the country and to the seaside for a fortnight's holiday.

Women's Holiday Fund.—The local Secretaryship of this Fund is filled by one of our lady Residents. The various religious organisations of the district are represented on the Local Committee, which has its headquarters at the Settlement, and 154 women were sent away for a fortnight to the country or seaside.

Nursing Work.—The responsibility for the Queen's Jubilee Nursing in Rotherhithe rests upon the Settlement, though we have a local Committee to assist us. Our two District Nurses have attended 318 patients during the year, and have paid 5,634 visits.

A Centre for the Treatment of Minor Ailments of School Children is carried on daily at the Settlement, the work being supported by a grant from the London County Council. It is proposed shortly to add arrangements for the Dental Care of Children.

Assistance is given by the Settlement from time to time to many philanthropic agencies in the district.

Relief of Distress.—Our Settlement workers take an active part in dealing with the poverty of the district.

Free Legal Advice.—During the past year Mr. J. C. Lidgett, B.A., LL.B., has undertaken this work, and many poor applicants have been helped to obtain justice which would otherwise have been impossible through lack of the necessary legal knowledge.

Finance.—The balance-sheet up to June 30, 1913, showed a deficiency on the year's work of £255 8*s.* 1*d.* The Settlement is greatly in need of increased financial help.

APPENDIX XXIV.

THE METHODIST BROTHERHOOD.

THE report of the work during the year shows that 706 cases of emigration have been dealt with, as compared with 1,310 cases during the year ending May 1913, and 1,085 during the year ending May 1912. This apparent decrease is explained by the fact that the Board of Trade returns of Emigration show that the actual number of British subjects who emigrated during the first three months in 1914 was about half the number shown in the returns for the first three months of 1913.

The cases of removal represent in all 1,166 persons, who are distributed as follows:

Canada	582
Australia	288
United States of America ...	137
New Zealand	79
South Africa	40
Other Countries	40

Of these 1,166 persons, 615 were notified as Members of our Church.

In each case advice was sent immediately on receipt of the information, either to the Minister at the port of landing or at the destination to which the emigrant had gone. It is, however, still evident that only a small proportion of the Methodists who emigrate avail themselves of our services, although the information received during the past year has been much more complete as to detail and has enabled us to render more effective service to the emigrants. Our most effective assistance can be rendered when notice of removal is sent to the office some time before the emigrants sail, as we can then send word out to their destination and the Minister is prepared to meet them on arrival. They are also provided with a Badge, letter of introduction, etc., to take with them.

One of the most encouraging features of the work during the past year has been the return of many of the slips attached to our letter of introduction, filled in either by the emigrants or Ministers. At least 160 of these slips show that these Methodists have definitely associated themselves with the Methodist Church, in the majority of cases becoming members, active workers, Sunday-school teachers, etc., so that though our Church at home is suffering considerably by the removal of these people, the Methodist Church in our Colonies is gaining.

Chaplains on Board Ship.

We have been in communication with a Committee appointed by the Free Church Council and also with a representative of the Y.M.C.A., for the purpose of endeavouring to secure the recognition of Nonconformist Ministers who are travelling on Emigrant Ships as Chaplains during the voyage. The whole matter is under careful consideration.

The following are typical of the cases dealt with during the year:

A letter was received from a Minister stating that a young man from his congregation was going out to Sweden, and asking if we could put him into touch with a Methodist Minister, who would meet him and help him in the matter of lodgings, etc. We at once communicated with a Minister in Sweden, and have since received a letter from the young man expressing his gratitude to us and stating that the Minister to whom we wrote had met him, found suitable lodgings and helped in many other ways, and that he was now settled comfortably and had united himself with the Methodist Church.

A young man going out to an up-country station in South Africa. His father writes to us that the Minister soon found out this youth, entertained him during his stay at the port and furnished introductions to the Minister nearest to his destination. This Minister called upon the young man soon after his arrival, with the result that the young man was speedily linked up with the Methodist Church and settled amongst Methodist friends.

A young man who went out to Canada some time ago and who now writes that since his arrival there he has become a student with a view to entering the Canadian Ministry, and is at present in charge of a Mission in Saskatchewan.

Was met by the Chaplain in Sydney and immediately put into touch with the Methodist authorities there, with a view to acceptance as a Home Missionary. Is now working in that position and writes to tell us how much he enjoys his work.

A lady who asked for our advice as to her journey to Canada, etc. We were able to arrange for a comfortable berth for the voyage out, and have since learnt that our letters of introduction secured for her the offer of suitable employment directly she landed.

A family who write to inform us that they were met and greatly assisted on landing at New York. At first they were residing some miles away from a town or Methodist Church, but after a time moved into the town and then presented our letters of introduction. Both Minister and people made them very heartily welcome into the Methodist Church, where they have become members.

A girl from a Lancashire town who went out to New Zealand. Through the recommendations of the Chaplain she obtained a good situation.

A man who had been an active worker in our Church here informs us that since his arrival in New Zealand he has become Superintendent of a new Mission Sunday School there.

A Local Preacher from Yorkshire who has become a member of the Methodist Church in Australia, where he is able to render them service in a similar capacity.

A young girl from Scotland whom we furnished with letters of introduction to the Australian Methodist Church some time ago. We were informed that she was returning to England and would land in London late at night. One of our Mission Workers met the boat and saw her safely on the way to her home in Scotland.

Two young men who went out from London, one of whom now writes: "I should like to say that this Methodist Brotherhood movement proved very useful to me on my voyage across; we met others on the boat wearing the Badge and were all of us able to keep together as far as Toronto." Has now associated himself with the Methodist Church in Canada.

A worker in one of our country Churches wrote to ask our assistance in tracing the son of one of the Church Members who was out in Australia and had not been heard of for eighteen months. Although the information as to his present residence was very incomplete, through the agency of the Central Mission in Sydney we were able to trace him and to re-establish communications between him and his mother.

APPENDIX XXV.

REPORT OF THE SOCIAL PURITY COMMITTEE.

The Committee has devoted its attention during the past year to the general subjects mentioned in the Conference resolutions, and further consideration is being given by the ladies' sub-committee to methods of training mothers in the moral instruction of their children.

The Committee has also taken steps to inform and strengthen public opinion regarding the necessity of further amendments in the Criminal Law of the land.

APPENDIX XXVI.

CLASS LEADERS' COMMITTEE.

The Committee at its first meeting this year determined to promote an Aggressive Campaign to emphasise afresh the value of Class Meeting Fellowship, and to put before our people the ideal and import of Church Membership. The settlement reached by the Plymouth Conference on the question of Church Membership, and the publication of the Rules of Society, together with the statements approved by the Conference, almost made such a movement imperative. The campaign included a series of District Conventions, and was inaugurated by representative gatherings of London Methodism held in the Kingsway Hall, addressed by the President and Ex-President of the Conference, and the Rev. Dr. Scott Lidgett. These meetings were crowded and enthusiastic. Similar gatherings have been held in Cornwall, Bristol, Cheltenham, Birmingham, Manchester, Bradford, Leeds, Newcastle, and Glasgow. Almost without exception they were largely attended and marked by spiritual fervour and power. The afternoon gathering was usually for Class Leaders, while the evening meeting was open to the public. A tea-table conference was held between the gatherings, and proved to be most stimulating and valuable.

Further, through the Synod Committees, an endeavour was made to arrange for similar gatherings on a smaller scale for Circuits or groups of Circuits. These have been held more widely than for some years past, especially in the North of England. Although there is to be recorded a continued decrease of membership, the Committee is persuaded that increasing attention is being paid to this vital matter. It looks for real blessing as the outcome of this effort.

The Synod Committees have shown considerable activity during the past year. In some districts joint meetings of the Class Leaders' Committee with the Sunday School Council have been held, with a view to the ingathering of the young folk of our Sunday Schools to membership in the Church. In others, the Synod Committee has met in conference with the Circuit Class Leaders' Secretaries, in the hope that it might be made of more general service. The Halifax and Bradford District specially summoned a meeting of young people in the endeavour to obtain their point of view in regard to our fellowship meetings—a distinctly helpful gathering.

The Committee has given special attention to the needs of the Leaders of Junior Society Classes. In September last, each Junior Leader throughout the Connexion received a copy of a suggested syllabus of instruction for the year entitled "The Junior Leaders' Friend," together with an appeal from the Committee. Based upon this syllabus the Committee has issued The Junior Leaders' Annual, published through the Book Room, at 6*d.* net. This has met with a remarkably encouraging response, an issue of 3,000 copies having been disposed of, and from every part of the country have come tributes to its usefulness. The Annual is to become a permanent feature of the Committee's work. One of the most hopeful features of our Church life at the present time is the greater care and thoroughness exercised with regard to our junior members.

The Class Leaders' Companion has again had a successful year. If the Committee could succeed in placing these two publications in the hands of every leader, much gain would accrue. There continues to be a steady demand for the various leaflets supplied by the Committee. Upwards of 42,000 copies of the booklet, Ought I to Join the Church? have now been put into circulation.

The Committee regrets to find that there are still many Circuits where the Annual Meeting of Class Leaders is not held. The continued shrinkage in membership makes it absolutely necessary that the utmost use should be made of this gathering. Its possibilities are very great.

The Committee further feels that the time has come when the public reception of new members should be insisted upon in all our Circuits. It is of opinion also that the Bureau should in every case of transference of members from one Circuit to another be consulted.

The Synod Committees still complain that in the absence of specific information from the Circuits they are unable to do their work effectively. The Class Leaders' Committee itself is in a similar plight, not having before it the complete statistics which concern our Society Classes. In accordance with the instruction of the Plymouth Conference to bring up a simple form of inquiry by means of which to obtain from each Circuit the information required for the District Class Leaders' Committee, to enable it to fulfil its purposes, the Committee presents the appended list of such questions.

The Treasurer's Report shows a balance in hand. The Committee would be greatly helped if each Circuit would make a small annual donation to its funds. This would enable it to provide literature much more largely than at present.

LIST OF QUESTIONS.

1. What is the number of Society Classes in the Circuit?
   (a) Society Classes .....
   (b) Junior Classes .....
2. What is the number of Class Leaders in the Circuit?
   (a) Class Leaders ....
   (b) Assistant Leaders .....
   (c) Junior Class Leaders.....
3. How many of those are Ministers?
   " " " Laymen?
   " " " Women?
4. Has the Annual Circuit Meeting of Class Leaders been held?
   Are there any suggestions arising from its meeting?
5. What is done to help the Leaders in their work?
   Is the literature provided (Class Leaders' Companion, Junior Leaders' Annual, Experience) brought to the attention of the Leaders?
6. What steps are being taken to train new Leaders?

APPENDIX XXVII.

COMMITTEE ON METHODIST LAW AND OTHER MATTERS.

1. THE "FIRST FOUR VOLUMES OF JOHN WESLEY'S SERMONS."

AT the first meeting of the Committee this subject was discussed at length. It was found so important as to require that Counsel's opinion should be taken upon it. A Sub-Committee was appointed to prepare a "Case," which was submitted by Messrs. Cooper & Sons, of Manchester, to Mr. Owen Thompson, of Lincoln's Inn. The "Case" and the "Opinion" are now presented to the Conference.

The Case.

The "First Four Volumes of Wesley's Sermons."

CASE for the opinion of Counsel.

In the "Model Deed," on the trusts of which nearly all Wesleyan Methodist Chapels are now settled (see accompanying print), the following clause appears:

> "Provided always that no person or persons whomsoever shall any time hereafter be permitted to preach or expound God's Holy Word or perform any of the usual acts of Religious Worship . . . in the said Chapel . . . who shall maintain promulgate or teach any doctrine or practice contrary to what is contained in certain Notes on the New Testament commonly reputed to be the Notes of the said John Wesley and in the First Four Volumes of Sermons commonly reputed to be written and published by him."

A question has arisen as to the volumes specified in the phrase "the First Four Volumes of Sermons," and the Wesleyan Methodist Conference wishes to obtain "a clear determination of the phrase," and to know definitely the number of sermons contained in the first four volumes "written and published" by John Wesley, mentioned in the proviso of the Chapel Model Deed.

In the earliest "Model Deed" recommended by the Conference as the form on which the Methodist Preaching Houses should be settled a clause appears which provides that the persons appointed to the "Houses" shall preach "no other doctrine than is contained in Mr. Wesley's Notes upon the New Testament and four volumes of Sermons." This deed was printed in 1763 in a pamphlet compiled by John Wesley and known as the Large Minutes. Wesley published subsequent editions of the Large Minutes in 1770, 1772, 1780, and 1789. In each of these editions a form of a "Model Deed" is printed, and in each the proviso concerning doctrine stands exactly as it did in the form of deed published in 1763. In 1788, although, as it is said, "the Conference plan" for the settlement of Preaching Houses had been printed in many editions of the Large Minutes, yet, at the desire of the Conference, it was re-published in the ordinary Minutes of the Conference for that year. In this reprint the proviso concerning the Sermons is unaltered. In 1797, six years after the death of Wesley, the Conference issued an important document. It was subsequently recognised, in 1835, as "the Code of Laws of Methodism," by Lord Lyndhurst in the Chancery suit of Warren v. Burton. In the "Code" a form of "Model Deed" is printed. The proviso there appears in a slightly altered form—"Provided that the persons so appointed preach no other doctrines than are contained in Mr. Wesley's Notes upon the New Testament and his four volumes of Sermons by him published."

Throughout Wesley's life, and immediately after his death, the Methodist Chapels settled on the "Model Deed" were subject to the proviso which originally appeared in the deed printed in the Large Minutes of 1763.

The first question which arises is as to the identification of the "four volumes of Sermons" mentioned in the model form of deed of 1763. At that time there were in existence four volumes of Sermons which Wesley had published at intervals: the first in 1746, the second in 1748, the third in 1750, and the fourth in 1760. The first, second, and third volumes contain thirty-six sermons, the fourth seven sermons, making a total of forty-three sermons. In the fourth volume together with the seven sermons the following tracts appear: "Advice to the People called Methodists with regard to Dress," "The Duties of Husbands and Wives," "Directions to Children," "Directions to Servants," "Thoughts on Christian Perfection," and "Christian Instructions extracted from a late French Author." With the exception of the "Advice on Dress" and "Thoughts on Christian Perfection" these tracts are either abridged or translated by Wesley from other authors, that is, they were "published" but not all "written" by him. The "Sermons" have their separate title page: "Sermons on several occasions. By John Wesley, M.A." They occupy 163 pages and each is prefaced by a page on which the subject of the sermon is printed, as for instance, "Original Sin. A Sermon on Genesis vi. 5." None of the tracts is designated "sermon."

Dr. George Osborn, in his Outlines of Wesleyan Bibliography, writing of the fourth volume published in 1760, says: "Although so small a portion of this volume consisted of sermons it was numbered and sold as a fourth volume of Wesley's Sermons" (Bibliography, p. 36). Wesley himself considered it a fourth volume of his Sermons. In his Journal, under date October 1, 1759, he writes: "All my leisure time during my stay at Bristol I employed in finishing the fourth volume of Discourses; probably the last I shall publish" (Standard Journal, vol. iv., p. 355). It is clear that the "four volumes of Sermons" mentioned in the Deed of 1763 must have been those published in 1746, 1748, 1750, and 1760, because there were no other volumes of Wesley's Sermons at that time in existence. First editions of these Sermons, borrowed from the library of Didsbury College, are sent to Counsel with this Case. In forwarding them it is necessary to say that in an undated copy of a second edition of the volume published in 1750, i.e. the third volume, an additional sermon entitled "Wandering Thoughts" is included.

No question as to the books referred to in the phrase the "four volumes of Sermons" which appears in the "Model Deeds" printed in 1763 and 1770 would have arisen had not Wesley determined to publish his prose Works in a collected form. The first four of the thirty-two volumes of his Works were issued in 1771. They contained the forty-three sermons printed in the first edition and ten additional sermons. The additional sermons are as follows:—

1. The Witness of the Spirit, Discourse II.
2. Sin in Believers.
3. Repentance of Believers.
4. The Great Assize.
5. The Lord our Righteousness.
6. Wandering Thoughts.
7. The Scripture way of Salvation.
8. The Good Steward.
9. The Reformation of Manners.
10. On the Death of Mr. Whitefield.

The fourth volume of the Works also contains the tracts "Advice with regard to Dress," "The Duties of Husbands and Wives," "Directions to Children," "Directions to Servants," and the beginning of "An Extract from Mr. Law's Treatise on Christian Perfection" which is continued in the fifth volume.

The "Thoughts on Christian Perfection" and the "Christian Instructions extracted from a late French Author" are omitted from the fourth volume of the Works.

Wesley's design in publishing his Works is stated in his Preface. He states that it had been his desire to print in one collection all that he had before published in several tracts; to methodise his publications, placing those together which were on similar subjects and in such order that one might illustrate another. The first four volumes of the Works illustrate this method. He alters the order of the "Discourses" published in the original edition of the four volumes of Sermons, he inserts the discourse on "Wandering Thoughts" and nine others which had been published in separate form in 1758, 1765, 1767, 1768, and 1770. In the first four volumes of the Works there are fifty-three sermons.

In 1787–8 Wesley issued an edition of his Sermons in eight volumes. This was the last edition he published. The first four volumes are a reprint of the original volumes published in 1746, 1748, 1750, and 1760, the only difference being the inclusion of the sermon on "Wandering Thoughts." The order of the "Discourses," which had been disturbed in the first four volumes of the Works, is restored; the tracts stand as they did in the 1760 volume; and nine of the sermons added in 1771 are omitted. These volumes, published in 1787–8, are entitled "Sermons on several Occasions in Four Volumes, by John Wesley, M.A., etc., the fourth edition." Uniform with these volumes are four others entitled Sermons on Several Occasions, by John Wesley, M.A., etc. The last four volumes contain sermons selected from the Arminian Magazine, which was commenced in 1778. It should be noted that the discourse on "The Lord our Righteousness," which appears in the first four volumes of the Works, is put into the fifth volume of the series of 1787–8.

There can be no doubt that the last edition of the "four volumes of Sermons" published by Wesley is a reproduction of the first edition with the addition of one sermon, making the number of "Discourses" forty-four. The Editor of the third edition of Wesley's Works, who is principally responsible for the statement that the reference in the proviso of the Chapel Model Deed is to the sermons contained in the first four volumes of Works published in 1771, admits the fact of such reproduction. He explains it by saying, "It is worthy of remark, that when Mr. Wesley published a uniform edition of his Sermons in eight volumes in 1787 and 1788, by some unaccountable inadvertency a copy of an early edition of the doctrinal sermons was placed before the printer." Whatever ground there may have been for the theory of "inadvertency" it is evident that Wesley was satisfied with "the eight volumes of Sermons." In his will, dated February 25, 1789, he left, "As a little token of his love," a copy of "the eight volumes of Sermons" to each of those travelling preachers who remained in the Connexion six months after his (Wesley's) decease. It may also be mentioned that in 1799 the Conference resolved that all preachers in "full connexion" who had not received "the eight volumes of Sermons" should have them (Minutes of Conference, vol. ii. p. 22). From 1787–8 onward the "eight volumes of Sermons" were well known to the Conference.

Wesley died in 1791, and soon after his death the phrase the "four volumes of Sermons," which had appeared in the trust deeds since 1763, began to be altered, first in ordinary speech and then in legal documents.

Dr. Osborn in writing of "the four volumes of Sermons" says, "When other sermons, which had been published in the Arminian Magazine, were collected into another four volumes, the phrase used in the trust deeds was necessarily altered to 'the first four volumes'" (Bibliography, p. 36). Several illustrations of the change may be given. In 1801 Joseph Benson, in his Apology for the People called Methodists, speaks of the "first four volumes of Wesley's Sermons," which were published with the expressed design of "submitting the Methodist doctrine to the consideration of mankind." Benson says that the first volumes of Sermons was published in the year 1747, which was a mistake for 1746 (p. 223). In 1810 the phase "the first four volumes of Sermons published by the late John Wesley" occurs in the clause concerning doctrines in the trust deed of the Chapel at Lewes in Sussex. In the same year (1810) Crowther, in his Methodist Manual, says of Wesley, "His first four volumes of Sermons, united with his Notes on the New Testament, might be properly termed the test of the doctrines among the Methodists" (p. 58). In 1817 an edition of the Large Minutes was published to which are appended two forms of trust deeds for the settlement of Methodist Chapels. Each contains the clause "Provided always that the person or persons to be appointed by the Conference as aforesaid shall preach no other doctrines than those which are contained in certain Notes upon the New Testament and the first four volumes of Sermons published by the late Mr. John Wesley" (pp. 63, 75). In 1825 the Conference passed a regulation concerning the reading of "Preachers received on trial." Before being examined at the District Meeting each candidate had to read with care "Our standard doctrinal works, viz.: Mr. Wesley's Notes on the New Testament and his first four volumes of Sermons" (Minutes of Conference, vol. vi. pp. 64, 65). When the Conference, in 1829, appointed a Committee to devise a more efficient mode for the settlement of Methodist Chapels, and the work of the Committee resulted in the preparation of the present "Model Deed" in 1832, the phrase, "the first four volumes of sermons," which appears in the proviso respecting doctrines in that deed, was well established.

In the opinion of some the phrase "The first four volumes of Wesley's Sermons" is not clear. Does it indicate the four volumes of the Sermons that are first in order of time, that is the first edition of those published in 1746, 1748, 1750, and 1760; or does it mean the first four volumes of Wesley's eight-volumed edition published in 1787–8? If the former, should the sermon on "Wandering Thoughts" be included? It was certainly published in the undated second edition of the 1750 volume, and it appeared before the fourth volume was written. The original title-page, "Sermons on Several Occasions in Three Volumes," is used in the second edition of the 1750 volume, and the book was sold at "the New Room" in Bristol and at "the Foundery" in London. This undated second edition of Vol. III. could not have been issued without Wesley's knowledge, and it was undoubtedly in existence when the proviso concerning doctrines first appeared in the deed of 1763. If the phrase the "first four volumes of Sermons" indicates the first four volumes of the 1787–8 edition the matter is simplified, for in the third volume of that edition the sermon on "Wandering Thoughts" appears and stands in point of order in the place assigned to it in the second undated edition. With the addition of this sermon the contents of the original four volumes of the Sermons and of the first four volumes of the Sermons published in 1787–8 are the same.

The question, however, has been seriously complicated by the action of the Editor of the third edition of Wesley's Works. Before the new edition of the Works was issued, he prepared, in 1825, an edition of Wesley's Sermons in two volumes. In the "Advertisement" it is said: "In the first volume are comprised all the Sermons that were published in four volumes in the duo-decimo size in the year 1771, to which reference is made in the trust deeds of the Methodist Chapels as containing, with Mr. Wesley's Explanatory Notes upon the New Testament, the standard doctrines of the religious Connexion of which that eminent man was the Founder." The Conference in 1825 thanked the Connexional Editor "for his new and correct edition of Mr. Wesley's Sermons lately published."

During the years 1829–31, the third edition of Wesley's Works was issued. In its preface, written in 1831, the following paragraph appears:

Speaking of Wesley's edition of his Works, published in 1771–4, the Editor says:

> "Mr. Wesley's edition of his own Works was rendered particularly valuable by an addition that was made to those of his Sermons to which a legal importance was afterwards attached. These Sermons were published at different times and were originally comprised in three duo-decimo volumes. The first bears the date of 1746, the second of 1748, and the third of 1750. A fourth was added in the year 1760 containing also some other practical tracts partly original and partly selected, and it was not numbered as connected with the former series. To these Sermons ten others were now added. Some of them had been published as separate pamphlets, having been published on particular occasions. The rest appear to have been written for the express purpose of giving a more complete view of the author's doctrinal system. The entire series is inserted in the first four volumes of the Works in the edition of 1771–4, and to these Sermons it is that reference is made in the trust deeds of the Methodist Chapels, as embodying, with his Notes on the New Testament, the doctrines of the Connexion." (The Works of the Rev. John Wesley, vol. i. Preface, p. vii, Third Edition).

When the Sermons were published in the fifth and sixth volumes of the new edition of Wesley's Works, the following notice was prefixed: "Sermons on Several Occasions. First Series. Consisting of fifty-three discourses published in four volumes in the year 1771, and to which reference is made in the trust deeds of the Methodist Chapels as constituting, with Mr. Wesley's Notes on the New Testament, the standard doctrines of the Methodist Connexion."

If the statement of the Editor of the Third Edition of Wesley's Works is to be accepted, then the number of the "Standard" Sermons is not forty-three or forty-four, but fifty-three. The statement made a deep impression.

Although the phrase "the fifty-three Sermons" has come into popular use, the Conference, up to the present, has not committed itself to a declaration concerning the number of "discourses" contained in "the first four volumes of Sermons." The thanks of the Conference of 1825 to the Editor of the two-volume edition of the Sermons for his new "and correct edition" may be considered to imply an approval of his theory concerning the fifty-three Sermons, but that is open to question. It is true that the number "fifty-three" was inserted in 1895 in a regulation concerning the examination of Local Preachers passed by the Conference in 1876, but the Conference in 1913 cancelled the words specifying the number. The regulation now stands: "No candidate shall be fully admitted as a Local Preacher until he has read the first four volumes of John Wesley's Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament" (Minutes of Conference, 1913, p. 356).

It seems possible that the Connexional Editor overlooked the distinction between "Sermons" and "Works." The expression "first four volumes of Sermons" seems to point to "Sermons" rather than "Works," and is more consistent with the four volumes of Sermons published in 1746–60, or the first four volumes of Sermons published in 1787–8, than with the first four volumes of the Works published in 1771.

An alteration made in the "Model Deed" form of 1832 requires to be noted. There the words "commonly reputed to be" are introduced both in regard to the Notes on the New Testament and in regard to the Sermons. The natural explanation of the use of those new words is that they were suggested by a careful conveyancer with the view of anticipating the difficulty there might be, after the lapse of many years, in proving what particular Notes or volumes of Sermons were written and published by Wesley.

But some may argue that the word "reputed" must be interpreted by reference to the approval by the Conference in 1825 of the Editor's two-volume edition of the Sermons published in that year. This explanation, however, would not account for the use of the word "reputed" in reference to the Notes on the New Testament.

In the course of the discussion on the meaning of phrase "the first four volumes" of Wesley's Sermons, a question has recently been raised concerning the "tracts" which are bound up with the fourth volume of "Discourses" published by Wesley in 1760, and which also appear in the fourth volume of the 1787–8 edition. It has been suggested that the presence of these "tracts" in the fourth volume gives them a value as standards of Methodist doctrine and practice equal to that possessed by the Sermons, and that the "tracts" must be considered as an integral part of "the first four volumes of Sermons." On the other hand it has been pointed out that these "tracts" differ from the "Sermons" not only in form but in their authorship and character, and that they were apparently put into the book to "make up" the volume.

The opinion of Counsel is requested on the following points:

1. What is the meaning of the phrase: "The first four volumes of John Wesley's Sermons commonly reputed to be written and published by him."

2. To which books does the phrase apply—the original volumes published in 1746, 1748, 1750, and 1760; the "first four volumes" of Wesley's Works published in 1771; or "the first four volumes" of the edition of the Sermons published in eight volumes in 1787–8?

3. As the original edition of the four volumes of Sermons contains forty-three sermons, the first four volumes of the Works fifty-three, and the first four volumes of the 1787-8 edition forty-four, the answer to the second question will carry with it Counsel's opinion concerning the number of sermons that constitute the "Standard" of Methodist "doctrine and practice." If, however, Counsel's opinion is in favour of the original edition containing forty-three sermons, he is requested to say whether the sermon on "Wandering Thoughts," which appears in the undated second edition of the original volume of 1750, must be included in the "four volumes of Sermons" referred to in the proviso contained in "Model Deeds" from 1763 onward.

4. Are the "tracts" which appear in the fourth volume of the Sermons to be considered an integral part of the "Standard" of Methodist doctrine and practice? The attention of Counsel is directed to the fact that the "tracts" appended to the "Sermons" in the fourth volume of Wesley's Works, 1771 edition, differ in number and character from those contained in the original and in the 1787-8 editions of the Sermons.

The Opinion.

The First Four Volumes of Wesley's Sermons.

In the instructions laid before me in this matter the relevant facts are so clearly stated as to render comparatively simple the task of answering the questions proposed.

1 and 2. To arrive at the meaning of the phrase "The first four volumes of Sermons written and published by John Wesley," that phrase must be considered from both a grammatical and a historical point of view. Grammatically, the words are not absolutely clear; but, in my opinion, it is reasonably plain that they mean "the first four volumes, part of a greater number of volumes of Sermons written and published by John Wesley," and that they do not mean either (i) "the four volumes of Sermons which were the first to be written and published by John Wesley," or (ii) "the first four volumes part of a great number of John Wesley's Works which first four volumes in fact contain sermons." The words "written and published by John Wesley" should, in my view, be read as descriptive of "sermons." Of the sermons written by John Wesley and published in several volumes, the first four volumes in numerical order are in my opinion indicated.

I have omitted for the sake of brevity the words "commonly reputed to be," for these words may be regarded as merely the cautious phrase of a skilled conveyancer, and intended to substitute common reputation that the sermons were written and published by John Wesley for strict proof of these facts.

If the phrase is considered historically there cannot, I think, be any real doubt as to its meaning. From 1787-8, the date when the edition of John Wesley's Sermons in eight volumes was first published, the phrase "the first four volumes of sermons" would have a natural and obvious meaning. The series of eight volumes of Sermons was, as appears from John Wesley's Will, regarded by him as the standard edition; it is easily divisible into two parts; the first four volumes represent, with the addition of the sermon on "Wandering Thoughts," the four original volumes published in 1746, 1748, 1750, and 1760; the remaining four volumes contain sermons selected from the Arminian Magazine; the whole series was officially known as the eight volumes of Sermons, as sufficiently appears from the Minutes of the Conference of 1799, vol. ii. p. 22. Naturally, then, if in any legal document it was desired to refer to the first four volumes of that official series, they would be referred to as "the first four volumes of Sermons published by John Wesley." That such was, in fact, the course followed, appears from the form of the trust deeds in the 1817 edition of the Large Minutes, and the regulations as to the reading of "Preachers received on trial" of the 1825 Conference. See the Minutes, vol. vi. pp. 64 and 65. As against this view must be set the opinion expressed by the editor of the third edition of John Wesley's Works in 1831, but with all respect to his learning his remarks in the preface are in my opinion based on a misconception of the exact interpretation of the phrase "the first four volumes of Sermons." He appears to consider that the phrase is equivalent to "the first four volumes of the collected Works," published in thirty-two volumes, which volumes, in fact, contain or consist of sermons. Merely from the point of view of the language I do not regard this as a possible construction, and when the phrase in the Model Deed of 1832 is viewed in the light of the usage current at that date, and in that light it should be viewed, it becomes in my opinion even clearer that the reference is to the four volumes of Sermons forming part of the well-known edition of eight volumes of Sermons, and not to the four volumes of Sermons forming part of the edition of the collected Works.

In my view, then, to sum up, the phrase in the Model Deed applies to the first four volumes of Wesley's Sermons published in eight volumes in 1787-8.

3. If I am right in my answers to questions 1 and 2, it follows that the total number of Sermons constituting the standard of Methodist doctrine and practice is forty-four, and in that number is included the sermon on "Wandering Thoughts."

4. In my opinion the tracts appearing at the end of the fourth volume of the Sermons do not form an integral part of Methodist doctrine and practice, and are not covered by the phrase "the first four volumes of Sermons." Those words are compendious in form. As naturally expanded they would read "the sermons contained in the first four volumes of Sermons," and though tracts which are not sermons at all may be included in one of the volumes which contains sermons and is published as part of the Sermons, those tracts cannot in my opinion be regarded as sermons, though they are included in the covers of the book. The volume, qua volume of Sermons, is complete without the tracts, and in my opinion only the sermons in the volume are within the ambit of the phrase in the Model Deed.

OWEN THOMPSON.

4, New Court, Lincoln's Inn.
February 2nd, 1914.

At its second meeting the Committee considered Counsel's "Opinion," and especially that part of it which states that in his view the phrase in the Model Deed, "the first four volumes of Wesley's Sermons published in eight volumes in 1787-8," and that "the total number of Sermons constituting the Standard of Methodist doctrine and practice is forty-four."

It was unanimously resolved to report to the Conference as follows:

(1) The Committee resolves to report to the Conference the stages taken by the Committee in its inquiry, and to advise the Conference to accept Counsel's opinion, and to place on record that the phrase "the first four volumes of John Wesley's Sermons" is to be interpreted in accordance with that opinion.

(2) The Report of the Committee to Conference shall contain both the "Historical Statement" of the Sub-Committee and the opinion of Counsel, and we recommend that these, together with the Conference decision on the question, shall be fully printed in the Minutes.

II. The Whole Question of Confirming the Nomination of a Member of the Irish Conference to the Legal Conference.

The Committee discussed this important question at considerable length, the Vice-President of the Irish Conference giving valuable assistance. The chief points demanding the consideration of the Committee were:

(1) The meaning of the Thirteenth Clause of Wesley's Deed of Declaration which relates to the appointment of a delegate or delegates;

(2) The extent of the power conferred on such delegate or delegates by the Deed; and

(3) Whether the Deed empowers the delegate or delegates to confirm the nomination of a member of the Irish Conference as a member of the Legal Conference.

(1) It was pointed out that, according to the statement in the Deed, the clause was inserted for "the convenience of the chapels and premises already, or which may hereafter be given or conveyed upon the trusts aforesaid, situate in Ireland or other parts out of the kingdom of Great Britain." The trusts referred to are those specified in the recital contained in the first part of the Deed. They concern the appointment of preachers to chapels, and provide that, after the death of John and Charles Wesley, the right of appointment shall belong to the Yearly Conference of the People called Methodists. By the Thirteenth Clause of the Deed a method was provided by which the Yearly Conference can exercise that right of appointment, and also give a legal value to other proceedings of the Irish Conference which affect appointments. The Deed provides that "when and as often as it shall seem expedient," the Yearly Conference shall "appoint and delegate any member or members of the Conference, with all or any of the powers, privileges, and advantages hereinbefore contained or vested in the Conference; and all and every the acts, admissions, expulsions, and appointments whatsoever of such member or members of the Conference so appointed and delegated as aforesaid, the same being put into writing and signed by such delegate or delegates, and entered in the Journals or Minutes of the Conference, and subscribed as after mentioned, shall be deemed, taken, and be the acts, admissions, expulsions, and appointments of the Conference to all intents, constructions, and purposes whatsoever from the respective times when the same shall be done by such delegate or delegates, notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary." The "entering and subscribing" referred to are regulated by the Fourteenth Clause of the Deed, which concerns the entering the resolutions and orders of the Yearly Conference in the Journals, and the signing of the Journals by the President and Secretary of the Yearly Conference.

(2) The discussion as to the extent of the power conferred on the delegate or delegates by the Deed was confined to the meaning of the word "acts" in the sentence in the Thirteenth Clause which declares that "All and every the acts, admissions, expulsions, and appointments whatsoever of such member or members of the Conference so appointed and delegated as aforesaid . . . shall be deemed, taken, and be the acts, admissions, expulsions, and appointments of the Conference." It had been contended that the introduction of the word "acts" into the clause gave it a wide scope, and that the power of the delegate or delegates extended beyond the questions of the admissions or expulsions of Preachers and their appointment to Chapels, and in particular, that it enabled the delegate or delegates in the Irish Conference to confirm immediately the nomination of one of its Ministers as a member of the Legal Hundred, subject to the subsequent approval of the Yearly Conference shown by the entry of the "act" in the Journals. Although this important point was involved in the full consideration of "the whole question of confirming the nomination of a member of the Irish Conference to the Legal Conference," the Committee thought that it was not necessary at present to pronounce judgment on it.

(3) On the question sent down by the Conference to the Committee it was explained that, in 1877, the Conference resolved that ten places in the Legal Hundred should be filled by members of the Irish Conference. Attention was also directed to the following question and answer recorded in the Journals of the Yearly Conference for 1810:

> Q.—"When any one of the Irish brethren, who are of the Hundred, shall cease to be so by death, expulsion, or being superannuated, how shall the vacancy be filled up?"

A.—"By inserting in the Deed an Irish Preacher, to be elected and recommended for that purpose at the preceding Irish Conference; such election and recommendation being duly signified to us by their representative, or in their Annual Letter" (see Summary of Methodist Law, p. 476, Third Edition).

It was further stated that the procedure of the Irish Conference in the case under consideration was set forth in its "Manual of Laws" as follows: "When a vacancy occurs, the Irish Conference nominates the successor, and the Legal Conference is requested to elect the person so nominated" (par. 155, p. 54).

It was also pointed out that in a case presented to Sir Hugh Cairns and Mr. George Little in 1861, the question of the power of the delegate in this matter was submitted for their opinion. The answer was as follows: "We do not think that the powers of any delegate under the Thirteenth Section of the Deed Poll can be extended to the supplying of vacancies in the number of the Hundred, a subject which we think is to be dealt with under the provisions of the Fourth Section exclusively."

In the course of the discussion the question arose as to whether a vacancy in the Legal Conference can be filled before the Hundred declares that such vacancy exists (see Revised Regulations of the Conference, Minutes, 1913, p. 614).

All the points were carefully considered at the first meeting of the Committee. At its second meeting, when the Vice-President of the Irish Conference was again present, the whole question was reviewed. Many important subjects relating to the power of the delegate and the creation and declaration of vacancies in the Legal Conference were discussed.

It was finally resolved that the advice of the Committee to the Conference should be restricted to the one question of confirming the nomination of a member of the Irish Conference to the Legal Conference; and it was resolved that the Legal Hundred should be asked to confirm by a special vote any nomination of the Irish Conference, as in the case of those who are nominated in the Yearly Conference for membership in the Hundred.

APPENDIX XXVIII.

REVISED REGULATIONS IN REGARD TO THE CONSTITUTION, ETC., OF THE CONFERENCE, ADAPTED TO THE CHANGED ORDER OF CONFERENCE SESSIONS.

I. Relation of the Representative to the Pastoral Session of the Conference.

1. If any Resolutions shall be adopted by the Representative and Pastoral Sessions respectively, which, in the judgment of the President, are in conflict with each other, such Resolutions shall not be confirmed by the Legal Conference; but shall be reported accordingly to the respective Sessions of the next Conference (1889, p. 291).

2. The Conference in its Pastoral Session shall have power to consider and decide . . . all propositions for the calling out of additional Ministers which shall have received the sanction of the Conference in its Representative Session, so far as questions of finance are concerned.

3. The consideration and determination of all questions raised by any resolutions of District Synods, or by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings, or otherwise, shall come within the province of the Conference in its Pastoral or its Representative Session, according to the subject-matter thereof respectively.

4. In all cases in which there may be any doubt as to the Session of the Conference to which a matter belongs, the President shall decide.

II. The Representative Session of the Conference.

1. The Conference, when considering such matters as are hereinafter declared to be within the province of Ministers and Laymen, acting conjointly, shall consist of the President of the Conference and of 300 Ministers and 300 Laymen.

(1) The Ministerial members of the Conference, when the Lay Representatives are present, shall be, in addition to the President and all other members of the Legal Conference for the time being who shall have declared at the May Meeting of the District Synod their intention to attend the Conference:

(i) Any Assistant Secretary of the Conference who is not a member of the Legal Conference.

(ii) All Chairmen of Districts in Great Britain who are not members of the Legal Conference.

(iii) Eight Ministers in Full Connexion, stationed in Foreign Districts, who may be in England at the time of the sitting of the Conference, to be chosen by the Missionary Committee.

(iv) If in any year any Department would not, in the judgment of the Conference, be adequately represented by members of the Legal Conference, provision shall be made for the Ministerial Representation of such Department by the preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers only.

(v) The remaining Ministerial Members of the Conference, when composed of Ministers and Laymen, shall be elected at the Annual Meetings in May of the District Synods in Great Britain, as follows:

The Ministerial Members of each District Synod shall elect by ballot, after nomination, from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who may express their desire to attend the Conference, so many Ministers as were allocated by the preceding Conference to represent the District in the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen (1886, p. 199; 1890, p. 324).

N.B.—The newly elected members of the Legal Conference in each year shall be members of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen.

(2) No Layman shall be eligible as a Representative, whether elected annually by the Conference or by the May Meeting of the District Synod, unless he be a Member of Society of five years' continuous standing, and, at the time of his election by the Conference or nomination in the District Synod, a holder of office as a Trustee of Connexional Property, a member of a Circuit Quarterly Meeting, or a member of a District Synod. Any Layman nominated in a District Synod must be a Member of Society in some Circuit within that District. Duly qualified and elected women shall be eligible as Lay Representatives to the Conference.

(i) One-fifth of the Lay Representatives shall be elected annually by the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen. This number shall in all cases include the Lay Treasurers for the time being of the following General Connexional Funds, namely, the Missionary Society, the General Chapel Fund, the Ministers' Children's Fund in both its sections, the Home Mission Fund, the Theological Institution Fund, the Education Fund, the Auxiliary Fund, the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, the Extension of Methodism Fund, the National Children's Home and Orphanage, the London Mission, the Temperance Committee, the Local Preachers' Committee, and the Sunday School Department.

N.B.—In future appointments not more than one Lay Treasurer of any Connexional Fund shall be an ex officio Member of the Representative Session of the Conference. For the present the Treasurer of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund and of the London Mission, which are now united as "The London Mission and Extension Fund," shall be ex officio Members of the Conference (Minutes, 1909, p. 112).

One-third of the remaining number elected by the Conference shall retire annually, and the Lay Representatives so retiring shall not be immediately eligible for re-election by the Conference (1880, pp. 334, 335).

(ii) For the present, the election of the remaining Lay Representatives to the Conference shall be by the separate vote of the Laymen, taken by ballot after nomination, in the May Meetings of the District Synods; such nomination to be by the Lay Members only. The Circuit Stewards of each Circuit shall be called upon at the March Quarterly Meeting to declare their ability and willingness to attend the ensuing Annual Meeting of the District Synod in May, or the contrary. If they, or either of them, shall declare inability or unwillingness to attend the said District Synod, the Quarterly Meeting shall have the right of electing, by and from its own members by open vote or by ballot, after nomination by Lay Members of the Meeting, a Representative or Representatives, to supply the vacancy or vacancies so created (1893, p. 319).

(iii) The number of Laymen to be elected in each District shall be determined by each preceding Conference when consisting of Ministers and Laymen.

2. For Order and Form of Business to be transacted by the Conference, see Appendix XXIX.

3. The deliberations of the Conference, when consisting of Ministers and Laymen, shall be confined to the duly appointed members of that Conference; but any Minister permitted by the District Synod to attend the Conference when composed of Ministers only, may be present during the Sessions of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen; and the Lay Members of Connexional Committees may be present during the proceedings of the Conference when composed of Ministers and Laymen. Seats for the purpose shall be reserved for such Ministers and Laymen. The admission of any other persons shall be determined and arranged according to circumstances at the discretion of the Conference.

III. Formal Constitution of the Conference.

The constitution of the Conference shall be the first business of the Conference. The retiring President shall occupy the chair until his successor is elected.

A. Elections to the Legal Conference.

1. All vacancies in the Legal Conference caused by death, or by absence for two consecutive years without a dispensation, shall be declared at the first meeting of the Conference in its Representative Session, and such vacancies shall be filled up by election by the Legal Conference on the ground of seniority (1899, p. 241).

The election shall be based on a list of twelve ministers in full work, who have travelled not less than thirty-six years, such list to be the result of a ballot taken at the Pastoral Session of the previous year (Minutes, 1909, p. 361).

2. The declaration of vacancies caused by Superannuation shall be deferred until the Meeting of the Conference in its Pastoral Session, and such vacancies shall then be filled up by election by the Legal Conference after nomination (1899, pp. 241, 242).

3. In regard to these vacancies the Legal Conference shall formally declare by separate vote that certain Ministers, having been Supernumeraries for two years, and not having been Presidents of the Conference, cease to be members of the Legal Hundred, and that their places have to be filled up (Journal, 1877).

4. All ministers in Full Connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right of nominating, by ballot, any Preacher for admission into the number of the Hundred, and the Hundred shall be requested in such cases to elect the person so nominated as a Member of the Legal Conference. No person shall be so elected who has not travelled at least fourteen years (Journal, 1814, 1815, 1869).

5. Should the Conference, during its sittings, expel any Member of the Legal Hundred, another Minister to supply his place shall be immediately elected, after nomination in the usual form.

B. Nomination and Election of the President and Secretary.

1. All Ministers in Full Connexion permitted to attend the Conference, and being present in its Pastoral Session, shall have the right to vote in the nomination of the President and Secretary of the ensuing Conference.

2. The nomination of the President and Secretary shall be made by ballot vote by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference.

3. The number of one hundred Members of the Legal Conference having been completed by the filling up of vacancies caused by death, or by absence for two successive years without dispensation, the Legal Conference shall proceed to choose its President and Secretary.

4. The Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the person nominated to the office of President and the person nominated to the office of Secretary by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference (1899, p. 242).

5. If the Legal Conference shall at any time negative either of the nominations of the preceding Conference, the Ministers who are Members of the Conference in its Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister for the office in question; and the result of that nomination shall be submitted to the decision of the Legal Conference.

6. Should the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of President be declared by the Legal Conference at its first meeting, the Ministers who are Members of the Conference in its Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister to the office of President in the place of the Minister deceased or disqualified; and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

7. Should the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of Secretary be declared by the Legal Conference at its first meeting, the Ministers who are Members of the Conference in its Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall proceed by ballot vote to nominate another Minister to the office of Secretary in the place of the Minister deceased or disqualified; and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

8. If, in the event of the death or disqualification of the Minister nominated to the office of the President, the Minister nominated by the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference to the office of Secretary should be chosen to be President of the Conference, the Ministers who are Members of the Representative Session, being present in the Conference, shall nominate another Minister by ballot vote to the office of Secretary of the Conference, and the Legal Conference shall be requested to elect the Minister so nominated.

APPENDIX XXIX.

ORDER AND FORM OF THE BUSINESS OF THE CONFERENCE.

THE following is the ORDER OF BUSINESS, as appointed by the Conference, subject to such modification as may hereafter be found necessary or convenient.

(a) Before each Conference, the Stationing Committee shall meet in London in connexion with the Annual Meeting of the Home Mission Committee, and shall prepare and issue the First Draft of the Stations of Ministers. The Committee shall meet again in the Conference town on the Tuesday morning preceding the Representative Session and on the Saturday during the Pastoral Session.

(b) The Nomination Committee shall meet on the Wednesday afternoon, the day on which the Conference assembles.

I. Representative Session.

The Representative Session commences on the Wednesday of the first week of the Conference, at 6 o'clock p.m.

1. The formal constitution of the Legal Conference: (a) Calling the Roll; (b) Declaration of vacancies caused by death, or by absence for two successive years without a dispensation, and filling up of the same on the ground of seniority; (c) Election of President on the nomination of the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference; (d) Election of Secretary on the nomination of the Pastoral Session of the preceding Conference; (e) Granting dispensations to absentees.

N.B.—The above items of business are reserved to the Legal Conference.

(See Advertisement in Insurance Section.)

The Company was established in 1872, with the sanction and commendation of the Conference, for the insurance of Connexional property against loss by fire. Nearly nine-tenths of the entire trust property of the Connexion are insured in the Company. Insurances under the Workmen's Compensation Act 1906, etc., are now granted, and policies indemnifying Trustees and School Authorities in respect of accidents to Scholars, etc., are also issued. The whole of the profits are held in trust for the benefit of the Connexion, and grants, amounting altogether to £44,900, have been made to the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Fund. The Funds in hand exceed £130,000, being ten times the Annual Premium Income.

The Net Premium Income for the year ending July 15, 1914, was £12,794, and the Revenue from Interest and Dividends, etc., £5,068; total, £17,862. The total outlay for Losses, Expenses, etc., amounted to £7,007; and the Grant to the Worn-out Ministers' Fund to £2,900.

APPENDIX XXXIII.

REPORT ON EDUCATIONAL STANDARD FOR CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

The Conference in both Sessions received and adopted this Report.

Proposals submitted by the Committee in reference to the following Resolution of Conference :

> The Conference directs the Committee to consider the desirability of fixing an educational standard which shall be required of all Students entering the Theological Institution, and to suggest a method that may be adopted to meet the case of Candidates specially desirable on other grounds with a view to assist them to acquire the necessary qualification.—(Minutes of Conference, 1912, p. 63).

Attention is called to the fact that this is a resolution of the Conference in its Representative Session, and that it deals only with a standard to be fixed for admission to the Theological Institution. The question of receiving Candidates for the Ministry, although intimately connected with it, is a distinct issue and lies wholly within the sphere of the Pastoral Session of Conference.

Suggestions are made as to—

> The desirability of fixing a standard.
> The standard to be fixed.
> The method of assisting specially desirable candidates to reach the standard fixed.

1. The Desirability of Fixing an Educational Standard.

(1) It affords a test of the candidate's determination to prepare himself for his calling, and of power to apply himself to given subjects of study.

(2) It would greatly enhance the value of the course of study at the Colleges, saving much time and making possible a higher degree of educational efficiency ; in many cases it would approximate closely in value educationally to a fourth year of residence.

(3) The official statement of subjects set for examination has hitherto been vague: it has presented no definite point of attainment at which to aim.

(4) Experience has shown that the majority of really desirable candidates have quite sufficient natural ability to reach the proposed standard without undue hardship.

(5) Facilities for reaching such a standard are to-day easily within the reach of every prospective candidate.

(6) The attainment of an educational standard is the ordinary and well-understood requirement for admission to training for all the higher callings of life, particularly where any form of teaching is involved.

2. Syllabus for Standard Required.

(1) English Language, Literature, and History.

a. English Grammar and Analysis (Nesfield's Outline of English Grammar, 1s. 6*d.*)

A short English Essay.

b. General Outline of English Literature (Stopford Brooke's Primer, 1s.)

Shakespeare's Julius Cæsar and Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress.

c. English History.

The New Learning, The Reformation and Puritan England (J. R. Green's Shorter History, pages 297–586).

(2) Elementary Mathematics.

Arithmetic.

Algebra (Elementary).

The subjects of Euclid, Book I.

(3) Elementary Logic (Jevons' Primer of Logic, 1s.).

(4) A Science Subject (Elementary).

(5) Latin.

Macmillan's Shorter Latin Course by Cook, Pts. I. and II.

Cæsar: de Bello Gallico, Book V., chaps. 1–27.

(6) Greek.

Clapperton's First Steps in New Testament Greek, 1s. 6*d.* St. Mark, chap. iv.

(1) is compulsory for all Candidates taking this examination. From (2), (3), (4), (5), and (6), a Candidate shall select two subjects for examination.

N.B.—Candidates are strongly recommended to select (6) as one of their subjects, because of its importance in relation to the curriculum of the Theological Colleges, and to the whole work of the Ministry.

3. Recommendations.

(1) The examination to test a Candidate's ability to reach the standard fixed by the Conference shall be taken as the "A" section of the present Literary Paper set at the July Committee. A "pass" representing 50 per cent. of the total marks possible for that section shall ordinarily be required; but it is understood that all Candidates will appear before the July Committee, whose judgment on each shall be recorded.

(2) A Candidate who, having failed to reach the required educational standard, shows exceptional preaching power, may, after review of all the circumstances, be specially recommended by the July Committee.

(3) The Committee is not prepared at present to suggest to the Conference any method "to meet the case of Candidates specially desirable on other [than educational] grounds with a view to assist them to acquire the necessary qualification": but the Representative Session of the Conference is asked to appoint a Committee to consider the cases of such Candidates as shall need financial assistance, and to give advice upon the means of securing the education required.

(4) In order that no intending Candidates for the ministry may be put to a disadvantage the Conference directs that the foregoing regulations shall not come into operation until the meeting of the July Committee of 1916.

N.B.—1. The ministers in Departments, and those without Pastoral charge, are not included in the above Numbers and Assessments. The Assessment in these cases is £20 per minister.

2. In the case of the increase of the number of ministers in any five-yearly period the amount of the District Assessment shall be increased by the amount of the Assessment for each additional minister called out, but there shall be no decrease in the amount of the District Assessment during such period. (Minutes, 1884, p. 272.)

AN ALPHABETICAL LIST

OF THE

WESLEYAN METHODIST MINISTERS AND PROBATIONERS

IN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, AND ON THE COLONIAL AND FOREIGN STATIONS UNDER THE BRITISH CONFERENCE.

1. The figures in the first column mark the year in which each Minister entered on his work; those which immediately follow the name of the Circuit denote the number of the Circuit on the Stations, the Mission Stations being distinguished by a number in brackets; and the numbers which stand at the right of the third column denote the year of annual appointment.

2. This list has been compiled for the purpose of convenient reference; no pains have been spared to ensure accuracy, but it is not to be considered official.

WORKSOP CIRCUIT, DINNINGTON NEW WESLEYAN CHAPEL . .	Messrs. W. J. Morley & Son, F.R.I.B.A.

The following particulars regarding the Illustrations reproduced are inserted in the belief that they will be of considerable usefulness.

PROSPECT MISSION HALL, BRADFORD.

This Hall is in connexion with the Eastbrook Mission and will hold 1,000 people, together with large additional accommodation for School purposes. The total cost was about £6,000. The Architects were Messrs. W. J. MORLEY & SON, F.R.I.B.A., Swan Arcade, Bradford.

NEW CHURCH, ELLAND.

This Church is on the clerestory principle, with an arcade each side of the nave. The general effect is very impressive. All the seating is within the nave, and affords an uninterrupted view of the preacher. The choir is placed in the chancel, with an organ chamber each side, the organ being divided and operated from a central console. The design is in late Gothic style, and includes a massive tower and spire. The general treatment suggests strength and simplicity, with a richness of detail in the windows and other suitable places where by contrast its value is enhanced. The walls are built of Yorkshire stone, the roofs tiled, the woodwork, including seating, is in oak. Full provision is made for heating, lighting, and ventilation. The accommodation is for 550 people, and the contracts amount to £3,800. The Architects are Messrs. JOHN WILLS & SONS, Licentiates, R.I.B.A., M.S.A., of St. Peter's-Churchyard, Derby, and 22, Basinghall Street, London, E.C.

NEW CHURCH, FAILSWORTH, NR. MANCHESTER.

The existing Church is inadequate, and is being replaced by an up-to-date and larger structure which provides 800 sittings. A gallery is included, of slight projection and easy access. The building is entered through a fine central porch with triple arches flanked on each side by staircases. Over one of these a massive tower rises and forms an effective corner feature. The design throughout is suggestive of strength and simplicity, and the suitably placed ornament obtains increased value by contrast. The walls are of brick with stone dressings, and oak is proposed for the internal woodwork. Complete provision is made for heating, lighting, and ventilation, together with vestry and lavatory accommodation. The rear is linked up with the existing Schools. The estimated cost is £4,500. The Architects are Messrs. JOHN WILLS & SONS, Licentiates, R.I.B.A., M.S.A., of St. Peter's Churchyard, Derby, and 22, Basinghall Street, London, E.C.

WESLEYAN CHURCH AND SCHOOLS, GORSE HILL, STRETFORD, MANCHESTER.

The new buildings front Chester Road, Stretford. The complete scheme comprises a new Church, cruciform in plan, to seat about 900 adults on ground floor and in gallery, with vestries and large church parlour; also extension of present Sunday-school buildings, which, owing to the rapid growth of the neighbourhood, were found inadequate. The accommodation provided is for 650 in the assembly hall, with a range of six vestries, capable of seating 25 each, so arranged that by means of movable screens they can be thrown open to form part of the assembly hall, thus increasing the accommodation. The style of architecture chosen is Modern Gothic; Accrington bricks with stone-grey terra-cotta have been used for facing the walls. The roofs are slated and the windows glazed with leaded lights of cathedral tints. Internally the woodwork is of pitch-pine. The heating is on the low-pressure hot-water system with radiators. The cost of the Sunday-school portion recently erected is £1,800 and the Church will be about £5,000. Messrs. A. BROCKLEHURST & CO., of Palatine Bank Buildings, 10, Norfolk Street, Manchester, are the Architects.

CHURCH, SCHOOLS, AND INSTITUTE AT PALMER'S GREEN, LONDON, N.

An exterior view showing the three buildings, and an interior of the Church only is given. The buildings occupy a prominent site at the corner of Fox Lane and Burford Gardens. The plan of the Church gives a wide nave, with open timber roof and clerestory windows and a handsome traceried window in the front gable. The nave is separated from the aisles, which are for gangways only, by stone columns and arches, which are continued also across the double transepts on each side, these arches being of wider span, and the transepts having large traceried windows in each gable. There is a wide central gangway and two aisle gangways, each having wide entrance doors in front, and additional doors for exit are also provided in the transepts on each side, also another exit in the rear. Spacious vestibules are given in the front, all communicating. A staircase will eventually lead up in the tower to an end gallery. The apse opens into the nave by a bold moulded stone arch, supported by detached columns, the apse being semi-octagonal in plan, with the choir seats arranged around it. Two vestries, with a separate entrance and the usual offices. An organ chamber is at one side, and opens into the apse by two large arches and another arch into the transept, each being filled in by organ fronts. The Pulpit is on one side of the apse arch. The Church will seat about 816 in a mixed congregation, with provision for about 130 in a future end gallery. Space is left at the rear of the site for future extensions to the school premises, also for the erection of an institutional block of buildings. The contract amount is £6,430, exclusive of the upper portion of the tower. The buildings are faced with red bricks with stone dressings, the style being of a late period of Gothic in harmony with the schools erected a few years ago under the same Architects, Messrs. GEORGE BAINES & SON, F.R.I.B.A., M.S.A., 5, Clement's Inn, Strand, London, W.C., and Leeds.

NEW WESLEYAN CHURCH AND SCHOOLS, PINNER.

As the illustration indicates, the buildings occupy a commanding site with frontages to Avenue Road and Love Lane. They are well set back from the highways, and on Avenue Road side a handsome spire will rise to the height of 70 feet. The Church, which is cruciform on plan, will accommodate a congregation of 342 adults. The choir are placed in a chancel, on each side of which are minister's vestry and organ chamber. Behind the Church is arranged the Sunday School, which has an assembly hall capable of seating 300, three classrooms to seat 20 each, kitchen, and church parlour or lecture room to seat 70, all planned so as to be easily extended in the future. Ample entrances, vestibules, and lavatory accommodation are provided in the most convenient positions, and intercommunication between Church and School provided. Externally the building will be faced with best red pressed facing bricks, and the whole of the tracery windows and dressings will be in light stone-grey terra-cotta. All the windows will be glazed with leaded lights of cathedral tints. The roof will be on the hammer-beam principle, all in pitch-pine covered with tiles. The pulpit and pews are of special design in fumed oak. The heating will be by means of hot water on the lower-pressure system, with all modern improvements, and the ventilation is on the natural system. The cost of the Church will be about £3,000. Messrs. A. BROCKLEHURST & CO., of Palatine Bank Buildings, 10, Norfolk Street, Manchester, are the Architects.

WESLEYAN CHAPEL, DINNINGTON, IN THE WORKSOP CIRCUIT.

This Chapel is one of those to be built in the Colliery District, near Doncaster. It is designed to hold 500 people, and has a gallery on three sides. The School is already built. The cost will be about £3,000, which includes a number of additional classrooms for the schools. The Architects were Messrs. W. J. MORLEY & SON, F.R.I.B.A., Swan Arcade, Bradford.
